2014 SAG-AFTRA TELEVISION AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is made by and between SCREEN ACTORS GUILD-AMERICAN FEDERATION OF TELEVISION AND RADIO ARTISTS, hereinafter called the “Union” or “SAG-AFTRA,” and the ALLIANCE OF MOTION PICTURE AND TELEVISION PRODUCERS, hereinafter also referred to as the “AMPTP” or “Alliance,” acting on behalf of Producers who have authorized said Alliance to act on their behalf, a list of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 1, all of which constitute a multi-employer bargaining unit, each hereinafter called “Producer” and collectively referred to as “Producers.”

1. GENERAL

This Agreement, to be known as the “2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement,” sets forth minimum wage scales and working conditions for all performers employed in television motion pictures. As used herein, the term “performer” includes performers, singers, stunt performers, airplane pilots, stunt coordinators, professional puppeteers, body doubles and dancers covered under Schedule J of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement of 2014, but excludes background actors. This Agreement also sets forth minimum wage scales and working conditions for background actors employed on television motion pictures in the Hawaii, Las Vegas, Los Angeles, New York, San Diego and San Francisco zones, as defined in Schedule X, Part I and Schedule X, Part II and in a Sacramento zone, to be established by the parties as provided in Schedule X, Part I of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement, to the extent of the numerical limits set forth therein.

As used herein, the term “television motion pictures” means entertainment motion pictures produced primarily for exhibition over free television, motion pictures produced primarily for the pay television and/or the videodisc/videocassette markets (but only to the extent that such motion pictures are covered by the provisions of Section 78 of this Agreement) and dramatic television motion pictures produced for initial exhibition on a basic cable service whether made on or by film, tape or otherwise, and whether produced by means of motion picture cameras, electronic cameras or devices, or any combination of the foregoing, or any other means, methods or devices now used or which may hereafter be adopted.

For the avoidance of doubt concerning the scope of this Agreement, the parties confirm the following:

- (a) Performers and background actors employed on network prime time scripted dramatic television motion pictures shall be covered exclusively by this Agreement.
- (b) Network prime time dramatic programs broadcast live shall be covered by this Agreement.
- (c) The National Code of Fair Practice for Network Television Broadcasting (“Network Code”) is the exclusive agreement covering live programs (other than live network prime time dramatic programs), non-dramatic programs, including but not limited to variety, quiz and game, reality, talk, news and sports programs, and daytime serials.
- (d) Non-network or network non-prime time dramatic programs (other than daytime serials) made for broadcast are covered by this Agreement and the Network Code.
- (e) Book musicals are covered by this Agreement and the Network Code; however, the “Front of the Book” terms and conditions of the Network Code shall apply to book musicals, except that in the event that a Producer is not an Employer party to the AFTRA Health and Retirement Funds, the Producer shall make contributions to the SAG Pension and Health Plans (and IACF) as provided under this Agreement.
- (f) A Producer which is signatory to this Agreement shall have the option of becoming signatory to the Network Code or applying Sideletter G of this Agreement to produce programs covered by both the Network Code and this Agreement, or to produce book musicals.

Except as otherwise herein expressly provided, all terms and conditions of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement of 2014 (hereinafter referred to as the “Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement”) shall apply to this Agreement. Reference in this Agreement to “Schedules” relates to the Schedules of said Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement.

Except for a performer employed under the day performer exception referred to in the following paragraph, a performer employed under a freelance contract to perform a “major role,” as defined below, in an episode of a television series shall be paid no less than an amount equal to the daily minimum rate increased by ten percent (10%) multiplied by the number of days for which the performer is entitled to compensation pursuant to this Agreement.

Except for a performer employed for no more than one (1) day, excluding up to two (2) travel-only day(s), under a day performer contract, the minimum guarantee for a “major role” performer employed on a one-hour episodic series shall be eight (8) days of employment on such episode and for a performer employed on a one-half (½) hour episodic series shall be a minimum of five (5) days of employment on such episode.³

A “major role” performer is one who, as a part of his or her contractual arrangements for that employment, negotiates credit at the front of the show or negotiates credit on a separate card, or its equivalent in a crawl, at the back of the show or who negotiates credit in any of the following forms: “Guest Star;” “Special Guest Star;” “Starring;” or “Special Appearance By. ”

In agreeing to the definition of “major role performer” set forth above, the parties attempted to cover only the class of performers who traditionally received “top of the show” rates in the past. The parties did not intend to either expand or diminish the class of “major role performers.” The parties agree to monitor performers’ credits to ensure that this provision is applied consistent with their intention.

The parties also acknowledge that their agreement on this provision was originally negotiated in the context of the existing practice on network prime time shows (at that time, “network prime time” covered prime time on ABC, CBS and NBC only), and has now been extended to prime time series on FBC and The CW as well as to certain programs produced for pay television (see first paragraph of subparagraph (c) above), and was intended to apply in those contexts. As to other programs, such as programs produced for syndication (other than prime time series produced for The CW) or pay television, the parties recognize that no uniform rate has heretofore been established as a ceiling on performers’ compensation. However, if during the term of this Agreement, the Union believes that such a ceiling has been established as a matter of industry-wide practice on those other programs, it shall have the right to refer the matter to the Cooperative Committee for resolution. Likewise, if during the term of the Agreement, a Producer believes that a program produced for network prime time or for The CW in prime time is not appropriate because it is not of the type currently produced for network prime time television, it shall have the right to refer the matter to the Cooperative Committee for resolution.

The Producer in all cases may accelerate a starting date, without penalty, if the performer does not have a conflicting commitment.

(7) If more than thirteen (13) episodes are made in such twenty-five (25) week period, Producer may not credit the excess number against Producer's minimum obligation during the next employment period, subject however to Section 12 hereof.

(1) Performer shall be guaranteed employment in a number of additional episodes equal to the difference between the number of guaranteed episodes in the initial employment period and twenty-two (22) episodes.

(2) The employment period for such additional episodes shall commence not later than sixty (60) days after the completion of principal photography of the initial group.

(3) Performer shall be given not less than five (5) days' advance notice of the starting date of his services in such additional episodes.

(4) Producer shall be entitled to performer's services in such additional episodes for a work period determined as follows:

Multiply the number of episodes by the following time periods as applicable:

½-hour programs	1 workweek
1-hour programs	1 workweek and 1 day
1½-hour programs	1 workweek and 3 days
2-hour programs	2 workweeks

(5) The overall production period allowed for the production of the additional episodes shall be in the same proportion as the number of episodes guaranteed in the original production period bears to the original overall production period specified in the appropriate Section of this Agreement, as expressed in the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{Number of Guaranteed Episodes}}{\text{in Original Production Period}} = \frac{\text{Number of Guaranteed Episodes}}{\text{in Additional Production Period}} \\ \text{Original Overall Production Period} \qquad \qquad \qquad X (\text{new production period})$$

(b) In all forms of hiring in which less than thirteen (13) episodes are guaranteed by Producer in writing prior to start of services and in which Producer has completed the initial group of episodes, Producer shall have the right, once in each production year, to thereafter recall performer for services in additional episodes beyond those comprising the original group, provided that all of the following conditions are complied with:

1½-hour programs	1 workweek and 3 days
2-hour programs	2 workweeks

(5) The overall production period allowed for the production of the additional episodes shall be in the same proportion as the number of episodes guaranteed in the original production period bears to the original overall production period specified in the appropriate Section of this Agreement, as expressed in the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{Number of Guaranteed Episodes}}{\text{in Original Production Period}} = \frac{\text{Number of Guaranteed Episodes}}{\text{in Additional Production Period}} \times (\text{new production period})$$
$$\frac{\text{Original Overall Production Period}}{\text{}}$$

(c) Whenever Producer notifies performer of an additional group of episodes to be produced, it may extend the work time and float time on a pro rata basis for any extra episodes which may be added to the additional group, provided such notice is given prior to expiration of the overall production time calculated as provided above.

12. SERIES CONTRACTS - MORE THAN THIRTEEN (13) EPISODES GUARANTEED IN FIRST EMPLOYMENT PERIOD

The following shall apply with respect to "series contracts -- thirteen (13) episodes guaranteed" as provided in Sections 5, 7, 9(a) and 10(a) above.

For one-hour pictures, the overall period shall be in the same proportion to the number of guaranteed episodes as twenty-two (22) is to sixteen (16);

For one and one-half hour pictures, the overall period shall be in the same proportion to the number of guaranteed episodes as twenty-five (25) is to twenty-one (21);

For two-hour pictures, the overall period shall be in the same proportion to the number of guaranteed episodes as thirty-one (31) is to twenty-six (26).

13. SERIES CONTRACTS - ONE (1) HOUR OR MORE (TWO (2) OR MORE SERIES PRESENTED IN A COMBINED SERIES FORMAT (e.g., “NBC MYSTERY MOVIE”))

In those instances in which Producer receives an initial order for less than thirteen (13) episodes in cases in which the network plans to broadcast two (2) or more different series presented in a combined series format during a given broadcast year, Producer shall have the right to employ the performer for six (6) episodes or all episodes initially ordered in the subject series, whichever number is greater. Such employment shall be on the basis of the following minimums, work time and overall production period:

Minimum Per Episode[†]

	7/01/14- 6/30/15	7/01/15- 6/30/16	7/01/16- 6/30/17	Work Time Per Episode	Overall Production Period (in calendar weeks)

If the guaranteed number of episodes exceeds six (6), the overall period shall be extended proportionately.

14. SERIES CONTRACTS - $12,000 OR MORE PER EPISODE

(a) With respect to performers whose employment contracts provide for payment of $12,000 or more per episode, Producer shall be entitled to work time and overall production period per episode as follows:

15. TERM CONTRACTS

(a) A term contract is a contract under which a performer is employed for television motion pictures and/or High Budget SVOD Programs (as defined in Paragraph E.2. of Sideletter H), or television motion pictures and/or High Budget SVOD Programs (as defined in Paragraph E.2. of Sideletter H) and theatrical motion pictures (in which case such contracts are sometimes referred to as “combination term contracts”), which contract is for a term of at least ten (10) out of thirteen (13) weeks, and may not specify any role, picture or series, unless otherwise requested by the performer and approved by the Union. The Union agrees it will liberally grant waivers in the event of such request. The Producer and the performer may agree on any overall term of hiring in excess of ten (10) guaranteed weeks, provided that the guaranteed number of weeks is in the same proportion to the overall period as “ten (10) out of thirteen (13).”

(b) Term contract performers (other than beginners):

(1) Minimum salary rate:[†]

	7/01/14- 6/30/15	7/01/15- 6/30/16	7/01/16- 6/30/17
If performer is guaranteed ten (10) but no more than nineteen (19) weeks	$2,620 per week	$2,699 per week	$2,780 per week
If performer is guaranteed twenty (20) or more weeks	$2,182 per week	$2,247 per week	$2,314 per week

(2) Use in television series in a continuing role:

a) If a performer is used in a continuing role in a one-half hour television series, he shall be adjusted for the duration of such services to the series contract salaries and applicable rerun, theatrical and foreign telecast rates under this Agreement.

b) If a performer is used in a continuing role in a one-hour, one and one-half hour or two-hour television series, he shall be adjusted for the duration of such services to the weekly freelance salary rate and applicable rerun, theatrical and foreign telecast rates under this Agreement; it being understood in this connection that such adjustment shall not result, with respect to his services in any episode in such series, in his receiving less than a week's freelance salary.

c) If Producer uses the performer in a greater number of episodes than the number of weeks of employment guaranteed under this provision (2), or in a combination of this provision and provision (3) below, the performer shall be paid the weekly freelance salary and applicable rerun, theatrical and foreign telecast rates for each additional episode in which his services are used. If the performer is employed beyond the guaranteed period of employment, he shall be paid an amount equal to the weekly freelance salary for each additional week or episode, whichever is the greater.

(3) Use in television episodes - not continuing role:

a) A term performer who is guaranteed a minimum of twenty (20) out of twenty-six (26) weeks who works in a television episode or episodes, but who does not have a continuing role in a series, shall not be used in more than fifteen (15) television episodes during such period. If he is used in more than fifteen (15) such episodes, he shall be paid an additional week's salary and applicable rerun, theatrical and foreign telecast rates for each such additional episode.

b) A term performer who is guaranteed a minimum of ten (10) out of thirteen (13) weeks, who works in a television episode or episodes, but who does not have a continuing role in a series, and who is used in more than seven (7) such episodes, shall be paid an additional week's salary and applicable rerun, theatrical and foreign telecast rates for each such additional episode.

c) If such performer is used beyond the guaranteed period of employment, he shall be paid an amount equal to his weekly salary for each additional week or episode, whichever is greater.

d) For all such term performers who do not appear in a continuing role, the applicable rerun, theatrical and foreign telecast rates per episode shall be based on the applicable weekly rate.

(c) Except as herein provided, the provisions of Schedule E or F (excluding Section 2(b) of Schedule E), depending upon the performer's weekly salary, shall govern term contract employment.

(d) All options attached to term contracts shall be for consecutive periods, except that the Producer may be allowed to take one hiatus period not to exceed thirteen (13) weeks at any time subsequent to the expiration of the original term, and not more than one (1) such period during each fifty-two (52) week period. During such hiatus period, the performer shall be free to engage in any other work, subject to any agreement as to exclusivity permitted under Section 23 hereof. The following examples will show the operation of the hiatus period:

(1) If the performer's contract is for a term of twenty-six (26) weeks with an option for an additional term of twenty-six (26) weeks and the layoff provisions of the first twenty-six (26) week term were not used, the Producer, by written notice to the performer, may elect to declare a hiatus of not more than thirteen (13) weeks before exercising its option for the second twenty-six (26) week term. If the hiatus is declared, the layoff provision may not be used in the remaining thirteen (13) week period of employment of said second twenty-six (26) week term.

(2) If the performer's contract is for a term of twenty-six (26) weeks with an option for an additional term of twenty-six (26) weeks, the Producer, by written notice to the performer, may elect to declare a hiatus of not more than thirteen (13) weeks during either the first thirteen (13) weeks or the last thirteen (13) weeks of such additional twenty-six (26) week term. However, the hiatus may not be declared if the layoff provisions of the contract were used in the first twenty-six (26) week term or in the first thirteen (13) weeks of the additional twenty-six (26) week term. In the event no layoff took place in the first twenty-six (26) week term and the hiatus is declared for the first thirteen (13) weeks of the additional twenty-six (26) week term, the layoff provisions may not be used for the second thirteen (13) weeks of the additional twenty-six (26) week term. During the remaining thirteen (13) weeks of such term, the performer shall be guaranteed employment at not less than the minimum rate fixed herein for employment of performers under a twenty-six (26) week term contract. However, after declaring such hiatus, the Producer, if it elects to exercise the next option at the minimum rate provided for a twenty-six (26) week term contract, must either guarantee twenty (20) weeks' employment with no hiatus period or may elect to take a hiatus within such twenty-six (26) week term, in which event the minimum rates for employment under a thirteen (13) week term contract will apply and Producer must refrain from using the layoff provisions in the thirteen (13) week employment period.

(3) In the event layoffs have been used and thereafter Producer desires to use the hiatus provisions, he may do so by compensating performer for the layoff periods which have been previously used. Under no circumstances may two (2) hiatus periods be consecutive. It is the purpose of this provision to guarantee to the performer that as long as his term contract remains in effect and options are exercised thereunder, he will be employed for not less than forty (40) weeks out of fifty-two (52) weeks during each fifty-two (52) week period if layoff provisions are used, or thirty-nine (39) weeks out of fifty-two (52) if the hiatus provision is used, it being the intent of the parties to make the layoff provisions and the hiatus provisions mutually exclusive.

(e) Other conditions:

(1) If a performer employed under a term contract performs, in any single "employment" week during such term, services in "rehearsals" or "recordings" or before the camera, in both a television motion picture film hereunder and a theatrical motion picture film under the then existing Theatrical Agreement, such performer shall receive as additional compensation for such week an amount not less than the applicable weekly term contract minimum.

(2) If a performer under a term contract renders services in any single "employment" week in principal photography in either a television motion picture or a theatrical motion picture and also renders services in such week in retakes, added scenes, sound track, process shots, transparencies, trick shots, trailers, changes or foreign versions of the photoplay (hereinafter referred to as "retakes, etc."), in the other field, such performer shall be paid, in addition to his weekly term contract salary, one-fifth (1/5) of the minimum term contract weekly rates for each day on which he renders services on such retakes, etc.

(3) If the performer renders services in any week in both a television motion picture and a theatrical motion picture, he shall be paid as provided in this subsection (e), even though he is also placed on layoff at any time during such week.

(4) If a performer who is on layoff is recalled for retakes, etc., in either television motion pictures or theatrical motion pictures, or both, he shall be paid one-fifth (1/5) of the minimum term contract weekly rates for each day in each field on which he renders such services.

(5) If a performer renders services in either a television motion picture or a theatrical motion picture in any week and also renders services in retakes, etc., in the same week in the other field, and is placed on layoff prior to the end of such week, he shall be paid, in addition to the weekly salary due, an amount equal to one-fifth (1/5) of the minimum term contract weekly rates for each day on which he renders services in such retakes, etc.

(6) When a performer employed under a term contract renders services in any week in both theatrical motion pictures and television motion pictures, for the purpose of determining whether Schedule E or Schedule F applies, and making the computations therein, the performer's weekly salary for such week shall be deemed to be his aggregate weekly salary, as herein provided.

(7) If the performer received more than $4,400 per week, he may agree to apply any sums he received in excess of $4,400 per week toward such additional compensation provided in this subsection (e).

(f) Money Break

For term contract performers, the money break figure is $4,400 per week. Overtime for such performers over such money break shall be governed by Section 25.

(g) A separate clause shall be inserted in all term contracts, specifying separate compensation for services, reruns, theatrical exhibition, foreign telecasting, Supplemental Markets and basic cable use for each contract term or option period.

(h) Stunt performers shall not be employed under term contracts.

(i) Beginners (as defined in Section 6 of Schedule E of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement):

(1) Rates:[†]

	7/01/14- 6/30/15	7/01/15- 6/30/16	7/01/16- 6/30/17
For the first six (6) months	$1,177 per week	$1,212 per week	$1,248 per week
For the second six (6) months	$1,313 per week	$1,352 per week	$1,393 per week

(2) A beginner used by Producer in a television motion picture shall be adjusted to the non-beginner's applicable term contract rates and adjustments, if any, herein provided for the time he performs such services in such television motion picture and to the applicable rerun, theatrical and foreign telecast rates.

(3) If Producer uses a beginner in a theatrical motion picture produced by Producer, or in which Producer has a financial interest, the performer shall remain a beginner.

(4) Loan-outs:

A beginner loaned out to a television Producer for a television motion picture in which Producer has no financial interest shall be paid the television freelance rate during the time he performs such services, and applicable rerun, theatrical and foreign telecasting rates. When he returns to Producer, he returns as a beginner.

A beginner who is loaned out to a television Producer for a television motion picture in which Producer has a financial interest shall be paid at the minimum rates set forth in Section 15(b)(1) hereof for the time he performs such services, and applicable rerun, theatrical and foreign telecasting rates. When he returns to Producer, he returns as a beginner.

[†] See Appendix A for rates applicable to performers employed on a "Legacy Exhibit A Series."

If Producer is engaged in the production of television motion pictures only, then a beginner loaned out by it to another Producer for a theatrical motion picture shall be adjusted to the non-beginner's theatrical term rate for the time he performs such services.

16. PROGRAMS LONGER THAN TWO (2) HOURS

- (a) Performers may not be employed under multiple-picture weekly contracts in pictures over two (2) hours in length.
- (b) Performers may not be employed under series contracts in pictures longer than two (2) hours unless minimum rates and conditions are agreed upon in negotiations between the Union and the Producer. In the event such Producer is a member of the Alliance of Motion Picture and Television Producers, such negotiations and agreement shall be between the Union and such Alliance.

17. FORMS OF HIRING AND DELIVERY OF CONTRACTS

- (a) All employment of performers in television motion pictures shall be under one of the forms of hiring specified herein. Options in series or term contracts may be written either in the customary form or in the form of a right of cancellation at designated intervals.
- (b) Employment contracts may be delivered to performers while on the set, not later than the first day of employment. Performers may not be required to sign contracts on the set. Delivery to a performer's agent constitutes delivery to the performer.
- (c) Attached hereto as Exhibits B, C and D are standard forms for use in employing Day Performers, Three-Day Performers, and Weekly Freelance Performers, respectively. In individual cases, the Producer may add provisions which are permitted under this Television Agreement.

(d) With regard to Day Performers and Freelance Performers (not including series performers) (Schedules A, B, C, G, H and I):

- (1) To the extent that the agreement reached between the Producer and the performer can be reflected on the form required by the collective bargaining agreement plus Producer's standard riders to be filed with the Union, Producer shall deliver a copy of such contract to the performer not later than the first day of performer's employment.

When the agreement cannot be so reflected, Producer shall deliver a copy of such contract to the performer not later than the first day of performer's employment or four (4) business days after such agreement has been reached, whichever is later.

(2) When Producer chooses to deliver a copy of a contract to the performer on the set, an extra copy for retention by the performer shall be provided.

(3) Liquidated damages in the amounts provided in Section 27(b) hereof for late payment shall be payable until a written contract is delivered to the performer.

(4) The foregoing shall not apply to Schedule F performers.

18. ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION FOR RERUNS AND FOREIGN TELECASTS

(a) The salary paid to the performer for his services in a television motion picture shall constitute payment in full for the telecasting of such motion picture once in each city in the United States and Canada in which any television broadcasting stations are now located and once in each city in the United States and Canada in which any television broadcasting stations are hereafter for the first time established.

(b) Rerun Formula in the United States and Canada

A television motion picture which has been telecast not more than once in any city in the United States and Canada is in its first run. A television motion picture which has been telecast more than once, but not more than twice, in any city in the United States and Canada, is in its second run. A similar test applies in determining when a television motion picture is in its third and succeeding runs.

If the Producer desires to acquire the right to telecast any television motion picture for more than one (1) run in the United States and Canada, the employment contract of each performer engaged therein shall contain a separate provision for additional compensation for reruns, which shall be not less than the amounts set forth below:

Programs made under the 2011 Screen Actors Guild Television Agreement, i.e., prior to July 1, 2014, for exhibition in the 2014-15 season, shall be governed by the ceilings set forth in Section 18(b)(1)b) below; however, said ceilings shall not apply to employment under existing series employment agreements with respect to the 2014-15 season. Such employment shall be governed by the terms of the 2011 Screen Actors Guild Television Agreement.

(1) Reruns in Network Prime Time

a) Performer shall be paid one hundred percent (100%) of his “total actual compensation” for each such rerun, not exceeding the ceilings set forth in subparagraph (b)(1)b) of this Section 18.

b) The ceilings (maximum rerun payments) for each television motion picture shall be as follows:

	7/01/14- 6/30/15	7/01/15- 6/30/16	7/01/16- 6/30/17
½ hour program	$2,477	$2,527	$2,578
1 hour program	3,525	3,596	3,668
1½ hour program	3,523	3,593	3,665
2 hour program	3,795	3,871	3,948
Over 2 hour program	4,338	4,425	4,514

c) When applicable, the provisions of Section 18(b)(3) shall apply in lieu of this provision.

(2) Reruns in Syndication and in Non-Prime-Time Network Exhibition⁵

a) The provisions of subparagraphs (b)(2)b), c), d), e) and f) below shall apply to reruns in syndication and in non-prime time network exhibition, except that:

(i) Residuals for one-hour network prime time dramatic episodic television programs released in syndication, for one-hour dramatic episodic programs made for “late night” network broadcast released in syndication and for one-hour dramatic episodic programs made for network prime time which are rerun on “late night” network television shall be governed by the provisions of Sideletter B;

(ii) Residuals for long-form dramatic television motion pictures made for network prime time and released in syndication or on “late night” network television and for long-form dramatic television motion pictures made for “late night” network television and released in syndication shall be governed by the provisions of Sideletter B-1;

(iii) Residuals for one-half hour series syndicated in markets representing in the aggregate fifty percent (50%) or fewer of U.S. television households may be governed by the provisions of Sideletter B-2; and

(iv) When applicable, the provisions of Section 18(b)(3) shall apply in lieu of this provision.

For the purpose of subparagraphs (b)(2)a)(i) and (ii) above, “late night” shall begin at 11:00 p.m. in the Eastern and Pacific time zones (10:00 p.m. in the Central and Mountain time zones) and end at 6:00 a.m. in the Eastern and Pacific zones (5:00 a.m. in the Central and Mountain time zones).

b) Second runs and third runs when such runs include telecasting of a television motion picture over a television network, but not in prime time and not during “late night” hours as defined above:

(i) For the second run, performer shall be paid fifty percent (50%) of his total applicable minimum salary.

(ii) For the third run, performer shall be paid forty percent (40%) of his total applicable minimum salary.

c) All runs not covered in Section 18(b)(1), Section 18(b)(2), Sideletter B, Sideletter B-1 nor Sideletter B-2, attached, shall be paid in accordance with the following: Reruns of television motion pictures, whether made under this Agreement or any prior Screen Actors Guild Television Agreement, which occur on or after July 1, 2014 on “late night” network television, as defined above, shall also be paid in accordance with the following, provided that all performers employed on such motion pictures were employed under residual terms and conditions not less favorable to the performer than those provided under the applicable Television Agreement.⁶

⁶ Should SAG-AFTRA enter into an agreement with ABC, CBS or NBC with respect to the provisions governing reruns on “late night” network television on terms other than as above provided, it shall advise the AMPTP, in writing, of the terms of such agreement within ten (10) days after ratification. The AMPTP shall have the right to elect such terms in lieu of those provided herein by giving written notice to SAG-AFTRA within thirty (30) days after receipt of SAG-AFTRA’s written notice.

(i) For the second run, performer shall be paid forty percent (40%) of his total applicable minimum salary.

(ii) For the third run, performer shall be paid thirty percent (30%) of his total applicable minimum salary.

(iii) For the fourth run, performer shall be paid twenty-five percent (25%) of his total applicable minimum salary.

(iv) For the fifth run, performer shall be paid twenty-five percent (25%) of his total applicable minimum salary.

(v) For the sixth run, performer shall be paid twenty-five percent (25%) of his total applicable minimum salary.

(vi) For the seventh run, performer shall be paid fifteen percent (15%) of his total applicable minimum salary.

(vii) For the eighth run, performer shall be paid fifteen percent (15%) of his total applicable minimum salary.

(viii) For the ninth run, performer shall be paid fifteen percent (15%) of his total applicable minimum salary.

(ix) For the tenth run, performer shall be paid fifteen percent (15%) of his total applicable minimum salary.

(x) For the eleventh run, performer shall be paid ten percent (10%) of his total applicable minimum salary.

(xi) For the twelfth run, performer shall be paid ten percent (10%) of his total applicable minimum salary.

(xii) For the thirteenth and each and every run thereafter, performer shall be paid five percent (5%) of his total applicable minimum salary for each and every such run.

d) EXAMPLES: COMPUTATION OF PERFORMER APPLICABLE MINIMUM SALARY (STUDIO WORKWEEK) FOR RERUNS IN SYNDICATION AND NON-PRIME-TIME, NON-“LATE NIGHT” NETWORK EXHIBITION (based on rates effective 7/01/14 through 6/30/15)

(i) Day performer employed for three (3) days at $900.00 per day - total applicable minimum salary $2,640.00 (3 times $880.00);

(ii) Freelance performer employed for one (1) week at $3,100.00 - total applicable minimum salary $3,053.00;

(iii) Freelance performer employed for a week and two (2) days at $3,100.00 per week - total applicable minimum salary $4,274.20;

(iv) Performer employed under a freelance contract for two (2) pictures per week for a one-half hour or one-hour show at a salary of $3,000.00 per picture, works one (1) week - total applicable minimum salary $2,262.00 per picture. If, for example, performer works a week and three (3) days, total applicable minimum salary would become $3,619.20 per picture;

(v) Performer employed under a series contract, one-half hour programs with thirteen (13) episodes guaranteed at $3,250.00 per episode - total applicable minimum salary $3,053.00 if no additional work days utilized;

(vi) Performer employed under a series contract, one-half hour programs with at least seven (7), but less than thirteen (13), episodes guaranteed at $3,600.00 per episode - total applicable minimum salary $3,495.00 if no additional work days utilized;

(x) Performer employed under a 10-out-of-13 week term contract at $2,700.00 per week and not in a continuing role in a series - total applicable minimum salary $2,620.00.

e) If Producer licenses a television motion picture (including a program or series made for basic cable, a program or series made for the pay television and/or videodisc/videocassette market that is covered by Section 78(b)(1)a) of this Agreement or a program or series made for The CW, but excluding any other program or series made for syndication) for exhibition in syndication only in Canada, and residuals would otherwise be payable for that exhibition, it shall have the option to pay to the Union, for rateable distribution to the performers, twelve percent (12%) of Distributor's gross receipts (as defined in Section 5.2.E. of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement of 2014) derived therefrom, in lieu of any other compensation required under this Agreement or any prior Agreement, as applicable, and such exhibition shall not count as a "run" for purposes of calculating residuals. Applicable pension and health/health and retirement contributions are required in addition to the foregoing payment. The foregoing applies to television motion pictures as to which free television residuals would otherwise be payable, whether produced under an agreement with SAG-AFTRA negotiated on or after June 30, 2014 or under any agreement with SAG, AFTRA or SAG-AFTRA negotiated prior to June 30, 2014.

f) With respect to a free television motion picture covered under Sideletter B or Sideletter B-1 to this Agreement, which waives the provisions of Section 18(b)(2) of the Television Agreement, any monies received by the Producer from distributions by the Copyright Royalty Tribunal for such television motion picture shall be included in the numerator of the multiplier contained in Sideletter B or Sideletter B-1, as applicable.

(3) Promotional Launch Period

The parties agree to the following for the purpose of encouraging the success of new dramatic free television series produced for a network or for The CW or My Network TV. No residual compensation shall be due to series contract or term contract performers under this Section 18 nor under Section 18.1 for the second run (which may be either on free television or basic cable) of the first three (3) episodes broadcast (which may include the pilot) during the first production season, provided the second run occurs within a two (2) month period following the initial exhibition of each program. If such second run is on free television, it shall not constitute a "run" for purposes of Section 18(b) of this Agreement. Producer shall be obligated to report any such run to the Union as required under this Section 18, notwithstanding the fact that no payment shall be due therefor.

The Producer may not utilize this provision at any time after the series has been cancelled.

(4) Definitions

a) “Total actual compensation” is defined as all original compensation for time worked or guaranteed, whichever is the greater, (i) including overtime hours worked, but excluding any premium portions of pay for such overtime hours and (ii) excluding also all penalties and allowances.

Example: A day performer at $880 a day works twelve (12) hours. The ninth and tenth hours will be included at straight time, but the additional half-time premium shall not be included; the eleventh and twelfth hours shall likewise be included at straight time only, but the additional full-time premium shall not be included.

b) The “total applicable minimum salary” is the total minimum salary for the type of contract under which the performer was employed for the period of the performer’s employment in the television motion picture.

Total applicable minimum salary for stunt performers shall be determined in the same manner as above described, but based on stunt performers’ minimums, except that when a stunt performer performs in two (2) or more pictures under a multiple-picture weekly contract, his other total applicable minimum salary shall be based on the per-picture rate applicable to performer’s services. For example, if a stunt performer at $4,000 per week works in two one-half hour pictures in a week, his total applicable minimum salary shall be $2,262.00 per picture (the applicable rate effective 7/01/14 through 6/30/15).

(5) The Producer shall pay, as provided herein, for each respective rerun not later than four (4) months after the first telecast of the respective rerun in any city in the United States. However, in the event any rerun is telecast on a television network (or on a regional television network) or on The CW, the Producer shall make the appropriate rerun payment not later than thirty (30) days after the telecast of such rerun.

(6) The telecasting of a picture over a television network shall mean the telecast of such picture over the network facilities of ABC, CBS, Fox Broadcasting Company (“FBC”) or NBC, or any other entity which qualifies as a “network” under Section 73.662(f) of the rules of the Federal Communications Commission, unless the FCC determines that such entity is not a “network” for purposes of such Section. A picture shall not be deemed telecast over a television network when it is telecast (i) on any single regional network presently established, or (ii) when it is telecast on any single regional network which may hereafter be established and which does not include New York, Chicago or Los Angeles.

(7) The above formula is a minimum formula and nothing herein shall preclude any performer from bargaining for better terms with respect to such reruns.

(8) For telecasts in the United States and Canada of a television motion picture, whenever produced, as to which free television residuals would otherwise be payable, in a language or languages other than English, which telecasts occur after the effective date of this Agreement, the performer(s) shall be paid an aggregate amount equal to 3.6% of the gross receipts derived by the Producer from licensing such television motion picture (which amount shall include pension and health contributions), in lieu of any rerun payment otherwise required. Unless the program is dubbed outside of the United States, it will be dubbed under rates (including payments for rights to free non-network television exhibition) and conditions not less favorable than those provided under the SAG-AFTRA Dubbing Agreement.

(9) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if a substantial portion of a program or an element essential to the program is not shown because the program is interrupted due to governmental regulation or order, or by a strike, or by the failure of program transmission facilities because of war or other calamity such as fire, earthquake, hurricane, or similar acts of God, or because of the breakdown of program transmission facilities due to causes beyond the reasonable control of the Producer, or because the program time is preempted by a Presidential broadcast, a news emergency, or a special news event, the interrupted program may be re-exhibited in its entirety on the service on which the exhibition was interrupted within a thirty (30) day period following the interrupted exhibition without the Producer incurring any additional payment to any performer(s) in the program.

(c) Foreign Telecasting Formula

(1) If the Producer desires to acquire the right to telecast any television motion picture in any part of the world outside the United States and Canada, the employment contract of each performer engaged therein shall contain a separate provision for additional compensation for such foreign telecasting which shall call for an initial payment of not less than fifteen percent (15%) of his total applicable minimum salary payable not later than thirty (30) days after Producer obtains knowledge of the first foreign telecast, and in no event later than six (6) months after the first foreign telecast, and the payment of the sums referred to in subparagraphs (c)(2), (3) and (4) below.

(2) When the Distributor's Foreign Gross, as defined herein, of any such television motion picture has exceeded $7,000 for a one-half hour picture, $13,000 for a one-hour picture, or $18,000 if such picture is one and one-half hours or more in length, the performer shall be entitled to the payment of not less than an additional ten percent (10%) of his total applicable minimum salary payable not later than thirty (30) days after such gross has been so exceeded.

(3) When the Distributor's Foreign Gross of any such television motion picture has exceeded $10,000 for a one-half hour picture, $18,000 for a one-hour picture, or $24,000 if such picture is one and one-half hours or more in length, the performer shall be entitled to the payment of not less than an additional ten percent (10%) of his total applicable minimum salary payable not later than thirty (30) days after such gross has been so exceeded.

(4) After performer has received a total of thirty-five percent (35%) of his total applicable minimum salary with respect to any picture, all performers in the aggregate shall be paid three and six-tenths percent (3.6%) of the Distributor's Foreign Gross in excess of:

- a) $365,000 in Distributor's Foreign Gross for one-half (½) hour programs;
- b) $730,000 in Distributor's Foreign Gross for one (1) hour programs;
- c) $1,860,000 in Distributor's Foreign Gross for programs more than one (1) hour in length but not more than two (2) hours in length;
- d) $3,120,000 in Distributor's Foreign Gross for programs more than two (2) hours in length but not more than three (3) hours in length; and
- e) $4,170,000 in Distributor's Foreign Gross for programs more than three (3) hours in length but not more than four (4) hours in length;

f) $5,210,000 in Distributor's Foreign Gross for programs more than four (4) hours in length but not more than five (5) hours in length;

g) $6,250,000 in Distributor's Foreign Gross for programs more than five (5) hours in length but not more than six (6) hours in length; and

h) for programs more than six (6) hours in length, the above applicable thresholds will increase proportionately.

For programs that are originally exhibited in more than one (1) part, the applicable threshold levels referred to in subparagraphs a) through h) above shall be applied to each part of the program as originally exhibited, irrespective of the manner in which the program is exhibited on foreign television.

For the purpose of this subparagraph (4), Distributor's Foreign Gross shall include absolute gross income realized by the distributor on account of foreign telecasting and exhibition on foreign basic cable.

In order to preserve the status quo in Section 18.1, payment of the thirty-five percent (35%) of applicable minimum under the foreign telecasting formula continues to constitute payment for foreign basic cable; provided, however, that foreign basic cable receipts shall apply to "Distributor's Foreign Gross" for purposes of reaching the thresholds in and determining the amount the performers shall be paid pursuant to subparagraphs a) through h) above.

The performers shall receive such additional monies pursuant to the payment provisions of Section 5.2.G. of the General Provisions of the Codified Basic Agreement, except that payment and reporting shall be due within sixty (60) days after the close of the second and fourth calendar quarters of each year in which the Producer receives "Distributor's Foreign Gross" for the picture or at such other time as may be agreed upon in writing by the parties.

(5) The provisions of this subsection (c) shall apply with respect to all television motion pictures produced on or after July 1, 2014. The provisions of prior Screen Actors Guild Television Agreements shall continue to apply to all television motion pictures produced during the term of those respective Agreements.

(6) The term "foreign telecasting," as used herein, shall mean any telecast (whether simultaneous or delayed) outside the United States, its commonwealths, territories and possessions and Canada, other than a telecast on any of the following regularly affiliated stations of a United States television network as a part of the United States network television telecast: ZBM, Pembroke, Bermuda for CBS and NBC; ZBF, Hamilton, Bermuda for ABC; and XETV, Tijuana, Mexico for NBC.

(7) As used herein, the term "Distributor's Foreign Gross" shall mean, with respect to any television motion picture, the absolute gross income realized by the distributor of such picture from the foreign telecasting thereof and including, in the case of a "foreign territorial sale" by any such distributor, the income realized from such sale by such distributor but not the income realized by the "purchaser" or "licensee." The phrase "absolute gross income" shall not include:

a) Sums realized or held by the way of deposits or security, until and unless earned, other than such sums as are non-returnable.

"Such sums as are non-returnable" are to be included in the "Distributor's Foreign Gross" when such television motion picture is "available" and "identifiable" and the amount of the non-returnable sum is "ascertainable."

(i) Such television motion picture is "available" when the first of the following occurs:

(A) The product first may be exhibited or otherwise exploited by a specified method of distribution and in a territory under the terms of the applicable license or distribution agreement, or

(B) It first may be sold or rented by a retailer under the terms of the applicable license or distribution agreement.

(ii) Such television motion picture is "identifiable" when the Producer first knows or reasonably should have known that a given television motion picture is covered by a particular license or distribution agreement for its exploitation in the applicable market.

(iii) The amount of the non-returnable sum is "ascertainable" if:

(A) the non-returnable sum is for one television motion picture, means of exhibition, and territory, or

(B) the total amount of the non-returnable sum is for more than one motion picture, means of exhibition and/or territory, in which case the Producer shall fairly and reasonably allocate such sum among the licensed motion pictures, exhibition markets and/or territorial markets.

As each of these pictures becomes identifiable and available, the allocated portion of the non-returnable sum is to be included in "Distributor's Foreign Gross" for that quarter. The Producer shall notify the Union of its allocation when the report of "Distributor's Foreign Gross," which includes the non-returnable sum, is to be filed. The Union has the right to challenge in an arbitration a failure to allocate or any allocation that it contends is not fair and reasonable.

If such television motion picture is available in any territory or by any means of exhibition, and is identifiable and the amount of the non-returnable sum is ascertainable, but the Producer does not provide the Union with the information required by this Agreement and applicable law, then the non-returnable sum shall be deemed includable in "Distributor's Foreign Gross" no later than six (6) months after the Producer receives it.

A non-returnable sum received by a Producer's parent, subsidiary or any other related or affiliated entity or successor-in-interest, or by any other entity to which the payment is directed by the Producer or license or distribution agreement, shall be considered as a non-returnable sum received by the Producer.

b) Sums required to be paid or withheld as taxes, in the nature of turnover taxes, sales taxes or similar taxes based on the actual receipts of the picture or on any monies to be remitted to or by the distributor, but there shall not be excluded from Distributor's Foreign Gross any net income, franchise tax or excess profit tax or similar tax payable by the distributor on its net income or for the privilege of doing business.

c) Frozen foreign currency until the distributor shall have either the right to use such foreign currency in or to transmit such foreign currency from the country or territory where it is frozen. In the event such currency may be utilized or transmitted as aforesaid, it shall be deemed to have been converted to United States dollars at the prevailing free market rate of exchange at the time such right to use or transmit accrues.

Distributor's Foreign Gross realized in foreign currency in any reporting period required hereunder shall be deemed to be converted to United States dollars at the prevailing free market rate of exchange at the close of such reporting period.

If any transaction involving any picture subject to a foreign telecast payment under this Agreement shall also include motion pictures, broadcast time, broadcast facilities or material (including commercial or advertising material) which are not subject to such payment, there shall be a reasonable allocation between the television motion pictures which are subject to a foreign telecast payment and such other pictures, time, facilities or material, and only the sums properly allocable to pictures which are subject to a foreign telecast payment shall be included in Distributor's Foreign Gross.

(8) The above formula for foreign telecasting is a minimum formula and nothing herein shall preclude any performer from bargaining for better terms with respect to such foreign telecasting.

(9) Foreign Residuals - One-Hour Network Prime Time Dramatic Series and One-Hour Dramatic Programs Made for "Late Night" Network Broadcast

Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 18(c)(1), (2) and (3) above, the 15%, 10% and 10% of applicable minimum compensation payments provided in Section 18(c)(1), (2) and (3), respectively, shall be collapsed into a single payment of 35% of applicable minimum compensation, payable not later than thirty (30) days after the Company obtains knowledge of the first foreign telecast, and in no event later than six (6) months after the first foreign telecast for one-hour network prime time dramatic series and one-hour dramatic programs made for "late night" network broadcast.

(d) Advance Payment for Residuals

Each contract between the Producer and the performer shall contain a separate provision for such additional compensation for reruns or foreign telecasts. There shall be the following limitations on advance payment for television reruns or foreign telecasts:

(1) The Producer may not make any payment to a day performer or term contract performer for reruns or foreign telecasts at any time prior to the time of the use for which payment is made.

(2) As to employment agreements covering all other performers, the performer may agree to an advance payment for reruns or foreign telecasts provided the advance payment is separately listed and is paid in addition to the salary, which is separately and specifically set forth as salary (not including advances) in the performer's contract and, provided further, that the salary at which advance payments which are additional for network prime time reruns is permitted shall be no less than the following:

Program Length	Salary Per Week or Per Episode
1 hour or longer	$11,000

(3) Other. For all other residual purposes (e.g., syndication, non-prime-time network, theatrical and foreign), the salary at which advance payment is permitted shall be $8,000 per week or per episode ($9,000 per week or per episode with respect to contracts entered into on or after July 1, 2015).

(e) All payments of additional compensation for reruns, theatrical exhibition or foreign telecasts shall be made promptly by check, payable to the order of the performer entitled thereto, and if not initially paid to the performer, shall be delivered to SAG-AFTRA for forwarding to such performer and compliance herewith shall constitute payment to the performer. Upon such delivery, Producer shall have no further obligation with respect to such payment nor shall Producer have any right, title or interest in or to such payment. The Producer shall accompany such checks with a statement of the title of the film and the use for which such payment is made.

(1) Network

Except as provided in subparagraph (e)(3) below, with respect to network television exhibition, in the event Producer shall fail to pay such additional compensation when and as the same becomes due and payable, the Producer shall pay late payment charges in the amounts provided in Section 27(b) herein until such additional compensation is paid.

(2) Syndication and Foreign Telecast

Except as provided in subparagraph (e)(3) below, with respect to syndication and foreign telecasting, in the event Producer fails to pay such additional compensation within ten (10) days from the date of a notice in writing to Producer from the Union, a late payment penalty shall accrue at the rate of one percent (1%) per month from the date of delinquency.

(3) The late payment charges set forth in subparagraphs (e)(1) and (2) above shall not apply:

a) To motion pictures produced by Qualified Residual Payors, Qualified Distributors and Qualified Buyers, and motion pictures, the residuals for which are guaranteed or assumed by a Qualified Residual Payor, Qualified Distributor or Qualified Buyer. These motion pictures shall continue to be subject to the rules on payment of liquidated damages set forth in the 1995 Agreement;

b) To residuals payable in connection with the purchase of libraries. The Producer shall give notice to the Union in such cases. The Producer shall assist the Union in its endeavor to obtain compliance with any residual obligations which accrued prior to the date of the purchase. The Union shall cooperate with the Producer in furnishing records or verifying previous payments to enable the Producer to begin making residual payments accruing on and after the date of the purchase as expeditiously as possible;

c) To performers omitted from the final cast list. As to these performers, the Producer shall investigate and respond to a claim from the Union that a performer has been omitted from the cast list with a final position within thirty (30) days following receipt of notice of the claim from the Union. If, as a result of its investigation, the Producer determines that the performer is owed the residual payment, payment shall also be made within said thirty (30) day period. If payment is due and the Producer fails to pay within the thirty (30) day period, then late payment liquidated damages shall accrue as of the date of the original notice from the Union initiating the claim.

d) In the event of bona fide disputes. In such event, there will be no late payment charge during the pendency of the dispute provided that the Producer pays the undisputed amount on time.

In no event shall the total late payment penalty with respect to any performer exceed one hundred percent (100%) of the amount owing to such performer.

The foregoing provisions shall not preclude the Producer from recovering an erroneous payment. If there is a dispute over the amount due the performer, and Producer pays the undisputed amount on time, or if there is a bona fide dispute as to the Producer's liability therefor, there will be no late payment charge during the pendency of the dispute.

The Producer shall keep or have access to (i) complete records showing all cities in the United States and Canada in which all television motion pictures subject to this Agreement have been telecast and the number of telecasts in each such city, the television stations on which telecast, and the dates thereof, and (ii) complete records showing Distributor's Foreign Gross for such pictures to the extent that such records are pertinent to the computation of payments for foreign telecasting. Producer shall also keep or have access to such records as are necessary for the computation of additional compensation for reruns and foreign telecasts for so long as such rerun or foreign telecast payments may be due or payable. SAG-AFTRA shall have the right, at all reasonable times, to inspect such records. The undersigned shall give SAG-AFTRA prompt written notice of the date on which each television motion picture covered hereby is first telecast in any city in the United States and Canada for the second run and for each subsequent run thereafter.

With respect to each television motion picture which is distributed for foreign telecasting, Producer shall furnish reports to SAG-AFTRA and the Alliance of Motion Picture and Television Producers showing Distributor's Foreign Gross derived from such motion picture until:

(A) such picture has been withdrawn from distribution for foreign telecasting, or

(B) all of the performers in such picture have received the full additional payments for such foreign telecasting to which they are entitled pursuant to subsection (c) above.

Such reports shall be rendered to the Union on a semi-annual basis for as long as payments are due for foreign telecasting of each television motion picture hereunder. Producer agrees to cooperate in responding to reasonable requests from the Union as to whether any picture is currently being distributed for foreign telecasting.

An inadvertent failure on the part of the Producer to comply with the reporting provisions of this Section shall in no event constitute a default by the Producer or a breach of this Agreement, provided such failure is cured promptly after notice thereof from the SAG-AFTRA.

(f) If a performer's individual employment contract contains a provision giving such performer a percentage or other participation in the receipts, revenues or profits of the television motion picture, such payment shall be credited against the minimum additional compensation for reruns and foreign telecasts provided herein, but the performer, in any event, shall be entitled to be paid not less than such minimum additional compensation for reruns and foreign telecasts, and any payment on account thereof shall likewise be credited against such participation. However, unless such rerun and foreign telecasting payments have been exceeded by profit participation payments, rerun payments shall be due and payable as provided in subsection (b)(4)b) of this Section 18 and foreign telecasting payments shall be due and payable as provided in subsection (c) of this Section 18 and any such payments shall likewise be credited against such participation. There shall be no duplication of crediting under this subsection (f), Section 18.1, Section 19(g), Section 20 and Section 20.1.

(g) The provisions of this Section shall not apply with respect to any performer in connection with a rerun or foreign telecast if no part of the performer's performance is used in the film as rerun or foreign telecast.

(h) Reporting - Domestic Syndication

Producer, or such distributor as shall be engaged by Producer, shall be required to include in all future sales or license agreements between Producer and domestic television stations a provision for the benefit of the Union requiring each such station to which product is sold to report playdates of each episode exhibited, quarterly to the Union and to Producer. The right of the Union as third party beneficiary of such sales or license agreements shall be only with respect to the obligation of the television station to provide the Union with such information, and not otherwise. The foregoing is applicable to existing product produced prior to the effective date hereof.

(i) The provisions of this Section 18 are not applicable to stunt coordinators nor body doubles.

18.1 EXISTING TELEVISION PRODUCT TO BASIC CABLE

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 18(b)(3) above, upon release, on and after July 1, 2014, to basic cable of product initially produced for free television, as to which free television residuals would otherwise be payable, Producer shall pay to the Union, for rateable distribution to the performers, the following percentage of distributor's gross receipts:

With respect to free television motion pictures produced prior to July 1, 1984, said percentage shall be seven and one-half percent

(7.5%); with respect to free television motion pictures produced on or after July 1, 1984, said percentage shall be six percent (6%). The foregoing percentages are inclusive of pension and health contributions.

With respect to distributor's gross receipts from the release to basic cable of free television motion pictures produced on or after July 1, 1998, pursuant to license agreements entered into on or after July 1, 2001, said percentage shall be six percent (6%), plus applicable pension and health contributions in accordance with the provisions of Section 22 of this Agreement. No IACF contributions shall be due in connection with such payments.

The term "upon release," as used in the first paragraph of this Section 18.1, means that the television motion picture product is available, which is when it first may be exhibited in basic cable pursuant to the terms of a license or distribution agreement.

"Basic cable," as used in this Agreement, means one (1) or more basic cable systems which do not meet the definition of "pay television" (as set forth in this Agreement) and wherein the release on basic cable is a separate release and not part of a free television broadcast.

(b) Payments for television motion pictures released to basic cable shall be made within sixty (60) days following the close of each fiscal or calendar quarter in which revenue for same is received.

(c) The provisions of this Section 18.1 are not applicable to body doubles nor are they applicable to stunt coordinators employed on a television motion picture, the principal photography of which commenced prior to June 10, 2009. Stunt coordinators shall participate in the rateable distribution to performers with respect to television motion pictures produced under this Agreement or under the 2009 or 2011 SAG Television Agreements, the principal photography of which commences on or after June 10, 2009, and television motion pictures produced under Exhibit A of the 2011 Network Code, the principal photography of which commenced on or after July 1, 2011.

(d) The late payment provisions in Section 18(e)(2) and (3) above shall apply to payments required under this Section 18.1, except for checks under $10.00.

(e) The parties recommend that the Trustees of the Industry Advancement and Cooperative Fund develop a method for reimbursing Producers for payment of certain claims arising out of inadvertent omissions from final cast lists and other cast list adjustments occasioned by the change in this residual payment formula.

(f) The parties may agree in writing to change the time of payment requirements for payments due pursuant to Section 18.1 of the Television Agreement.

18.2 RATEABLE DISTRIBUTION OF RESIDUAL PAYMENTS BASED UPON A GROSS RECEIPTS FORMULA

The Producers agree to apply the following rateable distribution formula to the payment of residuals which are based upon a gross receipts formula for all episodes of free television series, whether produced under this Agreement or any prior Screen Actors Guild Television Agreement, in connection with revenues received on or after July 1, 2002. Under this rateable distribution formula, any series performer whose performance is used in the episode shall be assigned three (3) units; any weekly freelance performer whose performance is used in the episode shall be assigned two (2) units; and any other performer (including a day performer, three-day performer or a performer employed under Exhibit A) whose performance is used in the episode will be assigned one (1) unit.

An Implementation Committee shall be established for the purpose of addressing problems arising in connection with the implementation of the new rateable distribution formula. In addition, the parties shall recommend that the Trustees of the Industry Advancement and Cooperative Fund develop a method for reimbursing Producers for payment of certain claims arising out of inadvertent omissions from final cast lists and other cast list adjustments occasioned by the change in the rateable distribution formula for television motion pictures.

19. ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION FOR THEATRICAL RIGHTS

(a) The rights granted to the Producer in a television motion picture shall be limited (except as provided in Sections 20 and 20.1) to the right to exhibit such motion picture over free television anywhere. If the Producer desires to acquire the right to exhibit a television motion picture in theatrical exhibition anywhere in the world, such rights shall be the subject of individual bargaining between the Producer and the performers appearing therein in accordance with the following provisions:

(b) For the purposes of this Section 19, the United States, its commonwealths, territories and possessions and Canada shall be deemed a single geographical area and all other countries as a separate geographical area.

(c) The employment contract of the performer shall contain a separate provision for additional compensation for such theatrical rights, which shall be not less than the following:

(1) If theatrical exhibition takes place in either of the geographical areas specified in subparagraph (b) above, the additional compensation payable: a) with respect to a day performer, the day performer's total applicable minimum; and b) with respect to all other performers, the freelance performer's total applicable minimum.

(2) If theatrical exhibition takes place in both of the geographical areas specified in subparagraph (b) above, one hundred percent (100%) of the total applicable minimum shall be paid for each such area.

(3) In any event, the initial payment for theatrical exhibition in either of such geographical areas shall be one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the total applicable minimum; the extra fifty percent (50%) shall constitute a prepayment against the payment due for theatrical exhibition in the other area. Upon the later theatrical exhibition in such other area, the balance of such payment required under subparagraph (2) above shall be paid to the performer.

(4) Total applicable minimum is the total minimum salary for the type of contract under which the performer was employed for the period of the performer's employment in the television motion picture.

(5) As an alternative to the provisions of subparagraph (c)(1), (2), (3) and (4) above, for a limited theatrical release of a long-form television motion picture, the Producer shall pay fifty percent (50%) of "total applicable minimum," as that term is defined in subparagraph (4) above, to each performer appearing in the motion picture for release in each of the areas described below:

a) Zone 1 - includes the Americas (excluding the United States and Canada) and the Caribbean Islands;

b) Zone 2 - includes all European countries (including the United Kingdom) except those covered in Zone 4 below;

c) Zone 3 - includes the Far East, Australia and New Zealand;

d) Zone 4 - includes all other countries not covered in Zones 1, 2 or 3, including the Middle East, Eastern Europe, Africa and the former Soviet Republics (but excluding the United States and Canada).

Producer shall accompany its payments pursuant to this provision with a detail of the zones in which the television motion picture has been released theatrically.

(In the event that payment is made for theatrical release in three (3) or more of the foregoing zones and the Producer elects to release the television motion picture for theatrical exhibition in the United States, Producer shall make an additional payment of fifty percent (50%) of "total applicable minimum" to each performer appearing in the theatrically-released version.)

SAG-AFTRA will in good faith consider adjustments in these zones on a case-by-case basis.

These special residual provisions for long-form television motion pictures shall automatically terminate on June 30, 2017.

(6) The above formulae are minimum formulae and nothing herein shall preclude a performer from bargaining for better terms with respect to such theatrical rights.

(d) Limitation on advance payment of theatrical release compensation:

(1) The Producer may not make any payment to a day performer or term contract performer for theatrical exhibition at a time prior to the time of such theatrical exhibition.

(2) As to all other performers, when the salary for the performer's services provided in the performer's contract is $8,000 or more per week or per episode ($9,000 or more per week or per episode for contracts entered into on or after July 1, 2015), the performer may agree to an advance payment for theatrical exhibition, provided the same is separately stated and is paid in addition to such salary provided in the performer's contract.

(e) Such additional compensation for theatrical rights shall be payable not later than ninety (90) days after such television motion picture is first placed in theatrical exhibition anywhere in the world.

(f) All payments of such additional compensation for theatrical rights shall be made promptly by check, payable to the order of the performer entitled thereto, and if not initially paid to the performer, shall be delivered to SAG-AFTRA for forwarding to such performer and compliance herewith shall constitute payment to the performer. If Producer fails to pay such additional compensation when due and payable, Producer shall pay a late payment penalty of one percent (1%) per month on the unpaid balance commencing to accrue from the date of such delinquency.

Nothing contained herein shall preclude the Producer from recovering an erroneous payment. If there is a dispute over the amount due the performer, and Producer pays the undisputed amount on time, or if there is a bona fide dispute as to the Producer's liability therefor, there will be no late payment charge during the pendency of the dispute.

(g) If a performer's individual employment contract contains a provision giving such performer a percentage or other participation in the receipts, revenues or profits of the television motion picture, such payment shall be credited against the minimum additional compensation for theatrical rights provided herein, but the performer in any event shall be entitled to be paid not less than such minimum additional compensation and any payment on account thereof shall be credited against such participation. There shall be no duplication of crediting under this subsection (g), subsection (f) of Section 18, Section 18.1, Section 20 and Section 20.1. Unless theatrical rights payments have been exceeded by profit participation payment, performer shall be paid as provided in (e) above, and any such payments shall likewise be credited against such participation.

(h) Subject to the provisions of (d) above, the provisions of this Section 19 shall apply to all television motion pictures produced under this Agreement.

(i) The provisions of this Section shall not apply with respect to any performer in connection with a theatrical use if no part of the performer's performance is used in the film as theatrically exhibited.

(j) The provisions of this Section are not applicable to stunt coordinators nor body doubles.

(k) When a pilot or an episode of a series which has not ended its initial run is exhibited theatrically for promotional purposes, no admission fee is charged and no remuneration is received by the Producer or the Producer's licensee in consideration for the use of the motion picture, no payment shall be due hereunder. SAG-AFTRA agrees to give good faith consideration to any request for a waiver of the payment due under this Section 19 in any other circumstance when no monies are paid to the Producer or the Producer's licensee in consideration for the use of the motion picture.

(l) When a television motion picture is exhibited at a film festival or a charitable event and an admission fee is charged, but no monies are paid to the Producer or the Producer's licensee in consideration for the use of the motion picture, no payment shall be due hereunder.

20. SUPPLEMENTAL MARKETS EXHIBITION OF TELEVISION MOTION PICTURES, THE PRINCIPAL PHOTOGRAPHY OF WHICH COMMENCED AFTER JULY 20, 1952 BUT PRIOR TO JULY 21, 1980

Television motion pictures produced under a prior Screen Actors Guild Television Agreement, the principal photography of which commenced after July 20, 1952 but prior to July 21, 1980, which are released by Producer for exhibition in "Supplemental Markets," as that term is defined below, anywhere in the world, shall be governed by the provisions relating to additional compensation payable to performers for exhibition of television motion pictures in Supplemental Markets of the applicable Television Agreement under which such pictures were produced. However, for purposes of such provisions of such Agreements, the term "Supplemental Markets" shall be defined as hereinafter provided and the term "Distributor's gross receipts" shall be defined as hereinafter provided.

(a) Definition of Supplemental Markets

The term "Supplemental Markets," as used in this Section 20, and for purposes of Section 20.1, means only: The exhibition of television motion pictures by means of cassettes (to the limited extent provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (a), or Pay Television, as those terms are hereafter defined in this paragraph (a), and the exhibition of television motion pictures on any commercial carrier such as commercial airlines, trains, ships and buses (referred to herein as "in-flight").

The rights granted to the Producer in a television motion picture shall include the right to exhibit such motion picture in Supplemental Markets. This right shall exist not only with respect to television motion pictures produced during the term of this Agreement, but also with respect to all television motion pictures produced by the Producer under prior collective bargaining agreements between Producers and the Union from and after July 21, 1952, subject to any restrictions provided in any performer's individual employment contract.

(1) Cassettes:

For the purpose of this Section 20, and for purposes of Section 20.1, a cassette is any audio-visual device, including, without limitation, cassette, cartridge, phonogram or other similar audio-visual device now known or hereafter devised, containing a television motion picture (recorded on film, disc, tapes or other material) and designed for replay through a television receiver or comparable device. The sale or rental of cassettes for replay through a television receiver or comparable device in the home or in closed-circuit use, such as in hotel rooms, constitutes "Supplemental Markets."

(2) Pay Television:

The term "pay television," as used in this Section 20, and for purposes of Section 20.1, shall mean exhibition on a television screen in the home by means of a telecast, cable, closed-circuit, satellite to home or CATV where substantially all systems to which the program is licensed meet the following tests:

- a) a separate channel is provided for which the subscriber pays a separate fee (which fee is a major charge relative to other charges made to the subscriber) for that channel;

and/or

- b) the subscriber pays for the motion picture or motion pictures selected (except that a motion picture or motion pictures selected for which only a token charge is made shall not be considered pay television);

and/or

- c) the subscriber pays a fee for an encoded telecast, which fee is a major charge relative to other fees paid for encoded telecasts.

The foregoing tests cover those types of services and systems which exist in the industry today and are commonly understood in the industry today to be pay television services or systems.

The term “pay television,” as used in this Section 20, and for purposes of Section 20.1, shall also include the exhibition of television motion pictures through a television receiver or comparable device by means of telecast, cable, closed circuit, satellite or CATV for which the viewing audience (whether by the individual viewer or by the hotel, motel, hospital or other accommodation where the viewer is) pays to receive the program by making a separate payment for such specific program. Exhibition in theatres or comparable places by such means is theatrical exhibition and shall not be considered pay television.

The term “Supplemental Markets” does not include the exhibition of a television motion picture by cassette or otherwise over a television broadcast station or in theatrical exhibition. Subject to Section 18.1, the exhibition of motion pictures made for free television exhibition on “basic cable” is considered free television exhibition, as distinguished from “Supplemental Markets” exhibition.

(b) Definition of Distributor's Gross Receipts

(1) For purposes of calculating Supplemental Market fees due from the distribution of television motion pictures to “pay television,” as defined above, the term “Distributor's gross receipts” shall mean the worldwide total gross receipts derived by the distributor (who may be the Producer or a distributor licensed by the Producer) from licensing the right to exhibit such picture on “pay television,” as defined above; provided, however, that in the case of any such picture which is produced outside of the United States, if such picture is subject to this Agreement and if such production is under an arrangement (herein referred to as a “foreign production deal”) pursuant to which a foreign producer or distributor provides or guarantees any of the financing for the production of such picture or furnishes any other consideration for such production and a foreign distributor acquires one or more foreign territories for the distribution of such picture in Supplemental Markets, then no monies from any such distribution in any such foreign territory shall be included in “Distributor's gross receipts” except to the extent such foreign producer or foreign distributor is obligated to account to Producer or to the distributor of such picture for such monies, and except for gross receipts received by such foreign distributor from such distribution in the United Kingdom.

If the distributor of such picture does not distribute such picture directly in Supplemental Markets, but employs a subdistributor to so distribute such picture, then the “Distributor’s gross receipts” shall be the worldwide total gross receipts derived by such subdistributor from licensing the right to exhibit such picture in Supplemental Markets. In case of an outright sale of the Supplemental Markets distribution rights for the entire world, or any territory or country, the income derived by the seller from such sale, but not the income realized by the purchaser or licensee of such rights, shall be the “Distributor’s gross receipts.” If any such outright sale shall include Supplemental Markets exhibition rights and other rights, then (but only for the purpose of the computation required hereunder) the Producer shall allocate to the Supplemental Markets exhibition rights a fair and reasonable portion of the sales price which shall, for the purpose hereof, be the “Distributor’s gross receipts.” In reaching this determination, Producer may consider the current market value of Supplemental Markets exhibition rights in comparable motion pictures.

If the Union shall contend that the amount so allocated was not fair and reasonable, such claim may be determined by submission to arbitration as herein provided; and in the event the Arbitrator shall find that such allocation was not reasonable and fair, he shall determine the fair and reasonable amount to be allocated. If the outright sale includes Supplemental Markets distribution rights to more than one (1) motion picture, Producer shall likewise allocate to each such picture a fair and reasonable portion of the sales price of the Supplemental Market rights; and if the Union contends that such allocation is not fair and reasonable, the question may be determined by submission to arbitration as provided herein. If the Arbitrator shall find that such allocation was not fair and reasonable, the Arbitrator shall determine the fair and reasonable amount to be so allocated to each such picture. Nothing with respect to the price received on the outright sale of only Supplemental Markets distribution rights in a single such picture shall be subject to arbitration except that, in the event of a dispute, there may be arbitrated the question of whether the price reported by the Producer to the Union as having been received by the Producer on such outright sale is less than the amount actually received by the Producer on such outright sale.

(2) For purposes of calculating Supplemental Markets fees due from the distribution of television motion pictures on “cassettes,” as defined above, the term “Distributor’s gross receipts” is defined as follows:

a) If the Producer is the Distributor or the Distributor is owned by or affiliated with the Producer, the “Distributor’s gross receipts” derived from the distribution of such picture by “cassettes” shall be twenty percent (20%) of the worldwide wholesale receipts derived by the Distributor. In such cases, if the Distributor is also the retailer, a reasonable allocation of the retail gross receipts shall be made as between the Distributor as distributor and the Distributor as retailer, and twenty percent (20%) of the former only shall be deemed to be "Distributor's gross receipts." The reasonableness of such allocation shall be subject to arbitration, and in such arbitration, generally prevailing trade practices in the cassette industry with respect to dealings between non-related companies shall be relevant evidence.

b) If the Distributor is not the Producer and is not owned by or affiliated with the Producer, the "Distributor's gross receipts" shall be one hundred percent (100%) of the fees received by the Producer from licensing the right to distribute such picture by cassette.

c) In case of an outright sale of the Supplemental Markets distribution rights for the entire world, or any territory or country, the income derived by the seller from such sale, but not the income realized by the purchaser or licensee of such rights, shall be the "Distributor's gross receipts." If any such outright sale shall include Supplemental Markets exhibition rights and other rights, then (but only for the purpose of the computation required hereunder) the Producer shall allocate to the Supplemental Markets exhibition rights a fair and reasonable portion of the sales price which shall, for the purpose hereof, be the "Distributor's gross receipts." In reaching this determination, Producer may consider the current market value of Supplemental Markets exhibition rights in comparable motion pictures.

(3) The "Distributor's gross receipts," as that term is used in subsections (b)(1) and (2) above, shall not include:

a) Sums realized or held by way of deposit as security, until and unless earned, other than such sums as are non-returnable;

b) Rebates, credits or repayments for cassettes returned (and, in this connection, the Producer shall have the right to set up a reasonable reserve for returns);

c) Sums required to be paid or withheld as taxes, in the nature of turnover taxes, sales taxes or similar taxes based on the actual receipts of such motion picture or on any monies to be remitted to or by the Producer or such other distributor; but there shall not be excluded from "Distributor's gross receipts" any net income tax, franchise tax or excess profit tax or similar tax payable by the Producer or such Distributor on its net income or for the privilege of doing business;

d) Frozen foreign currency until the Producer shall either have the right to freely use such foreign currency, or Producer or Distributor has the right to transmit to the United States to Producer or Distributor such foreign currency from the country or territory where it is frozen. If such currency may be utilized or transmitted as aforesaid, it shall be deemed to have been converted to United States dollars at the rate of exchange at which such currency was actually transmitted to the United States as aforesaid or, if not actually transmitted, then at the prevailing free market rate of exchange at the time such right to use or to transmit occurs. Frozen foreign currency shall be deemed to be unblocked on the basis of "first in, first out" unless otherwise allocated by local foreign fiscal authorities. Allocation of such unblocked funds, as between revenue which serves as the basis of determining payments hereunder and other revenue, shall be on a proportional basis, subject to different earmarking by local foreign fiscal authorities.

(4) Allocation of Gross Receipts

If any agreement for distribution in Supplemental Markets includes more than one (1) television motion picture, or includes both Supplemental Markets rights and other rights, the Producer shall make a reasonable allocation for the purpose of determining payments hereunder. If the Union contends that such allocation is not reasonable, then such claim shall be submitted to arbitration under Section 50 of this Agreement.

(5) A "non-returnable advance" is to be included in "Distributor's gross receipts" when a television motion picture subject to the Supplemental Markets provisions of this or any prior Television Agreement is "available" and "identifiable" and the amount of the advance payment is "ascertainable."

a) Such television motion picture is "available" when the first of the following occurs:

(i) The product first may be exhibited or otherwise exploited by a specified method of distribution and in a territory under the terms of the applicable license or distribution agreement, or

(ii) It first may be sold or rented by a retailer under the terms of the applicable license or distribution agreement.

b) Such television motion picture is “identifiable” when the Producer first knows or reasonably should have known that a given motion picture is covered by a particular license or distribution agreement for its exploitation in the applicable market.

c) The amount of the advance payment is “ascertainable” if:

(i) the advance is for one television motion picture, means of exhibition, and territory, or

(ii) the total amount of the advance is for more than one motion picture, means of exhibition and/or territory, in which case the Producer shall fairly and reasonably allocate such advance among the licensed motion pictures, exhibition markets and/or territorial markets.

As each of these pictures becomes identifiable and available, the allocated portion of the non-returnable advance is to be included in “Distributor’s gross receipts” for that quarter. The Producer shall notify the Union of its allocation when the report of “Distributor’s gross receipts,” which includes the advance, is to be filed. The Union has the right to challenge in an arbitration a failure to allocate or any allocation that it contends is not fair and reasonable.

d) If such television motion picture is available in any territory or by any means of exhibition, and is identifiable and the amount of the advance is ascertainable, but the Producer does not provide the Union with the information required by this Agreement and applicable law, then the advance shall be deemed includable in “Distributor’s gross receipts” no later than six (6) months after the Producer receives it.

e) An advance received by a Producer’s parent, subsidiary or any other related or affiliated entity or successor-in-interest, or by any other entity to which the advance payment is directed by the Producer or license or distribution agreement, shall be considered as an advance payment received by the Producer.

(6) The provisions of this Section shall not apply with respect to any performer in connection with use in Supplemental Markets if no part of the performer’s performance is used in the film as released in Supplemental Markets.

20.1 ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION - SUPPLEMENTAL MARKETS; TELEVISION PROGRAMS, THE PRINCIPAL PHOTOGRAPHY OF WHICH COMMENCED ON OR AFTER OCTOBER 6, 1980⁷

Payment for Supplemental Markets exhibition of television motion pictures, the principal photography of which commenced on or after October 6, 1980, shall be at the same percentage and computed in the same manner as payment for Supplemental Markets exhibition of theatrical motion pictures, as specified in Section 5.2 of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement of 2014. However, the term “Supplemental Markets,” for purposes of this provision, shall be as defined in Section 20 of this Agreement. Body doubles shall not be eligible to participate in Supplemental Markets payments due pursuant to this Section 20.1. Stunt coordinators shall not be eligible to participate in Supplemental Markets payments due pursuant to this Section 20.1 with respect to television motion pictures, the principal photography of which commenced prior to June 10, 2009, but shall be eligible to participate in such payments with respect to television motion pictures produced under this Agreement or under the 2009 or 2011 SAG Television Agreements, the principal photography of which commences on or after June 10, 2009, and television motion pictures produced under Exhibit A of the 2011 Network Code, the principal photography of which commenced on or after July 1, 2011.

21. RESPONSIBILITY FOR PAYMENT OF RESIDUALS - DISTRIBUTOR'S LIABILITY AND PRODUCER'S LIABILITY

With respect to all television motion pictures produced hereunder or under a prior Screen Actors Guild Television Agreement, the principal photography of which commenced on or after October 6, 1980 and which are rerun on free television or which are released to basic cable, in Supplemental Markets, for foreign telecasting or for theatrical exhibition, to the extent those motion pictures are not subject to a Television Distributor's Assumption Agreement executed before July 1, 2005, the following provisions shall be applicable:

⁷ The Screen Actors Guild was on strike against the Producers during the period July 22, 1980 through and including October 5, 1980. The terms of an interim agreement may be applicable to performers who were employed in motion pictures produced during that period.

(a) Television Distributor's Assumption Agreement -- Television Reruns, Basic Cable Exhibition, Foreign Television Exhibition, Theatrical Exhibition and Supplemental Markets Use

Prior to the commencement of principal photography of each such television motion picture in which one or more performers covered by this or any prior Agreement renders services, if the Producer is not also the Distributor of such motion picture for free television, basic cable, foreign television exhibition, theatrical exhibition or in Supplemental Markets (as applicable), Producer shall obtain from the Distributor having such distribution rights and deliver to SAG-AFTRA a separate written agreement herein called "Television Distributor's Assumption Agreement," made expressly for the benefit of SAG-AFTRA as representative of the performers involved, by which such Distributor agrees to assume and pay the amounts payable hereunder by reason of the exhibition of such motion picture on free television, basic cable, foreign television, theatrically or in Supplemental Markets (as applicable), including applicable pension and health contributions (all such payments are collectively referred to as "Residuals") when and as the same become due.

In the event such Distributor is a signatory Producer, it shall be deemed automatically bound to such Television Distributor's Assumption Agreement and delivery and execution of said Assumption Agreement shall not be necessary.

Such agreement shall be substantially in the following form:

TELEVISION DISTRIBUTOR'S ASSUMPTION AGREEMENT

In consideration of the execution of a DISTRIBUTION AGREEMENT between _____ ("Producer") and the undersigned Distributor, Distributor agrees that the motion picture presently entitled _____ _____ (the "Picture") is subject to the SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement of 2014 or the Screen Actors Guild Television Agreements of 2011, 2009, 2005, 2001 (including the Extension Agreement dated July 1, 2004), 1998, 1995, 1992, 1989, 1986, 1983 or 1980 (strike those which are not applicable) ("Television Agreement") covering television motion pictures and particularly to the provisions of (strike those of the following clauses (1), (2), (3) or (4) which are not applicable):

Distributor hereby agrees, expressly for the benefit of SAG-AFTRA as representative of the performers whose services are included in the Picture, when the Picture is exhibited on free television, foreign television, basic cable or theatrically or in Supplemental Markets (as applicable), to make the additional compensation payments required thereby, if any, and the pension and health contributions required thereby, if any, with respect to the territories, media and term referred to above as provided in the applicable Sections referred to hereinabove (all such payments are collectively hereinafter referred to as "Residuals"). Distributor, for and on behalf of the Producer, shall make all Social Security, withholding, unemployment insurance and disability insurance payments required by law with respect to the additional compensation referred to in the preceding sentence.

It is expressly understood that the right of Distributor to license the Picture for exhibition on free television, foreign television, basic cable, theatrically or in Supplemental Markets (as applicable), or to exhibit or cause or permit the Picture to be exhibited on free television, foreign television, basic cable, theatrically or in Supplemental Markets (as applicable), shall be subject to and conditioned upon the prompt payment of Residuals with respect to the territories, media and term referred to above in accordance with said applicable Sections. It is agreed that SAG-AFTRA, in addition to all other remedies, shall be entitled to injunctive relief against Distributor in the event such payments are not made.

To the extent that Producer has executed a security agreement and financing statement in SAG-AFTRA's favor in the Picture and related collateral as defined in the SAG-AFTRA-Producer Security Agreement ("SAG-AFTRA Security Interest"), Distributor agrees and acknowledges that Distributor's rights in the Picture acquired pursuant to the Distribution Agreement (to the extent those rights are included in the collateral covered by the Security Agreement) are subject and subordinate to the SAG-AFTRA Security Interest. SAG-AFTRA agrees that, so long as Residuals with respect to the Picture for the territories, media and term referred to above are timely paid in accordance with said applicable Sections, SAG-AFTRA will not exercise any rights under the SAG-AFTRA Security Interest which would in any way interfere with the rights of the Distributor to distribute the Picture and receive all revenues from such distribution.

SAG-AFTRA further agrees that if it exercises its rights as a secured party, it will dispose of collateral which encompasses any of Distributor's rights or interests in, or physical items relating to, the Picture, only to a transferee which agrees in writing to be bound by SAG-AFTRA's obligations under this Assumption Agreement.

Distributor agrees to keep (i) complete records showing all cities in the United States in which the Pictures have been telecast and the number of telecasts in each such city, the television stations on which telecast, and the dates thereof; (ii) complete records showing Distributor's Foreign Gross for the Picture(s) to the extent that such records are pertinent to the computation of payments for foreign telecasting; (iii) records showing the date on which each such Picture is first exhibited in theatrical exhibition anywhere in the world and the place of such exhibition; and (iv) complete records showing Distributor's gross receipts from basic cable exhibition and from the distribution of such Picture in Supplemental Markets. The undersigned Distributor shall also keep such records as are necessary for the computation of Residuals for reruns, foreign telecasting, basic cable exhibition, theatrical exhibition and Supplemental Market use for so long as such Residuals may be due or payable. SAG-AFTRA shall have the right, at all reasonable times, to inspect any and all such records. If Distributor shall fail to make such payments as and when due and payable, Distributor shall pay late payment damages as specified in the Television Agreement.

If Distributor has acquired the rights to distribute the Picture on free television, Distributor shall give SAG-AFTRA prompt written notice of the date on which the Picture is first telecast in any city in the United States for the second run and for each subsequent run thereafter. If the second or third run is in network prime time, the notice shall state that fact.

If the Picture is distributed for foreign telecasting and if Distributor has acquired the rights to distribute the Picture for foreign telecasting, Distributor shall furnish reports to SAG-AFTRA showing Distributor's Foreign Gross derived from the Picture until (i) the Picture has been withdrawn from distribution for foreign telecasting; or (ii) all of the performers in the Picture have received the full additional payments for such foreign telecasting to which they are entitled pursuant to the Television Agreement. Such reports shall be rendered to SAG-AFTRA on a quarterly basis during the first three (3) years in which the Picture is distributed for foreign telecasting, on a semi-annual basis for the next following two (2) years, and on an annual basis thereafter.

If the Picture is distributed in Supplemental Markets and if Distributor has acquired the rights to distribute the Picture in Supplemental Markets, Distributor shall furnish reports to SAG-AFTRA, quarterly during each calendar year, showing Distributor's gross receipts derived from such Supplemental Market use for as long as Distributor receives any such gross receipts.

If the Picture is distributed theatrically and if Distributor has acquired the rights to exhibit the Picture theatrically, the Distributor shall give prompt written notice to SAG-AFTRA of the date on which the Picture is first exhibited theatrically (1) in the United States, its commonwealths, territories and possessions and Canada and/or (2) in all other countries.

If the Picture is distributed on basic cable and if Distributor has acquired the rights to distribute the Picture on basic cable, the Distributor shall furnish reports to SAG-AFTRA, quarterly during each calendar year, showing Distributor's gross receipts derived from such distribution for so long as Distributor receives any such gross receipts.

Distributor agrees to cooperate in responding to reasonable requests from SAG-AFTRA as to whether the Picture is currently being rerun on television, distributed for foreign telecasting, on basic cable, theatrically or in Supplemental Markets. An inadvertent failure to comply with any of the notice or reporting provisions hereof shall not constitute a default by Distributor hereunder, provided said failure is cured promptly after written notice thereof from SAG-AFTRA.

In the event of any sale, assignment or transfer of Distributor's distribution or exhibition rights in the Picture, Distributor shall remain liable for the Residuals unless Distributor obtains an executed Television Distributor's Assumption Agreement from such purchaser, assignee or transferee and SAG-AFTRA approves in writing the financial responsibility of the party obtaining such rights. SAG-AFTRA agrees that it will not unreasonably withhold its approval of the financial responsibility of any such purchaser, assignee or transferee. In the event that such purchaser, assignee or transferee is a Qualified Residual Payor, the financial responsibility of such purchaser, assignee or transferee shall be deemed automatically approved on the date SAG-AFTRA receives written notice of the assumption of obligations hereunder by the Qualified Residual Payor. Nothing herein shall release Producer of its obligations under the Television Agreement or any other agreement between Producer and SAG-AFTRA.

If SAG-AFTRA does not approve in writing the financial responsibility of the party obtaining such rights, this TELEVISION DISTRIBUTOR'S ASSUMPTION AGREEMENT shall remain effective and binding upon Distributor, and Distributor shall be obligated to pay Residuals which accrue during the term for those territories and media for which it was granted distribution rights and all extensions and renewals. The Distributor shall have the right, at its election, to cause to be immediately submitted to arbitration, pursuant to the provisions of Section 50 hereof, the issue of whether SAG-AFTRA has unreasonably withheld the approval of the financial responsibility of such purchaser, assignee or transferee for payments due hereunder.

Distributor and SAG-AFTRA hereby agree that all disputes based upon, arising out of or relating to this Assumption Agreement, other than SAG-AFTRA's entitlement to injunctive or other equitable relief, shall be submitted to final and binding arbitration in accordance with the arbitration provisions contained in the Television Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Distributor agrees and acknowledges that SAG-AFTRA is not precluded by this or any other provision of this Assumption Agreement from obtaining from a court injunctive relief or any other legal remedy at any time prior to arbitration or issuance of an arbitration award. The right to obtain injunctive relief from a court shall be applicable whether an arbitration proceeding has or has not been initiated and, further, without limitation, shall be applicable in conjunction with a proceeding to confirm and enforce an arbitration award against Distributor.

THIS TELEVISION DISTRIBUTOR'S ASSUMPTION AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA AND THE UNITED STATES, AS THE SAME WOULD BE APPLIED BY A FEDERAL COURT IN CALIFORNIA WITHOUT REGARD TO PRINCIPLES OF CONFLICTS OF LAWS. SAG-AFTRA and Distributor agree that any arbitration or legal action or proceeding brought to interpret or enforce the provisions of this Television Distributor's Assumption Agreement (including an action to compel arbitration or a petition to vacate an arbitration award) shall be held or brought in Los Angeles County, California, and Distributor irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of the federal and state courts therein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, SAG-AFTRA, at its option, may bring a legal action or proceeding outside California under the following circumstances: (a) if Distributor has no principal place of business in California; or (b) whether or not Distributor has a principal place of business in California, to enforce or execute upon an arbitration award or court order or judgment, in any jurisdiction in which Distributor's assets are located (and Distributor irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of the courts of such places for purposes of such execution or enforcement). Distributor consents to service of process by personal delivery or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to Distributor's general counsel or to Distributor's representative identified below or by first class mail to Distributor when Distributor has not designated a representative or a general counsel, or by any other method permitted by law.

Distributor's Representative or General Counsel:

An inadvertent failure on the part of any such Distributor to comply with any of the reporting provisions of this subsection (a) shall in no event constitute a default by the Producer or such Distributor or a breach of this Agreement, provided that such failure is cured promptly after notice in writing thereof from SAG-AFTRA.

In the event of the expiration or termination of any distribution agreement, the obligation of Producer to obtain and deliver to SAG-AFTRA such Television Distributor's Assumption Agreement shall apply as well to any subsequent distribution agreement entered into by Producer, and Producer shall obtain and deliver an executed Television Distributor's Assumption Agreement within ten (10) days after the execution of each such subsequent distribution agreement.

With respect to any such motion picture produced hereunder, SAG-AFTRA, prior to the commencement of principal photography of such motion picture, may require such financial assurances from Producer as it deems advisable to insure performance of Producer's obligations to pay the Residuals, including, without limitation, the execution of security agreements, guarantees or other protective agreements, subject, however, to the following:

If SAG-AFTRA shall require financial assurances from the Producer in the form of a security agreement for a security interest in the Picture, so long as the Residuals are timely paid with respect to all territories, media and term acquired by the Distributor in accordance with Sections 18, 18.1, 19 and/or 20.1 of the Television Agreement, as applicable, SAG-AFTRA shall not exercise any rights under such security agreement which would in any way interfere with the rights of the Distributor to distribute the Picture and receive all revenues from such distribution, provided that such Distributor has executed and delivered a Television Distributor's Assumption Agreement to SAG-AFTRA and is in compliance with the terms thereof.

If any "Qualified Residual Payor" assumes in perpetuity under the Television Distributor's Assumption Agreement the obligation to pay the Residuals for all territories and media with respect to the Picture or guarantees in a written form satisfactory to SAG-AFTRA all of such obligations thereunder, SAG-AFTRA will release and cause to be discharged of record all such security interests, liens, charges or encumbrances entered into by or obtained from such Producer and will not require further financial assurances from such Producer; provided, however, the Producer's primary liability as a Producer shall not be released thereby.

If any "Qualified Residual Payor" acquires rights to distribute the Picture in specific territories and media (but not all territories and media) in perpetuity, and has assumed responsibility for the payment of Residuals for such territories and media so acquired pursuant to the Television Distributor's Assumption Agreement or guarantees in a written form satisfactory to SAG-AFTRA all of such obligations thereunder, then if the Producer has granted or thereafter grants a security interest in favor of SAG-AFTRA in the Picture and related collateral as defined in the SAG-AFTRA Security Agreement, SAG-AFTRA: (i) agrees to modify the definition of the collateral in the SAG-AFTRA Security Agreement to exclude those territories and media acquired by such Qualified Residual Payor; and (ii) acknowledges Qualified Residual Payor's continuing rights of full, unlimited but non-exclusive access to and use of any and all physical items and elements relating to the Picture.

If any “Qualified Residual Payor” acquires rights to distribute the Picture in specific territories and media for a limited period of time, and has assumed responsibility for the payment of Residuals for such term and in such territories and media pursuant to the Television Distributor’s Assumption Agreement or guarantees in a written form satisfactory to SAG-AFTRA all of such obligations thereunder, then any security agreement or security interest obtained by SAG-AFTRA from the Producer in connection with the Picture shall remain in effect, but SAG-AFTRA agrees: (i) to modify the definition of the collateral in the SAG-AFTRA Security Agreement to exclude those territories and media for the term of the rights acquired by the Qualified Residual Payor, including renewals and extensions; and (ii) acknowledges the Qualified Residual Payor’s continuing rights of full, unlimited but non-exclusive access to and use of any and all physical items and elements relating to the Picture.

In addition to those distributors who have been deemed “Qualified Residual Payors” by SAG-AFTRA due to their past bargaining relationship and/or Residuals payment history, the term “Qualified Residual Payor” shall mean a Distributor who satisfies the requirements set forth in Paragraphs A. and B. below:

A. Distributor has the financial history, liquidity, net earnings before interest, taxes and amortization, assets, and net worth to establish its present and future ability to pay Residuals arising from the exploitation of the SAG-AFTRA Pictures being distributed.

B. The Distributor has been in business for five (5) or more years and has a history of prompt and proper payment of Residuals pursuant to SAG-AFTRA contracts in five (5) consecutive years immediately prior to seeking Qualified Residual Payor status.

A Qualified Residual Payor shall have the right to elect, with respect to each SAG-AFTRA Picture for which it has distribution rights, whether or not to assume Residuals obligations or guarantee the payment of Residuals in accordance with the Qualified Residual Payor’s Letter of Agreement, for the territories and media for which it has distribution rights. However, the Qualified Residual Payor shall be entitled to the rights of a Qualified Residual Payor hereunder only when it elects to so assume such obligations or so guarantee the payment of Residuals.

In the event of a dispute as to qualifications of an applicant for Qualified Residual Payor status, Producer shall provide such financial assurances as SAG-AFTRA may deem appropriate, which may include, but are not limited to, a security interest in the Picture and related collateral, in which case Distributor shall acknowledge same. Said security interest shall remain effective unless and until it is established by agreement or in an arbitration, pursuant to the arbitration provisions contained in the Television Agreement, that the applicant Distributor meets the aforementioned requirements for qualification. Such applicant shall have the burden of proof that it satisfies the aforementioned requirements for qualification in any arbitration and shall, upon SAG-AFTRA's request, furnish to SAG-AFTRA all relevant financial or corporate information relating thereto as SAG-AFTRA may reasonably require.

Any information submitted to SAG-AFTRA in order to determine whether a distributor is entitled to status as a Qualified Residual Payor shall, at the Distributor's discretion, be subject to reasonable confidentiality arrangements.

In the event that a Qualified Residual Payor, after notice and a reasonable opportunity to cure, generally fails to report and/or pay Residuals when they are due or generally fails to pay obligations to creditors when they become due or in the event a petition is filed under the Bankruptcy Code by or against a Qualified Residual Payor, SAG-AFTRA shall have the right to terminate the Distributor's Qualified Residual Payor status. The Distributor shall have the right to invoke the arbitration procedures described above to challenge such termination. Pending the resolution of such challenge, the Qualified Residual Payor's status shall be considered terminated. SAG-AFTRA agrees that it will not terminate a Qualified Residual Payor's status when there is a bona fide dispute as to whether Residuals are due, or a bona fide dispute as to the amount of Residuals due to SAG-AFTRA, if the Distributor has otherwise timely reported and paid Residuals. In addition to the above, if a SAG-AFTRA audit conducted pursuant to the Television Agreement or other financial information discloses that the Qualified Residual Payor no longer meets the aforementioned standards for qualification, SAG-AFTRA may initiate an arbitration pursuant to the Television Agreement to terminate the Qualified Residual Payor's status.

(b) Television Buyer's Assumption Agreement

If the Producer shall sell, transfer or assign its rights to exhibit on free television, basic cable or foreign television any of the motion pictures produced hereunder or under a prior Screen Actors

Guild Television Agreement, the principal photography of which commenced on or after October 6, 1980, or its rights to distribute theatrically or in Supplemental Markets any of the motion pictures produced hereunder or under a prior Screen Actors Guild Television Agreement, the principal photography of which commenced on or after October 6, 1980, in which one (1) or more performers covered by the Agreement renders services, to the extent those motion pictures are not subject to a Television Buyer's Assumption Agreement executed before July 1, 2014, it shall obtain from such buyer, transferee or assignee a separate agreement, made expressly for the benefit of SAG-AFTRA as representative of the performers involved, requiring such buyer, transferee or assignee to comply with the provisions of this Agreement with respect to additional compensation to performers and pension and health contributions by reason of the exhibition of such motion pictures on free television, basic cable or foreign television or the distribution of such motion pictures theatrically or in Supplemental Markets (as applicable), when and as the same become due. Such agreement shall be in substantially in the following form:

_____ See description, attached hereto as Exhibit “A” and incorporated herein by reference.

Buyer hereby agrees, expressly for the benefit of SAG-AFTRA, as representative of the performers whose services are included in the Picture when exhibited on free television, foreign television, basic cable or exhibited theatrically or in Supplemental Markets (as applicable), to assume and be bound by Producer’s obligation thereunder to make the additional compensation payments required thereby, if any, with respect to the territories and media referred to above and the pension and health contributions required thereby, if any, as provided in the applicable Section(s) referred to hereinabove (all such payments are collectively hereinafter referred to as “Residuals”). Buyer, for and on behalf of the Producer, shall make all Social Security, withholding, unemployment insurance and disability insurance payments required by law with respect to the additional compensation referred to in the preceding sentence.

It is expressly understood that the right of Buyer to license the Picture for exhibition on free television, foreign television, basic cable, theatrically or in Supplemental Markets (as applicable), or to exhibit or cause or permit the Picture to be exhibited on free television, foreign television, basic cable, theatrically or in Supplemental Markets (as applicable), shall be subject to and conditioned upon the prompt payment of Residuals with respect to the territories and media referred to above in accordance with said applicable Section(s). It is agreed that SAG-AFTRA, in addition to all other remedies, shall be entitled to injunctive relief against Buyer in the event such payments are not made.

To the extent that Producer has executed a security agreement and financing statement in SAG-AFTRA’s favor in the Picture and related collateral as defined in the SAG-AFTRA-Producer Security Agreement (“SAG-AFTRA Security Interest”), Buyer agrees and acknowledges that Buyer’s rights to the Picture acquired pursuant to the Purchase Agreement (to the extent those rights are included in the collateral covered by the Security Agreement) are subject and subordinate to the SAG-AFTRA Security Interest. Buyer further agrees to execute a security agreement, mortgage of copyright, UCC-1, and other UCC documentation and any other document required under the Television Agreement or necessary or desirable in SAG-AFTRA’s discretion to continue the SAG-AFTRA Security Interest. SAG-AFTRA agrees that, so long as Residuals with respect to the Picture for all the territories and media referred to above are timely paid in accordance with said applicable Section(s), SAG-AFTRA will not exercise any rights under the SAG-AFTRA Security Interest which would in any way interfere with the rights of the Buyer to distribute the Picture and receive all revenues from such distribution.

SAG-AFTRA further agrees that if it exercises its rights as a secured party, it will dispose of collateral which encompasses any of Buyer's rights or interests in, or physical items relating to, the Picture, only to a transferee which agrees in writing to be bound by SAG-AFTRA's obligations under this Assumption Agreement.

Buyer agrees to keep (i) complete records showing all cities in the United States in which the Pictures have been telecast and the number of telecasts in each such city, the television stations on which telecast, and the dates thereof; (ii) complete records showing Distributor's Foreign Gross for the Picture(s) to the extent that such records are pertinent to the computation of payments for foreign telecasting; (iii) records showing the date on which each such Picture is first exhibited in theatrical exhibition anywhere in the world and the place of such exhibition; and (iv) complete records showing Distributor's gross receipts from basic cable exhibition and from the distribution of such Picture in Supplemental Markets. The undersigned Buyer shall also keep such records as are necessary for the computation of Residuals for reruns, foreign telecasting, basic cable exhibition, theatrical exhibition and Supplemental Market use for so long as such Residuals may be due or payable. SAG-AFTRA shall have the right, at all reasonable times, to inspect any and all such records. If Buyer shall fail to make such payments as and when due and payable, Buyer shall pay late payment damages as specified in the Television Agreement.

In the event of any sale, assignment or transfer of Buyer's distribution or exhibition rights in the Picture, Buyer shall remain liable for the Residuals, with respect to the territories, media and term referred to above, unless Buyer obtains an executed Television Buyer's Assumption Agreement and other documents required by SAG-AFTRA from such purchaser, assignee or transferee and SAG-AFTRA approves in writing the financial responsibility of the party obtaining such rights. SAG-AFTRA agrees that it will not unreasonably withhold its approval of the financial responsibility of any such purchaser, assignee or transferee. Nothing herein shall release the Producer of its obligations under the Television Agreement or any other agreement between Producer and SAG-AFTRA relating to the Picture, unless the Producer has been relieved of liability pursuant to the provisions of this Section 21(b).

If SAG-AFTRA does not approve in writing the financial responsibility of the party obtaining such rights, this Television Buyer's Assumption Agreement shall remain effective and binding upon Buyer.

Buyer and SAG-AFTRA hereby agree that all disputes based upon, arising out of or relating to this Assumption Agreement, other than SAG-AFTRA's entitlement to injunctive or other equitable relief, shall be submitted to final and binding arbitration in accordance with the arbitration provisions contained in the Television Agreement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Buyer agrees and acknowledges that SAG-AFTRA is not precluded by this or any other provision of this Assumption Agreement from obtaining from a court injunctive relief or any other legal remedy at any time prior to arbitration or issuance of an arbitration award. The right to obtain injunctive relief from a court shall be applicable whether an arbitration proceeding has or has not been initiated and, further, without limitation, shall be applicable in conjunction with a proceeding to confirm and enforce an arbitration award against Buyer.

If Buyer has acquired the rights to distribute the Picture on free television, Buyer shall give SAG-AFTRA prompt written notice of the date on which the Picture is first telecast in any city in the United States for the second run and for each subsequent run thereafter. If the second or third run is in network prime time, the notice shall state that fact.

If the Picture is distributed for foreign telecasting and if Buyer has acquired the rights to distribute the Picture for foreign telecasting, Buyer shall furnish reports to SAG-AFTRA showing Buyer's Foreign Gross derived from the Picture until (i) the Picture has been withdrawn from distribution for foreign telecasting; or (ii) all of the performers in the Picture have received the full additional payments for such foreign telecasting to which they are entitled pursuant to the Television Agreement. Such reports shall be rendered to SAG-AFTRA on a quarterly basis during the first three (3) years in which the Picture is distributed for foreign telecasting, on a semi-annual basis for the next following two (2) years, and on an annual basis thereafter.

If the Picture is distributed in Supplemental Markets and if Buyer has acquired the rights to distribute the Picture in Supplemental Markets, Buyer shall furnish reports to SAG-AFTRA, quarterly during each calendar year, showing Buyer's gross receipts derived from such Supplemental Market use for as long as Buyer receives any such gross receipts.

If the Picture is distributed theatrically and if Buyer has acquired the rights to exhibit the Picture theatrically, the Buyer shall give prompt written notice to SAG-AFTRA of the date on which the Picture is first exhibited theatrically (1) in the United States, its commonwealths, territories and possessions and Canada and/or (2) in all other countries.

If the Picture is distributed on basic cable and if Buyer has acquired the rights to distribute the Picture on basic cable, the Buyer shall furnish reports to SAG-AFTRA, quarterly during each calendar year, showing Buyer's gross receipts derived from such distribution for so long as Buyer receives any such gross receipts.

Buyer agrees to cooperate in responding to reasonable requests from SAG-AFTRA as to whether the Picture is currently being rerun on television, distributed for foreign telecasting, on basic cable, theatrically or in Supplemental Markets. An inadvertent failure to comply with any of the notice or reporting provisions hereof shall not constitute a default by Buyer hereunder, provided said failure is cured promptly after written notice thereof from SAG-AFTRA.

THIS TELEVISION BUYER'S ASSUMPTION AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA AND THE UNITED STATES, AS THE SAME WOULD BE APPLIED BY A FEDERAL COURT IN CALIFORNIA WITHOUT REGARD TO PRINCIPLES OF CONFLICTS OF LAWS. SAG-AFTRA and Buyer agree that any arbitration or legal action or proceeding brought to interpret or enforce the provisions of this Television Buyer's Assumption Agreement (including an action to compel arbitration or a petition to vacate an arbitration award) shall be held or brought in Los Angeles County, California, and Buyer irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of the federal and state courts therein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, SAG-AFTRA, at its option, may bring a legal action or proceeding outside California under the following circumstances: (a) if Buyer has no principal place of business in California; or (b) whether or not Buyer has a principal place of business in California, to enforce or execute upon an arbitration award or court order or judgment, in any jurisdiction in which Buyer's assets are located (and Buyer irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of the courts of such places for purposes of such execution or enforcement). Buyer consents to service of process by personal delivery or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to Buyer's general counsel or to Buyer's representative identified below or by first class mail to Buyer when Buyer has not designated a representative or a general counsel, or by any other method permitted by law.

BY _____

BUYER'S REPRESENTATIVE OR GENERAL COUNSEL _____

The Producer agrees to deliver to SAG-AFTRA an executed copy of the above referred to Television Buyer's Assumption Agreement within thirty (30) days after the sale, assignment or transfer of such motion picture, with the name and address of the purchaser or assignee, and a complete cast list for such television motion picture, including social security numbers and rerun salary information. Failure to comply with this requirement shall be deemed a substantial breach of this Agreement. An inadvertent failure on the part of the Producer to comply with any of the provisions of this paragraph shall in no event constitute a default by the Producer or a breach of this Agreement, provided that such failure is cured promptly after notice thereof from SAG-AFTRA.

Any inadvertent failure on the part of the Buyer to comply with any of the reporting provisions of this subsection (b) shall in no event constitute a default by the Producer or such Buyer or a breach of this Agreement, provided that such failure is cured promptly after notice in writing thereof from SAG-AFTRA.

Upon delivery of such Television Buyer's Assumption Agreement and other documents from Buyer required under this Assumption Agreement and on condition that SAG-AFTRA approves in writing the financial responsibility of the purchaser, assignee or transferee, Producer shall not be further liable for the keeping of any such records, or for the payment of Residuals in accordance with said applicable Section, it being agreed that the purchaser, assignee or transferee shall solely be liable therefor.

SAG-AFTRA agrees that it will not unreasonably withhold its approval of the financial responsibility of any such purchaser, assignee or transferee, it being further agreed that if SAG-AFTRA, within twenty-one (21) days of receipt of written notice of any such sale, assignment or transfer, has not advised the Producer that it disapproves the financial responsibility of such purchaser, assignee or transferee, SAG-AFTRA will be deemed to have approved the financial responsibility thereof. If any such purchaser, assignee or transferee is a Qualified Residual Payor, then the financial responsibility of such purchaser, assignee or transferee shall be deemed automatically approved. In the event SAG-AFTRA advises the Producer within such twenty-one (21) day period that it disapproves the financial responsibility of any such purchaser, assignee or transferee and Producer disputes such disapproval, the Producer shall have the right, at its election, to cause to be immediately submitted to arbitration, pursuant to the provisions of Section 50 hereof, the issue of whether SAG-AFTRA has unreasonably withheld the approval of the financial responsibility of such purchaser, assignee or transferee for payments due hereunder.

To the extent that Producer has granted a security interest in favor of SAG-AFTRA in the Picture and related collateral as defined in any SAG-AFTRA Security Agreement, Buyer's rights in the Picture acquired pursuant to the Purchase Agreement shall be subject to the following:

So long as the Buyer timely pays Residuals for the Picture with respect to all territories and media in which Buyer has distribution rights in accordance with Sections 18, 18.1, 19 and/or 20.1 of the Television Agreement, as applicable, SAG-AFTRA shall not exercise any rights under such security agreement which would in any way interfere with the rights of the Buyer to distribute the Picture and receive all revenues from such distribution, provided that such Buyer has executed and delivered a Television Buyer's Assumption Agreement to SAG-AFTRA and is in compliance with the terms thereof.

If any "Qualified Residual Payor" assumes in perpetuity under the Television Buyer's Assumption Agreement the obligation to pay the Residuals for all territories and media with respect to the Picture or guarantees in a written form satisfactory to SAG-AFTRA all of such obligations thereunder, SAG-AFTRA will release and cause to be discharged of record all such security interests, liens, charges or encumbrances entered into or obtained from such Producer and will not require further financial assurances from such Producer.

If any "Qualified Residual Payor" acquires rights to distribute the Picture in specific territories and media (but not all territories and media) in perpetuity, and has assumed responsibility for the payment of Residuals for such territories and media so acquired pursuant to the Television Buyer's Assumption Agreement or guarantees in a written form satisfactory to SAG-AFTRA all of such obligations thereunder, then if the Producer has granted a security interest in favor of SAG-AFTRA in the Picture and related collateral as defined in the SAG-AFTRA Security Agreement, SAG-AFTRA: (i) agrees to modify the definition of the collateral in the SAG-AFTRA Security Agreement to exclude those territories and media acquired by such Qualified Residual Payor; and (ii) acknowledges Qualified Residual Payor's continuing rights of full, unlimited but non-exclusive access to and use of any and all physical items and elements relating to the Picture.

In addition to those buyers who have been deemed “Qualified” by SAG-AFTRA due to their past bargaining relationship and/or Residuals payment history, the term “Qualified Residual Payor” shall mean a Buyer who satisfies the requirements set forth in Paragraphs A. and B. below:

A. Buyer has the financial history, liquidity, net earnings before interest, taxes and amortization, assets, and net worth to establish its present and future ability to pay all Residuals arising from the exploitation of the SAG-AFTRA Pictures being distributed.

B. The Buyer has been in business for five (5) or more years and has a history of prompt and proper payment of Residuals pursuant to SAG or SAG-AFTRA contracts in five (5) consecutive years immediately prior to seeking Qualified Buyer status.

A Qualified Residual Payor shall have the right to elect, with respect to each SAG-AFTRA Picture for which it has distribution rights, whether or not to assume Residuals obligations or guarantee the payment of Residuals in accordance with the Qualified Residual Payor’s Letter of Agreement, for the territories and media for which it has distribution rights. However, the Qualified Residual Payor shall be entitled to the rights of a Qualified Residual Payor hereunder only when it elects to so assume such obligations or so guarantee the payment of Residuals.

In the event of a dispute as to qualifications of an applicant for Qualified Residual Payor status, Producer shall provide such financial assurances as SAG-AFTRA may deem appropriate, which may include, but are not limited to, a security interest in the Picture and related collateral, in which case Buyer shall acknowledge same. Said security interest shall remain effective unless and until it is established by agreement or in an arbitration, pursuant to the arbitration provisions contained in the Television Agreement, that the applicant Buyer meets the aforementioned requirements for qualification. Such applicant shall have the burden of proof that it satisfies the aforementioned requirements for qualification in any arbitration, and shall, upon SAG-AFTRA’s request, furnish to SAG-AFTRA all relevant financial or corporate information relating thereto as SAG-AFTRA may reasonably require.

Any information submitted to SAG-AFTRA in order to determine whether a Buyer is entitled to status as a Qualified Residual Payor shall, at the Buyer's discretion, be subject to reasonable confidentiality arrangements.

In the event a Qualified Residual Payor, after notice and a reasonable opportunity to cure, generally fails to report and/or pay Residuals when they are due or generally fails to pay obligations to creditors when they become due or in the event a petition is filed under the Bankruptcy Code by or against a Qualified Residual Payor, SAG-AFTRA shall have the right to terminate the buyer's Qualified Residual Payor status. The Qualified Residual Payor shall have the right to invoke the arbitration procedures described above to challenge such termination. Pending the resolution of such challenge, the Qualified Residual Payor's status shall be considered terminated. SAG-AFTRA agrees that it will not terminate a Qualified Residual Payor's status when there is a bona fide dispute over whether Residuals are due to SAG-AFTRA, or a bona fide dispute as to the amount of Residuals due to SAG-AFTRA, if the Distributor has otherwise timely reported and paid Residuals. In addition to the above, if a SAG-AFTRA audit conducted pursuant to the Television Agreement or other financial information discloses that the Qualified Residual Payor no longer meets the aforementioned standards for qualification, SAG-AFTRA may initiate an arbitration pursuant to the Television Agreement to terminate the Qualified Residual Payor's status.

(c) If Producer dissolves and if a Distributor assumes all of the obligations of the Producer for the payment of Residuals, and the financial responsibility of the Distributor is approved by SAG-AFTRA in its discretion, then Producer shall thereupon be released of any obligation with respect to any payments due hereunder.

(d) No television network, station, sponsor or advertising agency shall be required to execute any Television Distributor's Assumption Agreement or Television Buyer's Assumption Agreement or shall be bound by the automatic provisions of subsections (a) and/or (b) above, unless it is the distributor of such television motion picture or the buyer of the Producer's television rights in such motion picture, as the case may be.

(e) Producer, or any distributor making payment on behalf of Producer, subject to the terms of this Agreement with respect to compensation for reruns of television programs, shall furnish to the Union the following supporting information with respect to each payment, as applicable:

- (1) The name of the series and identification of the episode;
- (2) The run and whether it is network or syndicated;
- (3) The amount of grosses (other than domestic broadcast of television product) and the level of percentage being paid;
- (4) A cast list by series and episode, specifying the performer's name and aka, Social Security number, type of contract under which employed, days worked, original salary (television only, up to the ceiling applicable to rerun payment), and the gross payment and net amount of the payment being made;
- (5) A list of all deductions such as federal income tax, Social Security, state income tax, state disability insurance, municipal taxes (where applicable), and deductions to charities and credit unions; and
- (6) A copy of Producer's quarterly pension and health reports.

The foregoing information may be furnished in more than one document, such as the check stub itself and a separate list of other information. In addition, information which does not change (such as a cast list), once reported, need not be repeated with subsequent rerun payments.

22. THE SCREEN ACTORS GUILD – PRODUCERS PENSION AND HEALTH PLANS AND THE AFTRA HEALTH AND RETIREMENT FUNDS

The Union, on the one hand, and those Producers which have an obligation to contribute to the SAG Plans under this Agreement, on the other hand, are parties to the "Screen Actors Guild – Producers Pension Plan for Motion Picture Actors" and the "Screen Actors Guild – Producers Health Plan for Motion Picture Actors" (hereinafter referred to as the "SAG Pension Plan" and the "SAG Health Plan," respectively, and together as the "SAG Pension and Health Plans" or the "SAG Plans").

The Union, on the one hand, and those Producers which have an obligation to contribute to the AFTRA Funds under this Agreement, on the other hand, are parties to the "AFTRA Health Fund" and the "AFTRA Retirement Fund" (hereinafter referred to collectively as the "AFTRA Health and Retirements Funds" or the "AFTRA Funds"). For convenience, the applicable provisions of Sections 2, 3 and 4 of Paragraph 102 of the Network Code are included in Sideletter P to this Agreement.

(a) Allocation of Contributions to SAG Pension and Health Plans or AFTRA Health and Retirement Funds

During the 2014 SAG-AFTRA negotiations, the parties agreed to consolidate the 2011 SAG Television Agreement, Exhibit A to the 2011 AFTRA Network Code, the 2011 SAG Basic Cable (Live Action) Agreement and The CW Supplement to the 2011 AFTRA Network Code into a single 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement. As a result, the parties were required to determine how to allocate contributions between the SAG Pension and Health Plans, on the one hand, and the AFTRA Health and Retirement Funds, on the other hand, with respect to both existing television motion pictures or series, the principal photography of which commenced prior to October 24, 2014 and to new television motion pictures and series, the principal photography of which commences on or after October 24, 2014.

The parties agreed that their intention is to allocate the total contributions due during the term of this Agreement between the SAG Pension and Health Plans, on the one hand, and the AFTRA Health and Retirement Funds, on the other hand, in a ratio consistent with the average allocation of contributions between the SAG Plans and the AFTRA Funds over the five (5) year period encompassing calendar years 2009-2013 for programs previously covered by the 2011 SAG Television Agreement, the 2011 SAG Basic Cable (Live Action) Agreement, Exhibit A to the 2011 AFTRA Network Code (“Exhibit A”), and The CW Supplement to the 2011 AFTRA Network Code, and individually-negotiated agreements with AFTRA or SAG-AFTRA based on Exhibit A for scripted dramatic productions made for basic cable (hereinafter the “Target Ratio”). Using this methodology, the parties determined the Target Ratio to be fifty-seven percent (57%) of contributions to the SAG Plans and forty-three percent (43%) to the AFTRA Funds.

(1) In order to maintain the Target Ratio during the term of this Agreement, and subject to any adjustment in the allocation of contributions pursuant to subsection (b) below, the Producer shall make pension and health contributions to the SAG Plans (hereinafter referred to as “pension and health contributions”) or health and retirement contributions to the AFTRA Funds (hereinafter referred to as “health and retirement contributions”) for television motion pictures and covered new media programs as follows:

a) Grandfathered Series

As used in this provision, a “Grandfathered Series” is any television series or multi-part, closed-end series or covered new media series, the principal photography of which began prior to October 24, 2014, on which a performer covered under the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement is employed. A television series or covered new media series is a “Grandfathered Series” so long as the pilot or presentation for the series, or an episode of the series, is produced prior to October 24, 2014.

(i) If Producer made contributions to the SAG Plans for episodes (including a pilot or presentation) or parts of a Grandfathered Series which commenced principal photography prior to October 24, 2014, it shall continue to make contributions to the SAG Plans for episodes or parts of a Grandfathered Series which commence principal photography on or after October 24, 2014.

(ii) If Producer made contributions to the AFTRA Funds for episodes (including a pilot or presentation) or parts of a Grandfathered Series which commenced principal photography prior to October 24, 2014, it shall continue to make contributions to the AFTRA Funds for episodes or parts of a Grandfathered Series which commence principal photography on or after October 24, 2014. In lieu of the money ceilings provided in subsection (c) below, a Producer’s obligation to make contributions to the AFTRA Funds with respect to a Grandfathered Series shall be limited to the following maximum amounts of compensation per performer per program on which contributions are due:

30 minute program	$15,000
60 minute program	$24,500
90 minute program	$33,000
120 minute program	$40,000
Exclusivity payments	$40,000

b) Television Motion Pictures and Covered New Media Programs Other Than Episodes or Parts of a Grandfathered Series

For television motion pictures and covered new media programs other than an episode or part of a Grandfathered Series (including one-time television motion pictures or covered new media programs), on which a performer covered under the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement is employed, Producer shall make contributions as follows:

(i) For such television motion pictures and covered new media programs, the principal photography of which commences on or after October 24, 2014 but prior to July 1, 2016:

(A) To the SAG Plans with respect to performers and background actors employed on:

1) one-hour television motion pictures made for network;

2) one-half hour (or shorter) television motion pictures made for basic cable;

3) television motion pictures made for syndication (other than television motion pictures made for The CW or long-form television motion pictures);

4) covered new media programs;
and

5) all television motion pictures made for pay television (other than long-form television motion pictures) or the home video market.

(B) To the AFTRA Funds with respect to performers and background actors employed on:

1) one-half hour (or shorter) television motion pictures made for network;

2) one-hour television motion pictures made for basic cable;

3) long-form television motion pictures; and

4) television motion pictures made for The CW.

(ii) For such television motion pictures and covered new media programs, the principal photography of which commences on or after July 1, 2016:⁸

(A) To the SAG Plans with respect to performers and background actors employed on:

- 1) one-half hour (or shorter) television motion pictures made for network, except those described in subparagraph (B)1) below;
- 2) one-hour television motion pictures made for network;
- 3) one-half hour (or shorter) television motion pictures made for basic cable;
- 4) long-form television motion pictures;
- 5) television motion pictures made for syndication;
- 6) television motion pictures made for The CW, except those described in subparagraph (B)3) below;
- 7) covered new media programs; and
- 8) all television motion pictures made for pay television or the home video market.

(B) To the AFTRA Funds with respect to performers and background actors employed on:

- 1) episodes of a one-half hour series made for network for which Producer has previously made contributions to the AFTRA Funds with respect to at least one episode (other than the pilot or presentation) pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (i)(B)1) above;

⁸ Pursuant to Section 22(a)(3) below, the parties examined the actual ratio of contributions made to the SAG Plans and the AFTRA Funds under the allocation specified in subsections (1)a) and (1)b)(i) above and determined that adjustments to the allocation, as set forth in this subsection (1)b)(ii), were necessary in order to achieve the Target Ratio as described in Section 22(a)(3).

2) one-hour television motion pictures made for basic cable; and

3) episodes of a series made for The CW for which Producer has previously made contributions to the AFTRA Funds with respect to at least one episode (other than the pilot or presentation) pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (i)(B)4 above.

(iii) Producer shall make contributions to the AFTRA Funds with respect to performers and background actors employed on book musicals, except that if the Producer is not an Employer party to the AFTRA Funds, it shall make contributions to the SAG Plans instead.

c) Covered Derivative New Media Productions

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Producer shall make contributions with respect to performers and background actors employed on covered Derivative New Media Productions to the same SAG Plans or AFTRA Funds to which contributions are or were made for performers and background actors employed on the Original Production on which the Derivative New Media Production is based.

(2) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, a Producer of primarily theatrical motion pictures which, as of June 30, 2014, is an Employer party to the SAG Plans and has not made contributions to the AFTRA Funds during the period January 1, 2010 to December 31, 2014 shall continue to make contributions to the SAG Plans, and shall not be required by reason of the allocations set forth in subsection (a) of this Section 22 to contribute to the AFTRA Funds unless such Producer elects otherwise.

(3) The parties agree to examine periodically (but not less frequently than twice per calendar year during the term of the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement, unless the parties agree otherwise) the actual ratio of contributions made to the SAG Plans and the AFTRA Funds under the allocation specified in subsection (1) above. The SAG Plans and the AFTRA Funds shall provide the parties with this information. The parties shall consider periodically adjusting the allocation of contributions in subsection (1)b) above so that, during the term of the Agreement, the ratio of contributions made to the SAG Plans and the AFTRA Funds matches the Target Ratio, measured on a rolling five (5) calendar year basis, except to the extent that the parties agree to a different or additional metric(s).

The parties shall seek the advice of the SAG Plans' and AFTRA Funds' staffs, consultants and actuaries to identify an appropriate time frame and protocol for undertaking such examinations and implementing new allocation rules as necessary to achieve the Target Ratio. The costs associated with examining the allocation of the contributions as set forth in this subsection (3) shall be borne by the parties and not by the SAG Plans or the AFTRA Funds.

(4) In no event shall the allocation of contributions set forth in subsection (a)(1), in and of itself, create the basis for the imposition of withdrawal liability on a Producer which contributed to either the SAG Plans or the AFTRA Funds or both prior to October 24, 2014. The SAG Plans and AFTRA Funds, in consultation with both parties, shall develop procedures for identifying Producers at risk of incurring withdrawal liability under these circumstances and measures to prevent the imposition of such liability.

(5) The parties recommend to the Trustees of the SAG Plans and the AFTRA Funds that they adopt procedures to enable them to perform the analyses required under subsections (2), (3) and (4) above.

(b) Contribution Rate

With respect to employment covered hereunder on television motion pictures or on Original or Derivative New Media Productions (other than Experimental New Media Productions which the Producer does not elect to cover) under the Sideletter Re: Programs Made for New Media (hereinafter referred to as "covered new media programs"), the principal photography of which commences on or after July 1, 2014, Producer agrees to make pension and health contributions to the SAG Plans or health and retirement contributions to the AFTRA Funds, as applicable (see subsection (a) above), in amounts equal to seventeen percent (17.0%) of all gross compensation as and when paid by Producer to all performers for services covered by and subject to this Agreement in television motion pictures, but not in excess of the money ceilings as provided in subsection (c) below.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable (see subsection (a) above), shall continue to be paid at the rate of thirteen and one-half percent (13.5%) in connection with Supplemental Markets payments for the distribution on "cassettes," as that term is defined in Section 5.2 of the Codified Basic Agreement, of any television motion picture, the principal photography of which commences on or after July 1, 2014.

In addition, pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable (see subsection (a) above), shall be paid at the rate of fifteen percent (15%) in connection with employment during the first two (2) seasons of any new (1) one hour series, the pilot or presentation for which commenced principal photography prior to July 1, 2014 under Sideletter K of the 2011 SAG Television Agreement or under Exhibit A or The CW Supplement to the 2011 AFTRA Network Code. Further, pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable (see subsection (a) above), shall be paid at the rate of fifteen and one-half percent (15.5%) in connection with employment under Sideletter K of this Agreement on a pilot or a presentation which commences principal photography on or after July 1, 2014 or in connection with employment under Sideletter K of this Agreement during the first two (2) seasons of any new one (1) hour series first exhibited on or after July 1, 2014, the pilot or presentation for which commenced principal photography on or after July 1, 2014.⁹

(1) With respect to pension and health contributions:

- a) The aforementioned seventeen percent (17.0%) shall be allocated seven and thirty-one hundredths percent (7.31%) to the SAG Health Plan and nine and sixty-nine hundredths percent (9.69%) to the SAG Pension Plan effective July 1, 2014;
- b) The aforementioned thirteen and one-half percent (13.5%) shall be allocated five and eighty-one hundredths percent (5.81%) to the SAG Health Plan and seven and sixty-nine hundredths percent (7.69%) to the SAG Pension Plan effective July 1, 2014; and
- c) The aforementioned fifteen percent (15%) shall be allocated six and thirty-one hundredths percent (6.31%) to the SAG Health Plan and eight and sixty-nine hundredths percent (8.69%) to the SAG Pension Plan effective July 1, 2014; and
- d) The aforementioned fifteen and one-half percent (15.5%) shall be allocated six and thirty-one hundredths percent (6.31%) to the SAG Health Plan and nine and nineteen hundredths percent (9.19%) to the SAG Pension Plan effective July 1, 2014.

The allocation of such seventeen percent (17.0%), thirteen and one-half percent (13.5%), fifteen percent (15%) or fifteen and one-half percent (15.5%) between the SAG Pension and Health ⁹ It is understood that the foregoing provisions under Sideletter K shall also be applicable to covered new media series, the episodes of which are thirty-six (36) minutes or more in length but less than sixty-six (66) minutes.

Plans may be changed at any time during the term hereof by the Boards of Trustees of the SAG Pension Plan and the SAG Health Plan, based on actuarial studies.

(2) The bargaining parties hereby delegate to the Boards of Trustees of the AFTRA Health and Retirement Funds the authority to establish, acting in a settlor capacity and as delegates of the bargaining parties, the allocation as between the AFTRA Health Fund and the AFTRA Retirement Fund of contributions specified in subsection (1) above.

(c) Gross Compensation and Contribution Ceilings

The term “gross compensation,” as used in subsections (b) and (c), means all salaries and other compensation or remuneration, including rerun fees, foreign telecast fees and additional compensation for theatrical use and for use in Supplemental Markets and basic cable, excluding, however, meal penalties, payments for rest period violations, traveling, lodging or living expenses, interest on delinquent payments, reimbursement for special hairdress or for wardrobe damage, but without any other deductions whatsoever. Such term also includes amounts paid to an employee with respect to services as a performer (including compensation paid as salary settlements) whether or not any services were performed.

Amounts paid in consideration of exclusivity, for a “hold” on a performer and/or an option for acting services shall be subject to pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable (see subsection (a) above), up to a maximum of \$40,000. If all or a portion of the exclusivity/hold/option money is creditable against the fee due for acting services and the option is exercised, the amount so creditable shall be applied toward the applicable ceiling, computed as provided below, on contributions. If the exclusivity/hold/option money is not creditable against the fee due for acting services and the option is exercised, then up to one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the exclusivity/hold/option money, not to exceed \$20,000, shall be applied against the applicable contribution ceiling. This paragraph shall apply to all claims for pension and health contributions on exclusivity/hold/option monies outstanding on July 1, 1995 and to exclusivity/hold/option agreements entered into after July 1, 1995.

The contribution rates in subsection (b) and the ceilings in this subsection (c) are subject to the following:

(1) Performers other than Term Performers

For motion pictures commencing principal photography on or after July 1, 2014:

With respect to services rendered by such a performer in a one-half hour television motion picture or in a covered new media program that is thirty-five (35) minutes or less in length, such percentage shall not be paid with respect to any part of such gross compensation in excess of $15,000; with respect to services rendered by such a performer in a one-hour television motion picture or in a covered new media program that is thirty-six (36) minutes or more in length but less than sixty-six (66) minutes, such percentage shall not be paid with respect to any part of such gross compensation in excess of $24,500; with respect to services rendered by a performer in a one and one-half hour television motion picture or in a covered new media program that is sixty-six (66) minutes or more in length, such percentage shall not be paid with respect to any part of such gross compensation in excess of $33,000; with respect to services rendered by such a performer in a two-hour (or more) television motion picture (but not including multi-part, closed-end pictures exceeding three (3) hours in length), such percentage shall not be paid with respect to any part of such gross compensation in excess of $40,000. With respect to services rendered by a performer in a multi-part closed-end picture exceeding three (3) hours in length, such percentage shall not be paid with respect to any part of gross compensation in excess of: a) $15,000 for each part (i.e., each separately telecast installment of the picture, as initially telecast) in which the performer appears which is one-half hour in length; b) $24,500 for each part in which the performer appears which is one (1) hour in length; c) $33,000 for each part in which the performer appears which is one and one-half hours in length; d) $40,000 for each part in which the performer appears which is two (2) or more hours in length; provided, however, that in any event, such percentage shall not be paid with respect to any part of the aggregate gross compensation received by the performer from the entire multi-part picture in excess of $200,000.

(2) Term Performers

a) Television (or High Budget SVOD Program)
Term Contract

(i) With respect to compensation for services in television motion pictures or in High Budget SVOD Programs (as defined in Paragraph E.2. of Sideletter H), the ceilings provided in subsection (1) above shall apply.

(ii) With respect to compensation for employment weeks of the term for which the performer is paid but in which he does not render any services, the ceiling shall be $9,900 for each such week.

b) Combination Term Contract

(i) With respect to compensation for services in television motion pictures or in High Budget SVOD Programs (as defined in Paragraph E.2. of Sideletter H) under such a contract, the ceilings set forth in subsection (1) above shall apply.

(ii) With respect to compensation for employment weeks of the term in which the performer renders services in theatrical motion pictures or for such weeks for which the performer is paid, but in which he does not render any services, the ceiling shall be applied in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement.

(3) Ceiling - Theatrical Exhibition of Television Motion Pictures or Covered New Media Programs

The $232,000 ceiling referred to in the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement of 2014 shall be applicable with respect to pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable (see subsection (a) above), which are payable with respect to the compensation due to a performer under Section 19 hereof for the theatrical exhibition of a television motion picture or of a covered new media program.

(4) Ceiling - Supplemental Market Use

The payments made by Producer for Supplemental Market use shall be subject to the ceilings referred to in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of subsection (c) of this Section 22 for television motion pictures having a running time of one (1) hour or less duration or for covered new media programs that are less than sixty-six (66) minutes in length, and shall be subject to the $232,000 ceiling referred to in the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement of 2014 for television motion pictures having a running time in excess of one (1) hour, including shorter programs combined into a single feature-type picture or for covered new media programs sixty-six (66) minutes or more in length.

(5) Loan-outs

The following shall apply with respect to the payment of pension and health contributions to the SAG Plans or health and retirement contributions to the AFTRA Funds, as applicable, due when a Producer borrows the services of a performer from a loan-out company, as defined herein, and such performer is used by Producer within the jurisdiction of this Agreement. For purposes of this provision, a loan-out company is defined as a company, whether or not signatory to this Agreement, which is controlled by the loaned-out performer who is performing work covered by this Agreement.

- a) Pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable (see subsection (a) above), subject to the ceilings, shall be based on the loan-out price for the performer's covered acting services.
- b) When other than covered acting services are being provided by the loan-out company, Producer agrees to separately state the compensation for covered acting services. If there is a dispute over the portion of the loan-out price allocated to the performer's acting services, the performer's "customary salary" shall be given substantial consideration in resolving such dispute.

With respect to services for which Producer is required to make health and retirement contributions to the AFTRA Funds under Section 22(a) of this Agreement, Producer shall notify SAG-AFTRA of the amount allocated for covered acting services. If there is a dispute over the portion of the loan-out price allocated to the performer's acting services, the parties shall discuss what the appropriate allocation of such compensation shall be, giving substantial consideration to the performer's "customary salary" in resolving the dispute. If, after such discussions, SAG-AFTRA does not agree on the appropriate allocation, then either party may submit the matter, as it relates to contributions to the AFTRA Funds only, to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 95 of the Network Code.

- c) Agreements with loan-out companies for covered services of the loaned-out performer shall provide that Producer shall make pension and health or health and retirement contributions directly to the SAG Plans or AFTRA Funds, as applicable (see subsection (a) above), on behalf of the loan-out company.

(6) Audits

a) If, under the 1983 or any prior SAG Agreement, a loan-out company, as defined above, has failed to make the applicable pension and health contributions on behalf of the loaned-out performer pursuant to the provision corresponding to Section 22.a(5)c)2) of the 1986 SAG Agreement, Producer shall not be liable for such contributions if the loan-out company failed to pay such contributions more than four (4) years prior to the date of commencement of the audit that gives rise to the claim (whether or not it is of the loan-out company's records or the borrowing Producer's records). The date of commencement of the audit shall be deemed to be the date of actual audit entry, but in no event later than ninety (90) days after the date of the SAG Plans' notice of intent to audit. The foregoing limitation shall apply to claims for contributions on behalf of loaned-out performers arising under the 1986 and 1989 Agreements, provided that the notice requirements set forth in Section 22.a(5)c)2) of the 1986 Agreement (or the corresponding provision of the 1989 Agreement) have been met. In the event that the SAG Plan(s) conclude, based on an audit of a loan-out company's records, that there exists a claim for unpaid contributions, the SAG Plan(s) or the Union must give the borrowing Producer written notification of any such claim for unpaid contributions at the time that the loan-out company is notified of such claim. In no event will the borrowing Producer be liable for any such unpaid contributions which were due from the loan-out company more than four (4) years prior to the date that the borrowing Producer was notified of the loan-out company's failure to make the contribution.

b) Claims against Producer pursuant to subsection (5)c) above for pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable, on behalf of performers borrowed from a loan-out company, or claims against Producer on behalf of performers employed directly by the Producer, must be brought within four (4) years from the date of filing of the compensation remittance report covering such performers.

c) Any claim for contributions not brought within the four (4) year periods referred to in subsections (6)a) and b) above shall be barred.

(d) SAG Pension and Health Plans Trustees

The SAG Pension and Health Plans shall each be administered by thirty-six (36) Trustees, eighteen (18) appointed collectively by the Alliance of Motion Picture and Television Producers and ANA-AAAA Joint Policy Committee on Broadcast Talent Union Relations, in accordance with the allocation described below, and eighteen (18) appointed by the Union. The appointing authority shall also have the right at any time to remove any Trustee appointed by it and to substitute another Trustee.

The number of Trustees to be allocated to the respective employer associations shall be subject to review every three (3) years following the establishment of the respective SAG Plan. At such times, the Trustees to be allocated to each employer association for the ensuing three (3) year period shall be determined, as nearly as practicable, in accordance with the proportion which the aggregate contributions to such SAG Plan for the preceding three (3) year period made by the members of each such employer association bear to the total contributions to such SAG Plan made by members of all such employer associations during such period.

The references in this Section 22 to any employer association shall apply to any employer association which may be or become a successor thereto.

(e) Producer Parties to SAG Pension and Health Plans

The SAG Pension and Health Plans shall be industry-wide and open to all Producers signatory to any of the Union's collective bargaining contracts which provide for payments to the respective Plans, as above set forth. By signing this Agreement, Producer (except a Producer which is not required to make contributions to the SAG Plans under this Agreement) thereby applies to become a party to and be bound by the Screen Actors Guild – Producers Pension Plan Trust Agreement and the Pension Plan adopted thereunder, and the Screen Actors Guild – Producers Health Plan Trust Agreement and the Health Plan adopted thereunder, if the Producer is not already a party to said Agreements and Plans.

Producer further hereby accepts and agrees to be bound by all amendments and supplements heretofore and hereafter made to the foregoing Agreements and documents.

Producer hereby accepts the Producer Plan Trustees under said Trust Agreements and their successors designated as provided therein.

The foregoing shall not apply to any Producer which is not required to make contributions to the SAG Plans under this Agreement.

(f) Purposes of SAG Pension and Health Plans

The funds contributed under the SAG Pension Plan and the SAG Health Plan shall each constitute a separate Trust Fund created by said Trust Agreements. The Trust Fund for the SAG Pension Plan shall be used for the purpose of providing pension benefits for employees covered by the Union's collective bargaining contracts in the motion picture industry who are eligible for such benefits under such SAG Pension Plan, and for expenses in connection with the establishment and administration of such SAG Pension Plan. The Trust Fund for the SAG Health Plan shall be used for the purpose of providing health benefits for employees covered by the Union's collective bargaining contracts in the motion picture industry, who are eligible for such benefits under such SAG Health Plan and, in the discretion of the Trustees, for their families, and for expenses connected with the establishment and administration of such SAG Health Plan.

(g) Eligibility and Benefits

The Trustees of the SAG Pension and Health Plans shall determine the form, nature and amount of pension and health benefits, respectively, the rules of eligibility for such benefits, and the effective dates of such benefits.

The health benefits may include, in the discretion of the Trustees, any one or more of the following benefits: death, accidental death, injury, disability, hospitalization, surgical expense and medical expense, and any other benefits permitted by law.

(h) Governmental Approvals

The SAG Pension Plan and the SAG Health Plan provided for herein, including the respective Plans of benefits thereunder, are each subject to retaining such approvals from the Internal Revenue Service, the State Franchise Tax Board, and any other appropriate authority as may be necessary:

(1) to maintain such SAG Plan as a qualified plan under the Internal Revenue Code and the California Revenue and Taxation Code; and

(2) to maintain the deductibility for federal income tax and franchise tax purposes of any and all contributions made by the Producers to the Trust Fund involved.

Whenever reference in this subsection (h) is made to a “SAG Plan,” such reference shall include any trust established and maintained pursuant to or incorporated in such SAG Plan. Reference herein made to particular laws shall include all rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. If any part of either SAG Plan is not so approved or does not comply with or conform to the foregoing or any other applicable law, such SAG Plan shall be modified by the Trustees in such manner and to such extent as may be necessary in order that such SAG Plan will comply with and conform to all legal requirements and that the necessary approvals may be obtained.

(i) Restriction on Reversion of Contributions

The respective Agreements and Declarations of Trust shall provide that no portion of the contributions thereunder may be paid or revert to the Producer.

(j) Obligation to Furnish Information

Producer shall furnish the Trustees of the SAG Pension and Health Plans, upon request, with the required information pertaining to the names, job classifications, Social Security numbers and wage information for all persons covered by this Agreement, together with such information as may be reasonably required for the proper and efficient administration of the SAG Pension and Health Plans, respectively. Upon the written request of the Union to the Producer, such information shall be made available to the Union.

(k) Coordination of Benefit Coverage

The benefits to which any performer may become entitled under the SAG Pension and Health Plans as herein provided shall not be reduced because of any other pension and/or health plan covering such performer. However, the SAG Health Plan may provide for a non-duplication of benefits with respect to persons coming under the SAG Health Plan and the AFTRA Health Fund.

(l) Prohibition Against Crediting

No part of the Producers’ contributions to the SAG Pension and Health Plans or the AFTRA Health and Retirement Funds, as applicable, may be credited against the performer’s overscale compensation or against any other remuneration that the performer may be entitled to, no matter what form such other remuneration may take; nor shall such contributions constitute or be deemed to be wages due to the individual employees subject to this Agreement, nor in any manner be liable for or subject to the debts, contracts, liabilities or torts of such employees.

(m) Cessation of Contributions

No contributions to the SAG Pension and Health Plans or to the AFTRA Health and Retirement Funds shall be required to be made with respect to any compensation, including rerun fees, foreign telecast fees and additional compensation for theatrical exhibition, Supplemental Market, basic cable and new media use, which become due and payable after the decease of the performer.

(n) Payment of Contributions to the SAG Plans or the AFTRA Funds for U.S. Performers Engaged under ACTRA or UBCP Contracts

The Producer contracts with the Alliance of Canadian Cinema, Television and Radio Artists (ACTRA) and the Union of British Columbia Performers (UBCP) contain provisions relating to pension and health contributions to the SAG Plans and health and retirement contributions to the AFTRA Funds made on behalf of U.S. performers engaged under those contracts.

(o) The parties agree to recommend to the Trustees of the SAG Health Plan the development of an “earnings bank” concept to enable series contract performers who are either terminated from a series or who are employed in the last year of a series which is cancelled to divert earnings sufficient to generate an additional year of eligibility to the next earnings period, if needed to provide health eligibility for the performer. In either event, the series must be in its second or subsequent season.

(p) Contributions to SAG Plans or AFTRA Funds for Warm-Up Performers

The parties agree to recommend to the Trustees of the SAG Pension and Health Plans and the AFTRA Health and Retirement Funds that if a warm-up performer and the Producer reach agreement upon the terms of a contract which provides for the submission of pension and health contributions to the Plans or the AFTRA Funds on behalf of the warm-up performer, the SAG Plans or the AFTRA Funds, as applicable, shall accept said contributions, provided that the contributions are based on the compensation paid for services as a warm-up performer and are subject to the applicable cap provided in the Agreement and, provided further, that contributions are not being made to another plan on behalf of such warm-up performer based on employment on the same project.

(q) Potential Merger of SAG Health Plan and AFTRA Health Fund

(1) During the 2014 negotiations, the parties discussed that the Boards of Trustees of the SAG Health Plan and the AFTRA Health Fund are in the process of studying a merger of the SAG Health Plan and the AFTRA Health Fund. For purposes of this provision, the reference to "merger" of the health plans includes considerations of other possibilities, including creating a new health plan and the complete or partial termination of an existing health plan and the redirection of contributions to the other existing health plan. Should a vote of the Board of Trustees of the SAG Health Plan, in which all AMPTP-appointed Trustees participated, result in the approval of the merger of the SAG Health Plan and AFTRA Health Fund, the parties shall either eliminate or modify Sections 34.B. and 34.D. of the General Provisions of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement of 2014 (and the identical provisions in Sections 22(d) and 22(f) of the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement) as necessary to effectuate the terms of the merger. If the parties agree that the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement of 2014 and/or the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement contain other provisions that would prevent the effectuation of the merger, either party may, upon thirty (30) days' written notice, re-open negotiations for the sole purpose of removing such impediment from the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement of 2014 and/or the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement.

(2) Successor Plan(s)

Producers that are required to make contributions to the SAG Health Plan under the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement of 2014 or the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement agree to become parties to any successor entity of the SAG Health Plan on the condition that all AMPTP-appointed Trustees participated in a vote of the Board of Trustees of the SAG Health Plan which resulted in the approval of the merger of the SAG Health Plan and AFTRA Health Fund.

Producers that are required to make contributions to the AFTRA Health Fund under the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement agree to become parties to any successor entity of the AFTRA Health Fund on the condition that all management-appointed Trustees participated in a vote of the Board of Trustees of the AFTRA Health Fund which resulted in the approval of the merger of the SAG Health Plan and AFTRA Health Fund.

22.1 SAG INDUSTRY ADVANCEMENT AND COOPERATIVE FUND/AFTRA INDUSTRY COOPERATIVE FUND

The Producers and the Union have established the Producer – Screen Actors Guild Industry Advancement and Cooperative Fund (“IACF”), the proceeds of which are earmarked for the administration of programs such as the following: seminars to enhance awareness of the casting and non-discrimination mandates contained in the Agreement, performers’ safety, work in smoke, use of animals in motion pictures, providing showcases, proper screening procedures and verification of performers’ eligibility to work in the United States.

The AFTRA Industry Cooperative Fund (“AICF”) proceeds are earmarked for the administration of programs intended to benefit performers and to increase awareness of the provisions of the AFTRA Network Code.

For employment on a television motion picture or a covered new media program, Producer shall make contributions to the IACF as set forth in the next paragraph if it is required to make contributions to the SAG Pension and Health Plans for such television motion picture or covered new media program under Section 22 of this Agreement. If, on the other hand, Producer is required to make contributions to the AFTRA Health and Retirement Funds for such television motion picture or covered new media program under Section 22 of this Agreement, then it shall make contributions to the AICF at the contribution rates and subject to the ceilings provided in the next paragraph.

Funding for the IACF and the AICF shall be provided by an employer contribution of three-tenths of one percent (0.3%) of “gross compensation,” as defined in Section 22(c) of this Agreement,¹⁰ for performers employed under this Agreement on motion pictures which commence principal photography on and after July 1, 2014. Such contributions are subject to the ceilings set forth in Section 22(c) of this Agreement, except that episodes or parts of a Grandfathered Series shall be subject to the ceilings set forth in Section 22(a)(1)a)(ii). No such contributions shall be due in connection with compensation paid on behalf of performers employed on television motion pictures covered under Sideletter K of this Agreement.

¹⁰ Payments made pursuant to Section 18.1 are not included in the definition of “gross compensation” for purposes of this provision.

The parties agree to recommend the following to the Trustees of the IACF:

- (a) That a study be conducted of the methods by which Producers and SAG-AFTRA will be assisted in implementation of the Basic and Television Agreements by electronic reporting of compensation, production information and residuals reporting by media and territory;
- (b) To establish a program designed to improve administration and enforcement of applicable laws and collective bargaining agreements governing the employment of minors in states other than California. The minors' study shall include the feasibility of a program including set visitations;
- (c) That a method for reimbursing Producers for payment of certain claims arising out of inadvertent omissions from final cast lists on television motion pictures be examined;
- (d) That the issues relating to disbursement of funds to beneficiaries be examined with the goal of decreasing existing administrative burdens;
- (e) Examination of a method for reimbursing Producers for payment of certain claims arising out of inadvertent omissions from the final cast list due to unidentifiable performances;
- (f) That a study be conducted with respect to appropriate standards for dance floors and the method for implementing such industry standard;
- (g) Examination of a method for reimbursing Producers for certain claims arising out of inadvertent omissions from final cast lists and other cast list adjustments occasioned by either the change in the rateable distribution formula for television motion pictures or by the change in the residual payment formula under Section 18.1 of the Television Agreement;
- (h) That funding of any costs associated with examining the allocation of contributions, as set forth in subsection (a)(3) of Section 22 of this Agreement, should be authorized; and
- (i) That the IACF and the AICF be merged during the term of the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement. In the event that the Trustees of the IACF and the AICF approve a merger during the term of the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement, Producers agree to make the required contributions to the successor Fund to the IACF and the AICF. The parties shall consider reducing the overall number of Trustees in the event of a merged Fund.

23. EXCLUSIVITY

(a) Series Performers

Exclusivity rights may be granted by a performer employed under a series contract, subject to the following conditions:

(1) A performer employed under a series contract, at a salary of two (2) times weekly minimum compensation or less per week or per episode, under his type of employment contract, may bargain with respect to the subject of exclusivity, but may not, through such bargaining, grant any greater rights of exclusivity than the following:

a) That he will not appear in a similar type role in a series-type live or film television program;

b) The above agreement may be effective only for as long as the Producer has any option rights on the performer's services under a term or series contract.

(2) Commercial Exclusivity

a) Money Break:

A performer employed under a series contract at a salary of \$12,500 or less per week or per episode, respectively, for a one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) hour program, and \$17,500 or less per week or per episode, respectively, for a program of one (1) hour or longer, may not grant any exclusivity (on or off camera) with respect to the making of commercials. Between the money breaks of \$12,500 and \$15,000 for one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) hour programs, and \$17,500 and \$20,000 for one (1) hour programs, performer may grant on-camera exclusivity only. A performer employed under a series contract at a salary of \$15,000 or more per week or per episode, respectively, for a one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) hour program, and \$20,000 or more per week or per episode, respectively, for a program of one (1) hour or longer, may grant off-camera as well as on-camera exclusivity. Off-camera exclusivity must be separately stated in performer's individual agreement with Producer.

b) Less than Thirteen (13) Episodes Guaranteed:

If performer is guaranteed less than thirteen (13) episodes in a group of thirteen (13) such episodes, performer may not grant any exclusivity with respect to the making of commercials, unless his or her guarantee exceeds the amounts specified below:

One-half (½) hour program	$130,000
---------------------------	-----------

One (1) hour program (or longer)	$195,000

c) Freedom to Bargain:

If a performer is guaranteed compensation in excess of the amounts set forth in subparagraphs a) and b) of this Section (23)(a)(2), Producer and performer may freely bargain with respect to commercial exclusivity.

(3) Except as set forth in Section 23(a)(2), a performer employed under a series contract at a salary of over two (2) times weekly minimum per week or per episode, respectively, under his type of employment contract but less than $15,000 per week or per episode, respectively, for a one-half (½) hour program, and $20,000 per week or per episode, respectively, for all programs one (1) hour or over in length, may bargain freely with respect to the subject of exclusivity, but may not, through such bargaining, grant exclusivity rights under which he does not retain the right to do at least three (3) television guest appearances in each thirteen (13) week period and the right to do unlimited radio guest appearances. The number of guest appearances by a performer on talk shows, game shows, news, panel and award shows shall be unlimited. The performer may agree in his individual employment contract that such television or radio guest appearances may not be in a continuing role on any television or radio series and that such guest appearances may not portray the same continuing character as that portrayed in the series and that such guest appearances may not be made on programs scheduled to be broadcast during the regularly-scheduled broadcast time period of such series.

(4) A performer employed under a series contract, at a salary of $15,000 or more per week or per episode, respectively, for a one-half (½) hour program, and of $20,000 per week or per episode, respectively, for all programs one (1) hour or more in length, may bargain without limitation on the subject of exclusivity of the services to be rendered under such contract.

(5) The rights of exclusivity which a performer may grant under subparagraphs (1), (2), (3) and (4) above may not in any event continue in effect after the completion of the first-run broadcasting of episodes in the series in which the performer appears, including repeat broadcasts of such series included in the current first-run sale, or sixteen (16) weeks after the expiration of the performer's contract, whichever first occurs; provided, however, that after the performer has completed his services under such contract, he shall not be precluded from accepting employment in a new series which is not scheduled to commence its first run until after the completion of the first-run episodes of the series in which the performer appeared, including repeat broadcasts of such series which are a part of such current first-run sale.

(b) Term Performers

A performer employed under a term contract may freely bargain on the subject of exclusivity except that, with respect to a hiatus period, such bargaining shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 23.

(c) Pilot Motion Pictures

When Producer has an option to employ performer under a series or term contract, until such option is exercised, such performer shall be free to accept other employment except that performer may agree that he will not:

(1) Perform in a continuing role or as a regular performer on any other television series;

(2) Portray the same character as he performed in the pilot;

(3) Perform in commercials on behalf of products or services competitive to a product or service (which is named in the performer's contract or of which the performer has been notified in writing) of a sponsor who has a firm option or agreement to purchase the series based on such pilot; provided, however, that performer shall inform Producer of any other offer which performer receives to perform in any other commercial, and shall not accept any such offer until he has first given Producer the opportunity to discuss with him the effect which the acceptance of such offer might have upon obtaining sponsorship of any such series.

(d) Except as provided in this Section 23, performers may not grant exclusivity.

24. OPTIONS

(a) Pilot and Other Initial Options

A performer may grant an option to a Producer to require the performer's services as a series or term contract performer, when the performer was employed in a pilot at a weekly salary at least equal to three (3) times the freelance weekly minimum or was paid such sum as consideration for such option when no pilot is made. Such an option may not extend past twelve (12) months from the date of completion of principal photography of such pilot. In the event no pilot is made, such option may not extend past twelve (12) months from the date of such option agreement. When no pilot is made, payment of the required salary as consideration for the option shall be paid no later than seven (7) days after test or the execution of the option agreement, whichever is earlier. If such option is exercised, the performer must commence to receive compensation not later than the expiration of such twelve (12) months.

In the event such option is for a period longer than six (6) months, then, at the time the option agreement is made, performer and Producer will bargain and include in performer's contract the substance of one of the three (3) alternatives listed below, to be effective after the first six (6) months of the option period and during the balance of such option period as follows:

(1) If, during the option period, but after the first six (6) months thereof, the Producer obtains a bona fide commitment for the production of the series and actually commences the principal photography of such series pursuant to such commitment but does not exercise the option on such performer within the option period, then the Producer shall pay such performer a sum equal to the aggregate minimum compensation which is applicable to the form of hiring specified in the performer's contract for the first thirteen (13) week production period of the program.

(2) During the option period, but after the first six (6) months thereof, the performer shall be free to accept commitments for any other employment and if, after the expiration of the first six (6) months of the option period, the Producer exercises its option, the rights of the Producer to the performer's services in the program shall be subject to all bona fide binding commitments entered into by the performer after the expiration of the first six (6) months of the option period and prior to the exercise of the option by the Producer. In such case, no payment of a nature mentioned in (1) above shall be payable by the Producer.

(3) During the option period, but after the expiration of the first six (6) months thereof, the performer shall have the right to accept any other employment on condition that on each occasion during the option period, but after the first six (6) months thereof, that the performer desires to accept a conflicting engagement, before the performer accepts a commitment for such employment, the performer will notify the Producer thereof and will afford the Producer the opportunity to preempt such other employment by exercising its option within a specified time after such notice from the performer. The specified time referred to in the preceding sentence shall not exceed seven (7) consecutive days if the proposed conflicting engagement is for a period not exceeding four (4) weeks or not to exceed fourteen (14) consecutive days if the proposed conflicting engagement is for a period of more than four (4) weeks. Such right of preemption will continue during the option period until either Producer exercises its option or the option lapses. In such case, no payment of a nature mentioned in (1) above shall be payable by the Producer.

“Conflicting engagement,” as used above, shall be an engagement which, if accepted and fulfilled, would extend beyond thirty (30) days from the date of performer’s notice to the Producer.

The limitations imposed by this subparagraph (a) shall not be applicable to options obtained by Producers upon the services of performers who received $8,500 or more ($9,000 or more with respect to contracts entered into on or after July 1, 2015) with respect to the pilot program, or for the option, and whose contracts call for weekly or per episode payments of at least $8,500 ($9,000 with respect to contracts entered into on or after July 1, 2015) if the option is exercised.

(b) Subsequent Contract Years

(1) A Producer may not exercise an option on a series performer who receives less than $8,500 per episode or per week ($9,000 per episode or per week with respect to contracts entered into on or after July 1, 2015) for an additional contract year, unless:

a) Such performer, if employed under a series contract form of hiring guaranteeing at least thirteen (13) episodes, shall have been employed or paid during the then-current contract year for a minimum of twenty-two (22) episodes and, if employed under a series contract form of hiring guaranteeing fewer than thirteen (13) episodes, such performer shall have been employed or paid during the then-current contract year for a minimum of twelve (12) episodes; or

b) Such performer's contract gives him the right, after any six (6) month period he has been held under option within the contract year without employment under such contract, to freely accept other commitments subject only to a right of preemption on the part of the Producer. Such preemption shall be governed by the provisions of (a)(3) above.

(2) With respect to any such series performer who is employed in a series of one and one-half hour programs, Producer shall not have the right to exercise an option for an additional contract year unless such performer, if employed under a series contract form of hiring guaranteeing at least thirteen (13) episodes, shall have been employed or paid during the then-current contract year for a minimum of sixteen (16) episodes; and if employed under a series contract form of hiring guaranteeing fewer than thirteen (13) episodes, such performer shall have been employed or paid during the then current contract year for a minimum of nine (9) episodes.

(3) With reference to the form of hiring referred to in Section 13 of this Agreement, a Producer may not exercise an option for a subsequent contract year on a series performer who receives less than $8,500 per episode or per week ($9,000 per episode or per week with respect to contracts entered into on or after July 1, 2015), unless such performer shall have been employed or paid during the then-current contract year for a minimum of six (6) episodes or unless the performer's contract gives him the rights set forth in subsection (b)(1)b) of this Section.

It is understood that a "contract year," as used in this Section 24(b), refers to the twelve (12) month period commencing from the option date provided in the performer's employment contract.

(c) Turnaround Period

As to any performer employed under a series contract in a given television series, in the event of cancellation of such television series by the sponsor or network, such performer shall be released from any and all options with respect to his services in such series which are not exercised prior to the expiration of sixty (60) days following either the expiration of his current employment period or such cancellation (whichever last occurs), but the foregoing shall not be applicable if the option for his employment period next following such cancellation has been exercised or is exercised prior to the expiration of such sixty (60) day period.

25. OVERTIME

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, overtime for performers employed in television motion pictures shall be computed and paid pursuant to the applicable Schedule of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement. As to services rendered on and after July 1, 2014, the money break for overtime for day performers shall be two (2) times the day performer minimum rate.

(b) (1) Three-day contract performers whose guaranteed salary is more than $3,000 for three (3) days of employment shall be paid daily overtime at double time for each hour or portion thereof worked in excess of ten (10) hours on any day, figured on the basis of $3,000.

(2) Weekly, series, term and all other performers in any category whose guaranteed weekly salary is more than $4,400 per week shall be paid daily overtime at double time for each hour or portion thereof worked in excess of ten (10) hours on any day, figured on the basis of $4,400 per week.

For the purpose of this subsection (b), one hour of pay at double time shall be:

	For Hours Worked in Excess of Ten (10) Hours in Any Day
	Double Time Rate
All performers employed at a weekly salary in excess of $4,400:	$200
All performers employed under a single three-day contract with guaranteed salary in excess of $3,000 for three (3) days' employment:	$250

Any such performer whose individual employment contract contains a provision giving such performer a percentage or other participation in the receipts, revenues or profits of a television picture shall be paid the required overtime at the time of employment; provided, however, such performer may agree in his employment contract that the overtime payments so made may be credited against such participations when and if received by the performer.

(c) The following provisions shall apply with respect only to freelance weekly, series and term contract performers receiving salaries of $4,400 per week or less in lieu of the overtime provisions set forth in such Schedules:

(1) Weekly Freelance and Series Performers Receiving Salaries of $4,400 Per Week or Less:

- a) When employed on a five (5) day studio workweek:

On each day in such week on which the performer works in excess of ten (10) hours, the performer shall be paid at the rate of double time for all hours worked in excess of ten (10) hours, in accordance with the existing rules as set forth in the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement.

When a performer works more than eight (8) hours per day on more than two (2) days in such week, any hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours and up to ten (10) hours on any additional day or days in excess of two (2) days, (i.e., for the ninth and tenth hours), overtime shall be computed and paid on the following basis:

Work time at time and one-half in one-tenth (1/10) hour units.

The two (2) days permissible hereunder without payment for overtime for the ninth and tenth hours may be any two (2) days in the performer's workweek.

- b) When employed on an overnight location six (6) day workweek:

On each day in such week on which the performer works in excess of ten (10) hours, the performer shall be paid at the rate of double time for all hours worked in excess of ten (10) hours, in accordance with the existing rules as set forth in the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement.

When a performer works more than eight (8) hours per day on more than two (2) days in such week, any hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours and up to ten (10) hours on any additional day or days beyond two (2) days (i.e., for the ninth and tenth hours), overtime shall be paid on the following basis:

Work time at time and one-half in one-tenth (1/10) hour units.

The two (2) days permissible hereunder without payment for overtime for the ninth and tenth hours may be any two (2) days in the performer's workweek.

Overtime paid for on a daily basis, as above provided, shall be excluded from weekly cumulative overtime. There shall be no change in the computation of the six (6) day weekly cumulative forty-eight (48) hour week which includes four (4) hours at straight time, whether worked or not.

(2) There shall be no compounding of overtime hereunder.

(3) Overtime - examples

Less 1 hour paid for as daily overtime	(1)
Net cumulative weekly hours	50

D worked two (2) hours over 48 cumulative weekly hours and is entitled to weekly overtime for two (2) hours at time and one-half.

(d) On a day on which a performer travels only, the performer shall be compensated at a day's pay. On a day on which the performer travels and works, overtime caused by travel will be compensated at time and one-half and not at double time.

26. COMMERCIALS

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this Section, all commercials shall be bargained for separately by the performer and Producer under the terms of the Producer–Screen Actors Guild 2009 Commercials Contract or any succeeding contract then in effect in replacement thereof.

(b) Employment contracts in effect on July 1, 2014 are governed by the Television collective bargaining agreement in effect when such employment contract was entered into.

27. PRODUCTION TIME REPORTS, LATE PAYMENTS, OVERWITHHOLDING AND PAYROLL AND UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE INFORMATION

(a) Production Time Reports

(1) It shall be the required custom and practice to proffer a production time report (“the report”) made out in ink to all performers at the end of each day, which report may include other performers in the cast (working that day) and which reflects time in and out, time of meal periods (including non-deductible meals), travel (including the total number of miles round trip for studio zone locations) for such performer.

Such report shall not be offered in blank. The performers shall initial or sign such report. A performer may object to the accuracy of the information contained in the report. The signing or initialing of the report by the performer shall not constitute acceptance of the report and the performer shall not be deemed to have waived any right to file a timely claim.

(2) Producer shall deliver a copy of the report for the previous week to the Union no later than the end of the following week.

(3) In the event there is a substantial breach of the foregoing requirements, liquidated damages in the amount of $275.00 shall be payable to the Union for each day of such substantial breach. In the event there is a dispute as to whether or not a substantial breach has occurred, the dispute shall be referred to and determined by the Cooperative Committee. In the event the Cooperative Committee cannot determine the dispute, the matter may be referred to arbitration.

(4) With reference to stunt performers, the amount of stunt adjustment shall be indicated on the stunt performer contract and/or production time report and initialed by both the stunt performer and the assistant director.

(b) Late Payments

(1) The time of payment for day performers shall be five (5) days, excluding Saturday, Sunday and holidays. If the company is on location, checks mailed on the fifth day shall be deemed to constitute timely payment. Time of payment for all other performers shall be as provided in the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement.

(2) There shall be a $10 per day per performer late payment charge, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, for late payment applicable to all Schedules from the time payment becomes due (excluding bona fide emergencies of which the Union shall be given prompt notice within the time specified for payment hereunder), for a period not to exceed twenty (20) days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, to a maximum of $200.00 per violation. No late payment shall be due to any performer who fails to provide the Producer with completed forms and documentation required for employment and/or payment (i.e., I-9s, vouchers, W-4s, or start paperwork indicating the correct name, address, Social Security Number, or tax identification number (for loan-outs) of the performer), provided that the Producer supplies the forms to the performer and makes reasonable efforts to collect those forms by notifying the performer that the forms are incomplete or missing.

(3) If there is a dispute over the amount due the performer, and Producer pays the undisputed amount on time, or if there is a bona fide dispute as to the Producer's liability therefor, there will be no late payment charge during the pendency of the dispute.

(4) Upon receipt by Producer of a written notice from the Union or the performer that Producer is still delinquent, Producer shall have five (5) business days to issue the payment, including the late payment charges.

(5) In the event payment is not made within said five (5) day period of the entire amount due, further late payment charges in the amount of $2.50 per day retroactive to the date of receipt of notice of non-payment shall be due and shall continue to accrue without limitation until the delinquent payment, together with late payment charges, is fully paid.

(6) Such charges for late payment shall be in addition to all other remedies which the Union may have against Producer under the contract.

(7) Late payment charges shall accrue commencing ten (10) business days after the settlement of a disputed claim.

(c) Overwithholding

(1) The "Part-Year Employment Method" of withholding, as currently set forth in Section 31.3402(h)(4)-1(c) of the Internal Revenue Code Regulations, or any applicable successor regulations, shall be utilized for any performer upon request of the performer and the form of declaration for each such use shall be attached to the performer's employment contract.

(2) The withholding of taxes on a weekly basis rather than on a daily basis for day performers as currently set forth in Internal Revenue Code Regulation Section 31.3402(c)-(1)(d)(2), or any applicable successor regulations, shall be utilized on the request of the day performer and the form of declaration for such use shall be attached to employment contracts of day performers.

(3) The obligation of the Producer to permit the election of the foregoing alternative withholding formulae shall be effective during such time as the Internal Revenue Code Regulations permit such alternatives.

(d) Payroll and Unemployment Insurance Information

Producer shall, upon request of the performer, supply the following information, in writing, to the performer:

- (1) The name, address and state identification number of the employer of record; and
- (2) The state in which unemployment insurance is filed.

28. MEAL PERIOD VIOLATIONS

- (a) For the first half-hour or fraction thereof: $25 per performer;
- (b) For the second half-hour or fraction thereof: $35 per performer;
- (c) For the third half-hour and each additional half-hour thereafter or fraction thereof: $50 per performer.

29. THE PERFORMER'S WORKWEEK

(a) Definitions - General

(1) An overnight location workweek, as used herein, shall be deemed to be a workweek consisting of six (6) overnight location days or six (6) days of any combination of studio and overnight location days, which combination includes a sixth day overnight location day.

Any workweek other than such an overnight location workweek, for the purposes of this Section 29, shall be deemed to be a studio workweek. The studio workweek shall consist of any five (5) days out of seven (7) consecutive days as designated by the Producer on each production unit. The sixth and seventh days in each workweek shall be the regular days off.

(2) An "overnight location day," as used herein, shall be deemed to mean any of the following days, if the performer is on salary that day, as provided in the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement:

- a) Any day spent or worked by the performer on an overnight location or on an exploitation tour;

b) The day of departure for such location (provided the performer does not actually work in the studio on such day);

c) The day of return from such location (provided the performer does not actually work in the studio on such day).

(3) The provisions in the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement with respect to premium pay for the seventh day in the workweek worked on an overnight location shall remain unchanged.

(4) For all purposes, the performer's weekly base rate shall be his weekly rate of salary as specified in his contract; and for purposes of computing the performer's hourly overtime rate, the applicable overtime premium (time and one-half or double time, as the case may be) shall be multiplied by one-forty-fourth (1/44) of the performer's weekly base rate.

(b) Studio Five (5) Day Workweek

(1) The performer's studio workweek shall be a five (5) day workweek. All performers shall receive additional pay for work in the studio on the sixth day of the workweek, to the same extent and on the same basis as provided in the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement; however, with respect to performers under "Deal Contracts," "Multiple Picture Contracts," or any other employment contract under which the performer, at the time the contract is entered into, is guaranteed $32,000 or more per television picture, with respect to a contract performer whose weekly salary at the time his contract is entered into is $4,400 per week or more, or with respect to a series contract performer whose salary at the time his contract is entered into is $3,937 or more per episode for half-hour programs, $4,499 or more per episode for one-hour programs or $5,624 or more per episode for one and one-half hour programs, the Producer and the performer may, by such performer's personal service contract, agree in advance for the performer's performance of any services in the studio on the sixth day in the workweek without additional compensation, except recording and photography made to be used in the motion picture.

(2) If performer does not work on the sixth day in the studio workweek, such sixth day will be excluded in computing consecutive days of employment.

(3) Performer is entitled to payment for a sixth day worked when a holiday falls on a regularly-scheduled work day and the performer is required to work on five (5) days (excluding the holiday) in the holiday week.

(4) If a performer is paid for a day or days not worked by reason of consecutive employment rules (a “hold day”) and such performer actually works five (5) or six (6) days in a studio workweek in addition to the “hold day(s),” such performer shall be considered to have worked on the “hold day(s)” for premium pay purposes and shall therefore be paid for the fifth day worked in the studio workweek as if it were the sixth day worked and be paid for the sixth day worked in the studio workweek as if it were the seventh day worked.

(5) A sixth day worked on an overnight location shall not be a premium day.

(6) When the performer is given two (2) consecutive days off during a studio workweek, the thirty-six (36) consecutive hour rest period provided for in the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement shall be increased to fifty-six (56) consecutive hours. However, when there is night shooting consisting primarily of exterior photography and the performer’s call is not earlier than 3:00 p.m. and he is dismissed in the studio at or before midnight on the fifth day of the workweek, such fifty-six (56) hour rest period, if otherwise applicable, may be reduced to fifty-four (54) hours.

In lieu of the fifty-six (56) hour rest period, the performer may be given a fifty-four (54) hour rest period when the call time for the first day of the new workweek following the rest period is not earlier than 6:00 a.m.

(c) Overnight Location Six (6) Day Workweek

(1) The performer’s overnight location workweek shall remain the same. As to weekly performers who are within the overtime brackets, the regular overnight location workweek shall be forty-eight (48) cumulative hours, commencing with the first day of the performer’s workweek, which forty-eight (48) hours include an additional four (4) hours overtime at the straight time hourly rate (whether worked or not); weekly overtime shall be at one and one-half (1½) times the straight time hourly rate for hours worked in excess of forty-eight (48) in such workweek, as provided in the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement, unless such hours have already been paid as daily overtime, in which case they shall be excluded for this purpose. (As to computation of overtime, see Section 25 of this Agreement.)

(2) Performer is entitled to payment for a seventh day worked when a holiday falls on a regularly-scheduled work day and the performer is required to work on six (6) days (excluding the holiday) in the holiday week.

(3) If a performer is paid for a day or days not worked by reason of consecutive employment rules (a “hold day”) and such performer actually works six (6) days in an overnight location workweek in addition to the “hold day(s),” such performer shall be considered to have worked on the “hold day(s)” for premium pay purposes and shall therefore be paid for the sixth day worked in the overnight location workweek as if it were the seventh day worked.

(d) Shift in Workweek

The performer shall be advised of any shift in the workweek prior to commencement of that workweek. In the event that the performer would receive fewer than two (2) consecutive days off in the workweek as a result of the shift change, the following alternatives shall be available: Once during the production of a motion picture, or in the case of episodic television, once between hiatus periods (i.e., between the commencement or resumption of production and a cessation of principal photography for the series for at least one week), the Producer may shift the workweek for performers without incurring extra costs, by adding one (1) or two (2) days off consecutive with the sixth and/or seventh days off in the prior workweek and/or by shifting a workweek commencing on a Tuesday to a workweek commencing on a Monday, provided that the intervening Sunday is a day off.

The parties confirm that the foregoing “shift in workweek” provision applies to a “round trip” switch so that the Producer is permitted to return the workweek to the originally scheduled workweek, without incurring any additional costs (e.g., a Monday-Friday shift which is switched to Tuesday-Saturday can be returned to Monday-Friday without incurring any additional costs).

Except as provided above, the Producer shall pay the appropriate premium for the sixth and/or seventh day worked in the workweek.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of a workweek shift for a weekly performer that results in a partial workweek either before or after one (1) full week of employment, the Producer may prorate the days worked for weekly performers as provided above.

(e) Prorating

(1) Whenever it is necessary to prorate the workweek in order to determine an additional day's pay, such prorating shall be on the basis of one-fifth (1/5) of the performer's weekly base rate, for either studio or overnight location workweeks. However, such proration shall not in any manner change the performer's weekly base rate for either the studio or the overnight location workweek.

With respect to performers under "Deal Contracts," "Multiple Picture Contracts," or any other employment contracts under which the performer is guaranteed $32,000 per picture, such prorating shall be a matter of individual bargaining.

(2) In any event, when a performer is guaranteed a fixed compensation on a picture or term contract basis, such fixed amount shall not be exceeded by reason of the amount of proration accruing in the final payroll week of the respective period or picture involved.

(f) Workweek

For the purpose of paying the performer at the end of a payroll week, that portion of performer's studio workweek which is part of such payroll week shall be paid on the basis of one-fifth (1/5) of the weekly base rate for each such day (excluding the sixth and seventh days in the workweek) in that payroll week. This is exclusive of any overtime or premium pay, if any, due in such performer's workweek.

(g) Day Performers and Daily Stunt Performers Employed Before and After Holiday

Day performers and daily stunt performers employed by Producer the day before and the day after any one of the recognized holidays hereunder, excluding any such holiday which occurs on a studio sixth day, and who do not work on such holiday, shall be paid for such holiday. Work on any such holiday shall be paid for under the provisions of Schedules A and H.

(h) No Compounding

The provisions in the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement against compounding of penalties or premiums shall likewise apply to the provisions of this Section 29.

30. MAKE-UP, HAIRDRESS AND WARDROBE

(a) Any performer to whom Producer supplies the services of a make-up artist for make-up, or hairdresser for hairdressing, shall be considered to have a call for make-up or hairdress, as the case may be, and the time so spent shall be work time.

(b) Adequate facilities shall be provided for removing make-up and hairdress, which may be the same facilities used for the application thereof. Time spent in removal of make-up or hairdress, other than ordinary make-up or hairdress, shall be work time.

(c) Meal Periods - In the event a Producer gives a one and one-half (1½) hour make-up call and notifies the performer that it shall include breakfast furnished by the Producer, the meal period provisions shall not commence to run until after such breakfast. Producer must serve a reasonable breakfast including, if the performer so requests, toast, cereal, eggs and coffee. (Coffee and doughnuts shall not be deemed a reasonable breakfast.)

(d) If a performer is required by Producer to furnish any special hairdress necessitating an expenditure, the Producer shall either furnish such hairdress or the performer shall be reimbursed for the amount so expended at facilities designated by the Producer.

(e) When performer supplies his or her own wardrobe at the request of Producer, Producer shall pay, as a cleaning allowance and reimbursement, the following amounts:

Formal wear	$17.00 ($18.00 with respect to contracts entered into on or after July 1, 2015)
All other wardrobe (per outfit)	$11.50 ($12.00 with respect to contracts entered into on or after July 1, 2015)

Payment of the foregoing cleaning allowance and reimbursement shall be made at the same time as payment for performer's services for such week and shall be separately identified. Such wardrobe allowance shall be paid to day performers for each calendar week, and to three-day performers and weekly performers for each workweek in which the performer is employed on the production.

Wardrobe supplied by the performer, which is damaged in the course of employment, shall either be repaired by Producer, or repaired at the expense of Producer at the facilities designated by Producer, provided that notice of such damage is given to Producer prior to the termination of the performer's employment.

Producer will supply performer with a copy of a wardrobe allowance voucher indicating the number of outfits provided to Producer, which voucher shall be supplied by the end of the week for weekly performers and, as to a day performer, whenever he or she is signed off each week.

(f) Free fitting time on days prior to work, specified in Schedule B, shall be as follows:

Free fitting time for performers employed under freelance or series contracts shall not be over three (3) hours on two (2) days per week or episode, as the case may be. Free fitting time for performers employed under a three-day contract shall not be over two (2) hours on one day.

(g) There shall be a voucher provided at all wardrobe fittings to be signed by the performer indicating time in and time out.

31. REST PERIOD

(a) The provisions of the various Schedules providing for a reduction of the twelve (12) hour rest period to ten (10) hours in certain instances shall be modified as follows:

When the Producer is photographing on a location other than an overnight location, the twelve (12) hour rest period may be reduced to ten (10) hours if exterior photography is required on such location on the day before and the day after such reduced rest period. When such reduction is allowed on any day by reason of exterior photography on a nearby location, it may not be again allowed until after three (3) consecutive days have intervened.

The reduction of the rest period from twelve (12) to ten (10) hours on nearby location shall not be permitted on the first day of each performer's employment in a television production.

(b) The various Schedules should be consulted with regard to the reference therein to the automatic payment that is due when the performer waives the rest period.

32. AIR TRAVEL AND FLIGHT INSURANCE

(a) Producer shall provide accidental death and dismemberment insurance in a principal sum not less than $100,000.00 to the performer or the performer's designated beneficiary when performer is required to travel by plane at the request of Producer, or $250,000.00 when performer is required to travel by helicopter at the request of Producer.

(b) In the event Producer is unable to provide the coverage stated above through Producer's insurance carrier, performer shall be informed of this fact no later than his arrival at the airport of departure. Producer shall reimburse the performer with the cost of the premium paid by performer in order to obtain such coverage, when performer presents proper receipts at the location production office.

(c) When air travel is required by the Producer, Producer shall use commercial flights when practical, available and feasible.

(d) Producer acknowledges the right of performer to refuse to fly on a charter plane, except, however, prior to employment Producer may obtain the consent of the performer to fly on a charter flight.

(e) In the event Producer agrees to a larger amount of such accident insurance in any other collective bargaining agreement entered into during the term of this Agreement, such larger amount shall thereafter be deemed to be provided for herein.

33. DRESSING ROOMS AND OTHER FACILITIES

(a) (1) Producer shall provide dressing room and toilet facilities which are clean, in repair and accessible in studios and on locations.

(2) An adequate number of chairs shall be available for all performers in the dressing rooms, on the stage, and elsewhere on studio premises where performers are required to be. Chairs shall also be so provided on location if they can be made reasonably available from sources at or near the location.

(3) There shall be no more than one (1) performer to a dressing room in a studio. On a location with ten (10) or fewer performers, there shall be no more than one (1) performer to a dressing room. On a location where there are more than ten (10) performers, there shall be no more than two (2) performers to a dressing room.

(4) The foregoing provisions shall not apply to Schedule H performers.

(b) Producers shall provide to stunt performers dressing room facilities which are clean, in repair and accessible in studios and on locations. The Producer shall take into consideration the type of work involved for the stunt performer and the location of the production in order to insure that such dressing room facilities provide the stunt performers with reasonable comfort and privacy.

By way of example, on location, no more than two (2) stunt performers per room in Teardrop trailers, campers, rooms in honeywagon units; no more than four (4) stunt performers in Winnebagos or motor homes.

(c) Producer shall designate a person responsible to implement the foregoing.

Such dressing rooms shall be provided with adequate locks and Producer shall provide facilities for checking normal personal belongings.

In the studio, the dressing room obligation may be met by permanent studio facilities or temporary mobile quarters, such as trailers, if permanent facilities are not available. On locations, the requirements may be met by temporary or mobile quarters, such as trailers. Heaters or fans shall be provided, as needed, in all dressing rooms.

In the event compliance with the foregoing is not feasible because of space, physical or legal limitations or location practicalities, the matter shall be discussed with the Union. Waivers shall not be unreasonably withheld under such circumstances.

Whenever a performer is required by Producer to make a change of wardrobe on the set, Producer shall provide suitable facilities affording privacy for such purpose. A private canvas dressing room will be deemed a "suitable facility" for this purpose.

34. FURNISHING REPORTS

(a) Producer will furnish to the Union, upon request, copies of call sheets. In cases of grievances, disputes or alleged disputes hereunder, Producer will make available to the Union for inspection, upon demand, all production reports and performers' contracts.

(b) Producer shall furnish to the Union reports of any accidents to performers which result in lost time or hospitalization.

(c) Producer shall provide to the Union information relating to the amount of compensation paid, up to a maximum of $500,000, to performers covered hereunder.

(d) (1) The following shall apply only to Qualified Residual Payors and Qualified Buyers and to those signatory production companies for which a Qualified Residual Payor or Qualified Buyer has agreed to assume the obligation to pay residuals or to guarantee the payment of residuals for that motion picture:

The Producer shall furnish a notice containing the following information to a designated representative of the Union at or prior to the time that the Producer clears performers through Station 12 on each long-form television motion picture, one-time program and episodic series:¹¹

- the name, address and telephone number of the production company;
- the type of production involved;
- the working title of the production; and
- the principal location at which photography is scheduled to occur.

Both the Union and the Producer shall designate a representative for the other party to contact in the event of questions concerning the foregoing.

The parties agree to convene the Contract Adjustment Committee to examine the necessity for this report after this requirement has been in effect for at least twelve (12) months, but not later than eighteen (18) months.

(2) All other Producers shall continue to provide information prior to the start of principal photography as substantially set out in the Union's Production Information Sheet.

¹¹ Only one such notice need be given for any episodic series.

35. TELEVISION TRAILERS

(a) Trailers for Individual Episode

Any performer who performs services in a television trailer to promote a single television episode or picture or multi-part closed-end picture (as distinguished from a continuing series or anthology) shall be paid not less than the day performer rate for such trailer (which shall include the right of Producer to make one edited shorter version of such trailer) provided that:

(1) Any performer who appears as a star or featured performer in any individual episode (or picture) or any part of a multi-part closed-end picture and who, during his employment period, performs in a television trailer to promote only such episode or picture shall not be entitled to payment other than compensation for such episode.

(2) Any performer who appears in a continuing role in a television motion picture series or a multi-part closed-end picture under a series or term contract who, during his employment period, performs in a television trailer to promote any individual episode or the multi-part picture shall not be entitled to payment other than his compensation for services in the series.

Any television trailer made under this subsection (a) to promote a single television episode or a multi-part closed-end picture may be used without limitation as to time in connection with the exploitation of such episode.

(b) Trailers Promoting Series

Any performer who performs services in a television trailer promoting a continuing series of television motion pictures or an anthology series (as distinguished from a single episode or picture or a multi-part closed-end picture) shall be paid not less than the day performer rate for such trailer (which shall include the right of the Producer to make one (1) additional edited shorter version of such trailer) for each thirteen (13) weeks of use thereof, provided that any performer who appears in a continuing role in a television motion picture series under a series or term contract who, during his employment period, performs in a television trailer to promote such series shall not be entitled to payment other than his compensation for services in such series.

(c) Use of Clips or Sound Track in Trailers

(1) Trailer for Episode

No additional compensation shall be payable for use of any portion of an episode of a television series or of a multi-part closed-end series when such portion is utilized as a trailer to promote such episode.

(2) Portion of an episode utilized as a trailer to promote another episode or the series as a whole:

a) The Producer shall be entitled to reuse photography or sound track of a performer from an episode of a series in a trailer promoting that series for a period limited to six (6) weeks without bargaining with or payment of additional compensation to the performer.

b) Any performer performing in a continuing role in such series under a series or term contract, whose performance is included in such portion, shall not be entitled to additional compensation;

c) (i) Any performer other than a performer covered by a) above or a performer performing in a continuing role as provided in b) above whose performance is included in such portion shall be entitled to additional compensation to be determined by individual bargaining with such performer at any time prior to use of such material in such trailer, which shall be not less than the day performer rate for a day performer and in other cases not less than the applicable minimum rate for the form of hiring under which such performer was employed in such episode, subject to the provisions of subsection (d) below. The payment of such additional compensation shall entitle the Producer to use or to authorize such trailer to be used to promote other episodes or the series as a whole on any television station or stations anywhere in the world for a period of thirteen (13) weeks. Additional periods of use may be obtained by payment of not less than the applicable minimum fee for each additional thirteen (13) weeks of use. The inclusion of the right to such use in the employment agreement between the Producer and performer shall be deemed to mean that bargaining for such use has been effectuated;

(ii) If Producer fails to separately negotiate as provided in subparagraph c)(i) hereof, the performer shall be entitled to damages for such unauthorized use, equivalent to three (3) times the amount originally paid the performer for the number of days of work covered by the material used. If the Producer is unable to find the performer, it shall notify the Union, and if the Union is unable to find the performer within a reasonable time, the Producer may use the photography or sound track without penalty;

(iii) If Producer and the performer negotiate for such use and are unable to reach an agreement, and all performers involved have agreed to compensation for such use except a single performer who, Producer claims, is unreasonably refusing to accept an equitable sum, Producer may submit the matter to the Union's Board of Directors for determination and both Producer and performer shall be bound by the determination so made, if the material is used. In all other cases in which Producer and the performer are unable to reach an agreement, Producer shall be prohibited from making such reuse of the material, and in case of violation, the performer shall be entitled, at his option, to either accept damages as provided in c)(ii) above, or to arbitrate his claim hereunder, or to take legal proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(d) Individual Bargaining

Anything in subsection (a), (b) or (c) of this Section to the contrary notwithstanding, the Producer shall be entitled to freely bargain for the making and use of trailers or the use of clips or sound track of the performer's performances in trailers (whether to promote a single episode or to promote a television series or to promote a multi-part closed-end picture) with any performer who is engaged in one or more episodes in the series or in the multi-part picture at a salary of $3,250 or more per week, provided the performer's services in making the trailer are rendered within the performer's employment period for such episode or episodes.

(e) Behind-Scene Shots

Scenes photographed simultaneously with a separate camera (behind-scene shots) are to be interchangeable with clips in trailers, and subject to the same limitations set forth in this Section.

(f) The foregoing rates and conditions apply to trailers made under this Agreement whether to promote "live" or "filmed" programs or series.

(g) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any portion of an episode in a television motion picture is used as a trailer to promote the series as a whole, no additional compensation need be paid to:

- (i) performers who are not recognizable, or
- (ii) performers or stunt performers appearing in mass action scenes involving a substantial amount of stunt work.

(h) No additional fees shall be payable for the repeated rerun use on television or the theatrical use of any such trailer.

(i) The length of trailers shall not exceed five (5) minutes containing one (1) or more scenes for television motion pictures less than ninety (90) minutes in length or ten (10) minutes containing one (1) or more scenes for television motion pictures ninety (90) minutes or more in length and for motion pictures made for the home video market.

(j) Thirty (30) Minute (or less) Promotional Films for Theatrical and Television Motion Pictures

(1) The Producer may negotiate at the time of employment with any performer to appear in "behind-the-scenes" photography to be used in such promotional films for no additional compensation.

(2) The Producer may use clips from the motion picture being promoted in such promotional films without the payment of compensation to any performer.

(3) Performers receiving $32,000 or more for the motion picture: Compensation to such performers for appearing in such promotional films shall be a matter of individual bargaining. The performer may agree to make such promotional films without compensation.

(4) Term contract performers acting in such promotional films during their employment under such contracts: Compensation for such services shall be a matter of individual bargaining. The performer may agree to make such promotional films during the term contract employment without compensation.

(5) All other performers appearing in such promotional films: At the time of employment, Producer may bargain with performer to appear in such promotional films, but the minimum compensation payable shall be day performer minimum scale.

(6) Such promotional films may not be combined to make "specials."

36. REUSE OF PHOTOGRAPHY OR SOUND TRACK

(a) No part of the photography or sound track of a performer shall be used in any picture, or other programs, whether filmed, taped, live or in any other medium, other than the one for which he was employed, without separately bargaining with the performer and reaching an agreement regarding such use, prior to the time reuse is made. The performer may not agree to such reuse at the time of original employment. The foregoing shall apply only if the performer is recognizable, and as to stunts, only if the stunt is identifiable. No reuse may be made of nude photography without the performer's written consent.

The day performer rate (including additional compensation for reruns, theatrical exhibition, foreign telecasting and Supplemental Market and basic cable use) shall be the minimum for purposes of the bargaining referred to above with respect to such use of such material in any motion picture other than the one for which he was employed. As to any other use of photography or sound track referred to above, the bargaining shall be subject to the minimum wages provided for in the collective bargaining agreement, if any, applicable in the field in which the photography or sound track is used, unless compensation for such other use is already provided for under this Agreement.

The provisions of this subsection (a) shall not limit Producer's right to use photography or sound track in exploiting the picture, or in trailers, promotional films thirty (30) minutes (or less) in length for television motion pictures, or in advertising, as provided in the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement; however, all such uses containing such photography or sound track of the performer shall be subject to the same footage limitations as applied to trailers contained in Section 35 above. Trailers are also subject to Section 35 above. In addition, Producer shall have the right to use photography or sound track for the purpose of recapping the story to date without payment to a series contract performer appearing or heard in such photography or sound track who would otherwise be entitled to negotiate or to payment under the provisions of this Section 36 (except that the series contract performer shall be added to the final cast list for that episode with a residual base of the day performer rate), or upon payment of the day performer rate to each performer (other than a series contract performer) appearing or heard in such photography or sound track who would otherwise be entitled to negotiate or to payment under the provisions of this Section 36, provided that the photography or sound track is used in the same season in which the series contract performer or other performer is employed or in the season immediately following the season in which the series contract performer or other performer was employed and, provided further, that the recap shall not exceed ninety (90) seconds in length when used in a program less than sixty (60) minutes in length, or exceed three (3) minutes in length when used in a program sixty (60) minutes or more in total length. Otherwise, the provisions of this Section 36(a) shall apply.

Whenever photography or sound track is so used in a recap, the Producer shall make any required payment for the use within sixty (60) business days from the exhibition of the permitted use. In the event the Producer fails to issue payment to the performer within that period, the Producer shall pay a late payment charge equal to the day performer minimum, in addition to the payment due for the reuse, in lieu of the amount prescribed above.

The Union may, in its discretion, grant waivers of the requirements of this Section with respect to the reuse of photography and sound track in public service, educational and like programs and will follow a liberal policy in granting such waivers.

(b) If Producer fails to separately negotiate as provided in subsection (a) hereof, the performer shall be entitled to damages for such unauthorized use, equivalent to three (3) times the amount originally paid the performer for the number of days of work covered by the material used. If the Producer is unable to find the performer, it shall notify the Union, and if the Union is unable to find the performer within a reasonable time, the Producer may use the photography or sound track without penalty.

(c) If Producer and the performer negotiate for such use and are unable to reach an agreement, and all performers involved have agreed to compensation for such use except a single performer who, Producer claims, is unreasonably refusing to accept an equitable sum, Producer may submit the matter to the Union's Board of Directors for determination and both Producer and performer shall be bound by the determination so made, if the material is used. In all other cases in which Producer and the performer are unable to reach an agreement, Producer shall be prohibited from making such reuse of the material, and in case of violation, or in a case in which the Producer fails to obtain the performer's written consent to reuse nude photography, the performer shall be entitled, at his option, to either accept damages as provided in (b) hereof, or to arbitrate his claim hereunder, or to take legal proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(d) If the performer is employed under a term contract and the use occurs during the time he is still under contract with Producer, the performer shall not be entitled to additional compensation, but if such reuse occurs at a time when the performer is no longer under contract with Producer, the provisions of subparagraphs (a), (b), and (c) hereof shall apply. Nothing herein shall be deemed to preclude the use, without additional compensation, of photography or sound track of a series contract performer made for an episode in any other episode in which he appears or for which he is paid under his contract.

(e) If, in a continuing story involving two (2) or more episodes or in a multi-part closed-end picture, the opening scenes of a given episode or a given part of the multi-part picture constitute a flashback to brief scenes from the preceding episode or part (for the purpose of refreshing the recollection of the audience), then as to performers employed in both such episodes, this shall not constitute reuse of film.

(f) Neither Producer nor Union waives its respective claims with respect to the reuse of photography of performers employed under "deal contracts."

(g) Producer will not publicly exhibit nor license for public exhibition bloopers reels without the appropriate consent of the recognizable performer(s) involved, including individual voice-overs.

(h) Except as otherwise provided herein, the late payment provisions of Section 27(b)(2) and 27(b)(7) herein shall apply to reuse of photography payments, except that the time for payment shall be thirty (30) business days from exhibition.

(i) The provisions of this Section shall not limit the Producer's right to use or authorize the use of clips from television pictures, without bargaining or making additional payment:

(1) within regularly-scheduled news programs; and in connection with other news and review purposes under the same circumstances as in the past;

(2) in Emmy Award programs; and

(3) when sound track or photography of a performer from one episode of a series is reused in a second episode of the same series, provided that: a) the performer appearing and/or heard in such sound track or photography was not hired by the day (unless the performer was a "major role" performer employed under the single day exception on one of the two episodes) and was employed as the same character on both episodes; b) any photography or sound track reused from the first episode was from the episode as aired; and c) except as provided in a)

above, the performer's terms of engagement on the second episode were not less than those on the first episode.

The parties hereby confirm that the provisions of this Section 36(i) allow the Producer to reuse sound track or photography from motion pictures, without compensation to the performers, in pre- and post-Emmy Award programs exhibited from the date that nominations are announced until eight (8) days following the Oscar or Emmy Awards program (as applicable), provided that any clip so used is limited to five (5) minutes containing one (1) or more scenes for television motion pictures less than ninety (90) minutes in length or ten (10) minutes containing one (1) or more scenes for television motion pictures ninety (90) minutes or more in length and for motion pictures made for the home video market.

(j) With respect to uses which would otherwise require payment pursuant to this Section 36, a star performer may, at the time of use, waive payment for the use of television film clips containing such performer's voice or likeness, it being understood that such waiver shall not affect other performers entitled to payment hereunder.

(k) With respect to uses of stunt footage which would otherwise require payment or be subject to an obligation to bargain pursuant to this Section 36 (or the corresponding provision of prior SAG Television Agreements), the following shall apply:

(1) Producer shall have the right to reuse photography or sound track of identifiable stunts (including stunts in motion pictures which were produced under prior SAG Agreements which restricted the reuse of such photography or sound tracks) in the media specified below upon payment of the day performer minimum or, if a different amount is specified below, upon payment of the amount so specified, to the stunt performer(s) appearing in the footage. It is not necessary for the Producer to bargain with the stunt performer before reusing the stunt footage.

The foregoing shall apply with respect to the use of stunt footage in:

a) other theatrical motion pictures, free television motion pictures, motion pictures made for the pay television/videocassette market, and motion pictures made for basic cable;

b) commercials, but the required payment shall be the applicable commercial session fee and residuals. As to commercial tie-ins, the following shall apply:

(i) commercial tie-in advertising of a motion picture which is available for sale at the same point of purchase as the other product being advertised shall be considered to “exploit the motion picture” and, thus, may be done without negotiation or payment; and

(ii) tag line-type advertising (brief tag or mention of a different product appended to or included in a commercial promoting a motion picture) shall be considered to “exploit the motion picture” and, thus, may be done without negotiation or payment.

c) standard openings and closings of television shows, but payment must be made on the same basis as is required under Exhibit A of the SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement for performers;

d) theme parks (other than uses that are promotional or exploit the motion picture, for which no bargaining or payment is required) for a period of five (5) years. (If a longer term of use is desired, an additional payment of then-current day performer minimum would be required for each subsequent five (5) year period.) In the alternative, Producer may obtain such rights in perpetuity upon payment to the stunt performer(s) appearing in the footage of a sum equal to three (3) times the then-current day performer minimum; and

e) in games and interactive videos.

Payment as provided above shall be made for each “excerpt” of photography or sound track which is reused. However, more than one excerpt of stunt photography or sound track may be reused upon payment of a single day performer minimum payment in the following circumstances: (i) if the reused stunts were performed by the same stunt performer in a single day; or (ii) if a stunt sequence is intercut with live action as part of a scene which includes footage on a television screen, movie theater screen or other similar viewing device.

Such payments shall be made within sixty (60) business days from the exhibition of the permitted reuse. In the event that the Producer fails to issue payment to the stunt performer within that period, the Producer shall pay a late payment charge equal to the day performer minimum, in addition to the payment due for the reuse, in lieu of the amount prescribed above and in Section 27(b)(2) and (5) of this Agreement.

(2) The provisions of subsections (a) through (j) above shall apply to the reuse of stunt footage in:

- a) music videos other than those which promote, advertise or exploit the motion picture from which the footage was taken. (Stunt footage may continue to be used without bargaining or payment in music videos which promote, advertise or exploit the picture from which the footage is taken, so long as the use meets the contractual criteria for which bargaining is unnecessary.)
- b) “compilation” stunt programs (i.e., shows comprised substantially of stunt footage).

(3) It is understood that the reuse of stunt footage in generic promos (trailers promoting series) shall be governed by the provisions of Section 35(b) and Section 35(c)(2) of this Agreement.

(l) The provisions of this Section are not applicable to stunt coordinators, except as they apply to stunt performer work performed by a stunt coordinator under a “flat deal” contract.

37. PHOTOGRAPHY OF LEGITIMATE STAGE PLAYS, BALLETS OR OPERAS (INSTANT MOVIES)

Producer will give the Union at least sixty (60) days' advance notice of the employment of any performer in a television motion picture to be made from a currently running legitimate stage play, ballet or opera, or other stage performance, or any such stage performance or ballet which has closed within eight (8) weeks of the commencement of the production of such television motion picture, and which performance staged substantially as presented on the legitimate stage and utilizing substantially the same cast as the stage performance, is to be photographed as a television motion picture. Producer and the Union agree to meet within thirty (30) days from receipt of such notice for the purpose of negotiating with respect to the terms and conditions of such employment. If no agreement is reached with respect thereto within such sixty (60) day period, the Union may instruct its members to withhold services with respect to the production of such television motion picture only.

This provision shall not apply to a motion picture produced from a screenplay written for such motion picture, based on such stage play, ballet, opera or other stage performance and photographed in a normal motion picture manner as distinguished from a recordation, as such, of the stage performance.

38. TOURS AND PERSONAL APPEARANCES

(a) Term and series contract performers may agree in their employment contracts to make tours and personal appearances. If such performer makes a tour or personal appearance and he is simultaneously working in a picture, all hours spent in connection therewith shall be work time for all purposes.

(b) As to all term contract performers under Schedules E and F, if the performer is not working in a picture, he shall receive a day's pay at straight time for each day, including travel days, in which he is engaged in tours or personal appearances.

(c) Transportation shall be provided to all performers on tours and personal appearances in accordance with the terms of Section 35.D. of the General Provisions of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement and the applicable Schedule; reasonable expenses shall be paid to all performers on tours and personal appearances.

(d) Producer shall cooperate to ensure that performers on tour and personal appearances are allowed adequate rest periods.

(e) One (1) personal appearance of any such performer requested by the Producer in connection with the opening of any picture in which such performer has performed, one (1) rehearsal in connection therewith and any period immediately prior thereto, which otherwise would not be work time, shall not be work time for any purpose. Personal appearances requested of any such performer by the Producer in connection with any benefit approved by the Theatre Authority, Inc., so long as the same has the sanction of the Union, or by any similar agency substituted therefor which at the time has the sanction of the Union, rehearsal in connection therewith and any period immediately prior thereto, which otherwise would not be work time, shall not be work time for any purpose.

39. SINGERS

(a) “Over-Dubbing” (Multiple Tracking)

When a singer re-records over the singer's original track containing the same material as recorded on the original track, the rate for over-dubbing alone shall be thirty-three and one-third percent (33 $\frac{1}{3}$ %) of the applicable rate, as provided in Section 2 hereof. Such over-dubbing shall be without limitation as to the number of tracks.

(b) “Sweetening”

When a singer records a new track containing new or variant material over the singer's original track, the rate, with or without overdubbing, shall be one hundred percent (100%) of the applicable rate as provided in Section 2 hereof. Such sweetening shall be without limitation as to the number of tracks.

(c) Contractors

(1) A contractor shall be required on all engagements of groups consisting of three (3) or more singers. The contractor shall be present at all times during the session and, in all cases, shall be a performing member of the group, except in those cases in which the sex of the group precludes the utilization of the contractor's singing performance, or in the case of hiring a children's singing group. The contractor shall be considered a member of the vocal group for contract purposes and shall be covered by all terms of the applicable Union contract.

The foregoing shall not be applicable to three (3) or more singers who are an established group or act.

(2) When a singer is required to perform services as a contractor and is paid additionally, as provided in Section 2, for such services, such additional checks will not be included as part of his applicable minimum salary for rerun, foreign telecast, theatrical release, Supplemental Market or basic cable use purposes.

(d) Use of Singer's Recording

When a professional singer employed or contracted for by Producer, within the geographical jurisdiction of this Agreement, does a recording of a song or other musical composition and the same is included by the Producer in a television motion picture (as finally cut and released), such professional singer shall, for the purpose of this Television Agreement only, have the same rights to compensation as any “off camera” performer if such recording thereafter is included in any other television motion picture or motion pictures.

(e) Single Episode; Non-commercial Openings, Billboards, etc.

Singers employed to perform the services covered by Section 2 of Exhibit A of this Agreement shall be paid the applicable daily television minimum rates.

(f) Step-Out Category

(1) If a solo or duo is called upon to step out of a group to sing up to fifteen (15) cumulative bars during a session, the solo/duo shall be paid an adjustment of fifty percent (50%) of the solo/duo rate in addition to the appropriate group rate for that day.

(2) If a solo or duo is called upon to step out of a group to sing sixteen (16) or more cumulative bars, or remain more than one (1) hour after the group has been released, to perform a solo or duo of any length, the solo/duo shall be paid the full solo/duo rate in addition to the appropriate group rate for that day.

(3) Any member of a group who steps out to perform as part of a smaller group to sing over four (4) consecutive bars shall be paid at the smaller group fee for that day. Such reclassification shall not operate to reduce the size of the overall group with respect to fees payable to the remainder of the group.

(g) Reuse of Recorded Track - Television Series

(1) In General

If written approval of the singer is obtained at the time of singer's original employment, Producer may include singer's recorded performance in other episodes of the series; provided that Producer pays to performer the rate specified herein for performer's original employment and for each episode in which singer's recording is used.

a) Rate

Solo/duo	-	daily off-camera solo/duo rate plus thirty percent (30%)
Three (3) or more	-	daily off-camera solo/duo rate

b) Residuals

Residuals shall be paid for each episode in which performer's services are used, utilizing the appropriate required formula (e.g., rerun, foreign, theatrical, etc.) applied to the minimum provided for herein. All original compensation, including compensation for multiple tracking and sweetening, shall be included in the base used for computing additional compensation for reuse of recorded track.

c) No Crediting

The fee specified for the recording of material may not be applied against any of the additional fees for use in other episodes or against residuals.

(h) If singer's recorded performance is used in more than one (1) episode of a continuing story involving two (2) or more episodes, the singer shall be paid for each episode in which his or her performance is so used.

40. NIGHT WORK

(a) Night work is defined as work between 8:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m., except that a first call for the day at 5:00 a.m. or thereafter shall not constitute night work.

There shall be no premium payable for night work, except that a performer (including a singer) who is called solely for the purpose of looping, singing or automatic dialogue replacement (ADR) work during post-production shall receive premium pay for each straight time hour of night work equal to ten percent (10%) of his hourly rate for such hours. However, such premium shall not be payable to a performer (or singer) if the looping, singing or ADR work is scheduled at night to accommodate the schedule of that performer (or singer).

Such premium pay shall be payable to any Schedule A performer who is earning in excess of $1,200 on the basis of $1,200.

Such night premium pay shall not be paid on any overtime hours.

(b) To the extent known, Producer shall provide advance notice, i.e., on a day prior, that night work will be required and whether such night work will involve interiors or exteriors.

(c) Dismissal - New York City. Any performer required to work at night who is requested to report within the thirty (30) mile New York zone described in Schedules A through E of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement, but outside the eight (8) mile zone described therein, and not dismissed by 9:30 p.m. will be provided transportation by Producer to Grand Central Station, Penn Station or the Port Authority, unless such place of dismissal is within a zone bordered by 34th Street on the south, 59th Street on the north, and Third and Eighth Avenues on the east and west, respectively.

41. ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION FOR RERUNS, FOREIGN TELECASTS, BASIC CABLE EXHIBITION, THEATRICAL EXHIBITION AND SUPPLEMENTAL MARKET USE, AS WAGES

Additional compensation for reruns, foreign telecasts, basic cable exhibition, theatrical exhibition or Supplemental Market use (herein sometimes called “residuals”) which accrues to the performer, as provided in Sections 18, 18.1, 19, 20, and 20.1 herein, shall be considered and treated for all purposes as any other wages due and owing to the performer hereunder. Such wages are subject to Social Security, withholding, unemployment insurance taxes and disability insurance taxes required by law. Others who assume such contractual obligation shall make the required payments and/or reports and withholding with respect to such taxes.

42. PREEMPTION OF TIME OF PROGRAM

If a television network preempts the time during which a motion picture series is to be telecast, in order to telecast an event or events of national importance or in the public interest and, as a result, the sponsor cancels delivery of any episode or episodes in such series, or reduces the number of episodes in the succeeding program group of such series, the Producer may, likewise and to the same extent, reduce the number of episodes guaranteed to a performer under a series contract without penalty. Such reduction, as far as possible, shall be made from the next succeeding episodes in the same series; provided further, that (i) the total number of episodes which may be cancelled by the Producer by virtue of such preemption of network time may not in any event exceed a maximum of two (2) in any series of thirteen (13) episodes, and (ii) no such reduction may be made from the first thirteen (13) episodes produced for the first broadcast year of any series.

42.1 DEFINITION OF NETWORK

The term “network,” as used in this Agreement, means ABC, CBS, Fox Broadcasting Company (“FBC”) and NBC, or any other entity which qualifies as a “network” under Section 73.662(f) of the rules of the Federal Communications Commission, unless the FCC determines that such entity is not a “network” for purposes of such Section.

43. NOTICE TO PERFORMER

Whenever the Producer:

- (a) exercises an option for an additional term following a hiatus under a term contract, or
- (b) exercises an option for a series following the production of a pilot motion picture, or
- (c) exercises an option for additional episodes of a series after an interval between the completion of the production period of the preceding episodes and the commencement of the production period of such additional episodes, or exercises an option for a subsequent contract year, the performer shall, except as provided in Section 11(a)(3) and Section 11(b)(3), be given at least thirty (30) days' advance written notice of the date on which he is to report for work in the next series or in the next term, but such period of time may be reduced to ten (10) days if such shortened notice does not conflict with any other commitment previously made by the performer. It is understood that neither span nor work time shall commence until the performer is recalled to work.

44. SCOPE OF AGREEMENT

- (a) When Producer has its base of production in the United States or any commonwealth, territory or possession of the United States, the terms of this Agreement shall apply, excluding only the Union Security provisions of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement in any commonwealth, territory or possession of the United States until the Union establishes a Branch in such area.
- (b) When Producer has its base of production as provided in subsection (a) above and goes on location in Canada, the terms of this Agreement, excluding the Union Security provisions of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement, shall apply to all performers hired by Producer at such location.
- (c) When Producer employs a performer in the United States and transports him anywhere outside of the United States for a motion picture, the terms of this Agreement shall apply.

45. CHILDREN SUBJECT TO UNION SECURITY AND PREFERENCE OF EMPLOYMENT PROVISIONS

The provisions of Section 2, “Union Security,” of the General Provisions of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement shall be applicable to all children of the age of four (4) years and over, and the provisions of Section 14, “Preference of Employment,” shall be applicable to all children of the age of eighteen (18) years and over.

46. EMPLOYMENT IN MOTION PICTURES OF FIFTEEN (15) MINUTES OR LESS IN LENGTH

It is agreed that performers may be employed in motion pictures of fifteen (15) minutes or less in length, without limit as to the number of episodes in which they work on any day as day performers, weekly freelance performers or term contract performers at the applicable minimums set forth herein; provided, however, that in all such cases, the performer shall be paid not less than the applicable day performer rate for each episode in which his services are used.

47. LIMITATION ON CREDITING

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 83(f), 83(g)(3) and 83(i)(1)b)(ii) and Paragraph E.4.(e)(i) of Sideletter H, no compensation paid to a performer for his services in excess of the minimum may be credited against overtime, penalties or any other compensation otherwise due the performer under this Agreement. Advance payment for reruns, theatrical exhibition or foreign telecasts when made in compliance with Sections 18 and 19 of this Agreement shall not be deemed to be crediting nor subject to this Section.

(b) No compensation payable to any performer as salary or advances against reruns or theatrical rights, under employment contracts in existence on July 1, 2014, shall be reallocated so as to deprive such performer of any benefits under this Agreement; provided that a reduction in the amount of overscale payments resulting from an increase in applicable Union scales or minimums shall not be deemed to constitute such reallocation.

48. INCORPORATION IN INDIVIDUAL CONTRACTS

Except as otherwise herein expressly provided, the minimum terms and conditions hereof shall be deemed incorporated in all individual contracts of employment in effect on the effective date hereof or thereafter executed, with respect to all services rendered on or after such effective date.

49. APPLICATION OF AGREEMENT

Except as herein otherwise expressly provided, this Agreement shall:

- (a) Apply to all services performed on or after July 1, 2014 and during the term of this Agreement, under either employment contracts in existence on July 1, 2014 or employment contracts entered into thereafter.
- (b) Not apply to services performed prior to July 1, 2014; and
- (c) Not apply to television motion pictures, principal photography of which was completed prior to July 1, 2014.

With respect to subsections (b) and (c), the appropriate prior Screen Actors Guild Television Agreement, Exhibit A of the 2011 AFTRA Network Code, The CW Supplement to the 2011 AFTRA Network Code, Screen Actors Guild Basic Cable (Live Action) Agreement or independent agreement with SAG, AFTRA or SAG-AFTRA for a basic cable series shall be applicable.

50. ARBITRATION

Disputes shall be arbitrable only as hereafter in this Section set forth:

- (a) Disputes involving or relating to injunctive relief are not arbitrable.
- (b) Disputes involving or relating to the right of termination of a performer's individual employment contract are not arbitrable, except:
 - (i) with respect to day performers, stunt performers, stunt coordinators, airplane pilots, singers, dancers, professional puppeteers and body doubles, and as to performers under contract for multiple pictures per week, performers under three-day contracts and freelance contracts whose guaranteed salary is less than $50,000 per picture; and (ii) except as provided in subsection (c)(4)a below.

(c) Individual disputes between performer and Producer:

Subject to the provisions of subsections (a) and (b) above and subsection (e) below, only the following disputes are arbitrable:

(1) As to a day performer, stunt performer, stunt coordinator, airplane pilot, singer, dancer, professional puppeteer or body double, and as to a performer under contract for multiple pictures per week, or a three-day contract or a freelance contract whose guaranteed compensation is less than $150,000 per picture: The issue of whether a contract was entered into and any dispute involving the interpretation, performance, non-performance or an alleged breach of a term or condition of the performer's contract, including claims for compensation at scale or overscale, and all disputes arising under the applicable terms of the collective bargaining agreement relating to such performer; provided, however, that if such performer's guaranteed compensation exceeds $75,000 for the picture, the dispute shall be arbitrable only if the total amount of money claimed by the performer does not exceed $100,000; if the total amount of money claimed by the performer exceeds $100,000, the dispute shall not be arbitrable, in whole or in part;

(2) As to a performer under a series contract receiving a weekly compensation up to and including $30,000 per week, or as to a performer under a series contract receiving a weekly compensation between $30,000 and $50,000 per week whose claim for payment does not exceed $250,000 (if the amount claimed exceeds $250,000, the dispute shall not be arbitrable in whole or in part) or a term contract performer receiving a weekly compensation up to and including $7,100 per week, any dispute arising under the applicable terms of the collective bargaining agreement relating to such performer and any dispute arising under the performer's individual employment contract concerning the payment of compensation at scale or overscale;

(3) As to all performers not expressly covered in (1) and (2) above, and except as provided in subsection (c)(4)a and in the succeeding sentence, only disputes arising under the applicable terms of the collective bargaining agreement shall be arbitrable. Any disputes relating to additional compensation for reruns, theatrical exhibition, and foreign telecasting above scale shall be arbitrable provided (i) the claim involved in such arbitration includes all performers who render services in the picture or for whom it is claimed such additional compensation is due, and (ii) there is no offset or counterclaim asserted therein against such performers who are not included in (1) or (2) above. Except as provided in said subsection (c)(4)a), and in the preceding sentence, disputes arising under the individual employment contract of such performers, including claims for compensation therein provided, shall not be arbitrable;

(4) As to performers under term contracts receiving $7,000 or less per week and performers under series contracts receiving $30,000 or less per week, performers under contract for multiple pictures per week or freelance contracts guaranteed less than $75,000 per week, the following provisions shall apply when disputes as to any such performer arising under his individual employment contract or the collective bargaining agreement involve both a claim of compensation and the issue of termination:

a) When the Producer claims to have terminated or seeks a termination of the performer's individual employment contract: (i) if the total amount of money claimed by the performer does not exceed $250,000, the entire dispute shall be arbitrable, it being agreed that the performer's entire claim shall be presented in a single arbitration; (ii) if the total amount of money claimed by the performer exceeds $250,000, the dispute shall not be arbitrable, in whole or in part.

b) When the performer claims to have terminated or seeks a termination of his individual employment contract, the dispute shall not be arbitrable, in whole or in part.

c) If either party claims to have terminated or seeks a termination of the performer's individual employment contract, such party shall so notify the other, in writing, at any time prior to the expiration of the ten (10) days following delivery of the written statement of grievance provided for in subsection (f)(3) of this Section.

(d) Disputes between Union and Producer

(1) Starting Date - Freelance Performers: Any dispute between the Union and any Producer with respect to the issuance of any waiver referred to in the provisions of Section 4(c) of Schedules B and C of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement shall be determined, at the request of either party, by arbitration.

(2) “Phantom Stages:” The Union has heretofore, upon request, issued waivers permitting the giving of weather-permitting calls for work on certain stages, such as the so-called “Phantom Stage” at Universal City Studios when rain, wind or hail rendered sound recording unusable. Similarly, waivers have been granted authorizing weather-permitting calls when caused by fog, wind, rain or hail on uncovered, tarpaulin-covered or open structures. It is agreed that weather-permitting calls within the limits provided by the contract may be given to performers on such or similar stages and on open or uncovered structures when the making of usable sound track is rendered impossible because of rain, wind or hail, or when usable photography on an uncovered structure is rendered impossible by fog, wind, rain or hail. Disputes which may arise hereunder are subject to arbitration.

(3) All disputes between the Union and a Producer as to the interpretation of this collective bargaining agreement shall be arbitrable.

(e) Any dispute described in subsection (b) or (c) above shall be arbitrable only if the amount in controversy on a per performer, per project, per dispute basis is $250,000 or less; if the amount in controversy on a per performer, per project, per dispute basis exceeds $250,000, the dispute shall not be arbitrable, in whole or in part. Any dispute described in subsection (d) above, other than a dispute over residuals, shall be arbitrable only if the amount in controversy is $250,000 or less; if the amount in controversy is more than $250,000, the dispute shall not be arbitrable, in whole or in part. There shall be no monetary limit on the amount in controversy in connection with disputes over residuals under subsection (d) above.

Any performer whose dispute involves an amount in controversy which exceeds the monetary limits set forth in subsections (b) or (c) above may waive his/her claim to those amounts exceeding the limitations in order to make the claim subject to arbitration. If the performer does so waive the excess amount, arbitration shall be the exclusive remedy for such claim and the performer shall waive the right to commence court proceedings.

No performer shall be permitted to split a claim in order to come within the foregoing arbitration limits.

(f) Procedure

(1) Whenever any dispute arises which is arbitrable under the provisions of this Agreement, a representative of the Union and a representative of the Producer involved shall meet within ten (10) days after a request is made for conciliation by either party and endeavor to conciliate such dispute.

The filing of a formal claim by the Union shall be deemed an automatic request for conciliation. Claims hereunder (other than residuals claims, claims concerning screen credit and claims for upgrades of background actors) shall be filed not later than the later of: (i) six (6) months after the occurrence of the facts upon which the claim is based; or (ii) within six (6) months after the employee or the Union, or the Producer, as the case may be, has had a reasonable opportunity to become aware of the occurrence. Otherwise, such claims shall be deemed waived. The time period for filing claims shall be tolled while discussions to resolve the matter are taking place between the Producer and the performer's agent.

Claims concerning screen credit (Section 54) must be filed within one (1) year of the first television broadcast of a television film.

Residuals claims shall be filed not later than the later of (i) one (1) year after the occurrence of the facts upon which the claim is based; or (ii) within one (1) year after the employee or the Union, or the Producer, as the case may be, has had a reasonable opportunity to become aware of the occurrence.

Claims for the upgrade of background actors shall be filed not later than three (3) months after the occurrence of the facts on which the claim is based.

(2) In the event Producer has authorized an employer association to represent Producer, Producer shall have the right to have a representative of the appropriate employer association present at such conciliation.

(3) In the event of a failure to settle the dispute under the applicable procedure provided above, or if a party fails or refuses to meet after a request for conciliation, then, in either of such events, the Union or Producer shall deliver to the other a written demand for arbitration setting forth the material facts concerning the dispute.

The demand for arbitration shall be filed not later than one (1) year after the date of filing of the grievance. A demand for arbitration may be filed prior to initiation or conclusion of the conciliation proceeding if it reasonably appears that the conciliation proceedings will not be concluded in sufficient time to permit the arbitration proceeding to be commenced in time.

The demand for arbitration shall be served upon the other party by first class mail addressed to the representative of the Union or the Producer designated to receive such service at such party's last-known address or by personal service within or without the state where the proceeding is to be held. The other party may file a written reply within ten (10) days following the receipt of the demand for arbitration.

The arbitrator shall be selected within fifteen (15) days of the date the arbitration demand is served from a predetermined list of arbitrators mutually agreed upon by the Union and the AMPTP. The Union and the AMPTP shall agree upon a panel of arbitrators for Los Angeles within thirty (30) days after the date of ratification and a panel of arbitrators for New York within sixty (60) days after the date of ratification. Until such time as the arbitration panels have been chosen, the arbitrator shall be selected in accordance with the procedures of the American Arbitration Association.

The parties shall attempt to mutually agree upon an arbitrator to hear and determine the dispute. If the parties cannot agree upon the arbitrator to be appointed, then each party shall have the right to alternately strike one name from the list until such time as one arbitrator is left. A coin toss shall determine the party who is to strike first. The arbitrator who is left shall be appointed as the arbitrator in the proceedings.

In the event that the Producer fails to participate in the selection process and the Producer is a member of an employer association, the Union will contact the association, which will participate in the selection process on behalf of the Producer within ten (10) days of notification from the Union. In those instances in which the employer association fails to select on behalf of the Producer or in which the Producer who is not a member of an employer association fails to participate in the selection process, the Union may unilaterally select the arbitrator from the panel. The Producer shall unilaterally select the arbitrator from the panel if the Union fails to participate in the selection process.

The arbitration hearing will be commenced within sixty (60) days of the date that the arbitrator is selected. The arbitration award will be issued within thirty (30) days of the date of submission.

All of the time periods herein may be extended in any particular case upon the written agreement of the parties.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to deprive any party of the right to assert at any time and in any proceeding, or otherwise, that the matter in question was not arbitrable hereunder.

(4) All arbitrations hereunder, which are not instituted by Producer, shall be brought by and in the name of the SAG-AFTRA, whether such arbitration is on its own behalf or on behalf of a performer and, in the latter case, the Union may, but shall not be required to, represent the performer. The Union may, however, in its discretion, permit a performer to bring an arbitration in the name of the performer. It shall, however, be solely within the discretion of the Union whether or not the claim of a performer shall be brought to arbitration.

(5) The cost and expenses of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by the Union and the Producer involved.

(6) The arbitrator's decision and award shall be in writing and shall be final and binding on the Producer, the Union, the performer or performers involved and, when applicable, the performer's loan-out company.

(7) The arbitrator shall only have authority to determine the dispute presented by the written demand for arbitration, and then only to the extent and in the manner as expressly provided by the applicable provisions of this collective bargaining agreement as limited by the provisions of this Section 50. The arbitrator shall have no power or authority to make a finding or an award relating to the termination or right of termination of an individual employment contract of a performer, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Section 50. Nor shall the arbitrator have any power or authority to make a finding or award for or against injunctive relief. Nor shall the arbitrator have any power or authority to reform any contract involved in the arbitration.

(8) Termination or expiration of this collective bargaining agreement shall not affect the application of the arbitration provisions of this Agreement to arbitrable disputes arising during the term of this Agreement.

(g) Recognizing that, in some cases, a dispute may involve one or more matters which are arbitrable hereunder, and one or more matters which are not arbitrable hereunder, it is agreed that no award in an arbitration hereunder shall affect, be used or be admissible in any other action or proceeding relating to matters which are not arbitrable hereunder; and no judgment or order in any other action or proceeding shall affect, be used or be admissible in any arbitration hereunder, but it is expressly agreed that an arbitration award made in accordance with the provisions of this Section 50 shall not be affected by any court action or proceeding, but nothing herein shall preclude any court of competent jurisdiction from confirming, setting aside or modifying any arbitration award hereunder, in any proceeding brought for any such purpose, in accordance with applicable law.

(h) In no case may any arbitration hereunder or any award therein affect any rights of the Producer or performer in or to or with respect to the results and proceeds of the performer's services or in or to or with respect to the use of the performer's name, voice or likeness.

(i) All references in this Section 50 to the termination of an individual employment contract shall include a termination of the performer's employment under such contract or with respect to one or more pictures thereunder.

(j) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 50, the Union may, at its option, and on behalf of any performer or performers involved, waive arbitration and institute in its own name, on behalf of such performer or performers, legal proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction for the collection of additional compensation for reruns, theatrical rights, foreign telecasting, Supplemental Market and basic cable use, for and on behalf of all performers involved.

51. LOAN-OUTS

A performer borrowed from a domestic company or a foreign company shall receive the same working conditions as those provided in the Television Agreement or the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement. The Union Security provisions shall apply when the lending company is a signatory to the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement or the Television Agreement, whether such company is a domestic or a foreign company, provided the services are performed under the jurisdiction of this Agreement. The obligation to make pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable, is subject to the provisions of Section 22(c)(5). Producer shall give reasonable notice to the Union prior to the commencement of the term of the loan-out when it borrows the services of any performer from a non-signatory lending company, foreign or domestic, to render services within the jurisdiction of this Agreement.

52. TERM AND EFFECTIVE DATE

The term of this Agreement shall be for a period commencing July 1, 2014 and expiring June 30, 2017, but continue thereafter until terminated by either party on at least sixty (60) days' written notice.

The effective date of this Agreement shall be July 1, 2014. Except as specifically otherwise provided, the provisions hereof relating to wage increases and working conditions shall be effective on and after said date, and shall apply to services rendered on and after such date under existing contracts of employment and contracts of employment entered into on or after said date, and to motion pictures whose principal photography commenced after such effective date.

53. STANDARD OPENINGS AND CLOSINGS

Attached hereto as Exhibit A, and incorporated herein, is a schedule of minimum rates and conditions for standard non-commercial openings and closings and other related matters.

54. SCREEN CREDIT AND BILLING

(a) (1) Producer agrees that a cast of characters on at least one card shall be placed at the end of each television motion picture naming the performer and the role portrayed. All credits on this card shall be in the same size and style of type with the arrangement, number and selection of performers listed to be at the sole discretion of Producer. All such credits shall be in a readily readable color, size and speed. The Union will not unreasonably withhold waivers in connection with the foregoing. Any performer identified by name and role elsewhere in the picture, or any performer playing a major continuing role and identified by name elsewhere in the picture, need not be listed in the cast of characters at the end of the picture. Such credits may be displayed over action or background; provided, however, that the cast of characters may not be superimposed over commercial background material except only for commercial background material presented on behalf of the single sponsor or alternate-week sponsor of a series.

The parties to this Agreement agree to establish a joint credits committee to examine the interpretation and application of the foregoing credits provision.

(2) If the Union contends that a particular credit is not in conformity with the credit requirements of this Section, the Union shall give prompt notice to the Producer. If the parties cannot resolve the matter, the Union may refer the matter to the Cooperative Committee at any time not later than fifteen (15) days after the program is televised. The Committee shall promptly meet and, if a majority of the Committee agrees that the credit requirements have been violated, the Producer, on notice from the Cooperative Committee, shall correct or replace such credits with appropriate credits prior to any further use of the program involved. Any such dispute not so resolved by a majority of the Cooperative Committee within ten (10) days after the matter was considered by the Cooperative Committee may be submitted by the Union to arbitration, as herein provided, to determine whether or not the credits given comply with the foregoing credit requirements and, if not, to require that the credits be corrected or replaced prior to the further use of the program involved.

(b) (1) Producer shall honor individually-negotiated billing for the screen as to placement, size and description as agreed upon in performer's individual contract.

(2) In its distribution and licensing agreements with exhibitors, distributors, broadcasters, etc., Producer will include a provision prohibiting the licensee from eliminating or changing the billing as it appears on the positive prints of the motion picture.

(3) Disputes as to whether agreed-upon screen credit has been accorded shall be arbitrable. A panel of arbitrators for this purpose shall be agreed upon. A single arbitrator shall hear and determine the dispute. The cost of such arbitrator shall be shared equally by the Union and Producer. The decision and award shall be in writing and shall be final and binding on the parties and performers involved.

(4) The provisions hereof shall not apply to Schedule F or when termination of a contract is involved, as provided by Section 50(c)(4)b) of this Agreement.

(5) Liquidated Damages - As to Schedule A and B performers, if a breach occurs and the facts are not in dispute or if a breach is found by an arbitrator, damages in the following amounts shall be payable:

a) In the case of a day performer, his daily rate but not in excess of the amount payable under c) of this subparagraph (b)(5).

b) In the case of a three-day performer in television, his three-day rate but not in excess of the amount payable under c) of this subparagraph (b)(5).

c) In the case of a weekly freelance performer, his weekly rate (not exceeding the limits of Schedule B).

Such liquidated damages shall be the exclusive remedy for such performers.

(6) As to all other performers subject to the provisions hereof, the arbitrator shall have the authority to award appropriate relief consisting of damages, correction of prints subject to subparagraph (7) below, or both.

(7) Correction of prints with respect to the first broadcast or first rerun may be awarded by the arbitrator if Producer received notice of the alleged breach in sufficient time to make the necessary correction for the applicable run.

(8) Inadvertent oversight by Producer shall not be a defense to any claim of breach hereunder, but may be considered with respect to the issue of appropriate relief.

(9) All claims must be filed within one (1) year after the first television broadcast of a television film.

(c) The foregoing provisions of this section do not apply to performers employed as body doubles.

55. INDUSTRY-UNION COOPERATIVE COMMITTEE

A committee is hereby established to be known as the “Industry-Union Cooperative Committee.” The Cooperative Committee shall consist of five (5) Producer representatives and two (2) alternates, and five (5) Union representatives and two (2) alternates, to be named. The names of the initial members of the Cooperative Committee shall be provided by the Producers above-named and the Union, respectively, by written notice to the other, as soon as practicable following the execution of this Agreement. Upon written notice by the Producers or the Union, respectively, any such Industry committee member or alternate may be replaced at any time by the Producers, and any Union committee member or alternate may be replaced at any time by the Union.

The Committee shall meet from time to time, upon request of either party, and may establish such regular meetings as it may deem proper. In order for the Committee to act, a quorum must be present. A quorum shall consist of at least four (4) Industry and four (4) Union representatives. The Committee shall have the following functions:

(a) To discuss, investigate and make recommendations as to the solution of problems arising in the construction, interpretation and administration of this Agreement, and as to any abuses or grievances which arise during the term hereof affecting performer-Producer relationships generally and for which no remedy is provided for hereunder.

(b) To make every effort to prevent and remedy abuses arising under this Agreement; to eliminate tensions; to promote cooperation and to assist in a mutual understanding of the problems of employer and employee.

(c) To discuss, investigate and make recommendations with respect to any and all other matters affecting the operation and application of this Agreement and which will aid in promoting harmonious performer-Producer relationships.

(d) To review and make recommendations with respect to revisions and standardization of production time reports and other appropriate records subject to this Agreement.

(e) To study the application of NAB Rules and Regulations with respect to the “forty second” rule applicable to credits and to make recommendations for improving such Rules and Regulations.

(f) To act pursuant to the provisions of Section 54 hereof, entitled “Screen Credit and Billing.”

(g) To review examples of credits from continuing series prior to commencement of each new television season for the purpose of making recommendations with respect to conforming credits to the requirements of this Agreement.

(h) To act pursuant to the authority provided in Section 22(a) with respect to an allocation of prospective pension and health contributions.

(i) To act as a committee on fair employment practices as set forth herein.

(j) To establish a safety education program and safety standards at all studios with respect to the employment of performers.

(k) To study the forms of series contracts presently in use in the industry for the purpose of:

(1) simplifying and standardizing provisions, particularly with respect to options, exclusivity, force majeure, and “turnaround” periods; and

(2) bringing such form contracts into strict compliance with the requirements of this collective bargaining agreement.

(l) If either the Producer or the Union claims a case of deliberate misconduct of any individual, such claim may be brought before the Cooperative Committee. Such Committee shall endeavor to resolve the matter and use every effort to persuade the parties to immediately correct such conduct. Nothing herein shall affect the legal rights of any party.

(m) It shall act pursuant to the provisions herein with respect to coding.

(n) It shall study and review the appropriateness of the Section relating to per diem rates.

(o) To assure compliance with Section 70 and to hear complaints of any violation thereof; however, referral of any such complaint to the Cooperative Committee by the Union or any individual performer shall not constitute a waiver of any other available remedy.

56. AIR TRANSPORTATION AND MILEAGE ALLOWANCE

(a) Business class transportation shall be provided on commercial airlines when the performer is required to fly at the request of the Producer, except that coach class air travel shall be permissible in the following circumstances: (i) for domestic flights that are less than 1,000 airline miles when the flight is non-stop from the departure point to the final destination; (ii) for non-stop flights between Los Angeles and Vancouver; (iii) for non-stop flights that are less than 1,000 airline miles between the United States and Vancouver or between the United States and Toronto; (iv) if six or more performers travel together in the same class on the same flight; or (v) for auditions and interviews. The foregoing shall apply to jet flights as well as to prop-driven aircraft. Charter flights may be used which provide substantially equivalent accommodations.

When the Producer requires the performer to travel by coach class, Producer shall provide elevated coach class travel (e.g., Economy Plus, Extended Leg Room, etc.) when available. Performers who travel by coach class shall be reimbursed by Producer for baggage fees and costs of in-flight meals, provided that the performer submits to the Producer a request for reimbursement with appropriate receipts within thirty (30) days after the flight.

If a performer covered under this Agreement would be required to travel in coach class, but another employee employed on the same production by the same Producer is traveling on the same flight and the other employee is entitled to travel in a higher class of transportation pursuant to the minimum terms of the collective bargaining agreement under which he/she is employed, then the performer covered under this Agreement shall be upgraded to the same class of transportation as is afforded to the other employee. The foregoing shall not apply when the travel is pursuant to subsections (iv), (v) or (vi) in the first paragraph of this Section 56(a).

If business class transportation is not available and coach class travel is not permissible as described above, then the Producer shall provide first class transportation to the performer. The foregoing shall not apply when first class travel is not available.

(b) Thirty (30) Mile Studio Zone (Hollywood)

Performers may be required to report anywhere within the studio zone provided that, when the place of reporting is somewhere other than the Producer's studio, the following shall apply:

(1) Performers shall be paid thirty cents ($.30) per mile mileage allowance figured from the studio to the place of reporting and back, except that no mileage allowance is required if the performer is required to report for work at a site within a ten (10) mile radius of a point designated by the Producer. (The reporting site must still be within the thirty (30) mile zone.) Producer shall give prior notice to the Union of the point so designated. Such point may be changed by Producer at the beginning of each season. Commencing outside the ten (10) mile radius, a mileage allowance will be paid as provided above. The Union will not unreasonably refuse a request from the Producer that performer report to a location which is a reasonable distance beyond the Los Angeles thirty (30) mile zone.

(2) Distances shall be clearly stated on the performer's production time report.

(3) If, during the term of this Agreement, the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, through its collective bargaining agreement, negotiates with Producer a more favorable mileage allowance than the foregoing thirty cents ($.30) per mile allowance, then, in such event, from such date forward, the Union will be entitled to the benefits of such increase.

(4) The mileage allowance may be paid as a portion of the performer's payroll check, provided it is separately identified as such mileage reimbursement.

The amount of the mileage allowance shall be reviewable by the Cooperative Committee.

(c) Reporting Other than at Producer's Studio

When a performer is required to report for work other than at a studio, Producer shall pay for parking in a supervised public parking lot. If no such public parking is available, Producer will provide supervised or secured parking.

(d) With respect to studios situated in San Francisco, California, the "studio zone" shall include all territory within the radius of thirty (30) miles from the intersection of Market and Powell Streets.

57. STUNT PERFORMERS

(a) Upon a written request from the Union, the Producer will submit to the Union a report for the previous sixty (60) day period indicating whether, in that period, any background actor has been adjusted on one (1) day to a sum equal to the day performer rate or more. Upon the written request of the Union, the Producer will also furnish a copy of the scripts involved and make the film available to the Union for viewing.

(b) For violations occurring under Section 9.B., Schedule H, Part I of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement, the following liquidated damages shall apply:

- (1) $275.00 for the first violation;
- (2) $350.00 for the second and each succeeding violation thereafter.

These penalties shall not apply if there is a bona fide dispute as to whether the work is "hazardous" or "stunt work."

The foregoing schedule shall be applicable on a per picture basis. When several violations occur in a single incident, for example, if six (6) persons are involved in one incident, if each were entitled to damages, each would be entitled to $275.00 only.

(c) Stunt performers employed by the day shall receive separate daily checks for each day of employment.

(d) Stunt Performers Employed by the Day - Travel

The exception for travel time contained in Schedule H, Part I, Section 8.C. is deleted.

(e) Dressing Rooms

See Section 33 of this Agreement.

(f) Payroll Itemization

Producer will make time cards available at the studio upon request.

(g) Injuries to Persons or Property During Performance

Producer will extend the insurance coverage provided by Section 68 of this Agreement to stunt performers whether or not performing a stunt, if such coverage is obtainable.

(h) Non-script Stunts; Adjustment of Extras

The liquidated damages provision of Schedule H, Part I, Section 9.F. is amended to provide as follows:

- (1) $250.00 for the first violation; and
- (2) $375.00 for the second and each succeeding violation thereafter.

(i) Definition of Emergency

“Emergency on location,” as provided in Schedule H, Part I, Section 9.B., shall be defined as a situation on location in which a member of the cast (stunt performer) cannot perform because of unavailability for any reason. The Union, in its discretion, may grant waivers in light of other circumstances not expressly covered by such definition.

58. LOOPING, RETAKES, ADDED SCENES, ETC.

Day performers and weekly freelance performers may be recalled to loop (record sound track) after completion of principal photography at one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the performer’s pro rata daily salary for a looping session not in excess of four (4) hours. If the session exceeds four (4) hours, a full day's pro rata salary shall be payable.

The Producer may bargain with any day performer earning $5,000 or more per day to include one (1) prepaid looping day in his compensation. The performer's employment contract shall contain a separate provision to that effect and a box must be provided next to the prepayment provision for the performer to initial to indicate acceptance.

The performer's contract shall not include guarantees for looping, retakes, added scenes, process transparencies, trick shots, trailers, changes or foreign versions (subject to availability) outside the period of consecutive employment, except for Schedule F performers and except that advance payment for looping, retakes, etc. is permitted as to Schedule C performers whose salaries equal or exceed:

Program Length	Per Episode or Program
½ hour	$ 5,000
1 hour	$ 7,500
more than 1 hour	$10,000

59. POLICY OF NON-DISCRIMINATION AND DIVERSITY

(a) Policy

(1) The parties hereto reaffirm their commitment to: a) a policy of non-discrimination and fair employment in connection with the engagement and treatment of performers on the basis of sex, race, color, creed, national origin, age, marital status, disability, sexual orientation or gender identity, in accordance with applicable state and federal law; and b) to continue the active promotion of diversity, as set forth herein, in all categories of employment covered by this Agreement.

(2) In accordance with the foregoing policy, the Union reaffirms its policy of non-discrimination with respect to admission to membership and rights of membership.

(3) Producer shall cast performers in accordance with the policy set forth in Section 59(a)(1) above in all types of roles, having due regard for the requirements of, and suitability for, the role so that, for example, the American scene shall be portrayed realistically.

(4) Consistent with the foregoing, every effort shall be made to include minorities, women, performers with disabilities (defined as those covered under the employment provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act) and performers aged 40 or over who are protected under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act in the casting of each motion picture, thereby creating fair and equal employment opportunity and eliminating stereotyping in casting.

When a role being cast depicts a person with a specific disability, the Producer agrees to include that fact in the casting specifications so as to enhance the opportunity for performers with similar disabilities to audition for the role.

(5) When applicable, and with due regard to the safety of the individuals, cast and crew, women and minorities shall be considered for doubling roles and for descript and non-descript stunts on a functional, non-discriminatory basis. In furtherance of this policy, Producer shall furnish a copy of the following policy statement to each stunt coordinator engaged by Producer:

a) Stunt coordinators shall endeavor to cast performers with physical disabilities for descript and non-descript stunts for which they are qualified and with due regard to safety, in roles portraying their particular disability, such as wheel chair stunts or stunts involving the use of other adaptive devices, e.g., crutches, prostheses, etc. The Union's skills and talent bank is among the resources that can be utilized in ascertaining the availability of such performers.

b) When the stunt performer doubles for a role which is identifiable as female and/or Black/African American, Latino/Hispanic, Asian/Pacific Islander or Native American and the race and/or sex of the double are also so identifiable, stunt coordinators shall endeavor to cast qualified persons of the same sex and/or race involved. When the stuntperson is not identifiable, stunt coordinators shall endeavor to increase the employment of qualified women and minorities for such stunts. To achieve the objectives set forth in this paragraph, stunt coordinators should endeavor to identify and recruit qualified minority and female stuntpersons and qualified stuntpersons with disabilities prior to the commencement of production.

(6) In furtherance of the policies expressed in this Section:

a) There will be no pre-employment inquiries as to the performer's marital status, sexual orientation, age (except such lawful inquiries as may relate to the age of a minor), creed, disability (except such lawful inquiries as may relate to the ability of the performer to fulfill the requirements of the engagement, subject to the limitations imposed on such inquiries by the Americans with Disabilities Act), national origin nor ancestry of the performer, except when the same is a bona fide occupational qualification for a role.

b) Representation by an agent or other performer's representative shall not be required as a condition for an audition.

c) Producer shall include the following statement in script breakdowns circulated by Producer to agents:

“Producer is committed to diverse, inclusive casting. Submissions for non-descript roles will be accepted for all performers, regardless of age, sex, ethnicity, disability, race, color, national origin, sexual orientation or gender identity.”

Producer will make good faith efforts to insure that outside casting services, breakdown services and agents with whom it does business include the same statement in breakdowns circulated by them. It is understood that inclusion of such statement on a breakdown is intended to encourage the implementation of the policies expressed in this Section throughout the community, but it is recognized that Producer may have legitimate casting objectives, dictated by such matters as the script, historic or geographic setting, creative concepts, etc., which may limit the appropriateness of certain submissions for particular roles and/or productions.

In order to encourage the implementation of the policies expressed in this Section, the AMPTP has agreed to meet with representatives of SAG-AFTRA to discuss the casting of performers when members of classes protected by applicable federal and state anti-discrimination laws are substantially under-represented.

d) The Producer agrees that each performer's INS I-9 form will be maintained in the manner required under the Immigration Reform and Control Act. The Producer further agrees that it will use the information contained in any performer's INS I-9 form solely for the purpose of verifying his/her eligibility to work in the United States.

e) The practice known as “painting down” is presumptively improper; the Producers will continue their dialogue with SAG-AFTRA and the stunt community on this issue.

(7) It is understood that the provisions of this Agreement dealing with dressing rooms, transportation, lodging and access to the casting process apply to performers with disabilities so that, with respect to facilities under the control of the Producer, including but not limited to studios and location sets, reasonable accommodation under all the circumstances will be made when applying such provisions to performers with disabilities, in accordance with and to the extent required by the employment provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act.

(8) In accordance with the employment provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the Producer agrees to provide reasonable accommodations for hearing-impaired and/or visually-impaired performers during interviews, auditions and any engagement.

(b) Data

(1) Within twenty (20) days after the end of each calendar quarter, Producer will submit to the Union a report of the sex, ethnicity and age of performers (other than stunt performers and stunt coordinators) employed by Producer under this Agreement on each television motion picture and each episode of each television series produced by Producer on which principal photography was completed during such quarter. The report will be submitted on the form attached hereto as Exhibit E, it being understood that a report produced by Producer's data processing system which furnishes the same information as required in this form shall be acceptable. A separate quarterly report shall be submitted to the Union for stunt performers and stunt coordinators, containing data on the sex, ethnicity and age of stunt performers and stunt coordinators, stunt performer and stunt coordinator totals and whether, for the stunt performer, the stunt is descript, non-descript or unknown. The report will be submitted on the form attached hereto as Exhibit E-1, it being understood that a report produced by Producer's data processing system which furnishes the same information as required in this form shall be acceptable. The parties will cooperate in devising a method for compiling employment data as to performers with disabilities, which may include data from the Union's skills and talent bank, and pension and health records. When a method for compiling employment data with respect to performers with disabilities has been agreed upon, Producer shall report such employment data in one of the reporting forms provided above.

(2) In the event the Producer fails to submit a report within the time specified in paragraph (1) above, the Union may send a written notice of delinquency to the Producer requesting submission of the report within ten (10) working days of receipt of the notice.

If there is a substantial breach of the foregoing reporting requirements with respect to any individual quarterly report, liquidated damages in the amount of $600 shall be payable to the Union; in the event there is a dispute as to whether or not a substantial breach has occurred, the matter may be referred to arbitration. With respect to the data furnished on age and ethnicity and any data furnished on performers with disabilities, it is recognized that, while Producers shall be obligated to make reasonable efforts to ascertain such information, subject to any legal restriction applicable thereto, there may be individual circumstances in which Producer will be unable to secure the data or vouch for its accuracy. It is understood that as to employment data on performers with disabilities, such liquidated damages shall apply only to the extent that the parties have devised a method for compiling employment data for performers with disabilities.

(3) The data which is furnished by Producer in accordance with this Section shall be for the purpose of facilitating the meeting which the Union may request pursuant to subsection (c) below, and is in no way intended to abridge the Producer's creative rights in the production of films.

(c) Meetings With Producer Representatives

(1) On ten (10) days' notice, the Union or Producer may request a meeting to discuss any matter relating to discrimination, fair employment, the policy expressed herein, its further implementation, the data submitted or any other matter relevant to equal employment opportunity for performers. If particular scripts or script breakdowns are relevant to the subject matter of the requested meeting, the Union may request the Producer to furnish such scripts and/or breakdowns to a designated Union official for review prior to the meeting. When the Producer utilizes market research data to support its contention that in a particular production the American scene has been portrayed realistically, the Union may request to review such data at the meeting.

(2) If the Union has information which is the basis for a genuine concern that the policies expressed in this Section are being violated, and the matter is of such a nature that the procedures outlined in subparagraph (1) above are not adequate to handle the immediacy of the situation, the Union may request the type of meeting specified in subparagraph (1) above on three (3) working days notice. Such request may be made before, during or after the casting of the production.

(3) The script breakdowns referred to in subparagraph (1) are those that are prepared and circulated by outside services for casting purposes or those prepared by Producer and circulated to agents, and it is understood that such services or procedures might not be utilized by all Producers. Scripts and breakdowns will be treated as confidential, will not be copied while in the possession of the Union official and will be returned to the Producer at the conclusion of the meeting. Consistent with subparagraph (b)(3) above, nothing in this subsection (c) will require a Producer to furnish scripts or breakdowns prior to the completion of casting for any particular production.

(4) If the Producer has an official with responsibilities for matters involving equal opportunity, the Union's request for a meeting shall be referred to such person, who shall then be responsible for arranging the meeting with the appropriate Producer representatives. If the Producer has no such person on staff, the Producer will designate such a person for the purpose of arranging the requested meeting and the Union will be notified in writing of the person so designated.

(5) If, following the procedures set forth above in this Section 59(c), the Union makes a good faith determination that a Producer has not made reasonable and satisfactory progress in providing employment opportunities for women, minorities and performers aged 40 or over, particularly in the casting and employment of such persons in non-descript roles and in portraying the American scene in a realistic manner as required by this Agreement, the following procedures shall be followed:

a) For a Producer represented by the Alliance, the Union shall notify the Alliance and the Producer in writing and provide copies of any available statistics on employment that are available to the Union.

b) The Alliance, represented by its chief executive, and the Union, represented by its National Executive Director, shall meet with such Producer within fifteen (15) days after such notice. The Producer shall participate in such meeting and shall include persons with appropriate executive and creative authority involved or responsible for casting and employing actors. If it is determined in such meeting that specific plans and programs are necessary to provide such employment opportunities, then Producer will implement same.

c) If the Producer has failed to make such good faith efforts within six (6) months after such meeting, the Union shall again confer with the Producer and the Alliance. Thereafter, if the Union is able to demonstrate that the Producer has not made good faith efforts in this regard, it shall have the right, upon giving the Producer ten (10) days written notice, to publicly release all statistics and data in the possession of the Union relating to the employment practices of the Producer.

d) For non-Alliance Producers, the above procedure shall apply, except that the representatives of the Alliance shall not be involved.

(6) In addition, each Producer will designate one or more high level creative, production or programming executives to meet on an individual Producer basis at least once per year with members of SAG-AFTRA who have been designated by the Board of Directors of SAG-AFTRA. Each such meeting will be held at the request of SAG-AFTRA or the Producer, and any subject that SAG-AFTRA or Producer executives wish to discuss relating to diversity will be suitable for discussion. The agenda for any such meeting may include issues relating to background actors in addition to issues relating to performers. Additional meetings may be scheduled by mutual agreement of the Producer and the Union. Upon mutual agreement, the parties may seek the involvement and participation of the WGA and the DGA.

(7) The parties agree to create a Task Force comprised of performers with disabilities, senior level union staff representatives and Producers' representatives, including casting executives and labor relations executives, to develop ways to: (a) promote awareness of the available resources at SAG-AFTRA and other advocacy groups to search for and recruit performers with disabilities for auditions for both descript and non-descript roles; and (b) improve access to casting opportunities for performers with disabilities.

(d) Arbitration

Except as provided in subsection (b) above with respect to the submission of data, the matters covered in this Section are not subject to the provisions of Section 50 herein. It is understood that as to data on performers with physical disabilities, the provisions with respect to arbitration shall only apply when a method for compiling such data has been devised by the parties.

(e) Industry-Union Cooperative Committee

An Industry-Union Cooperative Committee shall be established for the purpose of providing a forum for the discussion and resolution of problems, concerns or disputes relating to the provisions of Section 59(a).

Either Producer or Union may submit a request, which shall be in writing, that a dispute under Section 59(a) be brought before the Industry-Union Cooperative Committee. The Cooperative Committee shall convene within sixty (60) days after receipt by the non-moving party of such written notice, except that the parties may, by mutual agreement, extend such sixty (60) day period. If the meeting is not held due to the failure of the non-moving party to attend such meeting, the moving party may refer the matter to a non-binding mediation with an independent mediator.

Producer and Union agree to seek funding for the mediation program from the IACF.

60. EXTENSION TO SUBSIDIARIES, ETC.

With respect to a motion picture produced by an independent producer under a contract with Producer for the financing, production and distribution of such motion picture, if Producer gives the Union ten (10) days' advance notice before principal photography commences that such motion picture is not to be covered by this Agreement, then Producer shall not be obligated hereunder with respect to such picture.

If Producer does not give the Union such notice, then Producer shall be obligated hereunder with respect to such motion picture.

This provision applies only to motion pictures produced within the geographical jurisdiction of the Union hereunder.

This provision applies to signatory or non-signatory independent companies.

61. FORCE MAJEURE AND ILLNESS

If a production for which the performer is engaged is necessarily prevented, suspended or postponed, during the course thereof, by reason of fire, accident, strike, riot, act of God, or the public enemy, or by any executive or judicial order or by reason of the illness of any other member of the cast or of the director, the following provisions shall apply:

(a) Day Performer Contracts

Producer shall have the right to terminate the services of the performer without further liability, except for compensation for services previously rendered (including compensation for reruns, foreign telecasts, theatrical exhibition and use in Supplemental Markets and on basic cable); provided, however, that (i) if such termination occurs before the performer is used or (ii) if the performer is subsequently replaced in the picture (other than because of his unavailability), the performer shall be entitled, in addition to compensation for services previously rendered, if any, to one day's salary or his guarantee, whichever is greater. In the event of such termination, Producer shall have the right to recall the performer, without compensation for intervening time, in the event of the resumption of production, as and when the Producer may request, and at the same rate as that previously applicable, unless the performer is otherwise employed, but if otherwise employed the performer will cooperate to the fullest extent in trying to make his services available to the Producer. If such period of intervening time is less than fourteen (14) days, performer shall receive an additional one day's salary. As an alternative to terminating, the Producer shall have the right to convert the performer's engagement into a weekly freelance contract, in which event the Producer shall have the rights provided below for weekly contracts to which the engagement is converted.

(b) Three-Day Contracts, Weekly Contracts and Multiple Picture Weekly Contracts

It shall be the duty of the Producer during the first week of any prevention, suspension or postponement to notify the performer in writing whether the Producer will entirely discontinue the production or further suspend or postpone it.

(1) Except as hereinafter in subsection (d) of this Section otherwise provided, the Producer may suspend the performer's services and place the performer on one-half (½) salary, subject to the Producer's right to terminate the performer's employment at any time during such prevention, suspension or postponement. The performer shall have the right to terminate the employment effective at the end of the third week of suspension at half salary or, in the case of a three-day performer, effective at the end of the second week of suspension at half salary or, at any time thereafter, unless the Producer, upon receipt of performer's notice of termination, commences and continues thereafter to pay performer his full compensation.

(2) At any time after the commencement of such prevention, suspension or postponement, and prior to any resumption by the performer of his services in such employment, the Producer may terminate the services of the performer without further liability, except for compensation for services previously rendered (including compensation for reruns, foreign telecasts, theatrical exhibition and use in Supplemental Markets and on basic cable) and except as provided in the next sentence. If the Producer elects to terminate said employment by reason of the illness of any other member of the cast or of the director, then the Producer shall be obligated to also pay the performer one-half week's compensation, or in the case of a three-day performer, one and one-half day's compensation. In the event of such termination, Producer shall have the right at any time after three (3) weeks (in the case of a three-day performer after two (2) weeks) from the date of such termination to recall the performer, without compensation for intervening time, in the event of the resumption of production and the performer agrees to resume his services pursuant to the performer's contract on such picture as and when the Producer may request unless the performer is otherwise employed, but if otherwise employed, the performer will cooperate to the fullest extent in trying to make his services available to the Producer. Such resumed services shall be at the same rate as that specified in the performer's contract, unless such resumption occurs later than three (3) months following the termination of the performer's services, and shall be payable only from the date of commencement of the performer's services in such resumed production.

(3) As to any performer employed under a multiple-picture weekly contract, the Producer shall have the right to continue the employment of the performer with regard to any such picture as is not prevented, suspended or postponed until the performer's services therein are completed and, then, Producer may invoke the provisions of this subsection (b) with regard to any picture prevented, suspended or postponed.

(c) Series Contracts

Except as otherwise hereinafter provided in subsection (d) of this Section, if the production of the series is prevented, suspended or postponed, the Producer may elect to suspend the performer's services. The suspension may commence at any time after the force majeure event causes production of the series to be prevented, suspended or postponed. The Producer may exercise its right to suspend on a performer-by-performer basis (i.e., the Producer can elect to suspend certain performers on a particular production and not suspend others).

(1) a) Should the Producer elect to suspend a series contract performer, the performer shall be paid at half-salary, on a weekly basis, for a period of up to five (5) weeks (assuming the prevention, suspension or postponement of production lasts that long) or for a period ending not later than performer's then-current guaranteed employment period, whichever is shorter. Said amount shall not be creditable against compensation due for services rendered after production resumes. The term 'then-current guaranteed employment period' means the number of weeks of work that would be required to complete the episodes remaining on the performer's minimum episodic guarantee. For purposes of this Section 61(c), a week's pay for one-hour shows is calculated at five-sixths (5/6) of the episodic rate and for half-hour shows is calculated at the episodic rate (as specified in the series contract performer provisions of the Television Agreement).

For example, if a performer is guaranteed thirteen (13) episodes of a half-hour series and the performer is suspended because of a force majeure event after ten (10) episodes have been produced, the suspension would be for five (5) weeks or the number of weeks of work it would take to complete the three (3) remaining episodes, whichever is shorter. (In this case, the suspension would be for three (3) weeks since production of the three (3) remaining half-hour episodes would take three (3) weeks.) This is true even if the performer's guarantee is for all episodes produced with a minimum of thirteen (13) episodes. During the three (3) week period, the performer shall be paid half-salary on a weekly basis, which amount shall not be creditable against compensation due for services rendered after production resumes.

b) Performer shall have the right to terminate the employment effective at the end of the fifth week of suspension unless the Producer, upon receipt of the performer's written notice of termination, commences and continues thereafter to pay performer his full compensation, on a weekly basis, for the remainder, if any, of the then-current guaranteed employment period. The term 'then-current guaranteed employment period' means the same as set forth in subparagraph (c)(1)a) above.

Should production of the series resume, performer shall be obligated to provide the services required under his personal service contract on the same terms as agreed upon therein. Any payments made to the performer under this subparagraph (c)(1)b) shall constitute an advance against compensation due for services rendered on episodes produced after the suspension period ends and/or for any amounts remaining on the performer's minimum episodic guarantee.

For example, Performer Alpha is guaranteed employment on thirteen (13) episodes of a half-hour series at the rate of $10,000 per episode. Ten (10) episodes are produced prior to the postponement of production by reason of a force majeure event, which lasts for ten (10) weeks. Producer XYZ opts to suspend Alpha immediately following the occurrence of the force majeure event. Producer must pay Alpha for the first three (3) weeks of suspension (the amount of time needed to complete production of the three (3) episodes remaining on Alpha's episodic guarantee) at half-salary ($5,000 per week for three (3) weeks); no payment is required for the next two (2) weeks. At the end of the fifth week, Alpha sends a written notice of intent to terminate to the Producer, at which time the Producer elects to continue Alpha's employment in effect by paying his full weekly salary ($10,000 per week in this case). Producer is obligated to pay Alpha $30,000 ($10,000 per week for the three (3) remaining weeks). After the suspension period ends, Alpha shall be obligated to provide the services required under his personal service contract on the same terms as agreed upon therein. The $30,000 paid following Alpha's notice of intent to terminate is creditable against compensation due for services rendered when production resumes and/or for any amounts remaining on the performer's minimum episodic guarantee.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 61(c), a performer shall have no right to terminate his or her personal service contract if he or she has already worked and been paid, or has otherwise been paid, for his or her minimum episodic guarantee at the time the suspension of production commences. Such performer shall not be entitled to payment under subparagraph (c)(1) nor to his or her episodic compensation during the force majeure period. For example, if a performer is guaranteed all episodes produced with a minimum of thirteen (13) episodes and the performer's suspension commences after the performer has worked in fourteen (14) episodes, the performer is not entitled to terminate his or her employment nor to the half-salary payments under subparagraph (c)(1) nor to his or her episodic compensation during the force majeure period.

(2) Should the Producer elect not to suspend a series contract performer, but pays the performer's compensation (in full or on a weekly basis) for any episodes remaining on the performer's minimum episodic guarantee, such payments shall constitute advances so that if such episodes are ultimately produced within the agreed-upon span period, the performer must perform and is not entitled to further compensation for working on such episodes. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, the Producer retains any and all rights that it has under the performer's personal service contract and this Agreement.

(3) In no event shall the Producer be obligated to pay a performer who has been suspended as a result of a force majeure event more than the sum of the applicable half-salary payments provided under subparagraph (c)(1)a, plus the full salary payments, if any, provided under subparagraph (c)(1)b.

(4) At any time after the commencement of such prevention, suspension or postponement, and prior to any resumption by the performer of his services in such employment, Producer may terminate the services of the performer without further liability, except for compensation for services previously rendered (including compensation for reruns, foreign telecasts, theatrical exhibition and use in Supplemental Markets and on basic cable) and except as provided in the next sentence. If the Producer elects to terminate said employment by reason of the illness of any other member of the cast or of the director, then the Producer shall also be obligated to pay the performer one (1) week's compensation. In the event of such termination, Producer shall have the right to recall the performer, without compensation for intervening time, in the event of the resumption of production as and when the Producer may request and at the same rate as previously applicable, unless the performer is otherwise employed, but if otherwise employed, the performer will cooperate to the fullest extent in trying to make his services available to Producer. In the event of the resumption of production, the Producer will not use force majeure or illness as an excuse for not recalling the performer in the absence of supervening circumstances or conditions which make the continuation of his role impracticable.

(d) In case of suspension of a performer under subsection (b) or (c) of this Section, by reason of illness of another member of the cast or the director, such suspension shall be effective as of the beginning of the event only when the duration of the illness causing suspension is three (3) days or more, but if the duration is less than three (3) days, the suspension shall be ineffective and the performer shall be paid full salary.

(e) Term Contracts

The Producer's rights of suspension and termination because of force majeure or illness of any other member of the cast or of the director shall be determined by individual bargaining with any term contract performer; provided, however, that with respect to any term contract performer engaged at less than double minimum, the Producer shall not have the right to suspend without salary for more than four (4) consecutive weeks nor at half ($\frac{1}{2}$) salary for more than eight (8) additional consecutive weeks. The term "term contract performer," as used herein, shall not include a combination term contract performer unless, at the time of the prevention, suspension or postponement, such performer was being utilized in a continuing role in a television series.

(f) Extension

Any guaranteed employment hereunder may be extended by the period of any suspension hereunder, by giving written notice to such effect not later than the date of resumption of production following such suspension.

(g) As used herein, the term "otherwise employed" includes the acceptance of any commitment which would conflict with the performance of his services in connection with resumption of production after termination.

62. BODY DOUBLES

Body doubles employed in scenes requiring nudity or conduct of a sexual nature shall be principal performers, except that the provisions relating to residuals, screen credit, consecutive employment and preference of employment shall not apply to such persons. Notwithstanding the foregoing:

(a) body doubles shall be paid for intervening days on an overnight location when required to remain at such location by the Producer; and

(b) when employed to work in the Background Actor Zones covered by Schedule X, Part I of the Codified Basic Agreement, the preference of employment provisions thereof (i.e., Section 43 of Schedule X, Part I) shall apply to the employment of body doubles; when employed in the Background Actor Zones covered by Schedule X, Part II of the Codified Basic Agreement, the preference of employment provisions thereof (i.e., Section 45 of Schedule X, Part II) shall apply to the employment of body doubles.

63. VIDEOTAPE

All of the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall apply to the employment of performers in videotaped programs.

64. VERIFICATION - CODING

(a) Producer hereby authorizes television stations to make available to representatives of the Union their station logs, to verify the station plays of television programs.

(b) Producer shall submit to the Union, for motion pictures produced under this Agreement, the International Standard Audiovisual Number ("ISAN"), if any, when known by the Producer.

65. OVERNIGHT LOCATIONS

(a) Notification:

Performers shall be notified by Producer at the time of engagement, to the extent such information is then known, whether the engagement requires overnight location work and, if so, the approximate time and duration of such location work.

(b) Per Diem:

All performers shall be entitled to a basic per diem allowance for meals on overnight locations, which shall be as follows:

Breakfast	$12.00
Lunch	18.00
Dinner	30.00
TOTAL:	$60.00

The foregoing per diems are minimums only and are subject to individual bargaining at not less than the indicated per diem rate.

Producers recognize that, on some locations, the prevailing reasonable cost for meals exceeds the foregoing amounts and, in such instances, Producer will adjust the per diem rates accordingly.

Regardless of the time of call, the first major meal (either lunch or dinner) served shall be deducted at the lunch rate.

The Producer shall have the right to deduct from the per diem the appropriate amount for each such meal furnished.

(c) Check Cashing Facilities

When a production company is on an overnight location for two (2) weeks or more, Producer shall make arrangements with a local bank for the cashing of compensation and per diem checks issued to performers working on such location, unless the bank(s) in the locale will not make such arrangements. The performer shall not be charged a check-cashing fee.

66. CASTING

(a) Casting which is done outside the studio shall be conducted on a business-like basis, with regular business hours and telephone service.

(b) Producer will not delegate to any licensee the right to approve the hiring or firing of the following performers:

(1) Day performers, three-day performers and freelance performers appearing in episodes of a television series or a pilot (excluding guest stars in a pilot and series contract performers); and

(2) Any performer appearing in a dramatic television program which is not a series episode nor a pilot and which is two (2) hours or less in length.

(c) At least once per month, Producer will send a casting director, if one is then engaged, to the showcases jointly sponsored by the Union and CSA. Such casting director may instead expend a comparable amount of time holding general interviews.

67. PRODUCTION STAFF

(a) Persons employed as members of Producer's casting or production staff will neither be engaged nor utilized as performers in any pictures on which they also render any services on Producer's casting or production staff without the express consent of the Union.

(b) The only exceptions shall be the following:

(1) animal handlers (appearing in a scene in which they handle animals);

(2) performer/directors, performer/writers or performer/producers engaged under written contract as such prior to the commencement of principal photography of a motion picture;

(3) in an "emergency" on location. "Emergency" is defined as a situation, on location, in which a member of the cast cannot perform because of unavailability for any reason.

(c) Violations of the foregoing shall require payment of liquidated damages, as follows:

Day Performers:	$500.00
Three-Day Performers:	$600.00
Freelance Performers:	$800.00

68. INJURIES TO PERSONS OR PROPERTY DURING PERFORMANCE

(a) Subject to the provisions of subsections (b), (c) and (d) hereof, in the event any other member of the cast, production staff, crew or any other person, firm or corporation shall suffer injury to his or her person and/or property, of any kind whatsoever, by reason of, or as a result of, the performance by any performer, stunt performer or stunt coordinator (hereinafter in this Section called "performer") of a stunt or act in the course and scope of his employment under this collective bargaining agreement, under the direction and control of the Producer, Producer shall at all times indemnify and save the performer harmless from and against all liability, loss, damages and costs, including counsel fees, which the performer may for any cause at any time sustain or incur by reason of such performance. In the event legal action is taken against the performer, either jointly with the Producer or alone, the Producer shall, at its own cost and expense and without undue delay, provide the defense of the performer in all such litigation.

(b) The performer shall notify the Producer promptly, in writing, in case knowledge shall come to the performer of any claim or litigation arising out of such performance and thereafter deliver to the Producer every demand, notice, summons, complaint or other process received by him or his representative relating thereto.

(c) The performer shall cooperate fully in the defense so provided by Producer of such claim or action and, upon the Producer's request, shall attend hearings and trials and, whenever possible assist in (i) securing and giving evidence, and (ii) obtaining the attendance of witnesses at such hearings and trials.

(d) The performer shall not make any settlement or compromise of any such claim or litigation without the prior written consent of the Producer. Any settlement or compromise by the performer without Producer's prior written consent of any such claim or litigation shall nullify Producer's obligation under subsection (a) above.

(e) The Producer shall obtain and keep in force during the term of employment of the performer a policy of comprehensive public liability insurance insuring the performer against any liability arising out of the performance by the performer in the course and scope of his employment under this collective bargaining agreement, under the direction and control of the Producer. Such insurance shall be in the amount of not less than $1,000,000 for injury to or death of one person in any one accident or occurrence and in an amount not less than $2,000,000 for injury to or death of more than one person in any one accident or occurrence. Such insurance shall further insure performer against liability for property damage of at least $250,000. Upon request of the performer, Producer shall provide evidence of such insurance coverage before performer shall be required to perform any stunt or act. Upon request of the Producer, the Union shall waive the requirements of this subparagraph (e) upon a showing satisfactory to the Union of adequate financial responsibility of the Producer.

(f) Nothing herein contained shall be construed to: (i) deprive Producer of any lawful defense to such claim or action, including the defense that such claim arose by reason of performer's acts outside the scope of his employment; or (ii) expand Producer's liability to any person under the applicable Worker's Compensation Law.

(g) In the event of injury in the course of employment which results in medical attention, Producer will prepare and send to the Union, as soon as practicable, a report setting forth the date, time, place, circumstances and nature of the injury claimed.

69. PROTECTION OF PERFORMERS, STUNT PERFORMERS AND STUNT COORDINATORS - SAFETY

It shall be the policy of the parties to this Agreement that performers employed hereunder shall, to the extent possible, not be placed in circumstances hazardous or dangerous to the individual. In furtherance of this policy, it is agreed:

(a) When Producer requires script or non-script stunts or stunt-related activity of a performer, an individual qualified by training and/or experience in the planning, setting up and/or performance of the type of stunt involved shall be engaged and present on the set. No performer without such requisite training and/or experience shall be required to perform a stunt or stunt-related activity without an opportunity for prior consultation by the performer with such individual. The foregoing provisions of this subparagraph (a) shall not apply to a stunt performer who both plans and performs a stunt which does not involve other performers.

Persons involved in the planning and execution of a stunt shall be entitled to inspect any vehicle, mechanical device and/or equipment to be used in the stunt on the day prior to its use, provided it is available. In any event, such persons shall have reasonable time for such inspections. No payment shall be due for any inspection.

(b) No performer shall be required to work with an animal which a reasonable person would regard as dangerous in the circumstances, unless an animal handler or trainer qualified by training and/or experience is present.

(c) No performer shall be rigged with any type of explosive charge of any nature whatsoever without the use of a qualified special effects person.

(d) The performer's consent shall be a requisite precondition to performing stunts or other hazardous activity. The performer's consent shall be limited to the stunt or activity described to the performer at the time consent was given. In the case of a minor, written consent to perform a stunt must be given by the minor's parent or guardian.

Violation of this provision shall be subject to liquidated damages in the amount of $900.

(e) Protection of Stunt Performer; Safety

(1) All reasonable requests and requirements for safety equipment in connection with the performance of stunts shall be complied with by Producer or Producer's representatives on the set or location.

(2) Equipment provided by Producer (e.g., autos, cycles, wagons, etc.), shall be in suitable repair for the safe and proper performance of the stunt.

(f) Protection of Performers, Stunt Performers and Stunt Coordinators; Safety

A person qualified under the circumstances to administer medical assistance on an emergency basis shall be present or readily available at all rehearsals and all performances during which hazardous actions or work under hazardous conditions is planned. Such person will have visible identification. The Producer will provide readily accessible first aid equipment necessary to administer such medical assistance. In such circumstances, transportation to the nearest medical facility providing emergency services shall be readily available. When such action or work is planned on location, the production company shall determine the nearest emergency medical facilities and capabilities thereof and communication therewith and assure that transportation to such facilities is readily available at all times during the performance of such work. The transportation vehicle referred to above shall be capable of accommodating a stretcher and first aid equipment. The parties agree to recommend that the Industry-wide Labor/Management Safety Committee develop appropriate guidelines as to first aid equipment and visible identification for the aforementioned person qualified to administer medical assistance on an emergency basis.

(g) The performer's consent shall be required for flying in a helicopter.

(h) Notice of Scripted Stunts

Producer shall instruct stunt coordinators to notify the Union of scripted stunts involving non-stunt performers, which notice shall include the date, location and Producer involved, to the extent known.

(i) Safety Guidelines

The Producer shall obtain copies of all safety guidelines issued by the Industry-wide Labor/Management Safety Committee. Copies of such guidelines shall be available at the offices of the Alliance of Motion Picture and Television Producers and the Union. The Alliance of Motion Picture and Television Producers and the Union agree to cooperate in disseminating such guidelines to Producers as they are formulated during the course of this Agreement.

(j) On-Camera Vehicle Driving

When any of the following conditions is planned as part of a driving sequence and special expertise is necessary in order to perform such driving sequence in a safe manner, the on-camera driver shall qualify as a stunt performer under Schedule H of this Agreement:

- (1) When any or all wheels will leave the driving surface.
- (2) When tire traction will be broken, e.g., skids, slides, etc.

(3) Impaired vision - when the driver's vision will be substantially impaired by:

- a) Dust
- b) Spray (when driving through water, mud, etc.)
- c) Blinding lights
- d) Restrictive covering over the windshield
- e) Smoke
- f) Any other conditions which will substantially restrict the driver's normal vision.

(4) The speed of the vehicle will be greater than normally safe for the conditions of the driving surface, or when other conditions such as obstacles or difficulty of terrain will exist or off-road driving, other than normal low-speed driving for which the vehicle was designed, will occur.

(5) When any aircraft, fixed-wing or helicopter is flown in close proximity to the vehicle creating a hazardous driving condition.

(6) Whenever high speed or close proximity of two (2) or more vehicles creates conditions dangerous to the drivers, passengers, film crew or vehicles.

Nothing herein shall require the performer to be doubled when the performer has the special expertise to perform the sequence in a safe manner.

(k) Stunt Doubling

When, for safety reasons, a performer is doubled on-camera as the driver of a vehicle, the double shall qualify as a stunt performer under Schedule H of this Agreement. This would also apply to passengers in a vehicle who must be doubled for their safety.

70. HUMANE TREATMENT OF ANIMALS - STATEMENT OF POLICY

(a) The Producers believe that they have a highly commendable record of protecting animals and of preventing their abuse during production of motion picture and television films. They believe that this has been a responsibility most filmmakers have accepted and exercised with diligence over the years.

(b) Producers believe that trained animals are available which can perform with realism and without danger of injury or death and, in addition, as part of a long-term policy, Producers have cooperated with the Hollywood office of the American Humane Association. Producers believe it is important for this liaison to continue in the interest of assuring responsible, decent and humane treatment of animals.

(c) Producer shall not utilize any performer to perform in a scene for any motion picture in which an animal is intentionally tormented or killed, except that the photography of animals being killed pursuant to the provisions of a legal hunting season shall be excluded.

(d) The Producer shall notify the American Humane Association prior to the commencement of any work involving an animal or animals and advise it of the nature of the work to be performed. Script scenes involving animals shall be made available to the American Humane Association.

(e) Representatives of the American Humane Association may be present at any time during the filming of a motion picture when any animals are used.

71. ENGAGEMENT OF FREELANCE PERFORMERS - NOT INCLUDING SERIES PERFORMERS

Freelance performers under Schedules B, C, G-II, H (other than Part I) and I shall be considered definitely engaged in any of the following events:

(a) when the performer is given written notice of acceptance;

(b) when a form contract signed by Producer is delivered to the performer or when an unsigned contract is delivered by Producer to performer and is executed by performer as so delivered and returned to Producer;

(c) when a script is delivered to the performer by Producer; however, this does not include the delivery of a script for a test, audition or interview nor the submission of a script for the purpose of permitting the performer to determine if he desires the engagement;

(d) when a performer is fitted for work; this shall not apply to wardrobe tests; and

- (e) when the performer is given a verbal call by Producer or an authorized company representative, which is accepted.

The existing “engagement” provisions of Schedules A, G-I and H (Part I) shall be revised to conform to the foregoing, except that subparagraph (6) of Section 4(a) shall remain as is.

72. DELIVERY OF CONTRACTS - DAY PERFORMERS AND FREELANCE PERFORMERS - NOT INCLUDING SERIES PERFORMERS (SCHEDULES A, B, C, G, H AND I)

(a) To the extent that the agreement reached between the Producer and the performer can be reflected on the form required by the collective bargaining agreement plus Producer’s standard riders to be filed with the Union, Producer shall deliver a copy of such contract to the performer not later than the first day of performer’s employment. When the agreement cannot be so reflected, Producer shall deliver a copy of such contract to the performer not later than the first day of performer’s employment or four (4) business days after such agreement has been reached, whichever is later.

The present rule that a performer may not be required to sign contracts on the set shall continue. Delivery to a performer’s agent constitutes delivery to the performer.

(b) When Producer chooses to deliver a copy of a contract to the performer on the set, an extra copy for retention by the performer shall be provided.

(c) Liquidated damages in the amounts provided in Section 27(b) hereof for late payment shall be payable until a written contract is delivered to the performer.

(d) The foregoing shall not apply to Schedule F performers.

(e) Delivery of Booking Slip

A copy of the “booking slip” shall be provided to performer no later than the day next preceding the first day of performer’s employment.

(1) Definition of Booking Slip. A booking slip is a document containing a designation of the role, salary and number of days of guaranteed employment.

(2) If performer is engaged after 6:00 p.m. on the day prior to the first day of performer's employment, the booking slip will be included with the script provided to performer. However, if the script was provided to performer prior to such date and hour, Producer need not provide such booking slip.

(3) The foregoing requirements for delivery of a booking slip shall not apply if performer's contract has previously been delivered to performer or performer's agent.

73. PERFORMER'S START DATE

In the event a performer is engaged in accordance with Section 71 hereof, but a start date has not yet been provided to the performer by the Producer, performer may terminate such engagement in order to accept conflicting bona fide employment by a third party, subject, however, to the performer first giving Producer the following minimum period during which Producer may specify a start date which then becomes binding, which conflicts with the proffered third party employment:

- (a) if a performer informs Producer before noon of a business day, by the end of the same day; or
- (b) if performer informs Producer at any other time, by noon of the next business day.

74. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

(a) Holiday Breaks

It is understood that some series customarily take a hiatus for one (1) week at Thanksgiving and for one (1) week which includes Christmas Day, or one (1) week which includes New Year's Day, or no more than two (2) weeks, which includes Christmas Day and New Year's Day. Such holiday breaks, if taken, shall not be counted in calculating the production span rules for any television series.

The consecutive employment provisions in the Schedules of the Codified Basic Agreement do not apply to days off during a break of up to two (2) weeks, which break includes the Christmas and New Year's holidays.

(b) Shooting Schedules

On some series, the entire cast may decide upon a type of shooting schedule which cannot be made to conform to the rules set forth elsewhere herein relating to span. In the event special arrangements in this regard are desired, a waiver will be requested of the Union, which waiver will not be unreasonably withheld when and if the Union ascertains that each and every performer in the cast engaged for the cycle affected consents to the waiver requested.

(c) Disputes between Performers and Producers

The recent proliferation of disputes between performers in television series and Producers is a disturbing situation that is a matter of increasing industry-wide concern. Accordingly, the Union and the Alliance of Motion Picture and Television Producers shall convene a blue ribbon panel to be comprised of five (5) persons representing performers' interests (Union, agents, attorneys, etc.), five (5) persons from Producer companies and other mutually agreeable interested parties. The purpose of the panel shall be to make recommendations to the Union and Producer companies with respect to proposed solutions to these problems. The panel shall be convened as soon as possible.

(d) Non-Paying Audience Market

The parties agree that a joint committee shall be convened to explore alternative compensation arrangements for performers in connection with the distribution of television programs in the non-paying audience market.

75. EMPLOYMENT ON MULTI-PART CLOSED-END PICTURES (EXCEEDING THREE (3) HOURS IN LENGTH)

The following shall apply to contracts for employment of performers on multi-part closed-end pictures exceeding three (3) hours in length:

(a) Initial Compensation

A performer, other than a Schedule F performer as defined below, shall be employed by the part or parts on a multi-part closed-end picture at not less than the applicable minimum rate. The term "part" means each separately telecast installment of the picture (i.e., Part I, Part II, etc.), as initially telecast. Producer shall advise the Union of the contemplated telecast pattern, when known.

In the event that a performer (other than a Schedule F performer as defined below) appears in a part or parts of such picture for which he was not engaged (“additional parts”), including a recap (reprise) in an additional part, the performer shall be paid an additional amount equal to the minimum day performer rate for each additional part in which the performer appears, except that no such additional amount shall be due if the performer’s performance is entirely removed from the original part and is moved into not more than one additional part.

A Schedule F performer shall be employed on a per picture basis on a multi-part closed-end picture. For purposes of employment in multi-part closed-end pictures, a Schedule F performer is defined as any performer whose weekly guaranteed salary is in excess of $4,650 per week and who is guaranteed $40,000 or more for the entire multi-part picture.

(b) Residual Compensation

All performers shall be paid residual compensation in accordance with the manner in which the multi-part closed-end picture is initially telecast.

(c) Pension and Health/Health and Retirement Contributions

The ceilings on pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable, for performers employed on a multi-part closed-end picture shall be applied on a per part basis in accordance with the manner in which the picture is initially telecast; provided, however, that pension and health or health and retirement contributions shall not be paid on aggregate compensation in excess of the ceilings set forth in Section 22(a)(1)a)(ii) for parts of a Grandfathered Series or in Section 22(c)(1) for parts of all other multi-part closed-end pictures.

(d) Trailers and Promotional Films

76. FAVORED NATIONS CLAUSE

If, during the term of this Agreement, any union through its collective bargaining agreement negotiated with the Alliance of Motion Picture and Television Producers, obtains a “Cost of Living Escalation Clause” with respect to minimum rates, then, in such event, SAG-AFTRA will be entitled to the benefits of such clause commencing with the third year of this collective bargaining agreement.

77. TRANSLATION

Performer may not be required to translate another performer's dialogue into any language other than that in which a script is written. However, performer may bargain separately for such non-covered services.

78. ORIGINAL EMPLOYMENT - PAY TELEVISION, VIDEODISC/VIDEOCASSETTE MARKETS

(a) Introduction and Scope

(1) These provisions shall apply to the employment of performers on entertainment programs of the type historically produced under the SAG Agreement when produced primarily for the pay television and/or the videodisc/videocassette markets.

(2) The term "videodisc/videocassette," as used in this Section, means program material produced primarily for disc, cassette, cartridge and the like, which is sold or rented for play on home-type television screens in the home.

(3) The term "pay television," as used in this Section, shall mean exhibition on a television screen in the home by means of telecast, cable, closed-circuit or CATV when substantially all systems to which the program is licensed meet the following tests:

a) A separate channel is provided for which the subscriber pays a separate fee (which fee is a major charge relative to other charges made to the subscriber) for that channel; and/or

b) The subscriber pays for each program he selects (except that a program he selects, for which only a token charge is made, shall not be considered a pay television program); and/or

c) The subscriber pays a fee for an encoded telecast, which fee is a major charge relative to other fees paid for encoded telecasts.

(b) Initial Compensation and Working Conditions

(1) The minimum initial compensation and working conditions applicable to entertainment programs of the type historically produced under the SAG Agreement when produced primarily for the pay television and/or videodisc/videocassette market shall be the same as:

a) The minimum applicable rates and working conditions contained in the SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement for programs of the following types:

(i) Drama (including situation comedy) of the type produced for prime-time television; and

(ii) Drama of the type produced for theatrical motion pictures.

b) The minimum applicable rates and working conditions contained in the Network Code may be utilized by the Producer for programs of the type listed below:

(i) Variety programs in the format historically produced for network prime time television; e.g., "The Carol Burnett Show," "The Ed Sullivan Show";

(ii) Television game shows;

(iii) Television quiz shows; and

(iv) Book musicals.

c) The minimum applicable rates and working conditions contained in the Network Code may apply to programs of the multiple times per week tape television drama type done for non-prime time television, except, however, that premiums for work on the sixth and seventh days of the workweek and holiday work shall be those provided in the SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement.

d) Producer agrees that prior to the employment of any performer in an entertainment program of the type historically produced under the SAG Agreement when intended primarily for exhibition on pay television which is not described in subparagraphs a) through c) above, Producer will give at least sixty (60) days of advance notice to SAG-AFTRA of such proposed employment. Producer and SAG-AFTRA agree to meet within thirty (30) days from receipt of such notice for the purpose of negotiating with respect to the terms and conditions for such employment. If no agreement is reached with respect thereto within such sixty (60) day period, SAG-AFTRA may, upon a thirty (30) day written notice to Producer, instruct its members to withhold services with respect to the production of such program. Any dispute between SAG-AFTRA and the Producer as to whether such program is included in one of the categories described in subparagraphs a) through c) above shall be subject to arbitration under the provisions of this Agreement.

(2) The initial compensation set forth in this subsection (b) shall constitute payment in full for ten (10) exhibition days for a program (with no limit on the number of broadcasts commenced in any calendar day) over all services in the United States and Canada to which the program is licensed in the Pay Television market within a period of one (1) year from the initial exhibition on each such service, but on no more than one (1) United States national pay television subscription service. For this purpose, commonly-owned pay television services, such as HBO/Cinemax/Festival and Showtime/The Movie Channel, shall each be considered a single service. However, with respect to programs produced primarily for play specifically relating to the holidays set forth below, the period shall be ten (10) exhibition days in three (3) consecutive holiday seasons:

New Year's Day, Valentine's Day, St. Patrick's Day,
Easter, Passover, Independence Day (July 4th), Halloween, Thanksgiving, Chanukah and Christmas.

If a performer is engaged for a holiday program, it shall be so stated in his booking slip, if applicable, and in his contract.

The initial compensation shall also include payment for the first one hundred thousand (100,000) net unit sales, in the aggregate, in the videodisc/videocassette worldwide market, except that in the case of dramatic programming of a type made for network prime time which is made primarily for the pay television market, initial compensation shall also include payment only for the first seventy-five thousand (75,000) net unit sales, in the aggregate, in the videodisc/videocassette worldwide market.

An exhibition day shall commence at one second after midnight and end at midnight, unless any exhibition of a program shall commence prior to midnight and continue past midnight, in which case the exhibition day shall be deemed to begin when the program commenced.

(3) The parties recognize that the March 25, 1982 Supplement to the 1980-1983 AFTRA Code of Fair Practice for Phonograph Recordings may cover categories of programs not described in subsection (b)(1) above and that nothing herein shall preclude any signatory hereof from producing such programs pursuant to such Code.

(c) Additional Compensation

(1) Pay Television - For covered programs released in the pay television market:

a) For exhibition days on any pay television service in the United States and Canada, either in excess of ten (10) or subsequent to one (1) year from the date of the initial exhibition on such service, or for exhibitions on foreign (i.e., other than the United States and Canada) pay television, or for exhibitions on a second or subsequent United States national pay television subscription service, Producer shall pay six percent (6%) (plus pension and health or health and retirement contributions in accordance with this Agreement) of the Distributor's gross receipts, as defined in Section 5.2 E.(2) and 5.2 E.(4) of the Codified Basic Agreement, from such excess exhibition days on such service, or from such other exhibitions referred to above in this subsection (c)(1)a), except that in the case of covered programs, the cast of which (exclusive of those members of the cast who would not be entitled to residuals if the program had been produced for free television) is four (4) performers or fewer, the total percentage shall be computed on the basis of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per performer (plus pension and health or health and retirement contributions in accordance with this Agreement). The computation of the number of performers in the cast, for purposes of determining the percentage payable, shall exclude off-camera announcers, provided however, that when the only performer(s) on a program is an off-camera announcer(s), the percentage shall be one-half of one percent (.5%), plus pension and health or health and retirement contributions. However, off-camera announcers shall not be excluded for purposes of determining the rateable distribution provided in subsection (e) hereof.

b) If any license, whether an initial or subsequent license, for a program on any service covers exhibition days in excess of ten (10), each such day shall be given equal monetary weight in determining the sums subject to the payment described in subparagraph a) hereof. As an example, if the initial license encompasses seventeen (17) exhibition days, seven-seventeenth (7/17) of the sums actually received from such license shall be subject to the appropriate payment under this subsection (c). As a further example, if a second or subsequent license is for ten (10) days and covers the ninth through eighteenth days, eight-tenths (8/10) of the sum actually received from such license shall be subject to the appropriate payment under this subsection (c).

c) When a license covers exhibition days both within and outside the one (1) year limitation set forth in subsection (b)(2) above, all days shall be given equal monetary weight. For example, if a license is for fourteen (14) days use in eighteen (18) months, and five (5) exhibition days occur after the one (1) year period, each day of exhibition which actually occurs after the one (1) year period shall be given equal monetary weight, and five-fourteenths (5/14) of the license fee shall be subject to the appropriate payment under this subsection (c).

d) The provisions of Section 18(f) and Section 19(g) of this Agreement, relating to the application of contingent compensation against the payments to any individual performer, shall be applicable also to the payments required herein.

e) (i) The provisions of Section 5.2 C., 5.2 E., 5.2 H. and 5.2 I. of the Codified Basic Agreement relating to foreign proration, definition of Distributor's gross receipts, effect of individual contracts and reporting, and Section 21 of this Agreement relating to responsibility for payments, are incorporated herein.

(ii) Payment shall be made quarterly and each such payment shall be accompanied by the reports required under subsection (i) of this Agreement.

(2) Videodisc/Videocassette Market

a) For sales of a covered program in the videodisc/videocassette market, the Producer shall pay six percent (6%) (plus pension and health or health and retirement contributions in accordance with this Agreement) of the fee or other payment actually received by the Producer from net unit sales in excess of one hundred thousand (100,000) units in the aggregate, except that: (i) the one hundred thousand (100,000) unit figure shall be reduced to seventy-five thousand (75,000) units in the aggregate for dramatic programs of a type made for network prime time which are made primarily for the pay television market; and (ii) in the case of covered programs, the cast of which (exclusive of those members of the cast who would not be entitled to residuals if the program had been produced for network television) is four (4) performers or fewer, the total percentage shall be computed on the basis of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per performer (plus pension and health or health and retirement contributions in accordance with this Agreement).

The computation of the number of performers in the cast, for purposes of this paragraph only (but not for the purpose of determining rateable distribution provided in subsection (e) hereof), shall exclude off-camera announcer(s), provided however, that when the only performer(s) on a program is an off-camera announcer(s), the percentage shall be one-half of one percent (.5%), plus pension and health or health and retirement contributions.

b) The term "disc," as used in this paragraph, shall refer to both videodiscs and videocassettes. The term "unit" shall refer to the disc or aggregate discs in each package released by the Producer for sale or rental. "Net unit sales" shall mean sales of units which are released by the Producer or its distributor for sale and are not returned, or are released by the Producer or its distributor for rental purposes.

c) It is recognized that some companies hereunder may act both as producers and as distributors of disc units in covered sales. In such a case, the payments set forth above shall be based on either (i) the fee or other payment received by the subsidiary, division or other department of the company which serves as the production branch from the subsidiary, division or other department of the company which serves as the distribution branch, or (ii) when no separate subsidiary, division or other department serves as the production branch, a reasonable allocation of the gross receipts of the company from covered sales attributable solely to fees or other payments which would be made to a production subsidiary, division or other department of the company, if one existed, or would be made to an outside producer. The reasonableness of such allocation in (ii) above, or of the fee or other payment received by the production subsidiary, division or other department in (i) above, shall be determined in its license fee payments to outside producers for comparable disc units or, in the absence of such practice, by generally prevailing trade practice in the videodisc industry.

d) The provisions of Sections 18(f) and 19(g) of this Agreement relating to application of contingent compensation against the payments to any individual performer shall be applicable also to the payments required herein.

(d) Release in Other Media¹²

(1) If and when a program produced hereunder, for which the minimum initial compensation is governed by subsection (b)(1)a) hereof, is broadcast in free television, Producer shall be obligated to pay to the performers the applicable additional compensation for reruns (e.g., network prime time, network non-prime time or syndication, as the case may be) provided under this Agreement.

(2) If and when a program produced hereunder, for which the minimum initial compensation is governed by subsection (b)(1)b) or (b)(1)c) herein, is broadcast in free television, Producer shall be obligated to pay to the performers, for the first such broadcast, the applicable first replay fee set forth in the AFTRA Network Code for such broadcast, and any subsequent broadcasts of such program shall comply with such replay formula.

(3) If a program produced hereunder is released in theatrical exhibition, Producer shall be obligated to pay to the performers the additional compensation provided in Section 19 of this Agreement.

(4) If a program hereunder is licensed for exhibition on domestic basic cable (other than as a relay of a domestic free television broadcast), the Producer shall pay to the Union for rateable distribution to the performers in the cast six percent (6%) (plus pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable) of Distributor's gross receipts from such exhibition, subject to the one and one-half percent (1.5%) (plus pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable) limitation when four (4) or fewer performers are involved, and subject to the compensation limits set forth in the last two sentences of subsection (c)(1)a) hereof.

(5) If a program produced hereunder is licensed for exhibition in other supplemental markets (such as "in-flight"), the Producer shall pay in accordance with the Supplemental Markets formula under this Television Agreement or the Network Code, whichever is applicable.

(e) Distribution Formula

Sums received by the Union hereunder shall be distributed as follows:

Units will be assigned to performers entitled to participate as follows:

(1) Time Units

With respect to each performer, units for time worked shall be computed as follows:

Each day	=	one-fifth (1/5) unit
Each week	=	one (1) unit

No more than five (5) time units may be credited to any performer.

(2) Salary Units

With respect to each performer, units for total compensation received from the film shall be credited with units as follows:

a) Day Performer

Each multiple of daily scale equals one-fifth (1/5) unit. A fraction of daily scale, when more than one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$), shall be credited as another one-fifth (1/5) unit.

b) All Other Performers

Each multiple of weekly scale equals one (1) unit. A fraction of a multiple, when more than one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of weekly scale, shall be credited as another weekly unit.

c) No more than ten (10) salary units may be credited to any performer.

d) Except as provided in the next sentence, stunt coordinators employed on a television motion picture, the principal photography of which commenced prior to June 10, 2009, and body doubles are not eligible to participate in residuals payments due pursuant to subsection (c) or (d) of this Section 78. Stunt coordinators employed on pay television motion pictures, the principal photography of which commences on or after June 10, 2009, shall participate only in revenue-based residual payments due pursuant to subsection (c) or subsection (d)(4) or (5) of Section 78.

(3) Computation

Each performer shall be credited with the sum of time and salary units as computed above. All performers' salary units shall be totaled and each performer will receive that rateable proportion of the monies as the performer's number of units bears to the total number of units for the entire cast.

(4) Allocation

With respect to such pictures made outside of the United States, when part of the cast is composed of performers subject to this Agreement and part of the cast of performers is not subject to this Agreement, then sums payable hereunder shall be prorated based on the proportion which the salaries and the time worked payable to the performers subject to this Agreement bear to the total performers' salaries and time worked for the picture. If records reflecting time worked are not reasonably available, then the aforementioned proration may be based on salaries alone.

(f) A committee, comprising representatives of SAG-AFTRA and the Producers, shall be established to discuss the formulation of a single contract for product covered hereunder.

(g) In the event Producer fails to pay additional compensation as required under Section 78(c), within ten (10) days from the date of a notice in writing to Producer from the Union, a late payment penalty shall accrue at the rate of one percent (1%) per month from the date of such notice.

The foregoing shall not preclude the Producer from recovering an erroneous payment. If there is a dispute over the amount due the performer, and Producer pays the undisputed amount on time, or if there is a bona fide dispute as to the Producer's liability therefor, there will be no late payment charge during the pendency of the dispute.

79. MOVING PHOTOGRAPHY OR SOUND TRACK TO DIFFERENT EPISODE

A performer who is engaged for an episode of a series whose performance is moved to another episode need not be paid additional compensation, provided that the episode into which the performance is moved is in the same season as the original episode for which the performer was engaged and provided that the performer's performance is entirely removed from the original episode and is moved into not more than one other episode.

80. PURPOSES OF CODIFICATION

(a) The purpose of this Agreement is to present in a more convenient and usable form the effective provisions contained in the 2011 Screen Actors Guild Television Agreement, as modified by the 2014 Memorandum of Agreement Between the Alliance of Motion Picture and Television Producers and SAG-AFTRA for Successor Agreements to the Producer – Screen Actors Guild Codified Basic Agreement of 2011, the 2011 Screen Actors Guild Television Agreement, the 2011 Producer – Screen Actors Guild Basic Cable (Live Action) Agreement, Exhibit A of the 2011 Network Code and The CW Supplement to the 2011 Network Code, without in any manner changing the intent or meaning of any provisions of said Agreements.

(b) In the event that the Union or any Producer shall discover that any effective provision contained in the foregoing Agreements has been unintentionally altered or omitted from this codification, such party may request its inclusion herein; the Union and the Alliance of Motion Picture and Television Producers agree to promptly discuss the request and, if they determine that the provision was unintentionally altered or omitted, then the parties agree to include or correct such provision in this codification.

(c) Except as otherwise provided, this Agreement covers new or increased minimum scale compensation for services (including such new or increased compensation resulting from new or different working conditions), new or increased minimum payments or contributions based upon compensation, and new or increased rerun and residual payments to be paid to the employees covered by the terms of this Agreement.

81. WAIVER OF NEW YORK CITY EARNED SICK TIME ACT AND OTHER SIMILAR LAWS

The Union expressly waives, to the full extent permitted by law, the application of the New York City Earned Sick Time Act of 2013, the San Francisco Paid Sick Leave Ordinance (San Francisco Administrative Code Section 12W), the Newark Sick Leave for Private Employees Ordinance (City Ordinance 13-2010) and the Seattle Paid Sick and Safe Time Ordinance (Ordinance No. 123698), to all performers employed under this Agreement.

82. ORIGINAL EMPLOYMENT – LIVE ACTION DRAMATIC TELEVISION MOTION PICTURES PRODUCED FOR INITIAL EXHIBITION ON A BASIC CABLE SERVICE

The following provisions apply to dramatic television motion pictures, excluding animated television motion pictures, produced for initial exhibition on a basic cable service, except that episodes of a “CW Legacy Basic Cable Series,” as that term is defined in Section 83, shall be subject to the terms and conditions set forth in Section 83, in lieu of the terms and conditions of this Section 82.

- (a) Except as provided otherwise in this Section 82, all terms and conditions of the Television Agreement that are applicable to a dramatic program produced for first-run television syndication (other than a program produced for The CW) shall apply to live action dramatic television motion pictures produced for initial exhibition on a basic cable service.
- (b) On days for which the Television Agreement requires premium pay for travel, such travel time shall be compensated at straight time with respect to employment covered hereunder.

(c) Residual Compensation

(1) Reruns on a Basic Cable Service

- a) The following terms shall apply to the payment of compensation for reruns if the picture is exhibited more than once on a basic cable service:

2nd run	- 17.0% of performer's total applicable minimum salary
3rd run	- 12.0% of performer's total applicable minimum salary
4th run	- 11.0% of performer's total applicable minimum salary
5th run	- 10.0% of performer's total applicable minimum salary
6th run	- 6.0% of performer's total applicable minimum salary
7th run	- 4.0% of performer's total applicable minimum salary
8th run	- 4.0% of performer's total applicable minimum salary
9th run	- 3.5% of performer's total applicable minimum salary
10th run	- 3.5% of performer's total applicable minimum salary
11th run	- 3.0% of performer's total applicable minimum salary
12th run	- 2.5% of performer's total applicable minimum salary
	For the 13th run and each subsequent run, the performer shall be paid 1.5% of the performer's total applicable minimum salary.

In such event, Producer shall pay residuals for the second through fifth runs even if the program is not actually exhibited that many times. The residual payments for the third, fourth and fifth runs shall be made at the same time the residual payment is due for the second run. If the picture is thereafter exhibited a third, fourth or fifth time, no additional payment shall be due for these runs. Such prepayment of residuals for the third, fourth or fifth run shall not constitute a violation of subsection (c)(1)c) below. Residuals for the sixth run and all runs thereafter will be triggered if, and only if, the picture is actually run that many times.

b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (c)(1)a) above, a percentage residual formula of six percent (6%) of “Distributor's gross receipts” (as defined in Section 5.2.E. of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement of 2014) shall be paid for any license of a dramatic program or series made for basic cable, for which a fixed residual is otherwise payable, to a basic cable service that is not the service to which the program or series was originally licensed, provided the program or series (i) has not been in production for at least two years and (ii) has not been exhibited under a fixed residual formula on basic cable or free television (except syndication in the non-lead market) for at least eighteen (18) months.

When the “Distributor's gross receipts” derived from such license(s) are received from a related or affiliated entity that acts as the exhibitor of the program, then the “Distributor's gross receipts” received by the Producer from the licensing of such rights shall be measured by the exhibitor's payments to unrelated and unaffiliated entities in arms' length transactions for comparable programs or series, or, if none, then the amounts received by the Producer from unrelated and unaffiliated exhibitors in arms' length transactions for comparable programs or series, or, if none, comparable exhibitor's payments to comparable unrelated and unaffiliated entities in arms' length transactions for comparable programs or series.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the minimum payment pursuant to this provision for any program licensed to a related or affiliated entity shall be an aggregate amount for all performers of $300.00 for a 30-minute program, $600.00 for a 60-minute program, $900.00 for a 90-minute program and $1,200.00 for a 120-minute program.

The payment required hereunder includes pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable, for motion pictures, the principal photography of which commenced before July 1, 1998; pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable, shall be paid in addition to the payment required hereunder for motion pictures, the principal photography of which commenced on or after July 1, 1998. No IACF or AICF contributions shall be due in connection with such payments.

The “pro rata” share payable to each performer on a basic cable series shall be calculated using the 3-2-1 formula provided in Section 18.2 of this Agreement, and the “pro rata” share payable to each performer on all other basic cable programs shall be calculated using the time and salary units formula provided in Section 20 or 20.1 of this Agreement.

The foregoing applies to basic cable programs as to which fixed residuals would otherwise be payable, whether produced under an agreement with SAG-AFTRA negotiated on or after June 30, 2014 or under any agreement with SAG, AFTRA or SAG-AFTRA negotiated prior to June 30, 2014.

c) As to employment agreements covering performers other than day performers, the performer may agree to an advance payment for reruns on basic cable provided the advance payment is separately listed and is paid in addition to the salary, which is separately and specifically set forth as salary (not including advances) in the performer's contract and, provided further, that the salary at which advance payments which are additional for such reruns is permitted shall be no less than two hundred percent (200%) of the applicable minimum salary. Producer may not make any advance payment to a day performer for reruns on basic cable.

(2) Reruns in Canada

a) No residuals are due for the “first sale” of the picture in Canada. The first sale is limited to the first license agreement (which may not exceed five (5) years, except that the Union shall not unreasonably withhold a waiver of the five (5) year limitation in the event of an outright sale, rather than a license, of the picture) with a Canadian broadcast service (which may be a free television, pay television or basic cable service).

b) If Producer licenses the picture for exhibition in syndication only in Canada, and residuals would otherwise be payable for that exhibition, it shall have the option to pay to the Union, for rateable distribution to the performers, twelve percent (12%) of Distributor's gross receipts (as defined in Section 5.2.E. of the General Provisions of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement of 2014) derived therefrom, in lieu of any other compensation required under this Agreement or any prior Agreement, as applicable, and such exhibition shall not count as a “run” for purposes of calculating residuals. Applicable pension and health/health and retirement contributions are required in addition to the foregoing payment. The foregoing applies to television motion pictures as to which free television residuals would otherwise be payable, whether produced under an agreement with SAG-AFTRA negotiated on or after June 30, 2014 or under any agreement with SAG, AFTRA or SAG-AFTRA negotiated prior to June 30, 2014.

(3) Reruns on Domestic Syndicated Free Television

a) If the picture is aired on domestic syndicated free television, each performer shall be paid compensation for each run as follows:¹³

- | | |
|----------|--|
| 1st run | - 40.0% of performer's total applicable minimum salary |
| 2nd run | - 30.0% of performer's total applicable minimum salary |
| 3rd run | - 25.0% of performer's total applicable minimum salary |
| 4th run | - 25.0% of performer's total applicable minimum salary |
| 5th run | - 25.0% of performer's total applicable minimum salary |
| 6th run | - 15.0% of performer's total applicable minimum salary |
| 7th run | - 15.0% of performer's total applicable minimum salary |
| 8th run | - 15.0% of performer's total applicable minimum salary |
| 9th run | - 15.0% of performer's total applicable minimum salary |
| 10th run | - 10.0% of performer's total applicable minimum salary |
| 11th run | - 10.0% of performer's total applicable minimum salary |
- For the 12th run and each subsequent run, the performer shall be paid 5.0% of the performer's total applicable minimum salary.

b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (c)(3)a) above, if the picture is run on domestic syndicated free television after the picture has been run ten (10) times on a basic cable service or on a date more than one (1) year after the initial exhibition on a basic cable service, the first run of the picture on free television shall be deemed the third run of the picture under subsection (c)(3)a) above and residuals shall be computed by multiplying the fixed residual amount otherwise due by a fraction, the denominator of which is four hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($475,000) with respect to a motion picture in excess of thirty (30) minutes in length or three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) with respect to a motion picture of thirty (30) minutes or less in length, and the numerator of which is the Distributor's Gross up to a maximum of four hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($475,000) with respect to a motion picture in excess of

d) If a picture subject to subsection (c)(3)b above is syndicated with advertising time withheld by the Distributor (i.e., barter syndication), the fair market value of the amount allocated to the "barter" portion of the deal shall be included in the numerator referred to in subsection (c)(3)b). If the Union contends that the amount so allocated does not represent the fair market value of the "barter," such claim may be determined by submission to arbitration and the arbitrator shall have the authority to determine the fair market value to be so allocated.

(4) The Producer shall make the payments due pursuant to subsections (c)(1)a, (c)(3)a and (c)(3)b above within the time period set forth in Section 18(b)(5) and in the manner required by Section 18(e) of the Television Agreement. The parties agree to establish a committee to discuss the time for payment of residuals due for reruns on basic cable.

(5) The Producer affirms that, consistent with Section 18(e)(2) of the Television Agreement, it shall provide the Union with prompt access to any and all documents or records of the Producer and will use its best efforts to provide access to all documents or records of the Distributor necessary to confirm compliance with the foregoing terms and conditions.

This Section 83 also applies to “Legacy Basic Cable Series” that began production under an individual agreement between a single Producer, on the one hand, and AFTRA, SAG or SAG-AFTRA, on the other hand, to the extent that such agreement applied the terms and conditions of The CW Supplement to the 2011 or any predecessor Network Code (hereinafter referred to as a “CW Legacy Basic Cable Series”). A series is not a “CW Legacy Basic Cable Series” if only the pilot or presentation were produced under such an agreement or if the individual agreement between the Producer and AFTRA, SAG or SAG-AFTRA has not expired.

In addition, Producer may elect to apply this Section 83 to performers and background actors employed on prime time dramatic programs¹⁴ produced for The CW, in lieu of the terms and conditions set forth in the remainder of this Agreement for programs made for syndication (including any terms and conditions set forth in the remainder of this Agreement that apply specifically to programs made for The CW).

In the event that Producer engages an individual on a program produced under this Section 83 to provide services that would be covered under one of the performer categories in the Network Code for which there is no equivalent performer category under the Television Agreement (e.g., announcers), the terms and conditions of such individual's employment shall be governed by the Network Code instead of this Section 83.

(f) Crediting of Overscale Payments

(1) Singers and “Series Contract” Performers

The Network Code rules concerning crediting of overscale payments shall apply to singers and performers who would otherwise be considered “series contract” performers within the meaning of Sections 5 through 14 of the Television Agreement, except that Section 18(d) of the Television Agreement regarding advance payment of residuals shall apply in lieu of the Network Code rules regarding crediting of overscale against residual payments for contracts entered into on or after July 1, 2015.

(2) All Other Performers

The Television Agreement rules concerning crediting of overscale payments shall apply to performers other than singers and performers who would otherwise be considered “series contract” performers within the meaning of Sections 5 through 14 of the Television Agreement, except that, for contracts entered into prior to July 1, 2015, Producer may credit residuals as permitted by Section 83(i)(1)b)(ii) below.

(3) Rest Periods

The Television Agreement rules on rest periods shall apply. The Network Code rules on rest periods shall apply to performers who would otherwise be considered “series contract” performers within the meaning of Sections 5 through 14 of the Television Agreement, except that the payment for violation of the rest period provision shall be $950.00; however, such payment may be credited against overscale in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Network Code.

(4) Meal Periods

(ii) A performer employed under Schedule A or a performer employed under Schedule F for less than one (1) full workweek who works on a designated sixth or seventh day which is not a Saturday or Sunday shall be paid at straight time. In the latter case, all such performers shall be compensated at straight time.

d) The parties agree to work out any problems arising from alterations in the workweek schedule (e.g., going from a Tuesday through Saturday schedule to a Monday through Friday schedule) so as not to force the Producer to continue to utilize Saturday and/or Sunday as regular workdays, having due regard for the performer's interest in not losing employment as well as the Producer's interest in not being penalized by having to pay premium pay for the change-over.

e) The overnight location workweek shall consist of any six (6) days out of seven (7) consecutive days as designated by the Producer on each production unit. The seventh day in each workweek shall be the regular day off. The above rules shall be adapted to conform to the overnight location six (6) day workweek.

It is understood that it would be impossible to accurately fix the actual damages suffered by SAG-AFTRA by reason of a breach by a Producer of the Union Security provisions of this Section. It is therefore agreed that the Producer will pay to SAG-AFTRA, as liquidated damages, the sum of $320.00 for each breach by the Producer of the Union Security provision of this Section. The hiring by a Producer of a performer in violation of the provisions hereof shall be deemed a single breach regardless of the number of days of employment involved in the hiring, but each separate hiring of the same person in violation hereof shall be deemed a separate breach.

(l) Derivative New Media Productions Based on a Prime Time Dramatic Program Produced for The CW

(1) The provisions of Paragraph B. of Sideletter H to the Television Agreement Re: Programs Made for New Media shall apply to Derivative New Media Productions based on an existing television motion picture covered under this Section 83, except as follows:

a) The provisions listed in Paragraph B.2.(a) of Sideletter H shall be modified as follows:

(i) Paragraph 84 of the Network Code, “Union Shop,” shall apply in lieu of Section 2 of the General Provisions of the Codified Basic Agreement, “Union Security.”

(ii) Paragraph 93 of the Network Code, “No-Strike Clause,” shall apply in lieu of Section 3 of the General Provisions of the Codified Basic Agreement, “No-Strike Clause.”

(iii) Subparagraphs A. and E. of Paragraph 97 of the Network Code, “No Discrimination/Affirmative Action” shall apply in lieu of Sections 26.A. and 26.D. of the General Provisions of the Codified Basic Agreement, “Policy of Non-Discrimination and Diversity.”

(iv) Paragraph 95 of the Network Code, “Grievance and Arbitration,” shall apply in lieu of Section 50 of the Television Agreement, “Arbitration.”

(v) Paragraph 61 of the Network Code, “Payment,” shall apply in lieu of Section 27(b) of the Television Agreement, “Late Payments.”

(vi) Paragraph 62 of the Network Code, “Deductions for Social Security and Withholding Taxes,” shall apply.

(vii) Paragraph 63 of the Network Code, “Disability Insurance,” shall apply.

(viii) Paragraph 66 of the Network Code, “Individual Contracts,” shall apply.

(ix) Paragraph 86 of the Network Code, “Admission to Premises,” shall apply.

(x) Paragraph 94 of the Network Code, “Production Prosecuted,” shall apply.

b) Paragraph B.2.(b) of Sideletter H regarding provisions applicable to covered background actors employed on Derivative New Media Productions shall not apply.

c) The third and fourth unnumbered paragraphs of Paragraph B.5. of Sideletter H shall not apply, except that background actors shall still be subject to the sixteen (16) hour rule.

d) For Derivative New Media Productions based on a program covered by this Section 83 other than a one-hour program, the residual for use on a free-to-the-consumer, advertiser-supported platform during either of the two twenty-six (26) consecutive week (or shorter) periods described in Paragraphs B.3.(b)(i) and (ii) of Sideletter H shall be three and one-half percent (3.5%) of the first replay fee applicable to a television program of the same length as the Derivative New Media Production under the Network Code.

e) For Derivative New Media Productions based on a program covered by this Section 83 other than a one-hour program, the Producer shall pay residuals for use of such Derivative New Media Production on free television as a use under existing Network Code formulas.

(i) Except with respect to exhibition in network prime time of such Derivative New Media Productions that exceed fifteen (15) minutes in length, residual payments for free television exhibition of such Derivative New Media Productions shall be computed as follows:

The New Media exhibition of the Derivative New Media Production shall constitute the first run for purposes of calculating residual payments in free television. The residual payment for each performer shall be the product of the program fee for a free television program of the same category and length as the Derivative

New Media Production multiplied by the percentage applicable to the replay in question.

As an example, suppose that a five (5) minute Derivative New Media Production which is based upon a one-half hour dramatic series covered by this Section 83 is exhibited for the first time in network prime time. The applicable residual is the program fee used for a dramatic program five (5) minutes and under in length exhibited in syndication ($264 as of July 1, 2014). That figure will be multiplied by 75%, the percentage applicable to the second run on a network, for a total residual payment of $198.

(ii) The formula for reruns in network prime time of such Derivative New Media Productions that exceed fifteen (15) minutes in length is as follows: The New Media exhibition of the Derivative New Media Production shall constitute the first run for purposes of calculating residual payments for use on free television. The residual payment shall be the applicable residual under the Network Code for a rerun in network prime time of a free television program of the same type and length as the Derivative New Media Production.

(2) The provisions of Paragraph E. of Sideletter H to the Television Agreement Re: Programs Made for New Media, "High Budget' Derivative and Original Dramatic New Media Productions Made for Initial Exhibition on a Subscription Video-on-Demand Consumer Pay Platform," shall apply to Derivative New Media Productions based on a television motion picture covered under this Section 83 that meet the definition of "High Budget SVOD Programs" set forth in Paragraph E.2. of Sideletter H.

(m) Joint Cooperative Committee

The parties have agreed to establish a Joint Cooperative Committee for assistance in dealing with problems arising in the application of this Section 83. The Committee shall determine ground rules, solutions to specific problems and waivers where appropriate. It is not intended that the Committee act as or be used as a "grievance committee." It shall make appropriate rules governing those matters not specifically covered by the terms and conditions set forth above, attempting where practicable to utilize existing provisions in either the SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement or Network Code, depending upon which is more appropriate under the circumstances.

Any such rule or determination as to which provision shall apply shall be grounded in the principle that differences between provisions of the Network Code and the SAG-AFTRA Television

Agreement, as interpreted and applied in practice, shall not operate to the economic disadvantage of a performer by reason of the fact that the performer's contract of employment is subject to this Section 83, rather than the terms and conditions under the SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement for programs made for syndication. Any agreement reached by the Committee must be ratified by the SAG-AFTRA National Board.

(n) Background Actors and Stand-Ins¹⁸

(1) Background Actors

a) Definitions

Background actors, for purposes of this Section 83, are those who do not speak any lines whatsoever as individuals but who may be heard, singly or in concert, as part of a group or crowd. A background actor shall be classified as a special background actor if he or she meets any one of the following three conditions in a scene:

- (i) is addressed individually by a principal performer;
- (ii) is alone in the scene;
- (iii) speaks individually as part of a group or crowd, and provided that such background actor receives more than minimal individual direction and portrays a point essential to the story. A background actor who possesses special ability and who is specifically called upon to perform work requiring that special ability (e.g., horseback riding, swimming, skating) shall also be classified as a special background actor.

An individual engaged as a background actor who is subsequently directed to speak at least one line not as part of a group or crowd shall be upgraded to a day performer. If a background actor is upgraded to a day performer but speaks five or fewer lines, the program fee for residual purposes shall be the five lines or less program fee. If the background actor is otherwise upgraded to a day performer, the program fee for residual purposes shall be the principal performer program fee.

Body doubles shall be considered background actors and not performers for purposes of this Section 83.

b) Rates

Performer Category	Rates Effective
	7/1/14 - 9/23/14	9/24/14 - 6/30/15	7/1/15 - 6/30/16	7/1/16 - 6/30/17
Background Actor	$118.00	$124.00	$130.00	$137.00
Overtime (per hour)	22.13	23.25	24.38	25.69
Special Ability Background Actor	128.00	134.00	140.00	147.00
Overtime (per hour)	24.00	25.13	26.25	27.56

See Appendix B for rates applicable to background actors employed on a “Legacy CW Series” or a “CW Legacy Basic Cable Series.”

c) Except as specifically provided in this subsection (n)(1), all terms and conditions of employment of background actors on a program covered by this Section 83 shall be governed by those provisions of the Network Code which are applicable to “Background Actors.”

d) Hours, Days and Holidays

The Television Agreement rules regarding hours, days and holidays shall apply, except as follows:

(i) Meal Periods

Prior to September 24, 2014, meal periods shall be governed by the provisions of Paragraph 23 of the Network Code, except that the penalty for violation of the meal period provisions shall be a single $25.00 payment. Effective September 24, 2014, meal periods shall be governed by the provisions of the Television Agreement. (See Section 29 of Schedule X, Part I or Section 30 of Schedule X, Part II of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement.)

(ii) Sixteen (16) Hour Rule

Background actors shall not be employed in excess of a total of sixteen (16) hours, including meal periods, travel time and actual time required to turn in wardrobe or property in any one day of twenty-four (24) hours.

The penalty for violation of the foregoing sixteen (16) hour rule shall be one (1) day's pay (at the background actor's daily rate including any additional compensation) for each hour, or fraction thereof, of such violation. Such penalty shall be paid at straight time, unless the violation occurs during a sixth day, seventh day, or holiday for which time and one-half is provided, and shall be in lieu of any overtime payment.

This provision shall not apply in any case or to any extent where such violation occurred as a result of circumstances or conditions, other than production considerations or conditions, beyond the control of the Producer with respect to or affecting the return of such background actors from location, but where the penalty is excused, the background actors shall receive all applicable overtime. SAG-AFTRA will not claim any breach of contract resulting from the violation of the sixteen (16) hour rule unless the penalty above prescribed is incurred and is not paid.

e) New York City Earned Sick Time Act and Other Similar Laws

Section 81 of the Television Agreement, "New York City Earned Sick Time Act and Other Similar Laws," shall apply to background actors employed on programs covered by this Section 83.

f) Standard Non-Commercial Billboards and Standard Non-Commercial Openings, Closings, Lead-Ins and Lead-Outs from Commercials, Bridging Lines, and Musical Signatures Intended for Use With Three (3) or More Episodes of a Designated Series of Dramatic Programs

In addition to the minimum rates and conditions otherwise provided by this Section 83, background actors who are specifically selected for and are employed in standard non-commercial billboards and standard non-commercial openings, closings, lead-ins and lead-outs from commercials, bridging lines and musical signatures (all herein sometimes called "material") intended for use with three (3) or more episodes of a designated series of dramatic programs shall receive additional compensation in the amount of $138.00 effective July 1, 2014 ($142.00 effective July 1, 2015; and $146.00 effective July 1, 2016), except that background actors who are employed on such material for a "Legacy CW Series" or a "CW Legacy Basic Cable Series" shall be paid at the rates provided in Appendix B. (The term "non-commercial" means that no mention is made of the sponsor's name, product or service.)

g) Preference of Employment for Background Actors and Special Business

(i) In recognition of the services performed by professional performers, Producer agrees that in the hiring of background actors, preference will be given to qualified professional performers where such performers are readily available through registration services, in-house casting, or alternative arrangements agreed to in the Producer-Background Actors Cooperative Committee.

(ii) It is understood and agreed that it would be impossible to fix accurately the actual damages suffered by SAG-AFTRA by reason of a breach by the Producer of the provisions of this subsection g). It is therefore agreed that, in the absence of any other agreement regarding liquidated damages for such breach, the claim shall be referred to the Producers-Background Actors Cooperative Committee, and its decision of such dispute shall be final and binding.

h) Production Staff

i) Waivers for Large Crowd Scenes

SAG-AFTRA will consider granting waivers for background actors in large crowd scenes.

(2) Stand-Ins

All terms and conditions of employment for stand-ins employed on a program covered by Section 83 shall be governed by the provisions of the Network Code which are applicable to "Stand-ins," except:

a) The minimum salary rates for stand-ins shall be $167 per day effective July 1, 2014 ($172 per day effective July 1, 2015 and $177 per day effective July 1, 2016), except that the rates for stand-ins employed on a "Legacy CW Series" or a "CW Legacy Basic Cable Series" shall be as provided in Appendix B.

b) The Television Agreement rules regarding production staff shall apply.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement on the day and year first herein written.

Re: Television Screen Credits

Dear Ken:

During the 1986 negotiations between the Producers represented by the Alliance of Motion Picture & Television Producers and the Screen Actors Guild, the Screen Actors Guild contended that the credits on the cast of characters card at the end of certain television shows are not "in a readily readable color, size and speed" as required by Section 25(a)(1) of the Television Agreement. To address this problem, the parties agreed that meetings, comprising representatives of the Screen Actors Guild, the AMPTP, the studio and the Executive Producer of the television program involved, shall be convened upon the request of the Screen Actors Guild. The purpose of such meetings is to discuss, devise, develop and implement means by which the parties may conciliate such disputes. However, the foregoing shall not affect any other rights or remedies any party may have under the Agreement.

Sincerely,

J. Nicholas Counter III

Re: Waiver re Domestic Free Television Residuals for One-Hour Dramatic Series

Dear Carol:

A. Revenues Contracted For: SAG-AFTRA hereby grants a limited waiver from the provisions of Section 18(b)(2) of the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement, and the comparable provisions of all prior Television Agreements and Exhibit A to the 2011 and any prior AFTRA Network Code, to all Producers signatory hereto with regard to residuals payable pursuant thereto ("fixed residual payments") for episodes of one-hour network prime time dramatic series, which series have not been exhibited in syndication prior to July 1, 2014 (except those series which have been released in syndication prior to that date under the terms of Sideletter B of the 1989, 1992, 1995, 1998, 2001, 2005, 2009 or 2011 SAG Television Agreements are eligible to be paid under Sideletter B of those Agreements).

The Union also hereby grants a limited waiver from the provisions of Section 18(b)(2) of the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement, and the comparable provisions of all prior Television Agreements and Exhibit A to the 2011 and any prior AFTRA Network Code, to all Producers signatory hereto with regard to fixed residuals payments for episodes of the following one-hour series which have not been exhibited in syndication prior to July 1, 2014 (except those series which have been released in syndication prior to that date under the terms of Sideletter B of the 1989, 1992, 1995, 1998, 2001, 2005, 2009 or 2011 SAG Television Agreements are eligible to be paid under Sideletter B of those Agreements): (i) one-hour dramatic series made for "late night" network broadcast which are rerun in syndication, and (ii) one-hour dramatic series made for network prime time which are rerun on "late night" network television, provided that all performers employed on any such episodes covered under this subparagraph (ii) which were produced after July 1, 2014 must have been employed under residual terms and conditions not less favorable than those provided under this Agreement. For this purpose, "late night" is defined as the hours between 11:00 p.m. in the Eastern and Pacific time zones (10:00 p.m. in the Central and Mountain time zones) and 6:00 a.m. in the Eastern and Pacific time zones (5:00 a.m. in the Central and Mountain time zones).

Residuals for episodes of such series shall be computed by multiplying the fixed residual amount otherwise due by a ratio, the numerator of which is the revenue contracted for by the distributor, as may be adjusted below, and the denominator of which is six hundred fifty thousand dollars ($650,000.00). As subsequent payments are made for any episode, appropriate payments or credits shall be made to bring earlier residual payments into conformity with any increase or decrease in the multiplier. In no event, however, shall any payment made pursuant to this limited waiver exceed one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the fixed residual payment otherwise due. Similarly, any such payment shall not be less than fifty percent (50%) of the fixed residual payment otherwise due, except in the case of series licensed only in markets representing fewer than one-third of all United States television households.

B. Combination Sales: If a series qualifying hereunder is sold in combination with any other series or other program, the Producer shall allocate to each episode of the series qualifying hereunder a fair and reasonable portion of the revenues contracted for and shall include such amount in the numerator referred to above. The Producer shall notify the Union when a series qualifying hereunder is sold in combination with another series or program and in such notice identify the other series or program involved. If the Union contends that the amounts so allocated were not fair and reasonable, such claim may be determined by submission to arbitration and the arbitrator shall have the authority to determine the fair and reasonable amount to be so allocated.

C. Barter Syndication: If any series qualifying hereunder is syndicated with advertising time withheld by the distributor (i.e., barter syndication), the fair market value of the amount allocated to the "barter" portion of the deal shall be included in the numerator referred to above. The Producer shall notify the Union when a series qualifying hereunder is syndicated in any barter arrangement. If the Union contends that the amount so allocated does not represent the fair market value of the "barter," such claim may be determined by submission to arbitration and the arbitrator shall have the authority to determine the fair market value to be so allocated.

D. Reporting:

1. The Producer shall make the foregoing payments within the time period set forth in Section 18(b)(5) and in the manner required by Section 18(e). Simultaneously with each payment due hereunder, the Producer shall submit to the Union a statement showing the per-episode market-by-market¹ revenue amounts, detailed to reflect the cash and barter components of the revenue, used to compute the multiplier for the episode. In calculating the numerator of such multiplier, the revenue contracted for by the distributor shall be adjusted by the Producer to take into account uncollected revenues, to the extent that such are evidenced by bankruptcy, contract restructuring (including amendments and cancellations), reorganizations or accounts that are more than 270 days delinquent. In its statement to the Union, the Producer shall notify the Union of any such adjustments and the basis therefor.

2. If the Producer excludes any amounts not collected with respect to contracts with any party whose debts have been discharged or whose contracts have been modified in a bankruptcy or reorganization proceeding, the Producer shall notify the Union of the exclusion and, upon request, shall promptly provide the Union with copies of court documents, including those which substantiate the discharge, reorganization or contract modification.

3. Upon collection of any revenues previously treated as "uncollected" under Section D. above, the Producer shall add such collected revenues back into the numerator of the multiplier. Any increased amounts shall be due with the next payment otherwise required hereunder, but in no event later than four (4) months from recovery or collection of such revenues by the Producer. In its statement to the Union, the Producer shall notify the Union of the amount of such a collection and the basis therefor.

4. In any dispute over a decrease in the numerator alleged to have been made under this Section D., the burden of proof shall be on the Producer to establish that such decrease comports with the terms and conditions hereof.

5. The Producer affirms its obligations under Section 18(e)(2) and (3). Upon written request of the Union, the Producer shall promptly send to the Union copies of those parts of the contracts showing the financial terms relevant to the determination of the accuracy of the payments to be made hereunder.² The Producer shall also, upon request of the Union, provide the Union promptly with access to any and all documents or records of the Producer reasonably necessary to confirm compliance with the foregoing terms and conditions and, thereafter, upon written request of the Union, the Producer shall provide the Union with copies of such documents and records. If the Producer in good faith contends that any of such documents or records are proprietary and/or confidential, the Union shall in good faith seek to address appropriate Producer concerns. The Producer may withhold copies pending an agreement with the Union on how the Union shall maintain appropriate confidentiality. If such an agreement is not reached, the Producer may withhold such documents pending action by an arbitrator.

E. Termination of Waiver: If the Union desires to terminate one or more of the limited waivers set forth herein, it may, once during the term of this Agreement, so advise the AMPTP not later than June 1 of any year of this Agreement. In such event, the parties shall promptly submit to a neutral fact-finder for an expeditious determination the issue of whether the economics of the off-network domestic syndication market for one-hour dramatic programs which are eligible for the limited waiver(s) set forth in this sideletter have recovered sufficiently to justify the expiration of the limited waiver applicable to such programs. The neutral fact-finder, who shall be chosen by mutual agreement of the parties or, absent such agreement of the parties, from a panel of arbitrators of the American Arbitration Association (AAA) in accordance with AAA rules, shall issue his/her findings in writing prior to the commencement of the fall television season. The parties hereto agree that such written findings constitute an arbitration award for the purpose of proceedings to enforce, modify or vacate an arbitration award in any court of competent jurisdiction.

In the event the neutral fact-finder determines that the syndication market has recovered sufficiently to justify the expiration of such limited waiver(s), the Union shall have the option to terminate such limited waiver(s) prior to the commencement of the fall television season and, in lieu thereof, to reinstate the fixed residual formula, as provided in Section 18(b)(2). In the event the Union elects to terminate one or more of the waiver(s), such election shall apply to series premiering in the fall season(s) following the Union's request for fact-finding.

² The Union agrees to maintain such information on a strictly confidential basis. It is recognized that in certain limited instances, the Producer may have business reasons, unrelated to compliance with this Television Agreement, for believing that sending copies of financial terms of certain contracts to the Union may not be appropriate. In such instances, the Producer may confer with the Union to explain its concerns. The Union shall in good faith consider the Producer's concerns and, if it concurs with the Producer, it shall so indicate in writing and the Producer shall not be required to send such items.

Re: Waiver re Domestic Free Television Residuals for Long-Form Television Motion Pictures

Dear Carol:

A. Revenues Contracted For: SAG-AFTRA hereby grants a limited waiver from the provisions of Section 18(b)(2) of the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement, and the comparable provisions of all prior Television Agreements and Exhibit A to the 2011 and any prior AFTRA Network Code, to all Producers signatory hereto with regard to residuals payable pursuant thereto (“fixed residual payments”) for long-form (90 minutes or longer) television motion pictures which have not been exhibited in syndication prior to July 1, 2014 (except those long-form television motion pictures which have been released in syndication prior to that date under the terms of Sideletter B-1 of the 1992, 1995, 1998, 2001, 2005, 2009 or 2011 SAG Television Agreement are eligible to be paid under Sideletter B-1 of that Agreement). The limited waiver shall apply to: (i) dramatic long-form television motion pictures made for network prime time which are rerun in syndication, (ii) dramatic long-form television pictures made for “late night” network broadcast which are rerun in syndication, and (iii) dramatic long-form television motion pictures made for network prime time which are rerun on “late night” network television, provided that all performers employed on any such television motion picture covered under this subparagraph (iii) which were produced after June 30, 2014 must have been employed under residual terms and conditions not less favorable than those provided under this Agreement. For this purpose, “late night” is defined as the hours between 11:00 p.m. in the Eastern and Pacific time zones (10:00 p.m. in the Central and Mountain time zones) and 6:00 a.m. in the Eastern and Pacific time zones (5:00 a.m. in the Central and Mountain time zones).

Residuals for such television motion pictures shall be computed by multiplying the fixed residual amount otherwise due by a ratio, the numerator of which is the revenue contracted for by the distributor, as adjusted below, and the denominator of which is six hundred fifty thousand dollars ($650,000.00). As subsequent payments are made for any episode, appropriate payments or credits shall be made to bring earlier residual payments into conformity with any increase or decrease in the multiplier. B. Combination Sales: If a television motion picture qualifying hereunder is sold in combination with any series or other motion picture, the Producer shall allocate to each long-form television motion picture qualifying hereunder a fair and reasonable portion of the revenues contracted for and shall include such amount in the numerator referred to above. If the Union contends that the amounts so allocated were not fair and reasonable, such claim may be determined by submission to arbitration and the arbitrator shall have the authority to determine the fair and reasonable amount to be so allocated.

C. Barter Syndication: If any television motion picture qualifying hereunder is syndicated with advertising time withheld by the distributor (i.e., barter syndication), the fair market value of the amount allocated to the "barter" portion of the deal shall be included in the numerator referred to above. If the Union contends that the amount so allocated does not represent the fair market value of the "barter," such claim may be determined by submission to arbitration and the arbitrator shall have the authority to determine the fair market value to be so allocated.

D. Reporting: The Producer shall make the foregoing payments within the time period set forth in Section 18(b)(5) and in the manner required by Section 18(e). Simultaneously with each payment due hereunder, the Producer shall submit to the Union a statement showing the per-program revenue amounts, detailed to reflect the cash and barter components of the revenue, used to compute the multiplier for the program. In calculating the numerator of such multiplier, the revenue contracted for by the distributor shall be adjusted to take into account uncollected revenues, to the extent that such are evidenced by bankruptcy, contract restructuring (including amendments and cancellations), reorganizations or accounts that are more than 270 days delinquent. In any dispute over a decrease in the numerator alleged to have been made under this Section D., the burden of proof shall be on the Producer to establish that such decrease comports with the terms and conditions hereof.

The Producer affirms that, in addition to its obligations under Section 18(e)(2) and (3), it shall, upon request, provide the Union with prompt access to any and all documents or records of the Producer reasonably necessary to confirm compliance with the foregoing terms and conditions.

Upon written request of the Union, the Producer shall promptly send to the Union copies of those parts of the contracts showing the financial terms relevant to the determination of the accuracy of the payments to be made hereunder.¹ The Producer shall also, upon request of the Union, provide the Union promptly with access to any and all documents or records of the Producer reasonably necessary to confirm compliance with the foregoing terms and conditions and, thereafter, upon written request of the Union, the Producer shall provide the Union with copies of such documents and records. If the Producer in good faith contends that any of such documents or records are proprietary and/or confidential, the Union shall in good faith seek to address appropriate Producer concerns. The Producer may withhold copies pending an agreement with the Union on how the Union shall maintain appropriate confidentiality. If such an agreement is not reached, the Producer may withhold such documents pending action by an arbitrator.

E. Uncollected Revenues: Upon collection of any revenues previously treated as "uncollected" under Section D. above, the Producer shall add such collected revenues back into the numerator of the multiplier. Any increased amounts shall be due with the next payment otherwise required hereunder, but in no event later than four (4) months from recovery or collection of such revenues by the Producer.

F. Termination of Waiver: This provision shall automatically terminate on June 30, 2017.

¹ The Union agrees to maintain such information on a strictly confidential basis. It is recognized that in certain limited instances, the Producer may have business reasons, unrelated to compliance with this Television Agreement, for believing that sending copies of financial terms of certain contracts to the Union may not be appropriate. In such instances, the Producer may confer with the Union to explain its concerns. The Union shall in good faith consider the Producer's concerns and, if it concurs with the Producer, it shall so indicate in writing and the Producer shall not be required to send such items.

Re: Sideletter to Section 18(b)(2)c – Experiment in Syndication of Half-Hour Series in Markets Representing 50% or Fewer of U.S. Television Households

Dear David:

Reference is made to the provisions of Section 18(b)(2)c of the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement and the comparable provisions of Exhibit A to the 2011, 2008 and 2005 AFTRA Network Code. During the 2005 negotiations, the Producers expressed a concern that if a series could only be syndicated in markets representing 50% or fewer of the U.S. television households, residuals payable pursuant to Section 18(b)(2)c would render such syndication fiscally untenable. The Producers asserted that the payment of any residuals in such circumstances would benefit both the Producer and the individual performers since no payments are presently made.

While SAG expressed concern that an accommodation might be subject to abuse or otherwise reduce overall syndication residuals, the parties agreed to an experiment for the term of the 2005 Agreement, to be reviewed each successive term, to determine its effectiveness and whether or not it should be extended. The Producers and SAG-AFTRA have agreed to renew the experiment for an additional term commencing July 1, 2014 and terminating June 30, 2017. In such regard, the Producers agree to provide the Union with license fee information at the time of the first payment hereunder together with a detail of markets covered by the license agreement. If the series is later syndicated in additional markets, the Producer shall provide the Union with a detail of the additional markets at the time of the payment immediately following such later syndication.

When a half-hour series is syndicated in markets representing in the aggregate fifty percent (50%) or fewer of U.S. television households, residuals for such series shall be payable at twenty percent (20%) of the "total applicable minimum salary" pursuant to Section 18(b)(4)b) for each such run, but shall not constitute a "run" for purposes of Section 18(b)(2)c).

If the series is further syndicated and the aggregate of the markets in which the series is syndicated exceeds fifty percent (50%) of the U.S. television households, the payments required pursuant to Section 18(b)(2)c) shall be due on any subsequent runs.

This experiment will only apply to series that have not yet been placed into syndication as of July 1, 2014.

EXHIBIT TO SIDELETTER B-2

The following chart provides examples of the cumulative residual payments due for a half-hour series that is initially sold to syndication markets representing 50% or fewer of U.S. television households. The examples assume one network exhibition prior to the first run in syndication.

When a half-hour series is syndicated in markets representing in the aggregate 50% or fewer of U.S. television households, residuals for such series are payable at 20% of the total applicable minimum salary for each such run. If the series is further syndicated and the aggregate of the markets in which the series is syndicated exceeds 50% of U.S. television households, the payments required under the full syndication formula are due on any subsequent runs.

This chart is designed to provide examples as to how the new formula will work when a series initially sold to syndication in markets representing 50% or fewer of U.S. television households is subsequently sold to markets that exceed the 50% threshold.

In Example 1, six runs of a half-hour series (with one prior run on a network) are sold in syndication to markets representing less than 50% of U.S. television households. After three runs in syndication in those markets, the series is subsequently sold to additional markets, the aggregate of which then exceeds 50% of U.S. television households. For the first three runs, the Producer pays 60% of the total applicable minimum salary (20% of total applicable minimum for each run) to each performer. The next run in syndication is payable under the full syndication formula as if the first three runs in syndication had not taken place. Accordingly, the fourth run is paid as if it were the second run in syndication (remember one run already occurred on the network) at 40% of the total applicable minimum salary; the fifth run is paid at 30% of the total applicable minimum salary; and the sixth run is paid at 25% of the total applicable minimum salary.

In Example 2, six runs of a half-hour series (with one prior run on a network) are sold in syndication to markets representing less than 50% of U.S. television households. After four runs in syndication in those markets, the series is subsequently sold to additional markets, the aggregate of which then exceeds 50% of U.S. television households. For the first four runs, the Producer pays 80% of the total applicable minimum salary (20% of total applicable minimum for each run) to each performer. The next run in syndication is payable under the full syndication formula as if the first four runs in syndication had not taken place. Accordingly, the fifth run is paid as if it were the second run in syndication (remember one run already occurred on the network) at 40% of the total applicable minimum salary and the sixth run is paid at 30% of the total applicable minimum salary.

In Example 3, six runs of a half-hour series (with one prior run on a network) are sold in syndication to markets representing less than 50% of U.S. television households. After five runs in syndication in those markets, the series is subsequently sold to additional markets, the aggregate of which then exceeds 50% of U.S. television households. For the first five runs, the Producer pays 100% of the total applicable minimum salary (20% of total applicable minimum for each run) to each performer. The next run in syndication is payable under the full syndication formula as if the first five runs in syndication had not taken place. Accordingly, the sixth run is paid as if it were the second run in syndication (remember one run already occurred on the network) at 40% of the total applicable minimum salary.

Re: “Major Role Performers” in Episodic Series

Dear David:

This will confirm the understandings reached in connection with our agreement for a provision governing minimum guarantees for “major role performers” employed on episodic series:

(1) Under the terms of our agreement, the definition of a “major role performer” is linked to specified forms of credit (i.e., “Guest Star,” “Special Guest Star,” “Starring” or “Special Appearance By”) negotiated by the performer. The original definition proposed by the Screen Actors Guild included performers who received the above-referenced credits “or variations thereof.” The parties have agreed to delete the “or variations thereof” language in light of their mutual understanding that the new provision was intended to cover only that class of performers which was traditionally receiving “top of the show” rates in the past. Since the aforementioned credit designations best described that class, the parties agreed that the “or variations thereof” language was not necessary.

Consistent with the foregoing, the parties reaffirm their intent neither to expand nor diminish the class of “major role performers.” To that end, it is agreed that new forms of credit will not be devised as a means of diminishing the number of performers who would otherwise be classified as “major role performers.”

David White

Revised as of June 10, 2009; Revised as of July 1, 2011; Revised as of July 1, 2014

(2) The salary rates for a “major role” performer, other than one employed under the day performer exception, are as follows:[†]

Program	7/01/14- 6/30/15	7/01/15- 6/30/16	7/01/16- 6/30/17
One-Half Hour	$4,840	$4,983	$5,132
One Hour	7,744	7,973	8,210

(3) The new salary guarantee for “major role performers” is a minimum term only insofar as initial compensation and compensation for network prime time reruns are concerned. For all other purposes (e.g., overtime or residuals for exhibition in syndication), minimum compensation for such performers shall be calculated on the same basis as for other weekly schedule performers employed under the same schedule.

(4) It is permissible for agency commission fees to be deducted from the new salary guarantee for major role performers. However, this does not preclude the performer’s agent and the Producer from negotiating agency commission fees which are in addition to the new salary guarantee.

(5) The parties agree to study casting practices with regard to “major role performers” and the possibility of identifying major role performers by Occupation Code when reported to the Plans.

Sincerely,

Carol A. Lombardini

Re: Situs of Arbitration Hearings

Dear Ken:

During the 1986 negotiations between the Screen Actors Guild and the Producers represented by the Alliance of Motion Picture & Television Producers, the parties agreed to establish a panel of arbitrators to hear disputes in New York. The parties had agreed in 1983 to establish such a panel for Los Angeles.

In order to avoid confusion as to the proper situs of arbitration hearings, the parties hereby confirm their agreement to continue the past practice as follows: If there is no dispute as to the situs, the arbitration shall be held in the city designated in the arbitration demand. If there is a dispute, the situs shall be determined in accordance with the rules and procedures of the American Arbitration Association.

SIDELETTER TO SECTION 50 OF THE TELEVISION AGREEMENT; ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES CONCERNING TRI-GUILD RESIDUALS AUDITS

As of July 1, 2005
Revised as of June 10, 2009
Revised as of July 1, 2011
Revised as of July 1, 2014

This Sideletter is entered into by and among the Writers Guild of America, West, Inc., on behalf of itself and its affiliate, Writers Guild of America East, Inc. (“WGA”), the Directors Guild of America, Inc. and Screen Actors Guild - American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (collectively “Guilds”), on the one hand, and the Alliance of Motion Picture and Television Producers (“AMPTP”), on behalf of the entities it represented in the negotiation of the 2014 Writers Guild of America Theatrical and Television Basic Agreement, the Directors Guild of America, Inc. (“DGA”) Basic Agreement of 2014, the DGA Freelance Live and Tape Television Agreement of 2014, the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement of 2014 and the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement [and all predecessor agreements listed in Exhibit A hereto to which such named parties were (are) signatory,¹ (collectively referred to as “Basic Agreements”)], on the other hand.

A. MATTERS SUBJECT TO TRI-GUILD ARBITRATION

When there is unanimous agreement among the Guilds, the following matters shall be submitted to a tri-Guild arbitration:

Any dispute arising out of an audit conducted under the tri-Guild Gross Receipts Residuals Payment Monitoring Fund program concerning the interpretation or application, or alleged breach, of any residuals provisions of the Guilds’ current or predecessor Basic Agreements, when such provisions are the same or substantially similar.

This tri-Guild procedure is not available when the residuals obligation(s) at issue is (are) payable, guaranteed or assumed by a “Qualified Distributor,” “Qualified Buyer” and/or a “Qualified Residuals Payor,” except by mutual agreement.

B. GENERAL RULES

1. Parties

- a. To the extent not inconsistent herewith, the arbitration provisions of the Guilds’ Basic Agreements shall define the parties to a tri-Guild arbitration.

Individuals and their respective loan-out companies shall not be parties to proceedings under this Sideletter.

- b. The party against whom a tri-Guild arbitration is commenced is sometimes referred to herein as the respondent. Use of such term in the singular shall be deemed to include the plural.

2. Time Limits

The claim of each Guild is subject to the time limits set forth in its Basic Agreement.

3. Place of Hearing

All tri-Guild arbitrations shall be in Los Angeles, absent unanimous agreement of the parties to another situs.

The selection of the situs of the hearing room within the appropriate city shall be by mutual agreement of the Guilds and the respondent. If there is no such agreement, those parties will alternate in selecting the hearing room, with the party making the selection supplying the room at no charge to the other.

4. Award

The arbitrator may make any appropriate award to a Guild as permitted in that Guild's Basic Agreement. Such award shall be in writing and shall be limited as provided in each Guild's Basic Agreements. Subject to the provisions of those Basic Agreements, the award shall be final and binding upon the parties to the proceeding, whether participating in the proceeding or not.

5. Costs

The court reporter's per diem charges and the fee and the expenses of the arbitrator shall be borne fifty percent (50%) by the Guilds and fifty percent (50%) by the respondent. The cost of the arbitrator's copy of the transcript shall be shared seventy-five percent (75%) by the Guilds and twenty-five percent (25%) by the respondent.

6. Notices

- a. All written notices referred to in this Sideletter commencing a tri-Guild proceeding shall be sent to the respondent by registered or certified mail or by personal delivery. If the moving party(ies) is (are) unable to effect service in this manner, service may then be effected by first class mail, postage prepaid, to the address for service last designated in writing to each of the Guilds by the respondent, together with publication in Daily Variety, The Hollywood Reporter, The Los Angeles Times and The New York Times. All other written notices may be sent to each party by messenger, certified mail, first class mail, facsimile or any other means agreed upon by the parties.

- b. All notices sent by the Guilds to the respondent shall be sent to the address(es) designated by the respondent in writing to each of the Guilds at the time the respondent becomes signatory to each Guild's Basic Agreement. Should a signatory company change its address for the purpose of receiving notices relating to arbitration, the signatory company shall notify the Guilds of such new address, which shall then be substituted for the prior address.
- c. Unless otherwise designated by a signatory company in a written notice to the Guilds, all notices sent by the Guilds to the respondent shall be addressed to the attention of its Labor or Industrial Relations Department or, in the absence of such department, to an officer of the respondent. If the respondent maintains an office in Los Angeles, California or its vicinity, all such notices shall be sent to said office.
- d. A petition to confirm, modify or vacate, as the case may be, an arbitration award filed in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be served upon the respondent in such proceeding by registered or certified mail or by personal delivery. If the petitioner is unable to effect service in this manner, service then may be effected by first class mail, postage prepaid, to the address for service last designated in writing by the Company, together with publication in Daily Variety, The Hollywood Reporter, The Los Angeles Times and The New York Times.

7. Conduct of Proceedings

Except as set forth elsewhere herein, the arbitrator shall adopt such rules of procedure and shall conduct proceedings in such manner as he/she shall determine to be proper; provided, however, that each party to any arbitration shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to present evidence and argument before the arbitrator.

All hearings, deliberations and proceedings of the arbitrator shall be closed to the public. Only interested parties, their representatives and witnesses may attend.

C. ARBITRATION

1. Initiation of Proceedings

a. When One or More Guilds Have Previously Served Separate Arbitration Claims and/or Grievances

A tri-Guild arbitration shall be initiated by the Guilds by written notice setting forth the particulars of the claim. The written notice shall describe all previously served claim(s) and/or grievance(s) to be submitted to the tri-Guild proceeding. The written notice shall be sent in accord with the procedures described in Section B.6. above, within eighteen (18) months following the date of the final audit report.

The tri-Guild procedure would not be available, however, when an arbitrator has been selected to hear a claim filed separately by one of the Guilds.

b. When No Arbitration Claims Have Been Previously Served By Any Guild

A tri-Guild arbitration shall be initiated by the Guilds by joint (i.e., single) written notice setting forth the particulars of the claim, to be sent in accord with the procedures described in Section B.6. above. No grievance proceedings shall be utilized.

2. Respondent's Written Statement of Position

The respondent shall, within ten (10) business days following receipt of the notice of invocation of a tri-Guild proceeding, inform all Guilds of its representatives and serve a written statement of its position.

3. Selection of Arbitrator

The arbitrator shall be a neutral third party. The parties shall in good faith attempt to mutually agree upon an arbitrator within ten (10) business days after the respondent's receipt of the notice of invocation of a tri-Guild proceeding. Should the parties fail to so agree, the arbitrator shall be selected by the "Strike Process" as follows:

- a. The arbitrators listed in subparagraph e.(2) below shall constitute the list of arbitrators.
- b. On a respondent-by-respondent basis, the Guilds collectively and the respondent shall alternate on a case-by-case basis in first striking a name from the list of arbitrators. Thereafter, the other party shall "strike" a name from the list. The parties shall continue to alternate in striking names from the list, until one (1) arbitrator's name remains.

- c. The arbitrator whose name remains (after the Strike Process is completed) shall be the arbitrator.
- d. The Strike Process shall commence within two (2) business days following completion of the ten (10) business day period referred to in Section 3. above and must conclude no later than three (3) business days following completion of the ten (10) day period referred to in Section 3. above.
- e. In the event that one of the parties fails to participate in the Strike Process, or fails to strike in order and/or timely, the other party may thereupon select the arbitrator to hear the matter.
 - (1) If there is more than one respondent, then the respondent which is the real party in interest shall participate in the striking process with the Guilds. In the event that such respondents cannot agree on which of them is the real party in interest, then such respondents shall determine by lot which of them shall participate in the striking process with the Guilds.
 - (2) The authorized list of arbitrators is as follows:

Sara Adler
Howard Block
Dixon Dern
Joe Gentile
Fredric Horowitz
Edgar A. Jones, Jr.
Anita Knowlton
Michael Rappaport
Sol Rosenthal

Additional names may be added from time to time by mutual agreement of the parties, provided that the panel shall consist of an odd number of arbitrators at all times.

4. Substitution of Arbitrators

If the arbitrator selected cannot serve, a substitute shall be selected in accordance with Section 3. above.

5. Notice of Hearing

The arbitrator or, at his/her request, one of the parties shall give written notice to the parties of the time and place of the arbitration hearing. In fixing such date, the arbitrator shall consult the parties and shall consider the time reasonably necessary for the parties to prepare their cases.

6. Exchange of Information

The parties will cooperate in the exchange of information reasonably in advance of the hearing date regarding the expected utilization of documents and physical evidence. Not later than thirty (30) days prior to the arbitration hearing, any party may make a written request to the other to produce, on a date not later than five (5) days before the hearing, documentary evidence of the type producible pursuant to a subpoena duces tecum. The documents must be produced on the date requested, but the other party may object to the production of the documents to the same extent as though the documents were subpoenaed. Any such objection shall be considered by the arbitrator at the hearing.

The introduction of documents or physical evidence shall not be precluded because they were not exchanged in advance of the hearing.

7. Hearing

- a. The arbitrator may, upon a showing of good cause, continue the hearing. The arbitration hearing shall be continued by mutual agreement of the parties.
- b. The arbitration shall take place as noticed or continued regardless of whether one (1) or more of the parties fails to participate.

8. Defenses

The respondent may assert any and all defenses available to it, including those available against only one or two Guilds.

9. Waiver of Time Limits

Any and all time limits in this Sideletter may be waived by the mutual consent of the parties.

10. Confidentiality

The parties and the arbitrator shall maintain the confidentiality of business records and/or other documents introduced at the hearing as if the provisions of Article 53.B. of the WGA Minimum Basic Agreement, Article 17-400 of the DGA Basic Agreement, Article 7.G. of the DGA Freelance Live and Tape Television Agreement and Article 6.1 of the SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement applied.

D. ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES WHICH INVOLVE QUESTIONS OF JURISDICTION OR ARBITRABILITY

1. General

An objection to jurisdiction or arbitrability shall first be determined by the arbitrator prior to proceeding with a hearing on the merits. If the arbitrator determines that there is jurisdiction and that the dispute is arbitrable, the arbitrator shall proceed to a decision on the merits; provided, however, that the party contesting arbitration or jurisdiction shall not, by proceeding to a determination of the merits of such arbitration, be deemed to have waived its position that the dispute is not arbitrable or that the arbitrator does not have jurisdiction. If the arbitrator rules he/she has no jurisdiction over the dispute or that the dispute is not arbitrable, then each party shall be free to pursue the remedies available to it.

2. Timeliness Defense

If the respondent alleges that the claim is time-barred under one or more of the Guilds' Agreements, such defense shall be bifurcated and heard in a separate proceeding in advance of the proceeding on the merits, absent consent of all parties to decide this defense in the same proceeding. In a bifurcated proceeding, only the parties to the Agreement under which the timeliness defense has been raised shall be parties. These parties shall select a different arbitrator to decide the timeliness defense under the procedures described above in Section C.3., unless they agree to use the same arbitrator selected to decide the merits of the tri-Guild claim. The arbitrator shall refrain from issuing a decision on the merits of any tri-Guild claim subject to a timeliness defense until issuance of the decision on such defense.

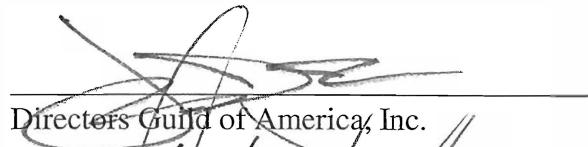

2. Timeliness Defense

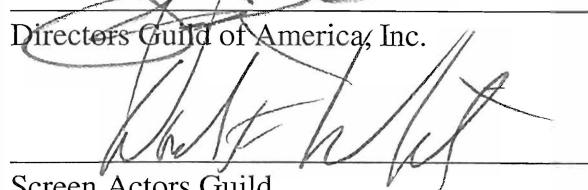

If the respondent alleges that the claim is time-barred under one or more of the Guilds' Agreements, such defense shall be bifurcated and heard in a separate proceeding in advance of the proceeding on the merits, absent consent of all parties to decide this defense in the same proceeding. In a bifurcated proceeding, only the parties to the Agreement under which the timeliness defense has been raised shall be parties. These parties shall select a different arbitrator to decide the timeliness defense under the procedures described above in Section C.3., unless they agree to use the same arbitrator selected to decide the merits of the tri-Guild claim. The arbitrator shall refrain from issuing a decision on the merits of any tri-Guild claim subject to a timeliness defense until issuance of the decision on such defense.

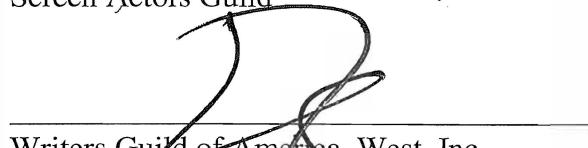

E. ARBITRATION EXCLUSIVE REMEDY

Arbitration under this Sideletter shall be the exclusive remedy in connection with claims hereunder against the respondent concerning the interpretation or application, or alleged breach, of any residuals provisions of the Guilds' current or predecessor Basic Agreements.

Re: Small Residual Checks

Dear John:

Reference is made to the provisions of Section 18.1(d) of the 1998 Screen Actors Guild Television Agreement which provides that late payment charges will be assessed under 18(b)(2) and (3) whenever payments due pursuant to Section 18.1 are not made timely, except in connection with checks that are less than $10.00.

This sideletter will confirm that, in the course of our discussions during the 1998 negotiations with respect to late payments, the parties agreed that they will endeavor to formulate a solution for the payment of monies to performers whose checks are less than $10.00 per year.

Sincerely,

J. Nicholas Counter III

Re: Programs Made for New Media

Dear David:

This Sideletter confirms the understanding of SAG-AFTRA ("the Union") and the Producers (collectively "the parties") concerning the application of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement of 2014 (hereinafter "the Codified Basic Agreement") and the SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement of 2014 (hereinafter "the Television Agreement") to audio-visual entertainment programs, the principal photography of which commences on or after July 1, 2014, that are made for the Internet, mobile devices or any other new media platform known as of June 10, 2009 (hereinafter collectively referred to as "New Media"). With respect to such programs intended for initial use in New Media, the parties agree as follows:

A. Coverage and Scope

The provisions of this Sideletter shall be applicable to performers and background actors employed on programs made for "New Media," as that term is defined above, to the extent that such programs are covered by the Codified Basic Agreement or Television Agreement.¹

The term “performers” shall include performers, singers, stunt performers, stunt coordinators, airplane and helicopter pilots, professional dancers (as distinguished from dancers who would properly be treated as background actors), professional puppeteers and body doubles.

It is understood that, except as provided in the following sentence and in Paragraph E. below, Producer shall be obligated to cover only the first ten (10) background actors employed each day in the Background Actor Zones specified in Schedule X, Part I and in the Background Actor Zones specified in Schedule X, Part II on any New Media Production covered hereunder. Producer shall not be required to cover background actors under the terms of this Sideletter who are employed on those Original New Media Productions which meet the budget test for an “Experimental New Media Production,” as that term is defined in Paragraph C. below, but which employ a “covered performer,” as defined in Paragraph C. below, or who are employed on any Experimental New Media Production which the Producer elects to cover under the terms of this Sideletter.

The provisions of this Sideletter shall apply within the same geographical scope as is applicable to motion pictures covered by the Codified Basic Agreement.

B. Derivative New Media Productions (Other Than “High Budget” Dramatic Productions Made for Initial Exhibition on a Subscription Video-On-Demand Consumer Pay New Media Platform).

A “Derivative New Media Production” (“DNMP”) is a production for New Media based on an existing motion picture that was produced for “traditional” media (the “Original Production”), to the extent that such production is covered under the terms of the Codified Basic Agreement or Television Agreement.

The following provisions apply to DNMPs other than “high budget” dramatic DNMPs made for a subscription video-on-demand consumer pay New Media platform described in Paragraph E. below.

1. Compensation

All terms and conditions of employment, including initial compensation and deferred compensation, if any, will be subject to negotiation between the Producer and the individual performer, except for those provisions of the Codified Basic Agreement and Television Agreement incorporated herein by reference below. The Union agrees that it will not interfere in any such negotiations between the performer and the Producer. All such terms shall be set forth in a stand-alone agreement or separately stated in the performer’s contract for the Original Production.

It is understood that Producer and performer may have negotiated about such terms and conditions in a contract of employment entered into prior to June 10, 2009; if so, the terms and conditions of such contract shall control, except that to the extent any such contract provides lesser terms and conditions than those set forth herein, the performer's contract shall be deemed amended to include the minimum terms set forth herein.

2. Applicable Provisions of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement and SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement parenthetical in the second sentence of subparagraph (a) and the last two sentences of that subparagraph).

3. Reuse

Reuse of Derivative New Media Productions shall be governed by the following:

- (a) Initial compensation for a Derivative New Media Production shall constitute payment for thirteen (13) consecutive weeks of use on all free-to-the-consumer, advertiser-supported platforms transmitted via New Media (hereinafter “advertiser-supported platforms”), commencing with the first day that the Derivative New Media Production is available for exhibition on any advertiser-supported platform, and for a separate twenty-six (26) consecutive week period of use on any consumer pay New Media platform (hereinafter “consumer pay platform”), commencing with the first day that the Derivative New Media Production is available for exhibition on any consumer pay platform.
- (b) Use on Advertiser-Supported Platforms Within One Year Following Expiration of the Thirteen Week Period
 - (i) If the Producer desires to use the Derivative New Media Production on advertiser-supported platforms beyond the thirteen (13) consecutive week period, but within one (1) year of the expiration of the thirteen (13) consecutive week period, then the Producer shall make a residual payment to each performer of $20.00 for Derivative New Media Productions that are ten (10) minutes or less in length ($25.00 for Derivative New Media Productions that exceed ten (10) minutes in length) as consideration for a twenty-six (26) consecutive week period of use, commencing with the first day that the Derivative New Media Production is available for use on any advertiser-supported platform following the expiration of the thirteen (13) consecutive week period.
 - (ii) If the Producer desires to use the Derivative New Media Production on advertiser-supported platforms for all or any part of the twenty-six (26) consecutive week period immediately following the twenty-six (26) consecutive week period described in Paragraph B.3.(b)(i) above, but within one (1) year after expiration of the thirteen (13) consecutive week period, then the Producer shall make a residual payment equal to the applicable amount payable under Paragraph B.3.(b)(i) above, as consideration for a twenty-six (26) consecutive week period of use, commencing with the first day that the Derivative New Media Production is available for use during such twenty-six (26) consecutive week period.

As of July 1, 2001; Revised as of July 1, 2005;

- (iii) Neither of the aforementioned twenty-six (26) consecutive week periods shall cover a period that is more than one (1) year after the expiration of the thirteen (13) consecutive week period. In the event that use of the television motion picture on advertiser-supported platforms is commenced on a date that does not allow for the full twenty-six (26) consecutive week period of use within one (1) year of the expiration of the thirteen (13) consecutive week period, then the payment for that period shall be prorated in weekly units to cover the shorter use period.

For example, suppose that the Producer uses a television motion picture on advertiser-supported platforms during the thirteen (13) consecutive week period and then does not use the television motion picture on advertiser-supported platforms again until thirty-nine (39) weeks after the expiration of the thirteen (13) consecutive week period. Since only thirteen (13) weeks remain within the one (1) year period, a payment of one-half of the payment that would otherwise be due for the twenty-six (26) consecutive week use period would be payable for use during the remaining thirteen (13) consecutive week period.

(c) Use on Advertiser-Supported Platforms More Than One Year Following Expiration of the Thirteen Week Period

Upon expiration of the one (1) year period following expiration of the thirteen (13) consecutive week period, if the Producer desires to use the Derivative New Media Production on advertiser-supported platforms, then it shall pay residuals at the rate of six percent (6%) of “Distributor’s gross,” as that term is defined in Paragraph 4 of the “Sideletter re Exhibition of Motion Pictures Transmitted Via New Media.”

(d) Use on Consumer Pay Platforms

For use of a Derivative New Media Production on New Media platforms for which the consumer pays (e.g., download-to-own, download-to-rent, paid streaming), the Producer shall pay a residual equal to three and six-tenths percent (3.6%) of the “Distributor’s gross,” as that term is defined in Paragraph 4 of the “Sideletter re Exhibition of Motion Pictures Transmitted Via New Media,” attributable to the period beyond the twenty-six (26) consecutive week period of use. Such payment shall include pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable.

(e) Use in Traditional Media

The Producer shall pay residuals for the use of a Derivative New Media Production in “traditional media” (e.g., free television, basic cable, pay television, home video) as a use under existing Television Agreement formulas.

(i) Free Television Exhibition

Residual payments for free television exhibition of Derivative New Media Productions shall be computed as follows:

The New Media exhibition of the Derivative New Media Production shall constitute the first run for purposes of calculating residual payments in free television. The residual payment for each performer shall be based upon the network prime time rerun ceiling applicable to the source program on which the Derivative New Media Production is based. However, if the Derivative New Media Production is shorter than the source program, then the applicable network prime time rerun ceiling shall be prorated in five (5) minute increments to determine the appropriate base for such shorter Derivative New Media Production. The base figure will then be multiplied by the percentage applicable to the rerun in question to arrive at the residual amount.

(A) As an example, suppose that a five (5) minute Derivative New Media Production which is based upon a one-hour series is exhibited for the first time in network prime time. The applicable residual is the network prime time rerun ceiling for a one-hour show, or $3,525.00 as of July 1, 2014, prorated to a five (5) minute rate, (i.e., one-twelfth of $3,525.00), and then multiplied by 100%, the percentage applicable to a second run in network prime time, for a total residual payment of $293.75.

David White

As of July 1, 2001; Revised as of July 1, 2005;

Revised as of June 10, 2009; Revised as of July 1, 2011; Revised as of July 1, 2014

(B) As another example, if the same five (5) minute Derivative New Media Production were exhibited in syndication after its run in network prime time, the residual payment due for the run in syndication would be the network prime time rerun ceiling for a one-hour show ($3,525.00 as of July 1, 2014), prorated to a five (5) minute rate (i.e., one-twelfth of $3,525.00), and then multiplied by the percentage applicable to a third run in syndication (thirty percent (30%)), for a total residual payment of $88.13.

(ii) Exhibition on Pay Television, on Home Video and on Basic Cable

For exhibition on pay television, the Producer shall pay residuals equal to three and six-tenths percent (3.6%) of “Distributor’s gross” pursuant to Section 20.1 of the Television Agreement. For home video exploitation, the Producer shall pay residuals pursuant to Section 20.1 of the Television Agreement. For exhibition on basic cable, Producer shall pay pursuant to Section 18.1 of the Television Agreement.

4. Credit

Performers shall be accorded credit if any other person receives credit on the New Media Production. Credits may appear in the corner of the screen. “Click-through” credits may be used. This provision shall not be subject to grievance and arbitration.

5. Additional Terms

When a performer or background actor works on both an “Original Production,” as that term is defined above in this Paragraph B., and on one or more Derivative New Media Productions based on the Original Production on the same day, then the performer’s or background actor’s meal periods shall be calculated based on the earliest start time of the productions and the performer’s or background actor’s rest period shall be deemed to begin at the latest dismissal time on the productions.

Should a background actor work for the same Producer on both an “Original Production,” as that term is defined above in this Paragraph B., and on one or more Derivative New Media Productions based on the Original Production on the same day, the background actor's status shall not change from being covered on the Original Production to not covered on the Derivative New Media Production. A background actor who works for the same Producer on both an "Original Production," as that term is defined above in this Paragraph B., and on one or more Derivative New Media Productions based on the Original Production on the same day and completes work on all such productions within the eight (8) hour guaranteed period provided under Section 20 of Schedule X, Part I, or under Section 21 of Schedule X, Part II, shall nevertheless be paid for the guaranteed period as provided under Section 20 of Schedule X, Part I or under Section 21 of Schedule X, Part II, as applicable, and, in addition, be paid any amounts due as negotiated pursuant to Paragraph B.1. of this Sideletter.

A background actor who works for the same Producer on both an "Original Production," as that term is defined above in this Paragraph B., and on one or more Derivative New Media Productions based on the Original Production on the same day shall have his work time on the Original Production and on the Derivative New Media Production aggregated for the purpose of calculating dismissal time, payment of overtime and application of the sixteen (16) hour rule. Overtime shall be paid at the rate of time-and-one-half the background actor's regular basic hourly rate of pay for time worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week, and at the rate of double time for work time in excess of twelve (12) hours per day for background actors employed in the Background Actor Zones specified in Section 1(d) of Schedule X, Part I, and at the rate of double time for work time in excess of ten (10) hours per day for background actors employed in the Background Actor Zones specified in Section 1.A., B. and C. of Schedule X, Part II. Overtime payments shall not be compounded.

C. "Experimental New Media Productions" (Original New Media Productions Only)

Coverage shall be at the Producer's option with respect to "Experimental New Media Productions." An "Experimental New Media Production" ("ENMP") is defined as any Original New Media Production (1) for which the actual cost of production does not exceed: (a) $15,000 per minute of program material as exhibited, and (b) $300,000 per single production as exhibited, and (c) $500,000 per series of programs produced for a single order; and (2) does not utilize a covered performer.

A "covered performer" is an individual who has been employed pursuant to the terms of a collective bargaining agreement covering his or her employment as a performer and who meets any of the following criteria:

- has at least two (2) television (including free television, pay television, basic cable or direct-to-video) or theatrical credits;
- has at least two (2) credits in a professional stage play presented on Broadway, off Broadway (as that term is understood in the live theater industry), under the LORT, COST or CORST contracts or as part of an Equity national tour;
- has been employed as a performer on an audio book;
- has been employed as a principal performer, announcer, singer or dancer in a national television or radio commercial, interactive game or non-broadcast/industrial production; or
- has been employed as a principal performer pursuant to the terms of a SAG, AFTRA or SAG-AFTRA contract and is employed as a principal performer on the New Media production.

The Producer shall be entitled to rely on the representation of the performer as to whether he or she meets the definition of a “covered performer.”

The actual cost of the ENMP shall consist of all direct costs actually incurred in connection with the Production. The only costs excluded in determining the actual cost of production shall be development costs, overhead charges, financing costs (i.e., loan origination fees, gaps fees, legal fees, and interest), contingency of up to ten percent (10%), essential elements insurance costs, the cost of the completion bond, marketing expenses, contingent payments to talent or other parties which are based on the proceeds derived from the exploitation of the Production and received after recoupment of the negative cost, and delivery items required by sales agents, distributors or sub-distributors (i.e., delivery materials beyond the answer print, NTSC Video Master if the Production is delivered on videotape, or the digital equivalent if the Production is delivered in a digital format).

3. Reuse

(a) What Initial Compensation Covers

Initial compensation for an Original New Media Production shall constitute payment for a twenty-six (26) consecutive week period of use on any consumer pay New Media platform (hereinafter “consumer pay platform”), commencing with the first day that the Original New Media Production is available on any consumer pay platform, and all uses on free-to-the-consumer, advertiser-supported platforms transmitted via New Media (hereinafter “advertiser-supported platforms”).

(b) Use on Consumer Pay Platforms

(i) No payment shall be due for any use on consumer pay platforms for an Original New Media Production budgeted below $25,000 per minute of actual program material as exhibited.

(ii) For all uses of an Original New Media Production budgeted at or above $25,000 per minute of actual program material as exhibited on consumer pay platforms (e.g., download-to-own, download-to-rent, paid streaming) beyond the twenty-six (26) consecutive week period, the Producer shall pay a residual equal to three and six-tenths percent (3.6%) of “Distributor’s gross,” as that term is defined in Paragraph 4 of the “Sideletter re Exhibition of Motion Pictures Transmitted Via New Media,” attributable to the period beyond the twenty-six (26) consecutive week use period. Such payment shall include pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable.

- (iii) Paragraph D.3.(a) above shall apply to an Original New Media Production initially released on a consumer pay platform which is subsequently released on an advertiser-supported platform or vice versa.

(c) Use in Traditional Media

The Producer shall pay residuals for the use of an Original New Media Production in “traditional media” (e.g., free television, basic cable, pay television, home video) as a use under existing Television Agreement formulas.

(i) Free Television Exhibition

Residual payments for free television exhibition of Original New Media Productions shall be computed as follows:

The New Media exhibition of the Original New Media Production shall constitute the first run for purposes of calculating residual payments in free television. The residual payment for each performer shall be based upon the network prime time rerun ceiling applicable to a one-half hour program unless the Original New Media Production is longer than thirty (30) minutes, in which case the network prime time rerun ceiling closest to, but not exceeding, the length of the Original New Media Production shall be used and adjusted in accordance with the fourth paragraph of Sideletter L, “Supersized Episodes,” of the Television Agreement. If the Original New Media Production is shorter than one-half hour, then the one-half hour network prime time rerun ceiling shall be prorated in five (5) minute increments to determine the appropriate base for such shorter Original New Media Production. The base figure will then be multiplied by the percentage applicable to the rerun in question to arrive at the residual amount.

- (A) As an example, suppose that a five (5) minute Original New Media Production is exhibited for the first time in network prime time. The applicable residual is the network prime time rerun ceiling for a one-half hour show, or $2,477.00 as of July 1, 2014, prorated to a five minute rate, (i.e., one-sixth of $2,477.00), and then multiplied by 100%, the percentage applicable to a second run in network prime time, for a total residual payment of $412.83.

- (B) As another example, if the same five (5) minute Original New Media Production were exhibited in syndication after its run in network prime time, the residual payment due for the run in syndication would be the network prime time rerun ceiling for a one-half hour show ($2,477.00 as of July 1, 2014), prorated to a five minute rate (i.e., one-sixth of $2,477.00), and then multiplied by the percentage applicable to a third run in syndication (thirty percent (30%)), for a total residual payment of $123.85.
- (ii) For exhibition on pay television, the Producer shall pay residuals equal to three and six-tenths percent (3.6%) of “Distributor’s gross” pursuant to Section 20.1 of the Television Agreement. For home video exploitation, the Producer shall pay residuals pursuant to Section 20.1 of the Television Agreement. For exhibition on basic cable, Producer shall pay pursuant to Section 18.1 of the Television Agreement.

4. Credit

Performers shall be accorded credit if any other person receives credit on the New Media Production. Credits may appear in the corner of the screen.

“Click-through” credits may be used. This provision shall not be subject to grievance and arbitration.

E. “High Budget” Derivative and Original Dramatic New Media Productions Made for Initial Exhibition on a Subscription Video-On-Demand Consumer Pay Platform

1. Prospective Application

The terms and conditions set forth in this Paragraph E. shall be applicable prospectively only. They shall not apply to:

- (a) any program or series that would otherwise qualify as a “High Budget SVOD Program” within the meaning of this Sideletter, for which the principal photography of the program, in the case of a one-time program, or the principal photography of the first episode, in the case of a series, commenced prior to October 1, 2014; or
- (b) any program or series that would otherwise qualify as a “High Budget SVOD Program” within the meaning of this Sideletter for which the principal photography of the program or the first episode of the series commenced after October 1, 2014, if such program or series was produced

pursuant to the terms of a bona fide license agreement with fixed and definite terms entered into by the Producer prior to October 1, 2014.²

However, if such license agreement is entered into subject to conditions precedent, then all such conditions must be satisfied prior to October 1, 2014.

Any program or series described in subparagraph (a) or (b) above shall continue to be subject to the terms of Sideletter No. 21 re Programs Made for New Media under the SAG Codified Basic Agreement of 2011. However, with respect to any such program or series described in subparagraphs (a) or (b) above, if the licensee orders additional programs or episodes pursuant to the terms of the license agreement after October 1, 2014 and the Producer has the right to negotiate with respect to the material terms and conditions of the license for the additional programs or episodes, then such additional programs or episodes shall be subject to the terms of this Sideletter.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Producer shall not reduce the terms and conditions of employment previously provided to SAG-AFTRA-represented employees on programs or series covered by subparagraphs (a) or (b) above.

2. “High Budget SVOD Programs” Defined

The terms and conditions set forth in Paragraph E. of this Sideletter shall be applicable only to original and derivative dramatic new media productions made for initial exhibition on a subscription video-on-demand consumer pay platform which meet the following “high budget” criteria (hereinafter “High Budget SVOD Programs”):

² The Producer shall notify the Union of any such license agreement that it enters into prior to October 1, 2014. The notice shall include the name of the licensee, the term of the license agreement, the license fee, the number of programs or the number of minutes of programming to be produced under the license agreement, the anticipated start date of principal photography, the anticipated date of delivery of the program or series, and whether the licensee has an option to order additional programs or series under the license agreement and, if so, whether the material terms and conditions applicable to such additional programs or series are fixed in the license agreement or are subject to negotiation. At the Union’s request, the Producer must make an unredacted license agreement available for inspection at the Producer’s office in Los Angeles subject to a confidentiality agreement equivalent to those governing new media license agreement inspections.

3. Compensation

Minimum initial compensation for performers employed on a High Budget SVOD Program shall be the applicable rates under the SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement.

4. Other Terms and Conditions

Except as otherwise provided herein, the terms and conditions applicable to High Budget SVOD Programs shall be those applicable under the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement of 2014 and the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement to dramatic programs made for network prime time, subject to the following clarifications and modifications:

- (a) A High Budget SVOD Program between 20 and 35 minutes in length shall be treated as a 30-minute program; a High Budget SVOD Program between 36 and 65 minutes shall be treated as a 60-minute program; a High Budget SVOD Program between 66 and 95 minutes shall be treated as a 90-minute program; and a High Budget SVOD Program 96 minutes or longer shall be treated as a 120-minute program.
- (b) The “major role” performer provisions in the Television Agreement shall not apply.

(ii) Non-Promotional Reuse of Photography or Sound Track

(A) Non-Promotional Reuse of Photography or Sound Track in New Media

- 1) For non-promotional reuse of photography or sound track from one episode of a High Budget SVOD series in another episode of the same series, Section 36 of the Television Agreement shall apply, except that the performer may agree to reuse at the time of employment.
- 2) For any other non-promotional reuse of photography or sound track of a High Budget SVOD Program in New Media, the reuse provisions of Section 3 of the Sideletter Re: Exhibition of Motion Pictures Transmitted Via New Media shall apply (i.e., the High Budget SVOD Program shall be treated as a “television motion picture” for purposes of such provisions).

(B) Non-Promotional Reuse of Photography or Sound Track Other than in New Media

Section 36 of the Television Agreement shall apply to the reuse of photography or sound track from a High Budget SVOD Program in any medium other than New Media (e.g., in traditional media), except that the performer may agree to reuse at the time of employment.

- (iii) In no event shall the Producer be required to bargain and/or make payment for reuse of photography or sound track from a High Budget SVOD Program if it would not be required to do so under Section 36 of the Television Agreement or the Sideletter Re: Exhibition of Motion Pictures Transmitted Via New Media.

- (d) It is understood that the advance payment of residuals provision in Section 18(d) of the Television Agreement allows the crediting of all residuals payable for the reuse of a High Budget SVOD Program, regardless of whether the residuals are a fixed or percentage payment.

- (e) For a High Budget SVOD Program intended for initial exhibition on a subscription video-on-demand consumer pay platform with fewer than 15 million subscribers, or a High Budget SVOD Program intended for initial exhibition on a subscription video-on-demand consumer pay platform with 15 million or more subscribers that is budgeted at $1,300,000 or more but less than $2,000,000 ($2,100,000 effective July 1, 2016) for a program between 20 and 35 minutes in length, $2,500,000 or more but less than $3,700,000 ($3,800,000 effective July 1, 2016) for a program between 36 and 65 minutes in length, $3,000,000 or more but less than $4,000,000 for a program between 66 and 95 minutes in length and $3,000,000 or more but less than $4,500,000 (plus $2,250,000 for each additional 35 minutes or portion thereof) for a program 96 minutes or more in length, the following additional modifications shall apply:
- (i) Producer may credit amounts in excess of 65% of the minimum, but not to exceed the minimum, against any other compensation otherwise due to a series or term contract performer (e.g., overtime, penalties, and residuals, regardless of whether the threshold for advance payment of residuals has been met). Such crediting shall not apply to background actors or performers other than series or term contract performers. (Note that this crediting is in addition to the rights of crediting of residuals provided in Paragraph E.4.(d) of this Sideletter.)

Following is an example of such crediting:

A series contract performer engaged on a 62-minute High Budget SVOD program made for initial exhibition on a subscription video-on-demand consumer pay platform with fewer than 15 million subscribers, for which principal photography commences on July 1, 2015, is guaranteed employment on 7 episodes at the rate of $5,000 per episode. Up to $1,477.35 (i.e., 35% of the minimum salary rate of $4,221 per episode) may be credited against any other compensation otherwise due. If the series contract performer works 14 hours and is due four (4) hours of overtime at $200 per hour, the Producer may credit $800, leaving $677.35 available to be credited against any other compensation due to the performer.

If the same High Budget SVOD Program is made available for a second year on the same platform, the series contract performer would be entitled to a residual of $701.10, calculated as 30% of the residual base of $2,337 (which residual base is 65% of the series contract performer's total actual compensation up to 65% of the network prime time rerun ceiling). Assuming that $100 is left to be credited from the total amount available for crediting under this provision (i.e., $1,477.35), the series contract performer would receive payment for $601.10 in residuals.

- (ii) On days for which the Television Agreement requires premium pay for travel, such travel time shall be compensated at straight time with respect to employment covered hereunder.
- (f) In recognition that programs made for New Media involve a new and evolving form of production and may not be subject to the same production model as applies to traditional television motion pictures, thereby rendering possible the use of alternative preparation and shooting methods and schedules, the Union agrees to consider in good faith requests for waivers to facilitate the use of such alternative methods and schedules on High Budget SVOD Programs when appropriate.

5. Reuse

The provisions below apply to the reuse of High Budget SVOD Programs.

- (a) (i) Initial compensation paid to performers employed on a High Budget SVOD Program intended for initial exhibition on a subscription video-on-demand consumer pay platform with 15 million or more subscribers in the United States and Canada constitutes payment for one year of use worldwide on such platform (including any related or affiliated foreign subscription video-on-demand consumer pay platform), commencing with the first day the High Budget SVOD Program is available on such subscription video-on-demand consumer pay platform(s).
- (ii) For each year of use of such programs on the subscription video-on-demand consumer pay platform (including any related or affiliated foreign subscription video-on-demand consumer pay platform) beyond the initial one-year use period, the Producer shall make a fixed residual payment calculated by multiplying the performer's "total actual compensation" (as defined in Section 18(b)(4) of the Television Agreement), but not to exceed the applicable ceiling set forth in Section 18(b)(1)b) of the Television Agreement, by the applicable percentage set forth in the following chart:

video-on-demand consumer pay platform(s) beyond the initial one-year use period, the Producer shall make a fixed residual payment calculated by multiplying 65% of “total actual compensation” (as defined in Section 18(b)(4) of the Television Agreement), but not to exceed 65% of the applicable ceiling set forth in Section 18(b)(1)b) of the Television Agreement, by the applicable percentage set forth in the chart above in subparagraph (ii).

- (b) For subsequent exhibition of a High Budget SVOD Program on any subscription video-on-demand consumer pay new media platform other than the subscription video-on-demand consumer pay platform on which the program was initially exhibited and any of its related or affiliated foreign subscription video-on-demand consumer pay platform(s), the Producer shall make a residual payment equal to 3.6% of “Distributor’s gross” as defined in Paragraph 4 of the “Sideletter re Exhibition of Motion Pictures Transmitted Via New Media.” Such payment shall include pension and health contributions to the SAG Plans (hereinafter referred to as “pension and health contributions”) or health and retirement contributions to the AFTRA Funds (hereinafter referred to as “health and retirement contributions”), as applicable.
- (c) For subsequent exhibition of a High Budget SVOD Program on any consumer pay new media platform other than a subscription video-on-demand consumer pay platform (i.e., on a transactional consumer pay platform involving download-to-own or download-to-rent transactions), the Producer shall make a residual payment equal to 3.6% of “Distributor’s gross” as defined in Paragraph 4 of the “Sideletter re Exhibition of Motion Pictures Transmitted Via New Media.” Such payment shall include pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable.
- (d) Except as provided in the next paragraph, for subsequent exhibition of a High Budget SVOD Program on any free-to-the-consumer/advertiser-supported new media platform, the Producer shall make a residual payment equal to 6% of “Distributor’s gross” as defined in Paragraph 4 of the “Sideletter re Exhibition of Motion Pictures Transmitted Via New Media,” plus pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Producer shall have the right to exhibit a High Budget SVOD Program (including any one-time program or the first three (3) episodes of a new series), without any additional payment, on free-to-the-consumer/advertiser-supported new media platforms for a period of seven (7) consecutive days for the purpose of promoting the High Budget SVOD Program.

- (e) For use of a Derivative High Budget SVOD Program in traditional media (e.g., free television, basic cable, pay television, home video), the Producer shall pay residuals as a supplemental use as set forth in Paragraph B.3.(e) of this Sideletter; for use of an Original High Budget SVOD Program in traditional media, the Producer shall pay residuals as a supplemental use as set forth in Paragraph D.3.(c) of this Sideletter.

6. Credit

Credit for High Budget SVOD Programs shall be subject to Section 54 of the Television Agreement, subject to the following clarifications and modifications:

- (a) For purposes of the limitations periods set forth in Section 54, the first day the High Budget SVOD Program is available on a subscription consumer pay platform shall be considered the date of the first “broadcast.”
- (b) “Click-through” credits may be used.

F. If a New Media Production is never released in New Media and is instead exhibited in traditional media, the performers and background actors employed in the New Media Production shall be paid the difference, if any, between what was paid for the New Media Production and the rates in the Codified Basic Agreement or the Television Agreement, as applicable.

G. Payments

1. All payments hereunder made as a percentage of “Distributor’s gross” are aggregate payments for all performers who have traditionally been entitled to receive residuals under the Codified Basic Agreement or the Television Agreement, as applicable.
2. All payments of additional compensation for the reuse of programs made for New Media shall be made by check, payable to the order of the performer entitled thereto, and if not initially paid to the performer, shall be delivered to SAG-AFTRA for forwarding to such performer and compliance herewith shall constitute payment to the performer. Upon such delivery, Producer shall have no further obligation with respect to such payment nor shall Producer have any right, title or interest in or to such payment. The Producer shall accompany such checks with a statement of the title of the production and the use for which such payment is made.

H. As soon as practicable for each production made for New Media, Producer shall furnish a notice containing the following information to a designated representative of the Union:

- the name, address and telephone number of the production company;
- the working title of the production; and
- the principal location at which photography is scheduled to occur.

Both the Union and the Producer shall designate a representative for the other party to contact in the event of questions concerning the foregoing.

I. Where practicable, Producer shall comply with Sections 45(a) through (f) of Schedule X, Part I of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement and Sections 46.A. through 46.F. of Schedule X, Part II of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement, taking into account the nature of the location and the logistics of the production. This provision is not subject to grievance or arbitration.

J. Sunset Clause

The parties recognize that this Sideletter is being negotiated at a time when the business models and patterns of usage of productions in New Media are in the process of exploration, experimentation and innovation. Therefore, except as provided in the next paragraph, all of the provisions of this Sideletter shall expire on the termination date of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement of 2014 and the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement and will be of no force and effect thereafter. No later than sixty (60) days before that expiration date, the parties will meet to negotiate new terms and conditions for reuse of Made for New Media Productions to be in effect thereafter.

The terms and conditions herein applicable to High Budget SVOD Programs shall apply and remain in full force and effect, and without change, to High Budget SVOD Programs produced by the Producer hereunder, regardless of the terms or provisions of any agreement which is a modification, extension or renewal of, or substitution for, this sideletter.

The parties further acknowledge that conditions in this area are changing rapidly and that the negotiation for the successor agreements will be based on the conditions that exist and reasonably can be forecast at that time.

Re: Exhibition of Motion Pictures Transmitted Via New Media

Dear David:

This Sideletter confirms the understanding of SAG-AFTRA ("the Union") and the Producers (collectively "the parties") concerning the exhibition of the following motion pictures on or by means of the Internet, mobile devices and any other new media platform known as of June 10, 2009 (hereinafter collectively referred to as "New Media"): (1) theatrical motion pictures, the principal photography of which commenced on or after July 1, 1971; (2) television motion pictures covered under this Agreement or any prior Screen Actors Guild Television Agreement, the principal photography of which commenced on or after July 20, 1952; and (3) television motion pictures produced under Exhibit A, The CW Supplement or Section 2.A.(1) of Exhibit E of the 2011 or any predecessor AFTRA Network Code, the principal photography of which commenced on or after November 16, 1973.

1. If the Consumer Pays

A. License for Limited Period or Fixed Number of Exhibitions

When the subscriber pays for the motion picture either on a subscription or per-picture basis, and when the payment is in exchange for the right to view the motion picture for a fixed and limited period of time or a fixed number of exhibitions, the Producer shall pay to the performer(s) an aggregate sum equal to three and six-tenths percent (3.6%) of "Distributor's gross," as defined in Paragraph 4 below, which amount shall include pension and health contributions to the SAG Plans (hereinafter referred to as "pension and health contributions") or health and retirement contributions to the AFTRA Funds (hereinafter referred to as “health and retirement contributions”), as applicable, for the right to exhibit such motion picture in New Media.¹

B. Paid Permanent Downloads (aka “Download-to-Own” or “Electronic Sell Through” (“EST”))

The following shall apply to motion pictures released on or after June 10, 2009:²

When the consumer pays for an EST copy of a theatrical motion picture, the Producer shall pay residuals at the rate of five and four-tenths percent (5.4%) of twenty percent (20%) of “Distributor’s gross,” as defined in Paragraph 4 below, on the first 50,000 units and, thereafter, at the rate of nine and three-quarters percent (9.75%) of twenty percent (20%) of “Distributor’s gross,” as defined in Paragraph 4 below.

When the consumer pays for an EST copy of a television motion picture, the Producer shall pay residuals at the rate of five and four-tenths percent (5.4%) of twenty percent (20%) of “Distributor’s gross,” as defined in Paragraph 4 below, on the first 100,000 units and, thereafter, at the rate of ten and one-half percent (10.5%) of twenty percent (20%) of “Distributor’s gross,” as defined in Paragraph 4 below.

Such payments shall include pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable, and shall be for the benefit of all performers on the motion picture. For theatrical motion pictures, such payments shall be distributed to the performers on the basis of the formula set forth in Section 5.2 B. of the General Provisions of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement (hereinafter “the Codified Basic Agreement”); for television motion pictures, such payments shall be distributed on the basis of the formula set forth in Section 18.2 of the SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement (hereinafter “the Television Agreement”).

² Television motion pictures produced under Exhibit A, The CW Supplement or Section 2.A.(1) of Exhibit E of the 2011 or any predecessor AFTRA Network Code shall be subject to this Section B. if released on or after July 1, 2008.

2. If the Consumer Does Not Pay

The following shall apply to the streaming of theatrical and television motion pictures on a free-to-the-consumer basis on advertiser-supported services transmitted via New Media.

A. Television Motion Pictures

(1) Free Streaming Windows

(a) Simultaneous/Live Linear Free Streaming Windows

No payment shall be due when the Producer streams or otherwise transmits a television motion picture, whether produced under the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement or any agreement with SAG, AFTRA, or SAG-AFTRA entered into prior to July 1, 2014, simultaneously with its exhibition on television. The foregoing applies to simultaneous streaming, cellular transmission and any other means of transmission that currently exists or may be hereafter developed.

(b) Initial Exhibition Free Streaming Windows

The Producer shall be entitled to stream a television motion picture without payment during the following free streaming windows applicable to the initial exhibition of the television motion picture on television (hereinafter referred to as the “initial exhibition free streaming window” or “initial exhibition free streaming windows”):

(i) Library Product. For television motion pictures, the principal photography of which commenced before July 1, 2014, as to which free television residuals are still payable, the initial exhibition free streaming windows are as set forth in Paragraph 2.A.(1) of Sideletter I of the 2011 SAG Television Agreement;

(ii) Current Product. For television motion pictures, the principal photography of which commences on or after July 1, 2014, the initial exhibition free streaming window is a seven (7) consecutive day period, except that:

- (A) A twenty-four (24) consecutive day period shall apply to the first seven (7) episodes of the first season of a series and any one-time television motion picture; and
- (B) A seventeen (17) consecutive day period shall apply to children's programming.

Each of the foregoing initial exhibition free streaming windows provided in this subparagraph (ii) may be divided between the period immediately prior to and immediately following the initial exhibition of the motion picture on television in any ratio determined by the Producer, except that for each episode of a series in its first season, the free streaming window may commence up to thirty (30) days before the initial exhibition on television of the episode.

(c) Broadcast Television Rerun Free Streaming Windows

The Producer shall be entitled to a free streaming window for any television motion picture produced for initial exhibition on broadcast television, whether produced under the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement or under any agreement with SAG, AFTRA, or SAG-AFTRA entered into prior to July 1, 2014, as to which free television residuals are still payable, of seven (7) consecutive days for each rerun of the television motion picture on broadcast television, with the seven (7) consecutive day period measured separately for each city in the United States and Canada. The seven (7) consecutive day period may be divided between the period immediately prior to and immediately following the rerun in any ratio determined by the Producer. If the television motion picture is rerun more than once in any seven (7) consecutive day period, the Producer shall be entitled to a free streaming window only for a single seven (7) consecutive day period surrounding one of the runs.

- (2) Availability on an MVPD AVOD Service During Free Streaming Windows.³ The Producer shall be entitled to make television motion pictures, the principal photography of which commences on or after July 1, 2014, available for viewing on an advertiser-supported video-on-demand service of a multichannel video programming distributor (“MVPD”) (hereinafter referred to as an “MVPD AVOD service”) during the free streaming windows set forth in Sections A.(1)(b)(ii) and (c) above of this Paragraph 2 without any additional payment.
- (3) Use of Photography or Sound Track During Free Streaming Windows. The Producer shall be entitled to stream photography or sound track from a television motion picture in New Media or on an MVPD AVOD service during any free streaming window described in Section A.(1) or (2) above of this Paragraph 2 without any additional payment.
- (4) Residuals for Streaming Outside All Free Streaming Windows.
- (a) Library Product. For television motion pictures covered under this Sideletter, the principal photography of which commenced before July 1, 2014, as to which free television residuals are still payable, the residuals are as set forth:
- (i) in Paragraph 2.A. of Sideletter I of the 2011 SAG Television Agreement for television motion pictures produced under the 2011 or any prior SAG Television Agreement; or
- (ii) in Paragraph 2.A. of the Sideletter Re New Media Reuse to Exhibit A of the 2011 AFTRA Network Code for television motion pictures produced under Exhibit A, The CW Supplement or Section 2.A.(1) of Exhibit E of the 2011 or any predecessor AFTRA Network Code.
- (b) Current Product

³ For convenience, the parties have agreed to address in this Sideletter the use of television motion pictures, the principal photography of which commences on or after July 1, 2014, on an advertiser-supported video-on-demand service of a multichannel video programming distributor (“MVPD”) (hereinafter referred to as an “MVPD AVOD service”), even though an MVPD AVOD service does not fall within the definition of a New Media platform. Nothing in any prior Codified Basic Agreement or Television Agreement governs such use.

- (i) If the Producer makes such television motion picture available for streaming outside the free streaming window(s) provided in Section A.(1) above of this Paragraph 2 on a free-to-the-consumer, advertiser-supported service transmitted via the Internet or mobile or other device or on an MVPD AVOD service or any similar service that exists or may hereafter be developed, the Producer shall pay residuals as follows:
 - (A) If the Producer makes the television motion picture available for streaming outside all free streaming windows, but within one (1) year of the expiration of the free streaming window applicable to the initial exhibition it shall pay four percent (4%) (four and one-half percent (4.5%)) for a television motion picture, the principal photography of which commences on or after July 1, 2015, and five percent (5%) for a television motion picture, the principal photography of which commences on or after July 1, 2016) of the “total applicable minimum,” as defined in Section 18(b)(4)b) of the Television Agreement, plus pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable, for a twenty-six (26) consecutive week period beginning on the first day that the television motion picture is made available for streaming following the expiration of the free streaming window and within the one-year period following the television exhibition.
 - (B) If the Producer makes the television motion picture available for streaming outside all free streaming windows for all or any part of the twenty-six (26) consecutive week period immediately following the twenty-six (26) consecutive week period described in the preceding paragraph, but within one (1) year of the expiration of the initial exhibition free streaming window, then it shall pay four percent (4%) (four and one-half percent (4.5%)) for a television motion picture, the principal photography of which commences on or after July 1, 2015, and five percent (5%) for a television motion picture, the principal photography of which commences on or after July 1, 2016) of the “total applicable minimum,” as defined in Section 18(b)(4)b) of the Television Agreement, plus pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable, for a twenty-six (26) consecutive week period beginning on the first day that the television motion picture is made available for streaming during such twenty-six (26) consecutive week period.

- (C) None of the aforementioned twenty-six (26) consecutive week periods shall cover a period that is more than one (1) year after the expiration of the initial exhibition free streaming window. In the event that streaming of the television motion picture is commenced on a date that does not allow for the full twenty-six (26) consecutive week period of use within one (1) year of the expiration of the initial exhibition free streaming window, then the payment for that period shall be prorated in weekly units to cover the shorter use period.

For example, suppose that the Producer streams a television motion picture during the initial exhibition free streaming window and then does not stream the program again until thirty-nine (39) weeks after the expiration of the window period. Since only thirteen (13) weeks remain within the one (1) year period, a payment of one-half of the amount that would otherwise be due for the twenty-six (26) week streaming period would be payable for streaming during the thirteen (13) week period.

- (ii) If, upon expiration of the one (1) year period following expiration of the initial exhibition free streaming window and outside all free streaming windows, the Producer makes available a television motion picture for streaming, then it shall pay residuals at the rate of six percent (6%) of “Distributor’s gross,” as defined in Section 4 of this Sideletter, plus pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Producer did not make the television motion picture available for streaming during the one (1) year period following its initial exhibition on television, or if it was available for streaming only during a free streaming window, then the foregoing payment shall apply beginning one (1) year after initial exhibition of the television motion picture on television.

- (iii) Revenues derived from foreign streaming shall be included in "Distributor's Foreign Gross," as provided in Section 18(c) of the Television Agreement.

(5) Reuse of Photography or Sound Track During Any Paid 26 Consecutive Week Period Within First Year After Initial Exhibition of the Program.

The payment set forth in Section A.(4)(b)(i) above shall also entitle the Producer to use photography or sound track from a television motion picture in New Media or on an MVPD AVOD service during the same time period as is covered by the streaming payment.

B. Theatrical Motion Pictures

If the Producer should make available for streaming a theatrical motion picture, the principal photography of which commenced on or after July 1, 1971, then the Producer shall pay residuals at the rate of three and six-tenths percent (3.6%) of "Distributor's gross," as defined in Paragraph 4 of this Sideletter. Such payment shall include pension and health contributions.

3. Reuse of Photography or Sound Track in New Media or on an MVPD AVOD Service

The following shall govern the use in New Media of photography or sound track of a performer from any theatrical or television motion picture, or motion picture made for the home video market, regardless of when such picture was produced:

- A. Producer may use photography or sound track from a television motion picture (other than a television motion picture ninety (90) minutes or more in length) in New Media or on an MVPD AVOD service for the purpose of promoting the picture or series, provided that such photography or sound track does not exceed five (5) minutes in length. Producer may use photography or sound track from a theatrical motion picture, from a television motion picture ninety (90) minutes or more in length or from a motion picture made for the home video market in New Media or on an MVPD AVOD service for the purpose of promoting the picture or series, provided that such photography or sound track does not exceed ten (10) minutes in length.

- B. The following reuses of photography or sound track in New Media or on an MVPD AVOD service shall be considered to promote the picture and shall require no payment, whether or not the Company receives revenue in connection therewith:⁴
- (1) When used to promote the exhibition of a theatrical or television motion picture or series on free television, basic cable or pay television and ““tune-in’ information” is included. ““Tune-in’ information” for promotional purposes is sufficient when it informs the consumer where he or she can view the picture or series from which the excerpt is taken. The ““tune-in’ information” may appear on-screen or in a “click-through” format – i.e., accessible through links. It is agreed that the network channel or station “bug” alone does not suffice. It is also understood that the Producer is not required to provide the same level of ““tune-in’ information” as is commonly provided in traditional network television promotional announcements.
 - (2) When used to promote the traditional home video release or any “special edition” home video release of a theatrical or television motion picture or series or a motion picture made for the home video market and the availability of the picture or series in home video is referenced.
 - (3) When used to promote the exhibition of a picture in theatrical markets and reference to the theatrical release is included. Reference to the theatrical release shall be unnecessary if the photography or sound track is used as part of a “teaser” advertising campaign.
 - (4) When used to promote the exhibition of a theatrical motion picture, a motion picture made for the home video market, or a television motion picture or series in New Media in connection with the availability of an electronic copy of the picture or series for rental, purchase, or ad-supported streaming via the Internet or other New Media platform and instructions are included for renting, purchasing or streaming an electronic copy of the motion picture from the website or other New Media platform on which the photography or sound track appears or is heard, or a direct link is provided to another website or New Media platform where an electronic copy of the motion picture or series can be rented, purchased, or streamed, or when used to promote the exhibition of a television motion picture or series on an MVPD AVOD service and instructions are included for viewing the television motion picture or series on the MVPD AVOD service.

- (5) When used for “viral” promotion in New Media of a theatrical or television motion picture or series or a motion picture made for the home video market and is circulated non-commercially to multiple websites or made available for individuals to circulate. The fact that the photography or sound track used in the “viral” promotion is exhibited on a revenue-generating site owned by or affiliated with the Producer shall not render this exception inapplicable, provided that the photography or sound track is released without payment to other sites.
 - (6) When made available for consumer-generated viral promotion of theatrical or television motion pictures or series or a motion picture made for the home video market to New Media sites where end users have the ability to share such photography or sound track with other end users (such as Facebook, YouTube, My Space or Crackle).
- C. If the use of photography or sound track in New Media or on an MVPD AVOD service is not within any of the provisions in Section B. above, or the use is within the provisions of Section B. above, but exceeds the length limitations set forth in Section A. above, then the following shall apply:

- (a) Photography or sound track from a theatrical motion picture or a television motion picture covered under this Sideletter and produced under the 2011 or any prior SAG Television Agreement, the principal photography of which commenced prior to July 1, 2014, shall be governed by Paragraph 3.C. of Sideletter I of the 2011 SAG Television Agreement.

(2) Current Product

Photography or sound track from a theatrical or television motion picture, the principal photography of which commences on or after July 1, 2014, shall be governed by the following:

- (a) Except as provided in subsection (c) below, Producer shall obtain the consent of the performer prior to using photography or sound track in New Media or on an MVPD AVOD service. Except as provided in subsection (b) below, such consent may be obtained at the time of employment.

Such consent shall not in any manner waive the performer's rights (including rights of the performer's estate) to pursue claims against third parties arising from the use of excerpts that are outside the scope of the authorization given by the Producer.⁵

- (b) Consent for the following uses must be obtained separately from the performer's employment contract:
 - (i) for the reuse of nude photography;
 - (ii) for the reuse of a "blooper" excerpt which was not included in the theatrical or television motion picture as originally exhibited, except that consent for use of deleted or alternative scenes that cannot be characterized as a "blooper" may be obtained at the time of employment; and
 - (iii) for the reuse of photography or sound track in a commercial (i.e., an advertisement for goods or services), except that consent for use of excerpts for promotional purposes (e.g., commercial or promotional tie-ins and cross-promotions) in New Media or on an MVPD AVOD service or for the purpose of advertising or promoting the service on which the excerpts are available or the service on which the theatrical or television motion picture or series from which the excerpt was taken appears, may be obtained at the time of employment. It is understood that the reuse of photography or sound track on a website with a single commercial sponsor does not constitute use in a commercial.

- (c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Producer shall not be required to obtain consent of a performer for the use of an excerpt(s) in New Media or on an MVPD AVOD service under the following circumstances:
 - (i) When there would be no such obligation if the Producer used the excerpt in traditional media; however, the Producer shall be obligated to comply with the provisions of Section C.(2)(a) above as to any use of stunt footage, other than a use which would not require consent if it were of non-stunt footage;
 - (ii) If the Producer had previously bargained for such excerpt uses in a manner permitted under the “Reuse of Photography or Sound Track” provisions of the Codified Basic Agreement or the Television Agreement, as applicable; or
 - (iii) For use of excerpts during any free streaming window, or during either of the twenty-six (26) week periods described in Paragraph 2.A.(4) above of this Sideletter for which the Producer makes payment as provided therein.
- (d) Producer shall make payment for the use in New Media or on an MVPD AVOD service of photography or sound track from product, the principal photography of which commenced on or after July 1, 2014, in accordance with the provisions set forth below.
 - (i) For Reuse of Photography or Sound Track From Television Motion Pictures on Free-to-the-Consumer, Advertiser-Supported New Media Platforms or on an MVPD AVOD Service.

supported New Media platforms or on an MVPD AVOD service during any free streaming window. Further, if the Producer pays the “New Media program fee” for the use of the entire television motion picture in New Media or on an MVPD AVOD service, such payment shall also constitute payment for the free-to-the-consumer, advertiser-supported use of any portion thereof in New Media and on an MVPD AVOD service during the corresponding time period.

- (B) If photography or sound track is from a television motion picture and is used outside all free streaming windows, but within one year following expiration of the initial exhibition free streaming window, and the use is not otherwise covered by the payment referred to in the second sentence of subsection C.(2)(d)(i)(A) above, the Producer shall pay for such use as follows:
- (1) For photography or sound track up to two (2) minutes in length, the lesser of $30 or the applicable “New Media program fee;”
 - (2) For photography or sound track in excess of two (2) minutes in length, but not more than four (4) minutes in length, the lesser of $80 or the applicable “New Media program fee;”

defined in Section 18(b)(4)b) of the Television Agreement, plus pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable.

- (C) For any other use of photography or sound track from a television motion picture on a free-to-the-consumer, advertiser-supported New Media platform or on an MVPD AVOD service that occurs outside all free streaming windows and more than one (1) year following the expiration of the initial exhibition free streaming window for that motion picture,⁶ the Producer shall pay six percent (6%) of “Distributor’s gross,” plus pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable.
- (D) If photography or sound track from the current season of a series is used together with photography or sound track from past seasons of the series on an ad-supported, free-to-the-consumer basis in New Media or on an MVPD AVOD service, and payment would otherwise be due for such uses, then the percentage of “Distributor’s gross” payment set forth in subsection C.(2)(d)(i)(C) above shall apply to all such excerpts.

(ii) For Reuse of Photography or Sound Track From Theatrical Motion Pictures on Free-to-the-Consumer, Advertiser-Supported New Media Platforms

For any use of photography or sound track from a theatrical motion picture on a free-to-the-consumer, advertiser-supported New Media platform, the Producer shall pay three and six-tenths percent (3.6%) of “Distributor’s gross,” which amount shall include pension and health contributions.

⁶ If the television motion picture has not been streamed during the one (1) year period following initial exhibition on television, or if it has been streamed only during the streaming window, then payment under this subsection C.(2)(d)(i)(C) shall apply beginning one (1) year after the initial exhibition on television.

(iii) For Reuse on “Consumer Pay” Platforms

If photography or sound track from a theatrical or television motion picture is used on a “consumer pay” platform, the Producer shall pay three and six-tenths percent (3.6%) of “Distributor’s gross” for such use, which amount shall include pension and health or health and retirement contributions, as applicable, except when the excerpt is used for one of the promotional purposes set forth in Paragraphs 3.B.(1) through (4) above and meets the length limitations in Paragraph 3.A. above. This formula shall apply to a “hybrid” use where the consumer pays for the photography or sound track and advertising revenues are also derived by the Producer from such use. Such revenues shall be incorporated in “Distributor’s gross.”

- (e) (i) If Producer neither seeks nor obtains the consent of the performer for use of photography or sound track as required in this Section C.(2), the performer shall be entitled to damages for such unauthorized use, equivalent to three (3) times the amount originally paid the performer for the number of days of work covered by the material used. If the Producer is unable to find the performer, it shall notify SAG-AFTRA, and if SAG-AFTRA is unable to find the performer within a reasonable time, the Producer may use the photography or sound track without penalty.
- (ii) If Producer seeks, but fails to obtain, the consent of the performer as required in this Section C.(2), Producer shall be prohibited from making such reuse of the material, and in case of violation, the performer shall be entitled, at his option, to either accept damages as provided in subsection (e)(i) above, or to arbitrate his claim hereunder, or to take legal proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction.

D. Notwithstanding the foregoing:

- (1) No payment shall be required for the free-to-the-consumer “non-commercial” promotional use of photography or sound track more than five (5) minutes in length from television motion pictures less than ninety (90) minutes in length or more than ten (10) minutes in length from theatrical motion pictures, from television motion pictures ninety (90) minutes or more in length or from motion pictures made for the home video market containing one (1) or more scenes. A “non-commercial” use is a use from which the Producer and its related and affiliated entities, including, but not limited to, distributors and exhibitors, receive no revenues, including, but not limited to, advertising revenues.

- (2) It is understood that the reuse of photography or sound track from any theatrical or television motion picture shall not require any payment hereunder if the use would not require a payment under the “Reuse of Photography or Sound Track” provisions of the Codified Basic Agreement or the Television Agreement.
 - (3) If photography or sound track is used to promote the sale or rental of a theatrical or television motion picture or series in home video, other than in connection with the traditional home video release or any “special edition” home video release as described in Section B.(2) above, and references the availability of the picture or series in home video, then the Producer’s only obligation shall be to pay six percent (6%) of “Distributor’s gross” for such use if the Producer receives revenue in connection therewith.
 - (4) If the Producer receives revenue in connection with the use of photography or sound track under Section B.(6) above, Producer shall pay six percent (6%) of “Distributor’s gross” for such use.
- E. (1) The obligations specified herein shall apply only if the performer is recognizable and, as to stunts, only if the stunt is identifiable.
- (2) Payments for reuse of stunts shall only apply to stunt performers whom the Union can identify and establish as having performed the stunt in question. The Producer may rely upon the Union’s designation of any stunt performer as the person who performed such stunt and payment by the Producer to such stunt performer shall be final and conclusive and shall relieve the Producer of any further obligations for the reuse of such stunt as herein provided.
- (3) Nothing herein shall limit the Producer’s right to use photography or sound track in exploiting the picture.

F. New Media Committee: Moratorium on Grievances and Arbitration Claims

Given the novelty and complexity of the issues regarding the promotional versus non-promotional and commercial versus non-commercial use of photography or sound track in New Media, the parties agree to establish a Committee to review, discuss and categorize instances of such use in New Media to assist them in refining their mutual understanding of such uses and the Union agrees not to file any grievances or arbitration claims arising out of or relating to a dispute over the use of photography or sound track in New Media that occurs during the first six months after the terms and conditions of this Sideletter become effective, provided that all payments as to which there is no bona fide dispute are timely made.

4. “Distributor’s Gross”

A. Definition

The term “Distributor’s gross,” for purposes of all re-uses in New Media of theatrical and television motion pictures made for traditional media and of Original and Derivative New Media Productions (each hereinafter referred to as “such Picture”), shall be as defined in Section 5.2.E. of the General Provisions of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement.⁷ “Distributor’s gross” shall also include amounts derived from making available a television motion picture, the principal photography of which commenced on or after July 1, 2014, on an MVPD AVOD service in connection with transactions for which residuals are payable under Section A.(4)(b)(ii) of Paragraph 2 and Section C.(2)(d)(i)(C) of Paragraph 3.

When the “Distributor’s gross” derived from New Media or MVPD AVOD exploitation is received from a related or affiliated entity that acts as the exhibitor/retailer of such Picture, then the “Distributor’s gross” received by the Producer from the licensing of such rights shall be measured by the exhibitor/retailer’s payments to unrelated and unaffiliated entities in arms’ length transactions for comparable pictures, or, if none, then the amounts received by the Producer from unrelated and unaffiliated exhibitors/retailers in arms’ length transactions for comparable pictures, or, if none, a comparable exhibitor/retailer’s payments to comparable unrelated and unaffiliated entities in arms’ length transactions for comparable pictures.

The parties agree that the residuals due to performers under Paragraph 1 of this Sideletter shall be payable in the same manner and to the same extent as applicable to pay television and pay-per-view as provided in the following provisions in the Codified Basic Agreement or Television Agreement, as applicable (subject to conforming changes as necessary):

- Section 5.2.B. of the Codified Basic Agreement (allocation among performers);
- Sections 5.2.G. and 5.2.I. of the Codified Basic Agreement (time of payment, payment requirements and reporting);
- Section 5.2.H. of the Codified Basic Agreement (gross participation);
- Sections 6.D., 6.E., 6.F., and 6.G. of the Codified Basic Agreement (transfer and assumption);

B. Agreements and Data

On a semi-annual basis, within ten (10) business days after such request, the Producer shall provide for inspection by the Union's designated employee(s) or auditor(s), at Producer's premises where such data is kept, full access⁸ to all unredacted license, distribution, and other agreements pertaining to New Media exploitation of covered pictures that were entered into during the immediately preceding six (6) months. In any subsequent semi-annual inspection, the Union's designated employee(s) or auditor(s) may re-inspect any agreements previously inspected and inspect any agreements not previously inspected.

⁸ Full access includes access to all agreements, notwithstanding any confidentiality clause contained therein, and access to all sideletters, exhibits, addenda, and other ancillary documents.

Upon request, in a manner to be mutually agreed upon in good faith, the Producer shall expeditiously provide, or make available, to the Union data in its possession or control, or the possession or control of its related distribution entities, regarding the New Media exploitation of covered pictures, such as number of downloads or streams by source and ad rates.

The provisions of this Section B. of Paragraph 4 do not apply to agreements with or relating to an MVPD or any similar service that currently exists or may hereafter be developed.

C. Recordkeeping and Reporting

Payment for exploitation of covered pictures in New Media shall be due sixty (60) days after the end of the quarter in which the “Distributor’s gross” from such exploitation is received. The Producer shall accompany such payments with reports regarding the “Distributor’s gross” derived from such exploitation, which shall be specified by medium and source whenever reasonably possible and will be separated from revenues derived from exploitation of such Pictures in traditional media. Along with such payments, the Producer shall provide the Union with unredacted copies of all corollary distributor’s, subdistributor’s, and exhibitor’s statements relating to the reported “Distributor’s gross.” The Union and each Producer shall discuss and agree upon a method of making available to the Union the information described therein.

Where the Producer allocates revenues between New Media rights and other rights in any such Picture, among New Media rights in multiple such Pictures, or otherwise, it shall specify such allocation.

D. Confidentiality

The information provided to the Union by the Producer will be treated as confidential and appropriate arrangements will be made to safeguard the confidentiality of that information.

E. Reservation of Rights

With respect to theatrical and television motion pictures, the Producer has agreed to a separate payment for these uses in New Media because New Media exhibition is at this time outside the primary market. The Producer reserves the right in future negotiations to contend that the pattern of release has changed so that these uses constitute or are a part of the primary market of distribution of theatrical or television motion pictures and that, therefore, no additional payment should be made with respect to the exhibition of theatrical or television motion pictures (including those covered by this Agreement) in New Media. The Union reserves the right in future negotiations to contend to the contrary, and further to assert that regardless of whether other exhibitions are or have become part of the primary market, residual provisions for theatrical or television motion pictures so exhibited should be improved.

F. Other Terms and Conditions

Except as expressly provided herein, all other terms and conditions of the Codified Basic Agreement or Television Agreement, as applicable, including but not limited to Section 50 of the Television Agreement, shall apply; in the event of a conflict, the terms and condition of this Sideletter shall control.

5. Sunset Clause

The parties recognize that this Sideletter is being negotiated at a time when the business models and patterns of usage of theatrical and television motion pictures in New Media are in the process of exploration, experimentation and innovation. Therefore, all provisions of this Sideletter expire on the termination date of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement of 2014 and the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement and will be of no force and effect thereafter. No later than sixty (60) days before that expiration date, the parties will meet to negotiate new terms and conditions for reuse of theatrical motion pictures and television programs in New Media to be in effect thereafter.

The parties further acknowledge that conditions in this area are changing rapidly and that the negotiation for the successor agreements will be based on the conditions that exist and reasonably can be forecast at that time. For example, the parties acknowledge that with respect to the formula in Paragraph 1 for the electronic sell-through of theatrical and television motion pictures, the growth of electronic sell-through could adversely impact traditional home video sales. In future negotiations, the parties agree that the criteria to be considered in good faith in determining whether the electronic sell-through residual should be increased or decreased include patterns of cannibalization of the home video market and changes in the wholesale price.

Re: Obvious Physical Disabilities

Dear Peter:

In accordance with the agreement reached in 2001, the parties met to discuss how the Casting Data Reporting form (included in this Agreement as Exhibit E) can be revised to provide for reporting information on performers with obvious physical disabilities. The parties were unable to reach agreement, in part because of legal concerns expressed by the Producers. The parties agreed to discuss the subject further on a Company-by-Company basis, with the understanding that the Screen Actors Guild shall have the right to invite the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists to participate in such meetings.

During the 2005 negotiations, the parties agreed to seek a written opinion from the General Counsel of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and from those agencies responsible for administering disability discrimination laws in major production centers with regard to the legality of compiling employment data on performers with obvious physical impairments. The parties agreed to meet within ninety (90) days following ratification of the 2005 Agreement to formulate a letter to be sent to those agencies; in connection therewith, the parties shall review the list of obvious physical impairments which are proposed to be compiled as part of the reporting.

Each Producer agrees that if and when, through the processes outlined in this sideletter, the parties or any individual Producer agree upon a form and method of reporting such information, the parties or the individual Producer, as applicable, will promptly implement the agreed-upon procedures.

Sincerely,

J. Nicholas Counter III

Re: Special Conditions for Pilots, Presentations and New Series

Dear David:

During the negotiations for the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement, the parties agreed that the following special conditions shall apply to pilots, presentations and the first two (2) seasons of any new one (1) hour television series^{1, 2} as provided below:

a. Pension and Health / Health and Retirement Contribution Rates

(1) The pension and health or health and retirement contribution rate, as applicable, for all performers and background actors employed during the first two (2) seasons of any new one (1) hour series, the pilot or presentation for which commenced principal photography prior to July 1, 2014, shall be set at fifteen percent (15%) of compensation.

(2) The pension and health or health and retirement contribution rate, as applicable, for all performers and background actors employed on a pilot or a presentation which commences principal photography on or after July 1, 2014, or during the first two (2) seasons of any new one (1) hour series, the pilot or presentation for which commenced principal photography on or after July 1, 2014, and which series is first exhibited on or after July 1, 2014, shall be set at fifteen and one-half percent (15.5%) of compensation.

b. IACF or AICF Contributions

Producer shall not be obligated to make any percentage payment to the SAG Industry Advancement and Cooperative Fund or the AFTRA Industry Cooperative Fund on behalf of performers employed: (1) during the first two (2) seasons of any new one (1) hour series, the pilot or presentation for which commenced principal photography prior to July 1, 2014; (2) on a pilot or a presentation which commences principal photography on or after July 1, 2014; or (3) during the first two (2) seasons of any new one (1) hour series first exhibited on or after July 1, 2014, the pilot or presentation for which commenced principal photography on or after July 1, 2014.

Re: “Supersized” Episodes

Dear David:

This Sideletter applies to any episode of a one-half hour or one-hour dramatic series covered under the SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement and produced for broadcast in prime time on ABC, CBS, NBC, FBC or The CW or for initial exhibition on a basic cable service, the running time of which extends beyond the regular length of a typical episode of the series, but which does not consume a standard one-half hour, one (1) hour, or longer time period (e.g., a forty-three (43) minute episode of a series which is ordinarily one-half hour in length). These episodes shall be referred to as “supersized episodes.” The parties agree that an episode which exceeds the length of a typical episode by up to three (3) minutes shall not be considered a “supersized episode” and no additional payment shall be due therefor.

The minimum compensation rates for performers and background actors shall not be adjusted.

The compensation amounts above which contributions to the SAG-Producers Pension and Health Plans or the AFTRA Health and Retirement Funds are not required (i.e., the caps) shall be adjusted as follows: in connection with a supersized episode of a series which is ordinarily one-half hour in length, the cap shall be adjusted to the figure midway between the one-half hour and one (1) hour caps, and in connection with a supersized episode of a series which is ordinarily one (1) hour in length, the cap shall be adjusted to a figure midway between the one (1) hour and one and one-half (1-1/2) hour caps.

If an episode of a series which is ordinarily one-half hour in length is rerun in network prime time at the supersized length, the network prime time rerun ceiling shall be adjusted to the figure midway between the one-half hour and one (1) hour ceilings. If an episode of a series which is ordinarily one (1) hour in length is rerun in network prime time at the supersized length, the network prime time rerun ceiling shall be adjusted to the one and one-half hour ceiling, except that if the length exceeds ninety (90) minutes, the ceiling shall be adjusted to the two (2) hour ceiling.

If an episode of a series produced for The CW is “supersized,” residuals for reuse of the program shall be based upon the program fee for the length of the program as it is rerun. Performers shall be notified of this provision at the time of employment.

If the episode is rerun in network prime time after being edited to run as a one-half hour or one (1) hour episode, as applicable, it is agreed that the network prime time rerun ceiling for such rerun shall be the ceiling applicable to the length of a non-“supersized” episode of the series.

In the event two (2) versions of an episode are delivered as part of a syndicated package, each version will be considered a distinct television motion picture for purposes of determining the run number.

If a supersized episode is sold to a foreign subdistributor (or a foreign distributor affiliated with Employer) and there is a distinct valuation of that episode (i.e., it is sold separately or for an additional fee), the foreign residual (including the “base” and all residuals payments) shall be determined by the episode’s delivered length and the Employer shall report to the Union that a supersized version was delivered or sold in a foreign territory. In all other cases, the residual shall be based on the typical episode time. This provision shall not imply any obligation to license such extended episode separately or for an additional fee.

Re: Casting Performers with Disabilities

Dear David:

The parties agree that, in an effort to increase the visibility and employment opportunities for all types of roles for performers with disabilities, they will meet within 90 days after ratification to create an industry-wide biennial showcase designed specifically for performers with disabilities. The initial meeting to discuss these showcases will include labor relations executives or their designees.

The parties to this Agreement further agree to commit senior level executives who are directly responsible for hiring to attend and participate in the development and implementation of each showcase. The cost of the showcases shall be shared equally by the parties.

The showcases will include an educational component consisting of communication skills, auditioning, and other issues unique to these performers as well as discussions regarding employment opportunities.

The parties shall conduct such showcases jointly with representatives of the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists. The parties agree to recommend funding for same from the AFTRA AICF and the SAG IACF.

Should a Producer fail to have a representative present at such showcase, the Union may require a meeting with representatives of such Producer to discuss employment opportunities for performers with disabilities.

Dear David:

In accordance with the agreement reached in 2005, the parties met to formulate a letter seeking an opinion from the General Counsel of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and from those agencies responsible for administering disability discrimination laws in major production centers with regard to the legality of compiling employment data on performers with obvious physical impairments. Due to the inability to reach agreement on language for said letter, each party now reserves its right to seek independently an opinion from the aforementioned agencies, if it so chooses. Re: License of Free Television, Pay Television or Basic Cable Motion Pictures to Secondary Digital Channels

Dear David:

During the 2014 negotiations, the parties discussed the residual formula for exhibition of television motion pictures on certain secondary digital channels.

The parties agreed that instead of a fixed residual formula, Producer shall pay to the Union for rateable distribution to the performers a percentage residual formula of six percent (6%) of Distributor's gross receipts (as defined in Section 5.2 E. of the General Provisions of the Producer – SAG-AFTRA Codified Basic Agreement of 2014) for any license to a secondary digital channel of any free television, pay television or basic cable program as to which a fixed residual would otherwise be payable that (i) has been out of production for at least three years and (ii) has not been exhibited under a fixed residual formula in syndication (except in the non-lead market) or pay television for at least three years in the case of a free television or pay television program or has not been exhibited under a fixed residual formula in syndication (except in the non-lead market), pay television or basic cable for at least three years in the case of a basic cable program. However, for any free television series consisting of sixty-eight (68) or fewer episodes or any basic cable or pay television series consisting of forty (40) or fewer episodes, the series need only have been out of production for at least two years and not been exhibited under a fixed residual formula on basic cable, pay or free television (except syndication in the non-lead market) for at least one year.

When the "Distributor's gross receipts" derived from such license(s) are received from a related or affiliated entity that acts as the exhibitor of the program, then the "Distributor's gross receipts" received by the Producer from the licensing of such rights shall be measured by the exhibitor's payments to unrelated and unaffiliated entities in arms' length transactions for comparable programs or series, or, if none, then the amounts received by the Producer from unrelated and unaffiliated exhibitors in arms' length transactions for comparable programs or series, or, if none, comparable exhibitor's payments to comparable unrelated and unaffiliated entities in arms' length transactions for comparable programs or series.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the minimum payment pursuant to this provision for any program licensed to a related or affiliated entity shall be an aggregate amount for all performers of $150.00 for a 30-minute program, $300.00 for a 60-minute program, $450.00 for a 90-minute program and $600.00 for a 120-minute program.

The payment required hereunder includes pension and health contributions to the SAG Plans (hereinafter referred to as "pension and health contributions") or health and retirement contributions to the AFTRA Funds (hereinafter referred to as "health and retirement contributions"), as applicable, for motion pictures, the principal photography of which commenced before July 1, 1998; pension and health or health and retirement contributions shall be paid in addition to the payment required hereunder for motion pictures, the principal photography of which commenced on or after July 1, 1998. No IACF or AICF contributions shall be due in connection with such payments.

The "pro rata" share payable to each performer shall be calculated using the 3-2-1 formula provided in Section 18.2 of the Television Agreement for a free television or a basic cable series, or using the time and salary units formula provided in Section 20 or 20.1 of the Television Agreement for all other free television or basic cable programs. The "pro rata" share payable to each performer on a pay television motion picture shall be calculated using the time and salary units formula provided in Section 78(e) of the Television Agreement.

David White
As of July 1, 2014

The foregoing applies to free television, pay television or basic cable motion pictures as to which a free television residual would otherwise be payable, whether produced under an agreement with SAG-AFTRA negotiated after June 30, 2014 or under any agreement with SAG, AFTRA or SAG-AFTRA negotiated prior to June 30, 2014.

Re: Incorporation of Paragraph 102 of the AFTRA Network Code

Dear David:

During the 2014 SAG-AFTRA negotiations, the parties agreed to consolidate the 2011 SAG Television Agreement, Exhibit A to the 2011 AFTRA Network Code, the 2011 SAG Basic Cable (Live Action) Agreement and The CW Supplement to the 2011 AFTRA Network Code into a single 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement. The parties further agreed that contributions made in connection with employment under the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement should be allocated between the SAG Pension and Health Plans, on the one hand, and the AFTRA Health and Retirement Funds, on the other hand. As a result, Producers may have an obligation under Section 22(a) of the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement to make contributions to the AFTRA Health and Retirement Funds. Accordingly, the parties agree to incorporate in the 2014 SAG-AFTRA Television Agreement the following provisions of Paragraph 102 of the AFTRA Network Code regarding administration of the AFTRA Health and Retirement Funds:

Section 2.

The AFTRA Health and Retirement Funds shall be Trust Funds and shall be administered under the AFTRA Health and Retirement Funds Agreement and Declaration of Trust, dated November 16, 1954, as amended to date (the "Trust Agreement"), which Trust Agreement is hereby ratified and confirmed, and is made a part of this Code with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein. The said Trust Agreement shall provide, among other things:

- A. That the AFTRA Health and Retirement Funds be administered by ten (10) Producer Trustees designated by the Producers and ten (10) AFTRA Trustees designated by AFTRA.

- B. That AFTRA may, at any time in its discretion on written notice to all the Trustees then in office, appoint a successor or successors for any one (1) or more of the AFTRA Trustees. The written notice shall contain the names of the new Trustees and the names of the Trustees whom they replace. Successors for Producer Trustees may be appointed as provided in the Trust Agreement.
- C. That the Trustees shall determine the form, nature, and amount of retirement and health benefits and the rules of eligibility for such benefits, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement. The health benefits shall include in the discretion of the Trustees any one or more of the following benefits (but none other): death, accidental death, dismemberment, hospitalization, surgical expense, medical expense, temporary disability, dental, wellness, prescription drug, loss of voice.
